Isaac Keiffer and wife spent Saturday and Sunday at Annville visiting friends.

The school board met on Monday evening and transacted routine business.

Supervisor Allen again put the Hanover road in a first-class condition with the road drag. This road is becoming to be one of the finest mud roads in the county, and all is due to the use of the King Drag. It is strange that other supervisors cannot catch the idea of making their dirt roads in the same manner. It is positively the only method of making a substantial mud road.

Plenty of hail fell here on Saturday during the storm that visited this place.

The school board will meet in session on Saturday evening, July 2nd to employ teachers. All who wish to be applicants should have their application with the secretary by that time. Jno. H. Allwine is secretary.

Jno. M. Baker sold his young bay mare to Barbara Palmer last week.

Harry S. Plank and family were the guests of Samuel M. Gingrich's this week.

Elias Kauffman, who was hurt at Hershey sometime ago, is still at the Harrisburg hospital and is slowly improving.

The Rural Letter Carriers' Association of Dauphin county will meet in session on Saturday evening at Halifax, Pa. All carriers who can arrange to attend should do so. Not a carrier in the county should stand outside of the association. In organization there is strength.

The German Baptist Sunday school of Hanoverdale will hold their Children's Day service on Sunday afternoon, June 26. All are invited to attend this service. Speakers from a distance will be present.

The farmers have begun to make hay. The crop through the Hanovers will be a good one this year.

Israel Eisenhour, our tinner, and his grandson, Morris, are kept busy at present putting up spouting and roofs.

Rev. A. M. Kuhns and Abram Fackler are putting up neat lawn fences around their new homes.

Carpenter Jones is doing some carpenter work on the Shenk farm, south of town.
