

Q.-- Have you heard any complaint among the traveling public in general because you did not have a licensed hotel for their accommodation? A.-- Yes, sir.

Q.-- How frequent are you required to accommodate the traveling public? A.-- I am called upon pretty nearly every day.

Q.-- Do you have regular boarders? A.-- Yes, sir.

Q.-- Are there any other families in the town of Dunlo accommodating boarders and the traveling public? A.-- Yes, sir.

Q.-- How many? A.-- Three that I know of; James Crouse, Alexander Hammers, and Robert Heist.

How many people can you accommodate in your house at any one time? A.-- We have had 20 regular boarders; of course it will crowd us.

Q.-- You have had applications to entertain more than that number? A.-- Yes; If I had had a house large enough I could have had 30 sometimes; this does not include traveling men; simply regular boarders.

Q.-- Do you know whether or not the citizens of this town are in the habit of purchasing their beer outside of the town? A.-- Yes, sir; they get their beer outside of the town.

Q.-- How do they get it? A.-- In kegs.

Q.-- Do you know what amount is shipped here? A.-- There is, I guess, over 100 kegs shipped here every week.

Q.-- How is that beer delivered? A.-- It is delivered by a kind of agent over the town.

Q.-- To the citizens of the town? A.-- Yes, sir.

Q.-- Have you heard any complaint among the traveling public in general because you did not have a licensed hotel for their accommodation? A.-- Yes, sir.

Q.-- How frequent are you required to accommodate the traveling public? A.-- I am called upon pretty nearly every day.

Q.-- Do you have regular boarders? A.-- Yes, sir.

Q.-- Are there any other families in the town of Danio accommodating boarders and the traveling public? A.-- Yes, sir.

Q.-- How many? A.-- Three that I know of; James Grosse,

Alexander Hamner, and Robert Heiser.

How many people can you accommodate in your house at any one time? A.-- We have had 20 regular boarders, of course it will grow up.

Q.-- You have had applications to accommodate more than that number? A.-- Yes; if I had had a house large enough

I could have had 30 sometimes; this does not include traveling men, simply regular boarders.

Q.-- Do you know whether or not the citizens of this town are in the habit of purchasing their beer outside of the town? A.-- Yes, sir; they get their beer outside of the town.

Q.-- How do they get it? A.-- In kegs.

Q.-- Do you know what amount is shipped here? A.--

There is, I guess, over 100 kegs shipped here every week.

Q.-- How is that beer delivered? A.-- It is delivered by a kind of agent over the town.

Q.-- To the citizens of the town? A.-- Yes, sir.