

Seminary Students Present "The Admirable Crichton"

EFFECTIVE scenery treatment and good characterizations marked the presentation of Sir James M. Barrie's comedy, "The Admirable Crichton," by the graduating classes of Williamsport Dickinson Seminary and Junior College, Tuesday evening. Leads in the play were taken by Jack Hirsh and Katherine Monks, of this city. Others in the cast were Catherine Burrell, Carl Gamba, James Krause, Claire Shape, Bernadine Zeigler, Gerald Pratt, Everett Hearn, Leona Fisher, Richard Welliver, Jacob Holt, Harry Reynolds, Shirley Edwards, Isabel Norcross, Helen Miller, John Burger, and Jean Slack. Miss Katherine E. Shank, director of dramatics at the school, coached the play. A photograph of the players is shown above.

Folk Dances Being Rehearsed For Dickinson May Day Program

May 8, 37

"Rehearsals galore" is the rule of Dickinson Junior College these days as preparations for the annual May Day to be held on Saturday, May 15, take shape. Besides the traditional ceremony of crowning the May Queen, Miss Virginia Weller, of Montgomery, there will be dances and specialty numbers in a pageant in which all the girls will take part.

Four girls, Miss Frances Nicholson, of this city; Miss Mary Snyder, of Ashland; Miss Nellie Gorgas, of Jersey Shore; and Miss Jane McIntyre, are rehearsing an Irish folk dance. A Swedish dance will be given by Miss Margaret Smith, of Harrisburg; Miss Armine Crosby, of Dryden, N. Y.; Miss Lorraine Crawford, of Oseola; and Miss Mary Crist, of Canton.

A troupe of 24 girls will do several dances dressed in the costumes of old world lads and lassies. They are Margaret Campman, Wellsboro; Grace Hutchison, Downingtown; Vera Schofield, Muncy; Henrietta Seaton, Chambersburg; Louisa Atherton, Jersey Shore; Mary Jane Neumann, Patchogue,

N. Y.; Lois Davis, Dushore; Faylene Hottenstein, Milton; Lorraine Webb, New Rochelle, L. I.; Isabel Gilbert, Montoursville; Helen Foehl, Buffalo; Barbara Anne Klepper, Florence Walters and Betty Kime, Montoursville; Grace Gilner, Sterling; and Betty Bleumle, Jane Miller, Charlotte Tepel, Marian Rice, Alice Villinger, Laura Swartz, Elizabeth Fulmer, and Vera Winter, this city.

The dances will be under the direction of Miss Eleanor Delo.

Miss Janet Harmon, of Baltimore, Md., will be the town crier. The court jester will be played by Miss Joanna Fleming, of Charleston, W. Va. Miss Irene Binder, of Renovo, and Miss Lulu Aderhold, of Hughesville, will accompany the dances on the piano.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by the college orchestra, aided by the Girl's Trio; Miss Carol Shaffer, of this city; Miss Doris Miller, of Danville, and Miss Virginia Ormsby, of Bronxville, N. Y. Miss Olga Larson, of this city, soprano, will be the soloist. Musical arrangements are under the direction of Miss Florence Dewey of the music department.
