

LOCAL NEWS

P. S. Wilson is spending a week's vacation in Hagerstown, Md.

Paul R. Gingrich spent Saturday and Sunday in Philadelphia, the guest of Landis Eby.

J. B. Sneath spent Sunday at the home of his parents in Duncannon.

Howard Shope spent Sunday with friends in Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldus Wirth spent Saturday in Harrisburg the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fox.

Adam Whisler spent Friday in Philadelphia, where he attended the Athletic vs. Washington game of ball.

John Kogel made a business trip to Harrisburg, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garman and son Landis, of Industrial avenue, spent Sunday in Hecktown and Harrisburg.

Abraham Kreiger spent Sunday with the families of George Shearer and Charles Carms, of Boyd.

Wardon Shultz is at his home in Lancaster, with a severe attack of boils.

John Keener spent Sunday with friends at Wildcat.

FOR SALE—Best quality 24-inch Chestnut Shingles. Address, Hummelstown Brown-Stone Co., Waltonville, Pa.

Simon L. Gingrich and wife, of Milton Grove, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Mrs. E. C. Kapp, of New Kingston, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. P. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Glynn made a trip to Philadelphia, Saturday and Sunday, in their automobile.

FOR SALE—Cherokee Bakery, will sell the whole business at very low figures, if taken at once. Location, Derry Church, and Hershey, Pa. Two Portable ovens, 1 new wagon, 1 good horse, various other articles not mentioned. Address, J. B. Driver, Box 61, Derry Church, Pa.

Mrs. Fred Klinger and son Donald spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Lykens.

Landis Hummel spent Saturday and Sunday in Reading, the guest of Richard Egolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Keffer spent Sunday visiting in Washington Park and Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowman, of Lebanon, and son Hoffer, of Hershey, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moyer and family, Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Minich, of North Carolina, is the guest of her father-in-law, William Minich.

Elam Herr purchased three horses at the sale of D. B. Keiffer, Middletown, on Friday.

Miss Blanche DeBolt spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Lancaster.

Mrs. H. L. Carl and daughter Catharine, and Mrs. Connor, of Harrisburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Clark and family, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hummel are spending the week in Atlantic City.

Messrs. Earl Mondy and Arthur McCafferty spent Sunday with friends in Anville.

Russell Houser spent Sunday at his home in Middletown.

A. C. Zimmerman, of Lebanon, called on his father, Levi Zimmerman, Sunday.

John Sides and family spent Sunday at Ganisburgh, the guest of his parents.

Messrs. Benjamin H. Dalsen and Harry Yingst spent Saturday in Red Lion.

FOR RENT—Large front 2nd floor room, well furnished, all conveniences, in private family. Inquire at Hershey Press office.

Mr. and Mrs. John Snavely spent Sunday with the former's parents in Lancaster.

Jacob Page purchased a driving horse of Michael Shenk, last week.

Mrs. Charles Palmer and daughter have returned from Harrisburg after a two week's visit with relatives.

Jesse McSherry is spending some time at his home in Lancaster.

J. M. Rasp moved into his new house on Caracas avenue, Friday.

Messrs. Hess Bigley, and Ulrich Weltmer spent Saturday evening in Harrisburg.

Rev. I. Moyer Hershey preached at Mount Pisgah U. B. Church Philadelphia, Sunday night. He will preach at Pottstown, Wednesday evening, and at Mont Clare, Thursday.

Mrs. W. R. F. Murrie and children left Tuesday on an extended visit to Cumberland, Md.

WANTED—Boarders and roomers at Bair's, Caracas avenue. Also plain sewing.

A. K. Kauffman, chairman of the advertising committee of manheim's Old Home Week, together with his committee visited Hershey Wednesday morning. A. M. Weidman's auto was used as the pilot car, and was profusely decorated with announcements of the Old Home Week from June 30 to July 5, inclusive.

The Hershey Choral Society had a very good rehearsal on Tuesday evening in preparation for the special song service to be rendered on Sunday afternoon.

Misses E. Marie Hockley, of 610 Harris street, Ruth Lightner, of 619 Peffer street, and Miss Hall, of Harrisburg, visited friends in Hershey on Friday.

Miss Mary Hershey is spending several weeks at Myerstown, the guest of I. B. Haak and family.

Rev. I. Moyer Hershey transacted business at Philadelphia several days this week.

Rev. D. M. Oyer, pastor of the Boiling Springs United Brethren Church, wife and family, visited friends in Hershey, Tuesday.

Mrs. L. P. Williams spent Tuesday in Harrisburg, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Simmons.

The picnic of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church and Bible School will be held on Saturday afternoon, July 20th.

Mrs. Katharine Kaufhold and Mrs. Conrad Bittner were the guests of George Eppley and family, the latter part of last week.

To Our Customers

Through the courtesy of one of the Harrisburg laundries we are enabled to have our work done, while it may not be delivered as promptly as heretofore, if our customers will only bear with us, we expect to have our machinery in running order this week, when we will again turn out the same first-class work and make deliveries promptly.

A representative of ours will call on those of our customers who lost articles by fire and reimburse them for same.

Hershey Laundry Co.

Bell Phone

WANTED—30 extra waiters at Hershey Park on July 4th. Apply at Park.

Miss Helen E. Brightbill, of Anville, was the guest of Miss Margaret Leithiser, on Tuesday.

Mr. Longenecker, of the Palmyra "Citizen," paid the "Press" a visit on Thursday.

Mr. Eshleman, of the Palmyra "Record," paid the "Press" a visit on Thursday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William H. Zimmerman, a boy, on Tuesday morning.

LOST—Lady's locket, with initials K. M. S., with girls photos inside. Kindly return to Press office.

Saturday morning at 3 o'clock, one of the large cylinder heads of the ice machine, in the factory, blew out and caused a shut down for a few hours.

Prof. H. E. Downes, City Superintendent of the Harrisburg public schools, spent Friday in Hershey.

Thomas Mitchell who has been employed in the factory for several months, left on Monday for his home in Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Mitchell will represent the Christian Endeavor Society of Derry Presbyterian Church as the official delegate to the state convention to be held in Wilkes-Barre on July 7-9. Mr. Mitchell's many friends here regret his departure from Hershey.

Mr. Earhart, of the Crocker Wheeler Co., Amper, N. J., was a visitor in Hershey, Saturday.

J. R. Kreider spent Saturday and Sunday in Lancaster.

James Curr, who has been working on the new construction work at the factory for the past two years, returned to his home in Lancaster last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hills spent Saturday in Harrisburg.

Rev. S. W. Keister, D. D., of Dayton, Ohio, Educational Secretary of the Home Missionary Board of the United Brethren Church, will deliver a lecture, illustrated with stereoptican slides, in the United Brethren Church, Hershey, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Herman Early and F. B. Saylor spent Sunday in Elizabethtown, the guests of Miss Fannie Risser.

Charles Kremer spent Saturday evening with friends in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buhon, of Hooversville, Somerset county, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. E. A. Sharp, of this place.

Andrew Sherick left Wednesday morning for Lancaster where he will attend the wedding of his daughter, Miss Margaret Sherick, to W. A. Leed, of Lancaster.

Miss Fannie Wenger, of Paradise, is spending the week with her brother, Morris Wenger and family.

The public library acknowledges the receipt of two books, "The Ministry of Intercession" by Andrew Murray and "Genesis In the Light of the New Testament" by F. W. Grant.

Mrs. Edward Prodochl, of Lebanon, visited Mrs. George Eppley last week.

Mrs. Edward Osman and Miss Sara Stuart, of Harrisburg; Miss Phoebe Shoemaker, of Chambersburg; and Miss Bretz, of Shippensburg, visited Mrs. Mary Baxter of the Hershey Inn, last week.

Miss Violet Freed, matron at Lebanon Valley College, is spending the summer vacation with her parents at Derry Church.

Mrs. B. F. Engle and four daughters, of near Hummelstown, were visitors in Hershey on Sunday afternoon.

Henry L. Wilder and wife, of Steelton, were Hershey visitors, Saturday.