

LOCAL NEWS

JOSEPH WITMER and sister Minnie, of Mt. Joy, have returned home after spending a few days with Miss Martha Clark.

Charles King, employed at the Hershey Chocolate Company's office, has been sick at his home in Steelton for the past few days.

Eugene David Shenk spent Saturday in Harrisburg visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hills spent Saturday in Harrisburg.

H. W. Shultz spent Saturday and Sunday in Harrisburg.

Carpenter John Spancake has just finished repairing the kitchen at the Haefner House.

Mr. and Mrs. West who have been stopping at the Haefner House for the past few weeks, left Tuesday morning for Harrisburg.

A. M. Henry spent Sunday in Marietta. He was the guest of James Brunner.

Miss Ruth Hershey has returned home after spending a few days in Steelton visiting her uncle, Harry F. Hershey.

William Newashe, the star right tackle on the Carlisle Indian foot ball team, has returned to school after spending a few days with friends in Derry Church.

Mrs. John Stanbach is down with la grippe.

Joseph Cromas is hauling corn fodder from the Bradley quarries for Jacob Page.

Herman Early was confined to his home in Harrisburg, with a severe cold, over Saturday and Sunday.

Director John Kogel spent Sunday with his brother in Pottstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mays were Harrisburg visitors, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewing Cain and son Harold returned home Saturday after spending a week in Reading.

Jacob Page is laying a concrete walk on the east side of the Haefner House.

The front porch at the home of Mrs. Lydia Weltmer was given a fresh coat of paint last week.

George W. Henry is putting a force pump into the well at the residence of Israel Moyer.

I. T. Bashore has returned after a few days spent in Allentown, on business.

Most all of the employees at the station who has anything to do with handling of freight attended the lecture on "How to Handle and Ship Dynamite." Those who attended were Daniel Keiffer, Fred Klinger and Earl Mays.

David Gordon has been engaged every day this week moving household goods. He had movings from Middletown, Hummelstown, Lebanon and Cornwall.

Harvey Lehman spent Saturday and Sunday in Highspire, visiting friends.

William Hesser, of Harrisburg, spent Friday evening with S. D. Clark and family.

Russell Eshenaur spent Sunday at his home in Oberlin.

Miss Esther Hummel spent Sunday in Lebanon with Mrs. Lee Christian.

Miss Jennie Baker spent Sunday at her home in Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Stover, of Palmyra, spent Sunday with Miss Violet Boyer.

Landis Hummel spent Saturday and Sunday in Harrisburg visiting his cousin, Stephen Shuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stonesifer spent Saturday and Sunday in Lebanon and Myerstown. At Myerstown they visited Rev. and Mrs. Dougherty.

FOUND—A gold belt buckle, near factory. Loser can have same by calling at PRESS office.

H. S. Shultz has drawn for grand jury and is serving this week, in Lancaster.

John Long, of Harrisburg, visited his mother, Mrs. Sarah Long, on Saturday.

Edward Slessor, Andrew Meyers and Orville Hoffer attended the football game in Harrisburg, Saturday.

The James McCraw Company brought a gang of colored men to Hershey, on Friday, to work on the new concrete culvert which is being put in at the railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Israel Moyer attended the revival at the Church of the Brethren, at Palmyra, on Sunday.

Peter Kriser, of Shellsville, spent Sunday with his father-in-law, William Shauffer.

William R. F. Murrie spent the latter part of last week in New York, on business.

Leon Mumper spent Wednesday evening in Lebanon and Palmyra.

Eugene David Shenk spent Thursday night in Hummelstown.

David Matthews and family moved Tuesday to what is known as the A. H. Rider farm, west of Hanoverdale.

The household furnishing of Roy Weistling sold on Saturday at public sale and brought a good price.

Frank Bonfanti is making repairs at his store and home in Derry Church.

William Lappin, tells us he is well fixed for the winter months. Bill has just received a fine muffler from the old country.

Curley Maugans spent Monday in Harrisburg.

Mrs. J. B. Sneath and Mrs. Harry Garman attended the funeral of Christian Ishey at Harrisburg, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phalm spent Friday and Saturday at Williamsport, visiting friends.

CAFE ROTH

PALMYRA

Special For Thursday (Thanksgiving Day)

ROAST TURKEY

ROAST DUCK

ROAST CHICKEN

MINCE PIES and CELERY

We are selling Barrels of Oysters

Misses L. Elizabeth Hartman and Katharine B. Delany, of Reading, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Runkle on Sunday and Monday.

Miss Daisy E. Miller and Mrs. Annie E. Foltz, of Middletown, have returned home after spending a week with their sister, Mrs. A. W. Snavelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Horst and daughter, of Hummelstown, spent Sunday with A. W. Snavelly and family.

Mrs. A. Crusoe Leonard and Mrs. I. R. Lyon attended the Orpheum at Harrisburg, on Thursday afternoon.

Pastor and Mrs. Frederick C. Krapf and their infant daughter are visiting Mrs. Krapf's parents in Elizabeth, N. J.

Samuel Behm, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday as the guest of his mother, Mrs. S. F. Behm.

Mrs. John Landis, of Palmyra, visited Israel Moyer and family, Sunday.

Miss Mable Carpenter spent Saturday and Sunday at Bismark, visiting friends.

Miss Lottie Conrad spent Saturday afternoon in Swatara.

Miss May B. Hershey was the guest of friends in Hummelstown, Saturday afternoon.

Miss Hilda Houck called at the home of Miss May B. Hershey, Saturday evening.

Frank Roth, proprietor of Cafe Roth, Palmyra, was a visitor in Hershey on Wednesday.

The sewer at the station which has been out of order for the past few months is again in good condition.

Mrs. Mary Williams spent Tuesday in Harrisburg visiting friends.

Frank Lytle, of Lebanon, formerly employed at the factory, visited friends in town, Tuesday.

Mrs. George Dressler attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Green, at Duncannon, Tuesday.

Robert Arlington spent Sunday visiting friends in Carlisle and Mechanicsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Williams and daughter Kathryn spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sneath.

Many of the employees at the Chocolate factory, enjoyed the dinner and lunch served in the old Y. M. C. A. building on Tuesday, by the Ladies' Aid Society.

Dr. Fox, veterinary of Hummelstown, made a call in Derry Church, Monday morning.

The stone work on I. N. Hershey's new house is about completed. The building is now ready for the carpenters.

Levi Zimmerman had four of his finest chickens stolen on last Friday night.

Joe Cramer, a farmer on one of the Hershey farms, purchased a four horse power gasoline engine from George W. Henry last week.

John Keener spent Saturday and Sunday in Shippensburg visiting friends.

Harold Yaple, of Harrisburg, and Walter Pee, of New Castle, were the guests of Mr. Yaple, sister Elizabeth Yaple, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Israel Moyer had for their guests on Sunday, Mrs. A. K. Moyer and daughter Kathryn, Mr. and Mrs. John Garber, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Shelly, Miss Lizzie Landis, John Landis and two daughters, Mary and Helen, all of Palmyra, and Mrs. D. M. Stoult, of Derry Church.

Ulrich Weltmer, rural mail carrier at Derry Church on Route No. 2, is taking a week's vacation. Harry Moyer is his substitute.

The School Directors of Derry township will meet November 24 for their final settlement. The newly elected school board will take charge on December 1.

Mrs. A. Garman and daughter Ruth spent Saturday in Harrisburg.

Revs. E. A. Sharp and O. G. Romig attended the United Brethren ministers' monthly meeting at the Harrisburg Y. M. C. A. Monday morning. Seventeen ministers were present.

Sammy Lingle was one of the first in this neighborhood to butcher. He butchered two of the finest hogs in this vicinity last Monday.

Miss Esther Hummel spent Thursday evening in Harrisburg.