

Palmyra Happenings

A. R. Kreider, fell off a tree while picking cherries last week, and badly bruised his right shoulder and arm. He was unconscious for a time but is now getting along nicely.

W. H. Miller, Galen Hetrich, and their wives, and John Dissinger, made a 140 mile auto run last week.

W. H. and H. L. Seltzer and their wives made an auto run over the route to be followed by the Palmyra Auto Club on the fourth of July to Manheim. The auto party report the roads in fine condition.

The family of C. F. Zimmerman returned after an automobile trip to the National Capitol. Mr. Zimmerman is one of the faithful attaches of the Landis Shoe Company.

Adam Fasnacht has a very fine collection of pen-knife wood carvings and trinkets. He has a chain twelve feet in length which is attracting considerable attention.

Hervey L. Seltzer is shipping thirty tons of bologna a week from his bologna manufactory.

William Nowlen, chocolate maker, son of William and Kate Nowlen, of Palmyra, and Linnie Bishop, daughter of Frank and Martha Bishop, of Palmyra, have taken out a marriage license.

Miss Irene Miller, of 40 North Eight street, Lebanon, is spending several weeks visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Holsberg, of 532 Railroad street, Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brough, of Fourth and Walnut street, Lebanon, have returned from Palmyra where they visited John Holsberg and family.

James A. Wood, contract painter and paperhanger, recently finished the two properties of Doctor A. L. Hauer, at Annville, and is working on J. M. Gingrich's house, on Cherry street and the new D. S. Stauffer residence on East Main street.

The Trinity League, of the Reformed church, accompanied by the Ladies' Aid Society, of that denomination, spent Thursday afternoon at Hershey Park. The feature of the day was a game of base ball. The teams were made up of men of the Trinity League. Messrs. Con. Schneider and A. S. Stauffer were the opposing pitchers. "Andy" had his pitching arm in good working order with the result that only one solitary tally was scored from his masterful delivery. "Con." for the opposing team was not in his usual form. The result was a 6 to 1 victory for "Andy" and his team.

A. U. Black, of East Hanover, paid a visit to his mother, Mrs. John Black, on Chestnut street, Tuesday morning.

John Holsberg and family, of Lebanon, have moved to Palmyra. During the week a number of Lebanon friends were at Palmyra to assist in the fitting. Mr. Holsberg has accepted a position in the Greiner restaurant. He was for some time connected with the Hershey cafe, and formerly with the Bazaar and Central Hotel cafe, of Lebanon.

Wallace Potteiger spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Lebanon.

A Band of Gypsies were in town Monday telling our young ladies all about their love affairs.

Messrs. William Ream, Harry Longenecker, Andrew Albert and John Seltzer were Harrisburg visitors, Monday.

Misses Mary Witmer, Mable Foltz, and Myrle Turby are spending several days in Manheim.

H. H. Weltmer, of the large department store of P. M. Harmon & Company, Dayton, O., is on a visit to relatives and friends in and about Palmyra. He is a brother to former Register of Wills Ulrich Weltmer, of Palmyra.

Miss Marie Hartz, of Springfield, Ohio, who is the guest of her uncle, Postmaster Frank E. Hartz, and family, at Palmyra, accompanied Mr. Weltmer on his eastern trip.

Mrs. Michael Schaeffer, of Palmyra, is visiting friends at Fredericksburg.

H. J. Longenecker, of Philadelphia, who is connected with a large shoe store in that city, is at Palmyra, spending a two weeks' vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Longenecker.

PALMYRA HAS A BOARD OF TRADE

At the June meeting of the Palmyra Board of Trade a Constitution and By-Laws was adopted, which W. F. Yocum as chairman of the Constitution committee reported.

President J. F. Lauck, presided and will appoint a committee of five to secure new members by the last Monday night in July when the next meeting will be held and at which time the names of more of the business men will be presented for membership.

This Board of Trade movement is now being established on a sound foundation and the leading business men are backing it up in such a way that it will be a factor in achieving "A Greater Palmyra."

AUTO CLUB RUN JULY 4

The contest committee of the Palmyra Auto Club, has completed arrangements for a social run on July Fourth.

The Route will include the following places: Leave Palmyra at the Greiner block, 7 a. m., thence to Hummelstown, Middletown, Elizabethtown, Mt. Joy, Marietta, Columbia, Hambright and Manheim, arriving at Manheim in time to view the large firemen's parade at that place in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, p. m.

Elizabethtown and Columbia have been selected as checking stations. The Club will arrive at Hambright about 11 a. m., where dinner will be served to them.

Next Week at Hershey Park Theatre

The Perry

Peerless

Players

In 2 Good Plays

A Company on the order of Gardner-Vincent Co., and fully as good

GENERAL ADMISSION 5c

RESERVED SEATS 10c

TEACHERS TAKE COURSE IN SUMMER SCHOOL

Prof. C. W. Bowman, principal of the Palmyra Schools is taking a summer school course in State College, in agriculture. Prof. Lemuel who is to teach in the Grammar grade this fall accompanied Prof. Bowman, and will also spend six weeks in study at the State College Summer school.

PUBLIC PLAY GROUND FOR PALMYRA

Efforts are being made to secure the necessary funds and to make the necessary arrangements for the securing of a public play ground for Palmyra. The promoters of this project are to be encouraged, and all the possible aid should be given to this worthy proposition.

HON. G. H. MOYER HOST OF NEWSPAPERMEN

On Sunday Hon. G. H. Moyer of Palmyra had as his guests the Lebanon Newspapermen, and took them in his auto over to Manheim where the "Dope Slingers" enjoyed the Old Home Week festivities. The guests were of the Report, D. W. Siegrist, and T. R. Hughes, and of the News, J. H. Manbeck, and W. R. Mark.

Send Us the Local Happenings

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN

PALM CONGREGATION

FREDERICK C. KRAPP, Pastor
Bible School 9 a. m.
Chief service 7.30 p. m.
Women's Missionary Society business and mission meeting, Thursday, July 11, at 8 p. m.

LOGICAL DEDUCTION

Father—How old are you Sarah?
Can you tell the lady?
Sarah—I am four years old.
Father—When will you be five? Do you know?
Sarah—I don't know, when I'm through being four I s'pose.

Zeller's Butterine and 5c and 10c Store

Butterine is still as popular as ever. Many of our customers declare they prefer it to Butter and will continue to use it even when butter drops in price. Chemists say for Purity it excels. If you want pure, wholesome food Butterine will remain on your table regardless of the market fluctuations of the price of butter.

5c and 10c Goods

We offer wonderful bargains in 5c and 10c goods. The purchasing power of a nickle and dime here is great.

29 Railroad Street
Palmyra, Pa.