

LOCAL NEWS

OPPORTUNITY will be given the citizens of town to show their appreciation to the Y. M. C. A. baseball team for their loyalty and efficient services by purchasing a ticket for the benefit game next Saturday afternoon. The game will be an interesting one and the opposing team will be Elliott-Fisher, of Harrisburg. Game called at 3 o'clock.

Miss Katherine Nissley spent the week with friends in Lebanon.

Charles Garlin, of Duncannon, is visiting friends and relatives here for a few days.

Mrs. J. R. Reffner, daughter and son, of Altoona, are spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Allison Garman.

Herman Early visited friends in Annville on Sunday.

Thurman Silks has been quite ill for several days at his home on Caracas avenue. He is now slowly recovering.

Russell G. Eshenauer visited his parents in oberlin on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller, of Pottstown, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Mays.

Harry Hershey, postmaster at Steelton, was a guest at the home of his brother, Dr. M. L. Hershey, on Sunday.

Mrs. Walter T. Bradley, of Swatara, has gone to Philadelphia to meet her daughter, Miss Helen Bradley who has been spending the month of August in the Adirondack Mountains.

Harry D. Gault was the guest of C. S. Gee on Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Gault is returning from a summer course pursued at Silver Bay, N. Y. He has accepted a position as assistant general secretary in the Pittsburg Young Men's Christian Association.

Miss Emily Scholl, of Reading, is the guest of Mrs. Ewing Cain.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Witman, of Elizabethtown, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Clark.

Miss Madeline Frederick and Elizabeth Spharr, of Marysville, were guests of Mrs. Mary Williams on Monday.

M. S. Hershey is expected home from the West some time next week.

Mrs. Mary Keiffer and son Madison, of New York City, visited friends in Hershey last week. Mrs. Keiffer was formerly matron at the Cocoa House.

Mrs. Frank B. Kreider, of Lancaster, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Kreider at the Inn.

Miss Ruth Chrisemer, of Steelton, visited her sister Beulah Chrisemer, over Sunday.

Roy Houtz took advantage of the excursion on Sunday and went to Willow Grove.

Many inquiries have been made regarding the closing of the park photograph gallery. Mr. Stoner will remain here until October 1st.

Miss Carrie Bailey and Mrs. J. B. McKissick, of Dauphin, were the guests of Mrs. John Conrad on Sunday.

Oliver Sprecher and family, of Reading, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Leithiser at the Inn. Other recent guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, of Harrisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Allentown.

C. S. Gee will discontinue his work in Hershey on Wednesday, September 6. Mr. Gee will visit his parents in Geneva, Ohio before taking up his work at Auburn, N. Y.

Miss Ruth Garman is spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lerch in Plainfield, N. J.

William Peters, butcher at the Hershey store, had the misfortune to cut his finger severely on Monday morning. It was on his left hand, however, so he was able to continue his work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eppley and son Robert are enjoying a week's vacation in Lancaster, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

The Hershey theater performances close with the program of this week.

George D. Keller, of Schuylkill Haven, has returned to Hershey to resume his work at the factory. Mr. Keller will be welcomed in Hershey circles, especially in the athletic life of the Young Men's Christian Association where he played an active part last year.

Miss Catharine Hershey expects to leave in a few weeks for Madison, Wisconsin where she will take up a course in Journalism at the University of Wisconsin. There are nearly 5,000 students enrolled at this University.

Miss Gertrude Williams, of New Kingston, is spending the week with her brother, L. P. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. McGuire, of Philadelphia, spent Friday with Mrs. Baxter at the Inn.

The great Allentown Fair will be held on September 19, 20, 21, 22.

E. R. MacLaury, of Delhi, N. Y., has accepted a position with the Chocolate Company as milk inspector and will be in charge of the milk receiving room at the factory. Mr. MacLaury has made a study of the care and handling of milk at Cornell University and has had considerable practical experience.

Mrs. Moyer and Mrs. Rice, of Newport, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bistline.

Charles Wolfe has resigned as postmaster at Derry Church. Miss Bessie Moyer, who took the examination some time ago, was offered the position but declined to accept.

Dr. H. E. Enders, professor at Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana, is spending his vacation at the home of his father-in-law, Israel Moyer.

FINE PICTURES

Suitable for Wedding Gifts, Etc.

$1.00 Pictures,	.79	$5.00 Pictures,	$3.98
1.50 Pictures,	$1.19	7.50 Pictures,	5.50
2.00 Pictures,	1.55	10.00 Pictures,	7.75
3.00 Pictures,	2.39

The place for Kodaks, Cameras and Supplies. Phone or Mail Orders given prompt attention

HARPEL'S ART STORE

744 Cumberland Street

LEBANON, PA.

Miss Margaret Cook, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with Miss Pauline Clark.

Martha Fitterer, daughter of Harry Fitterer on Caracas avenue, was injured in the park on Saturday evening while playing on the May pole. Her forehead was cut between the eyes and stitches were necessary to close the cut. Dr. Hershey attended the child.

Harry Gingrich, of Lancaster, Wis., is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Painter.

Mrs. Harry Dunbar, of Harrisburg, spent last week with Mrs. Harriet Fox.

Miss Carrie Bailey, of Dauphin, spent Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Lottie Conrad.

Mrs. Walter Patterson went to Philadelphia on Wednesday. She will return on Friday bringing with her Miss Ruth who has been visiting in the city for two weeks.

Paul Hershey has accepted a position with the State Highway Engineering Corps and will begin work at once.

Word has been received from Victor Klahr, who has many friends in town. Mr. Klahr is working in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Brown, of New York City, are guests at the Inn. They are touring the state in their automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Leonard, of Philadelphia, are registered at the Inn. Mrs. Mary Yingst and daughter have returned after a visit to Sunbury.

The Hershey band will give a subscription concert on the evening of October 5 in the amphitheater in the park. In view of the splendid services of the band this summer there should be very loyal support of this movement.

Rev. Lawrence Keister, president of Lebanon Valley College, was a recent visitor in Hershey.

Mrs. Emma Swartz, of Tamaqua, is the guest of Mrs. Dora Rauch.

William Stoner and family, of Penbrook, spent Sunday with Mr. Michael Yingst.

Cyrus Hitz and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Risser, of Fontana, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Moyer last week.

Is it true, Curtis, that the girls in the office do not object to making love in the Grove until Long after dark but raise Cain if you turn down the Wick?

Harvey S. Brown, on the night force at the factory, no longer wears that far away look. His countenance has changed for he has taken a wife. He married a Lebanon girl last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Imboden, of Philadelphia, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Imboden, on Sunday.

Miss Sue Daniel, of Philadelphia, recently spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. George Copenhagen.

Miss Ethel V. Laird, of Lewisberry, and Miss Mary Holtzman, of Hummelstown, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stonesifer.

Mr. Obodorf is suffering from a carbuncle on his back and has been confined to his home for the past week.

David Gordon will be operated upon today at the Harrisburg hospital by a specialist. He has an abscess of the mastoid bone.

The Middletown Fair begins on September 12 and continues thru the 15th.

The last baseball game of the regular schedule will be played on our own grounds on Labor Day when Bethany A. C., of Harrisburg, will be the opposing team.

Albert A. Blaser, who has acted as physical director of the Y. M. C. A. since the departure of James F. Garvin, will complete his work next Monday. It was understood when Mr. Blaser came that he could not remain longer than the summer. He will return to the University of Wooster where he will complete his college course.

Rev. John A. McDonald, who has been spending the past four weeks in Chicago, will return next week and be here in time for the services on September 10.

FOR SALE.—Property of Mrs. Lizzie Demuth, situated on Main street, Derry Church, Pa. Apply to E. M. Hershey, Hershey Trust Company.

The wooden poles on Chocolate avenue will be removed and uniform iron poles will be used for the trolley wires and electric light wires. This will greatly improve our main street.