

Real Estate Changes Hands

R. G. Laudermilch In Place of Business Again. Children's Day at Brethren Church Next Sunday.

PALMYRA, October 11.

THE old Frederick Miller farm, one hundred acres, has been sold by the administrator of W. E. Shell, to Harry Hetrick, of Shellsville. Consideration, $48 per acre.

The Henry Krum farm, in East Hanover, was sold to Charles Boltz for a consideration of $30 per acre. This is a farm of about 150 acres.

The following changes will also take place next spring. Carson Keller, at present tenant on the Deininger farm, southwest of this place, will move to Rutherford, on one of the Rutherford farms.

Harry Krum, of East Hanover, will occupy the farm vacated by Mr. Keller.

Nissley Bowman at this time tenant on the farm of Peter Graybill, near Campbelltown, will move to the Naftager farm, north of this place, at present tenanted by Enos Brehm. Mr. Brehm will occupy his own farm purchased some time ago from Abraham Shenk.

W. S. Poorman, real estate agent, sold the following properties recently: House and lot in Lawn belonging to Jacob B. Flory, to Thomas M. White, of near Manheim, Lancaster county.

Eighty-four acre farm, situated in South Londonderry township, belonging to Levi J. Flory, to Thomas U. Haldeman, of Greencastle, Franklin county.

R. G. Laudermilch, the popular tailor, who has undergone a surgical operation at the Good Samaritan Hospital, has fully recovered and may be seen at his place of business on Main street.

H. M. Hartz made a business trip to Hershey on Friday.

The Do Re Mi Club members of Harrisburg had a delightful straw ride to Palmyra last Thursday night. They left Harrisburg at 7 o'clock in a big hay wagon and upon their arrival at Palmyra were served with a chicken and waffle supper.

Elmer Gingrich and brother, Clayton C. Gingrich, visited in Harrisburg on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gruber, of Steelton, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Martin Cope.

Miss Ruth Light, of Lebanon, visited friends here Saturday and Sunday.

The Sunday School of the Brethren Church will have Children's Day exercises next Sunday afternoon. Revs. Nathan Martin and Ralph Scholiser, of Elizabethtown, will give addresses on this occasion.

Miss Violet Hartz, Miss Bernice Youtz and John Youtz spent Sunday at Elizabethtown.

The school Board of North Londonderry township met on Friday evening to pay the teachers their first month's salary.

Excursion trains from Newark, New Jersey passed through town on Sunday.

They were bound for Gettysburg. Joseph F. Lauck is enlarging his grocery store on East Main street.

The teachers of this township held a meeting in the high school room last Friday evening. The next meeting will be held in two weeks. Different sections of the New School Code will be discussed at this meeting.

Prof. Irvin S. Light, who was teaching at Womelsdorf, has resigned his position to accept the supervision of penmanship in the public schools of Hartford, Connecticut.

George Miller, the older son of W. Eugene Miller, the jeweler, fell and broke his arm while returning home from a game of ball on Friday evening.

Miss Mabel Ream visited Campbelltown, on Sunday.

Enos Bashore made a trip to Lebanon, on Monday.

Prof. Rockford, of Philadelphia, gave a temperance lecture in the U. B. Church, on Monday night.

Miss S. M. Foltz, Palmyra's leading milliner, spent Monday in Philadelphia, on business.

Eva Foltz is spending a few days in Hagerstown, Maryland. She will attend the Hagerstown fair.

Quite a number of our citizens took in the auto races at Philadelphia, on Monday.

The dance in the Greiner Hall, on Monday evening, was poorly attended.

Diphtheria at Lebanon

Twenty Cases Reported at the Meeting of Board of Health Monday Evening

AT the meeting of the Lebanon Board of Health last Monday evening health officer Gingrich reported twenty cases of diphtheria. The situation is considered somewhat serious because these cases have all developed during the last week. In order to prevent the further spread of the disease the Board took action ordering all public buildings to be fumigated within the next five days. The public drinking cups at the school buildings were ordered to be removed. The Mifflin building was closed Tuesday morning for fumigation.

Masons Celebrate First Anniversary

Brownstone Lodge at Hummelstown Have Banquet Tuesday Evening

MEMBERS of the Brownstone Lodge, No. 666, Free and Accepted Masons, observed the first anniversary of the organization of the lodge in Masonic Hall Tuesday evening. At 7.30 o'clock there was a meeting of the members and guests, and following this session a banquet was served. Martin L. Hershey made the address of welcome and George F. Lumb of Robert Burns Lodge, No. 464, delivered the response.

During the banquet toasts were responded to by Worshipful Master William H. Earnest, Senior Warden William C. Baker, Junior Warden Titus W. Fegley, Reed B. Teitrick, Hobah Lodge, No. 276; Edward J. Stackpole, Robert Burns Lodge, No. 464, and George Edward Reed, Cumberland Star Lodge, No. 197.

The affair was one of the most elaborate ever arranged in Hummelstown. All plans were made by the following committee:

Titus W. Fegley, chairman; Norman S. Helff, William F. Shoemaker, Earl R. Mays, Joseph L. Early, Charles V. Glynn and Clinton M. Hershey.

The officers of the Brownstone Lodge are as follows:

Worshipful Master, William H. Earnest; senior warden, William C. Baker; junior warden, Titus W. Fegley; treasurer, Henry M. Horst; secretary, Earl R. Mays; chaplain, Robert W. Strunk; senior deacon, Martin L. Hershey; junior deacon, Charles V. Glynn; senior master of ceremonies, John C. Witmer; junior master of ceremonies, Charles E. Simpson, Sr., pursuivant, Norman S. Helff; trustees, William H. Ulrich, Charles V. Glynn, Edwin M. Hershey; representative in Grand Lodge, William H. Earnest.

The Ladies' Guild

OF THE

Presbyterian Church

WILL HOLD AN OYSTER SUPPER

Saturday Evening, Oct. 14

Oysters in all Styles

Cakes and Candies

Ice Cream and Coffee

Fancy Work

Will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium, Hershey Park. The hours will be from 5 to 10.

You are given a cordial invitation to attend

FINE PICTURES

Suitable for Wedding Gifts, Etc.

$1.00 Pictures,	.79	$5.00 Pictures,	$3.98
1.50 Pictures,	$1.19	7.50 Pictures,	5.50
2.00 Pictures,	1.55	10.00 Pictures,	7.75
3.00 Pictures,	2.39

The place for Kodaks, Cameras and Supplies. Phone or Mail Orders given prompt attention

HARPEL'S ART STORE

744 Cumberland Street

LEBANON, PA.

Send Us the Local Happenings