

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Cambria, at a Court holden in and for said County, the twenty first day of September A. D. 1906.

The petition of Zygmunt Klasewicz, a native of Russia
now residing in South Fork, in the County of Cambria and State of Pennsylvania, respectfully showeth:

That your petitioner arrived in the United States of America, to-wit: At the port of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, on or about the 14th day of November A. D. 1898, being then under the age of eighteen years, to-wit, of the age of seven years, and is now above the age of twenty-one years; that he has resided within the limits and jurisdiction of the United States for five years last past, and for one year last past within the State of Pennsylvania, and that during more than two years last past, it has been his intention to become a citizen of the United States; that he has never borne any hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility in Russia from whence he came; that he does not disbelieve in nor is he opposed to all organized government; that he is not a member of, or affiliated with, any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief or opposition; that he does not advocate or teach the duty, necessity or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any specific individual or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character; and that he has not violated any of the provisions of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate the Immigration of Aliens into the United States," approved March 3, 1903. He therefore prays your Honor to admit him to become a citizen of the United States of America, agreeably to the Act of Congress in such case made and provided.

Witness: Zygmunt Klasewicz
Wm Shmelovics }

I, Zygmunt Klasewicz, the petitioner above named, do in my solemn oath declare that the contents of my petition are true; that for upwards of two years next preceding it has been my bona fide intention to become a citizen of the United States; that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and that I do absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, state and sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the Czar of Russia of whom I was a subject.
