A DOUBLE BIRTHDAY GATHERING

DINNER GIVEN IN HONOR OF TWO PROMINENT CITIZENS

On Monday a happy event was celebrated at the home of Josiah Foreman, at Swatara station. It was the double celebration of Mr. Foreman's sixty-first and of Jacob Balsbaugh's seventieth birthdays, which are on the same date. The former had made a business trip to Vian, and upon his return at noon was completely taken by surprise when he found nearly fifty of his friends gathered in the home. Both of these gentlemen are well known in that community and upon this occasion received a number of presents and congratulations. The entire party was ushered into the dining room where a bounteous feast was enjoyed. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson and daughter Mary, of Middletown; Mrs. Martin Foreman and daughter Mary, Mrs. Cassel Gingrich, of Hummelstown; Rev. O. G. Romig, of Hershey; Mrs. George Foreman, of Vian; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Witman, George H. Seiler, Harry P. Miller and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dowhower, Harry and Catherine Dowhower, Jacob Balsbaugh, Sarah Balsbaugh, Mrs. Cyrus Witman and son Roy, Clyde Seiler, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Foreman and Mrs. Catherine Linaweaver.

LUTHERAN SERVICES

Next Sunday, Palm Sunday, at the chief service of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church at 10.30 o'clock the Lord's Supper will be administered. The preparatory service of Confession and Absolution will precede.

On Good Friday night at 7.45 o'clock in the P. O. S. of A. hall a special service will be held when pastor Krapf will speak on "The Crucified."

Persons desiring to unite with the congregation can be received at any service.

OFFICERS OF Y. W.

C. A. RE-ELECTED

Last Friday night the Board of Directors of the Hershey Y. W. C. A. met for the annual election of the officers and take up the business of the month. The officers who have been serving were reelected as follows: president, Mrs. M. L. Hershey, vice president, Miss Mary Loeb; secretary, Miss Blanche DeBolt; treasurer, Miss Bertha Liebhart. The old committees were renamed save in a few cases where vacancies made by resignations were filled. Several new committees were made to fit the new work that the association is taking up. Twenty new members were received. The total membership is now 160. Twenty-two of the twenty-six members of the board were present at the meeting.
