-----oOo-----

Peter Gillman, called on part of Petitioner, sworn.

DIRECT EXAMINATION by Mr. Davis:

Q.-- Where do you live? A.-- I live at Salix.

Q.-- What is your business? A.-- Blacksmithing.

Q.-- Where is your place of business? A.-- Here at Lovett.

Q.-- Do you believe a licensed hotel to be a necessity here at Lovett? A.-- Yes, sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION by Mr. Leech:

Q.-- How far is Salix from Lovett? A.-- It is about two miles and one-half.

Q.-- By the road? A.-- Yes, sir.

Q.-- Why do you think a licensed hotel is necessary at Lovett? A.-- It is to be a place to stop for comers; for these raveling public; now, right here not long ago a party stopped down here at my shop; he claimed he couldn't get a place to feed his horse; he went into the woods below Lovett and fed his horse outside; there has often been inquiries made of me for a place to stop at Lovett.

Q.-- How often has that inquiry been made of you? A.--
That I can't tell you; when I had been at Salix in that shop
