The 1995 Sunrise Staff takes great pride in dedicating this year's Sunrise to a truly outstanding and dedicated teacher, friend and person.

This teacher was inspired to teach by a high school teacher at St. Mark's High School who he described as being "a great, caring and honest teacher."

Following his graduation from high school, he attended Gannon University where he earned both his bachelor's and master's degree.

In October 1968, he joined the East High faculty as a Social Studies teacher.

At East he has coached football, boy's JV basketball, track and girl's varsity basketball. He served as the girl's coach for 12 years before retiring a few years ago.

Currently he teaches Economics, Government and A.S. American History.

When not spending time with his wife, Frances, and his four children, Mary, Mark, Steve and Angela, he enjoys playing racquetball and golf, collecting cards and reading.

Looking back at his years at East, he had the following comment: "The best thing about teaching is watching young people accept the challenge of getting the best possible education and succeeding. Through my classroom have passed the greatest young people in the world."

His most memorable teaching and coaching experience was "watching my former players grow during high school into becoming 'good people.'"

The yearbook staff along with the senior class dedicates their Sunrise to a super teacher, Mr. Thomas Matusiak.

The 1994 East High Warrior softball team made serious steps toward gaining respectability. The Warriors won five games including three against District-Ten playoff entrants (Villa Maria twice, and McDowell).

Two Warriors were accorded 1st Team All-Metro honors. Junior Erin Dorning (.306) was named as catcher and Sophomore Jody Defoy (.313) was named for 3rd base. Senior Melanie Malinski (.350) was named 2nd Team All-Metro short-stop. Senior Sydne Dorning (.304) along with Malinski were participants in the City-County All-Star Game.

A host of veterans return for the 1995 season. Besides Erin Dorning and Jody Defoy, other veterans returning are Seniors Michelle Lehman, Tammy Lamary, and Kathy Majersky, Junior Jennifer Makarowski, and Sophomores Andrea Michalski, Bobbie McGarvie, Tricia Hurta, and Loretta Senyo.

The Warriors expect to further their progress in 1995. Making the District Ten Playoffs, winning the Metro League and the District Ten Championships are all reachable goals.

Do all Freshman have such big mouths?

Need I say more?!

I should be on the cover of Vogue?

This bathroom stinks!

Class of 1998

I never knew life could be so exciting.

Doesn't he just shine with enthusiasm?!

Give it up Joe, you can't play anyway

Unsure!!!

Pucker up baby 'cause here I come!!

Homecoming 94-95

First row Zenobia Jells, Stacia Tate, Koby Clayton, Second row; Tammy Lamary, Megan Dehaven

Queen Koby Clayton escorted by John Gore, being crowned by Ms. Popadak.

The 1994-95 E.H.S. Homecoming game was held on October 22, 1994 at Veterans Memorial Stadium. Koby Clayton was crowned Queen.

Despite our loss to Strong Vincent our football team played a great game. A game that any coach would be proud of.

The dance was held on October 21 at the Union Station. The Queen and her court were treated to dinner at Ricardos.

The Editors apologize for the lack of representation of the 94-95 Homecoming Court.

The first string photographer Tom Hartless was on the injured reserve list (band priority). So second stringer Kathie Stablein got "PT" (photography time). Needless to say, she struck out and was cut from the team. Kathie's thoughts "It wasn't my fault, the camera broke, besides that was a bad call. I was robbed!"

Tom's thoughts "It is true that I didn't take the pictures because of band priorities. What I don't understand is — first She should understand band commitments Seeing how she has a very close friendship with a band member who shall remain nameless (Steve Walker).

— Second, if Mercyhurst hadn't dropped their football team, we could have kept our original Homecoming game. The band wouldn't have played and I could of taken pictures. — Third, come on Kathie, their Homecoming pictures. You wait for someone to put a crown on the Queen's head and you take a picture. How hard is that? Besides you are engaged to Dan you should know what commitment is!"

Homecoming Court

Queen Koby Clayton escorted by John Gore. Megan Dehaven escorted by Jason Williams. Zenobia Jells escorted by Jason Stucke. Tammy Lamary escorted by Mitchell Russell.
