

LOCAL NEWS

A NUMBER of our town people attended the musical given by the choir of the First United Brethren Church of Palmyra on Saturday evening.

Herman Early spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Pottstown.

Leon Mumper made a business trip to Lebanon on Saturday morning.

Director Kogel spent New Year at the home of his parents in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Clark were in Lebanon Friday night in attendance at the banquet of Post E. Travelers Protective Association at Hotel Weimer.

Russell Hershey, a student of State College, is spending his vacation with his father, Daniel Hershey.

Robert C. Arlington spent Sunday and Monday with friends in Hagerstown, Maryland.

Morris Hinkle has returned from York where he spent the holidays with friends.

Edward Gross spent Saturday and Sunday in Bismark.

Following are the people registered at the Inn during the past week: J. H. McBride, of Columbus, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Quinn, of Norfolk, Va.; S. L. Quinker, of Dallas, Texas; L. C. Cooper, of Indianapolis, Indiana; H. F. Kalbach and William D. Sheppard, of Richland, Va.

Sam Bird and James Thorpe, the two All-American foot ball stars, of the Carlisle Indian School, were the guests of William Newashe last week.

Robert Patrick is employed by the Hershey Improvement Company, with the Derry Township steam road roller, to improve the different streets of Hershey.

Charles King spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in Steelton.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmert Maugans and daughter Eulie spent Saturday evening with friends in Palmyra.

Send us the local happenings.

Owing to the fact that the Carrol Club of Lykens cancelled the basket ball game with Hershey there was no game last week.

Secretary Eugene Pocock has organized a young men's Bible class, which will be held every Sunday morning in the reading room at the Y. M. C. A. All are cordially invited to attend.

Martin Metzler spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Metzler, at Roy-alton.

James Tarbell of the Carlisle Indian School, visited friends in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Walmer and daughter Clara, of Hummelstown, spent Tuesday with friends in Hershey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hildebrand returned from York on Monday, where they spent the holidays.

FOR SALE—Two-story house, containing 8 rooms; fruit and water; located in west end of Palmyra next to school-house. Apply, Mrs. John M. Rasp.

William Peters spent Monday at his home in Campbelltown.

Paul S. Moyer has returned to his studies at Dartmouth College, after spending a two weeks vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Moyer.

Mr. Cyrus Herr, of Annville, spent Friday and Saturday with his brother, Elam Herr.

Rev. O. G. Romig made a business trip to Lebanon Thursday.

Miss Irene Carpenter spent the past week at her home in Rexmont.

Daniel Elliott spent Sunday and Monday in Lebanon with his son, David Elliott.

Jacob Page killed the last of his eight hogs last Wednesday. The eight hogs averaged 400 pounds.

Michael Gross and Miss Emma Gross, and Mrs. Sarah Shirk, all of Lebanon, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mays.

Mrs. Adam Boyer, of Swatara, and Mrs. Sally Spera, of Annville, spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. David Baker and family.

Mrs. Laura Boyer and Miss Mary Elliott spent Friday afternoon in Hummelstown.

George White has returned to Hershey after spending the holidays with relatives in Reading.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Snavely, of Palmyra, spent Sunday with their son, Albert Snavely, and family.

John Mautzbaugh has resigned his position as bartender at the Haefner House.

John Stoult has returned to State College after spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Stoult.

Dr. J. A. Lyter, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Garman and Mrs. Stella Landis spent Monday with friends in Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Williams and daughter Catherine spent Monday at the former's home in New Kingston.

Clarence Habacker has returned from Lebanon where he spent a week with his mother, Mrs. Annie Habacker.

John Mutzbach spent Sunday with friends in Duncannon.

Aaron Monter and family spent the holidays with his parents at New Providence, Lancaster county.

The Misses Katherine and Florence Westbrook, of Harrisburg, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Runkle, on Tuesday and Wednesday.

William Curtis spent Monday in Harrisburg.

A Savory Chicken Dinner

every Sunday from 12 to 2

35c and 40c

CAFE ROTH

Cor. Main and Railroad Streets, Palmyra

John Keener spent Saturday evening with friends in Palmyra.

A Harmony Talking Machine given away free with every $30 worth of checks at the Hershey Store.

The weather up to the present time has been excellent for the extensive building going on in our town.

The moulders who are employed at the factory went to work Tuesday after a two weeks' vacation.

Llyn Hawbecker, employed in the office of the factory, is confined in his home in Harrisburg with the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Chabitnoy spent the past week with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zellers, of Lebanon.

Howard Strite, of Harrisburg, spent Wednesday afternoon in town.

Miss Eva Foltz, of Palmyra, visited friends in town last evening.

Miss Lottie Conrad spent Wednesday with friends in Harrisburg.

The Hershey basket ball team has been practicing hard for their coming game with the strong York Y. M. C. A.

Harry Gordon, of the PRESS, is taking a four-weeks' course of instruction on the Mergenthaler typesetting machine, in New York City.

Harry Harner, a compositor at the PRESS office, has returned to his work, after an illness of six weeks.

Misses Agnes and Phyllis Bittner, of Columbia, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Eppley over New Year.

Amos J. Fordney, son of Charles Fordney, formerly of Hershey, and Miss Mary M. Matterness, of Annville, were married at Annville on Christmas morning.

Seven cars on the Hummelstown and Campbelltown Street Railway have been repainted and present a very neat appearance.

The plasterers who have been working on the new garage have about completed their work.

Mrs. E. C. Black has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Joseph R. Snavely, manager of the HERSHEY PRESS, spent Monday in Reading, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Runkel.

William Brinker made a business trip to Harrisburg on Tuesday.

Communion Services

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in Derry Presbyterian Church on Sabbath evening, January 7, at 7.30.

Preparatory service on Friday evening at 7.30. Subject of sermon, "Why Should I Partake of the Lord's Supper?"

Revival Services

Revival meetings will begin in the United Brethren Church, Hershey, next Sunday evening, to continue indefinitely. Beginning Wednesday the pastor will conduct prayer meeting each evening during this week, in preparation for the regular revival meetings which will begin Sunday evening.

Girls Wear White Caps

BEGINNING with the new year the girls in the wrapping room in the factory are all wearing white caps. The appearance of the caps has added much to the appearance and neatness of the room.

The new large lunch room has also been opened. There the girls have more room and better quarters than they had in the old room.

The Hershey
Department
Store's Big
Clearance Sale
Starts
January 18