VARIED REQUIREMENTS

Would-Be Benedict's Amusing Letter

A young man's desires in the way of matrimonial bliss formed the subject of considerable amusement at a meeting of the Wexford Board of Guardians. The Clerk read a letter, said to have been sent by "William Goulding, Main Street, Swords, Co. Dublin." The writer gave the minutest information as to his requirements, and stated his position in quite a native fashion.

"Being desirous of exchanging the disadvantages of single blessedness for the joys of matrimonial bliss," so the letter ran, "but being by nature of an unassuming and unostentatious disposition, I am thereby debarred from obtaining a partner through the usual channel of courtship (laughter). I therefore take the liberty of writing to you, ladies and gentlemen, in the hope that you may have under your parental care in the union a young woman who would be desirous of exchanging the degrading influence of a public institution to take up her proper position in the domestic sphere (laughter). I may say that I am an agricultural labourer of sound mind. Tall and stout. I am 27 years of age, have brown eyes, black hair, and tan boots. I shave twice a week and wear a collar on Sundays. I would like a young girl of about my own age or a little older, as I

Don't Want a Giddy Young Thing
"Though not requiring a partner of exceptional beauty, I would like one whose features would at least not be an eyesore to the neighbours, and would prefer one of quiet but not morose disposition. I do not require a wife of musical or literary tastes, but one interested in nature could indulge her hobby to our mutual advantage, especially during turnip thinning and potato-picking seasons. She would have to understand one pig, a cat, 19 hens, 8 ducks, a canary and whitewashing. I would also prefer a girl good at both sewing and darning, and who would, if necessary to keep the wolf from the door, take in washing and also take in the Sunday clothes to dear uncle. As I have only one razor, I would prefer a wife without corns, and who would use empty flour bags to the best advantage. As my wages are not excessive, I would prefer a spouse of moderate tastes as regards dress and a small appetite, and need not wear a hobble skirt, as I am usually in a hobble myself. And now, gentlemen, trusting you can put me in communication with a suitable person, and thanking you in anticipation.—Your obedient servant, Wm. Goulding. P. S.—You may wonder at my not writing to our local union, but I have always been struck with the marked superior facial beauty and more charming manners of the Wexford girls.—W. G."

Lots of men now in the public eye have the same effect as a cinder.

What's the use of worrying whether to consult an allopath, a homeopath or an osteopath, when all paths lead to the grave?

BINDNAGLES CHURCH

Bindnagles Church, June 12.

Dr. Posy, of Harrisburg and Mr. Workmen, of York, visited Prof. E. E. Snyder on Sunday.

M. S. Hershey, of Hershey, began to improve the public road in East Hanover.

The Children's Day exercises held at this place on Sunday evening were well attended.

Clayton Buck made a trip to Lebanon for a load of cement posts.

Rudolph Behm sold two pair of mules to a dealer from Ephrata.

The masons are busy at Harvey Kreider's new barn.

It is alleged that Irvin Ulrich bought Rudolph Behm's farm.

Many farmers are busy replanting their corn.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ohmacht, visited friends at Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Albert visited friends at Palmyra on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Penrose Sanders, of East Hanover, were in our midst on Monday.

Tell the average man a joke and he will say "That reminds me." Then he'll get busy and you will have to listen, and it serves you right.

HERSHEY PARK

By the Editor

There is a park in Dauphin County,
Down by a rippling stream.
Hundreds daily visit it,
It really is a dream.

The park it is a dandy,
Filled with trees galore;
Once you visit Hershey Park,
You sure will go some more.

The park is filled with pleasure.
The visitor is sure to find,
The best thing they can do,
Is to leave dull care behind.

The amusements they are numerous.
As numerous as can be;
If you don't believe it,
Come right here and see.

There is a miniature railway,
That takes you round the park;
All for a little nickel,
It really is a lark.

Than there is the dancing pavilion,
The finest in the land;
Where the merry lads and lassies,
Dance to beat the band.

There also is a swimming pool.
Filled with water deep;
Where Hershey's numerous patrons,
Bathe during during summer heat.

In the Hershey theater.
The shows they can't be beat,
And for every patron,
Certainly prove a treat.

You can have your picture taken,
You can go a swinging too;
And go and see the animals;
In Hershey's famous Zoo.

Those who read these verses.
Should the moral learn;
And take a trip to Hershey Park;
Where there is fun to burn.
