

LOCAL NEWS

The homes of Allison Garman and Barbrah Peters have just received a coat of paint and present a very nice appearance.

S. S. Brown, the hardware man, moved his household goods from Middletown into his newly erected home on Caracas avenue, on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. E. White and daughter Lousia, of Pitcairn, and Mrs. Elizabeth Kurtzmann, of McKeesport, are spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Allison Garman.

LOST—Lady's locket, with initials K. M. S., with girls photos inside. Kindly return to Press office.

Mrs. Allison Garman and guests spent Tuesday, visiting in Lebanon.

FOUND—Long blue coat with powder puff in pocket, owner can have same by paying for this notice.

FOUND—Trunk or drawer key, owner can have same by paying for this notice.

Especially the ladies of Hershey, and a goodly number of the men, are taking advantage of the swimming pool and bath house. All the booths of the house have been frequently filled and this feature of the park is becoming more popular each day. On Saturday afternoon Miss Burch's gymnasium class was instructed in swimming in the bathing pool.

The Hershey Park Foresters cut down the large tree in front of the new Garage, along the main path.

Carpenter Putt moved "Little Italy" on Tuesday and Wednesday from near the baseball ground to Curry's old mill.

Spring Creek has been drained and a supply of fresh water allowed to collect for the many Fourth of July visitors.

Fifteen autos were seen Sunday, in the Park. They were from Lancaster, Reading, Lebanon, and Harrisburg. The parties took in the band concert.

Leon Mumper spent Saturday and Sunday in Mechanicsburg, the guest of his father.

FOR SALE—Best quality 24-inch Chestnut Shingles. Address, Hummelstown Brown-Stone Co., Waltonville, Pa.

Miss Blanche DeBolt spent Saturday and Sunday at her home, in Lancaster.

Director Kogel spent Sunday at his home in Philadelphia.

Walter Ashenfelter spent Saturday with friends in Middletown.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Boyer, of Avon, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. H. Boyer, of near Sand Beach.

Messrs. Edward and Milton Slesser, of Akron, Ohio, arrived in town last week and are spending some time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Slesser.

LOST—A P. & R. Mileage book, with about 300 miles, reward will be paid finder. Return to Wm. Curtis, Hershey.

David Gordon and Morris Kleinfelter both lost valuable horses last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Stoudt spent Sunday in Annville, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz.

Harry Zentmeyer, son Russell, and Miss Amanda Green spent Sunday at Valley Glen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tinney spent Sunday in Hummelstown, the guest of his parents.

Billy Runkle returned home Tuesday after spending some time with his grand parents in Reading.

The Annville and Palmyra Gas and Fuel Company are laying gas pipes in Derry Church.

Miss Mary Schaeffer, of Boiling Springs, spent a few days here with brother, Albert Schaeffer. Albert was brought home from the Harrisburg hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. He is getting along nicely and expect to be at his work in the factory by August 1.

Thomas Bray, of York, has accepted a position in the powder department, at the factory.

Miss Ethel Pierce, of Royalton, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Snavely.

W. R. Clay, of Union Deposit, was a caller at the "Press" office on Tuesday.

The trees have recently been treated to a spraying which will help them endure the summer's heat, and at the same time keep that nasty scale off of them and assist in discouraging the bugs and worms from lodging on their leaves.

Enter "The Ideal Husband Contest" early, and win one of the prizes to be given for the best essays, or articles.

Charles Wolfe, our hustling milk man, is having his milk inspected at the State Live Stock and Sanitary Board, Harrisburg, and will serve his customers with only the purest grade milk.

Harry Keggerise, of near Campbelltown, was badly bruised about the face and body while working in the hay field. His horses became frightened running away and dragging him a short distance with the mower.

FOR RENT—House on Main street, Derry Church. Apply to E. M. Hershey, Hershey, Pa.

The seats for the band concerts are never all quite full at the opening of the band concert at seven o'clock.

The several roadways of the Hershey Park, are being heavily piked with several sizes of stone, making them some of the best roads in the state.

The painters are busy repainting the green house and it looks good in its new dress of green and yellow.

The brick layers are repairing several of the park gutters, in preparation for the coming rain.

The P. & R. Railroad are placing a iron fence between the east and west bound tracks, in front of the station. This will require all persons not having keys to walk around over the bridge. But walking is good.

The weeds are leaving the Park grass plots with the aid of several of the Park gardeners.

Miss Mae Musselman, of Florin spent the week end with Miss Mary Painter.

Misses Lottie Conrad, Ella and Carrie Wagner, and Miss Keggerise, and Messrs. Paul Wagner, Daniel Ensminger, Erwin Neiman, and Harry Leib were on the excursion up the Hudson river Saturday.

After the Fire

We are glad to announce that the contractor has placed our plant in condition to resume work next week, when we will again be able to turn out work which has pleased our customers in the past. Send us

Your Shirts, Your Cuffs

Your Shirtwaists and Gowns

and you will again wear the smile of a satisfied customer.

We are ready to please you, and you know we know how.

Hershey Laundry Co.

The Progressive Laundry

T. M. Adams and John Brobst, of Royersford, were the guests of Earl Mays, last Thursday.

Rev. E. A. Sharp spent Tuesday in Harrisburg.

A new piano has been placed in the theatre and Prof. Maurer is now producing even better music than before. The instrument is a decided help to the actors in their numbers, and to the audiences in permitting them to enjoy the best that the players can produce.

Monday evening's lighting effect in the Park Theatre was appreciated by the audience. The stage is now lighted so that all can see, and the effect is welcomed by the many regular patrons of this live amusement.

The brown spots on the park lawn are being daily brightened by the artificial rain from the several hose streams of water. The grass seems to change from a brown, unhealthy look, to a fresh, green, healthy and pleasing appearance even while you look at it, and it seems visible to the naked eye.

Mrs. H. A. Letterman has returned home after spending several weeks in Long Island, N. Y.

Hoffer Bowman and Hess Bigley visited Harrisburg, Wednesday evening.

James Murray called on friends in Lebanon, Sunday.

Geo. Eppley was one of the many "I told you so" that Wilson would be nominated.

Rev. I. Moyer Hershey spent a few days at Ephrata this week.

Rev. O. G. Romig preached at Mt. Nebo and Limberger's Churches on Sunday. The Reverend was pastor at Mt. Nebo six years ago.

Miss Elizabeth Glick, of Lancaster, was the guest of Rev. I. Moyer Hershey and family.

Mrs. F. B. Snavely was a Harrisburg visitor, Tuesday.

William Shakespeare, of Sand Beach, spent Monday with Charles Wolf and family.

Charles Carr will move his family and household goods to Lancaster, this week.

Joseph Wells is spending a week's vacation at his home in Bowie, Md.

Carl Molin, of Springfield, Mass., is erecting machinery at the factory.

Miss Elizabeth Eppley, of Lancaster, is visiting her brother, George Eppley.

George Shearer and C. V. Glynn called on Herman Earley, Tuesday evening, at his home in Harrisburg.

Miss Edna Painter and Miss Lillie Kirchner, of Lancaster, are visiting Mrs. George Eppley.

The Hershey Chocolate Co., received a car load of machinery from Dresden, Germany, also a car load from New York.

W. F. R. Murrie and son, Bruce, and George Eppley and son Robert, visited in Harrisburg, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weber, of Colebrook, spent Sunday with the families of J. B. Sneath and Abram Kreiger, of Industrial avenue.

William Peters and friend attended the wedding of James Heisey at Colebrook, Sunday.

Calvin Peiffer, of Union Deposit, is the new clerk in the meat department at the Hershey store.

The meat department in the Hershey store is doing an enormous business since they are selling home dressed beef.

Mrs. John Sides spent the week end in Elizabethtown, visiting her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. George Yingst, and Mrs. John Houtz spent Sunday with friends in Belle Grove.

Miss May Hershey returned home after having spent several weeks the guest of I. B. Haack, at Myerstown.