

Pick May Queen, Attendants At Dickinson Junior College

Miss Anna Marie Bouslough to Reign Over Celebration Sat- urday Afternoon

The annual May Day program, featured by the crowning of a May queen, will be held at Dickinson Junior College Saturday at 3 p. m. The program will be staged on the athletic field if the weather is favorable; in the gymnasium if not.

Following the May pageant, a tea will be held on the terrace. The public has been invited to attend both the program and the tea.

Reigns as Queen

Reigning as queen of the celebration will be Miss Anna Marie Bouslough, of Hollidaysburg. She will be attended by Miss Joan Evenden, of 107 Parkwood Street, this city, as maid of honor, and Miss Patty Ann Burchfield, of Montgomery, as crown bearer.

Members of the May queen's court are the Misses Mary Lou

King, of Harrisburg; Miriam Crist and Norma Lee Haney, of Jersey Shore; Ruth Myers and Patricia Bubb, of Hughesville; Carol Lonsdale, of Millville; Elsie Smith, of Martinsville, N. J., and Mary Jo Ault, Phyllis Gladewitz, Roma Gunder, Pauline Smyrnotis, Frances Fink, Barbara Gordon, Alberta Schmoyer, Katherine Ameigh, and Martha Brown, all of Williamsport.

RAIN FORCES NEW SETTING

May Day, thrust into the gymnasium by a perverse shower, was observed yesterday with traditional beauty and grace at Dickinson Junior College, where Miss Rennie Marie Bouslough, of Hollidaysburg, was crowned queen to behold a beautiful program of dancing and music.

Attending Miss Bouslough as maid of honor was Miss Joan Evenden, of this city. Patricia Ann Burchfield was crown bearer.

A procession of lovely co-eds preceded the coronation ceremony. The Alma Mater was sung before Herald Bette Lou Robinson announced the first number by the septet. A waltz followed, and the traditional Maypole winding and dance concluded the program before the final recessional.

Miss Dewey In Charge

Miss Florence Dewey, a member of the faculty, was in charge of the May Day program. After the program a tea was held in Bradley Hall for all students and guests.

Included in the May queen's court were Miriam Crist, Mary Lou King, Ruth Myers, Mary Jo Ault, Phyllis Gladewitz, Roma Gunder, Pauline Smyrnotis, Elsie Smith, Norma Lee Haney, Carol Lonsdale, Patricia Bubb, Frances Fink, Barbara Gordon, Alberta Schmoyer, Katherine Ameigh, and Martha Brown.

Members of the singing septet were Elizabeth Ace, Joan Lowry, Norma Lee Haney, Janet Malloreay, Janice Sachs, Elizabeth Davis, and Patricia Walker.
