

ALUMNI

OF

Keystone Academy.

June, 1910.

To the Alumni:

These addresses have been secured with very great effort and at considerable expense. Some we were unable to locate at all. It will greatly lessen our task in the future if you will keep us informed of your whereabouts. It will also be appreciated if you will send us information about any whose addresses are lacking. We want you and all of our alumni to receive the Keystone Catalogue regularly, but, for this, we must know where you are.

The next list will be issued in 1915.

SCHOLASTIC COOPS

OUTDOOR TRACK CONFERENCE ORGANIZED
With the resumption of the P. I. A. A. District No. 2 indoor championships reverting to the schools, the formation of an outdoor scholastic track conference has been consummated.

This is an important step in track for Lackawanna county, as the locals have been subjected to a lowly position by the schools of Luzerne olic club show. In which case the P. I. A. A. will seek another runner of national fame. At this writing the attraction has not yet been decided upon, but you can feel certain he'll have "it."

Pocket Hits and SIDE SPLITS

By JOHN J. PETRAS

Back in their home sections, wherever they might be, 120 participants in the national sokol bowling championship here cannot help but think kindly of Scranton and its hospitality, and friendliness. In fact every one I had the pleasure of personally bidding adieu hoped the city would again be honored with the tournament at the earliest possible opportunity.

Which illustrates what sports, properly handled, can mean to a city—the finest of advertising. What's more we need more of 'em and would undoubtedly have secured the Pennsylvania state all-events tournament, which went to Easton, had there been the proper co-operation.

Yet what else were we to expect from a community whose A. B. C. chapter had not held a meeting this year and failed to submit even the faintest kind of a recommendation for Scranton?

Luckily all this may be corrected in the immediate future for a group of spirited citizens are planning to take the bull by the horns and forever remove him as a menace. Because events of this type bring dolers into our midst and local business people cannot afford the loss. Especially when indifference and selfishness are to blame.

Contrast this with the Sokol presentation, the grandest possible, and you can understand our attitude. Everybody proud of everyone else, harmony the keynote and sportsmanship the absolute code. Which is why Hazleton, winner of the U. S. A. five-man title, and earner of three berths on the squad selected to participate in the A. B. C. classic at Chicago, has every reason to be proud. Ditto Scranton, second place winner, but disqualified as is the host city each year.

Don't think the Sokols didn't put on a nifty show. With much credit due the Scranton Recreation officials, and a vote of thanks owed Superintendent of Police Gil Perry, who not only opened the contest but proved his added responsibilities have not affected his bowling by pitching a perfect strike. Leading me to explain that there are not
