

LOCAL NEWS

EGGS FOR SALE.—Columbian Plymouth Rocks, 75 cents per setting of 15 eggs. John A. Smith, R. F. D. No. 1, Derry Church, Pa.

Charles Pathemore, night operator at branch intersection on the P. R. R. at Middletown, spent Monday with S. S. Brown in Hershey.

J. M. Gingrich has been appointed janitor at the Hershey Public School to fill the vacancy recently made by the death of Michael Yingst.

David Baker is making extensive repairs at his home in Swatara.

Mrs. May Slack, of Middletown, will spend the week end with her sister, Mrs. David Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Eppler, of Hummelstown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hummel.

John Swomley clerk at the Hershey freight station is in the Harrisburg hospital receiving treatment for his throat.

Miss Violet Fertig spent Saturday in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mays spent Saturday and Sunday with the latter's mother Mrs. Sarah Shirk, of Lebanon.

EGGS FOR SALE—White Rocks, 50c settings; Buff Orpington, 75c. H. F. SANDERS, Union Deposit, R. F. D. 1.

E. J. Zeiters, of Corel, Ill., spent a few days with his cousin, B. F. Bomgardner, who resides on Valley Glen Dairy.

Mrs. S. D. Clark and daughter Martha spent Tuesday in Harrisburg.

NOTICE—All candidates for the Hershey baseball team are requested to report at the Park diamond Saturday afternoon at 1.30 sharp.

Twenty-one young men of Hershey and Derry Church were present at the orange social held at the home of Samuel Garman last Friday evening in Derry Church.

Robert Jones, representing the Dickerman and Yeakely Co., of Philadelphia, is repairing and making improvements on the ice machine in the basement of the Big Department Store.

John Sides and family moved from near Campbelltown to the east end of Derry Church. Mr. Sides is employed by J. H. Moyer.

Mrs. John Lenker, who has been seriously ill at her home for the past few weeks, is improving.

John M. Rasp, of Palmyra, broke ground on Monday for a home which will be erected on Caracas avenue.

The Otterbein Bible Class of the U. B. Church had an enrollment of forty-nine in their class on Sunday morning.

The Hershey Gunning Club will hold a shoot at their grounds near Hershey Park on Saturday afternoon at 3.15 o'clock.

John Stambauch, of Paxtang, spent Saturday with friends in Hershey and Derry Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jones spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives in Mechanicsburg.

Israel Moyer and Cyrus L. Boyer spent Monday evening in Palmyra on business.

S. P. Bacastow, the newly appointed postmaster at Derry Church, took charge of the office on Monday morning.

Abner Weltmer, clerk in the post office department at Washington, D. C., attended the funeral of his father-in-law, Michael Yingst, on Tuesday.

Rev. I. Moyer Hershey preached at Myerstown on Sunday.

Rev. O. G. Romig was at Reading on Saturday to attend the meeting of the executive committee of the Christian Endeavor Union of East Pennsylvania Conference.

Mrs. R. F. VonNeida left Monday morning for Center county, where she expects to stay for a week. On her return trip she will visit at Mifflinsburg and Lewisburg.

Master Joseph Bonfanti is spending a week with his aunt, Mrs. Julia Barbini, of Lebanon.

John Shoop, of Union Deposit, was a caller in Derry Church, Tuesday.

B. S. Runkle, manager of the Hershey Laundry, now claims to be the champion "haussepeffer" player of Hershey. He defeated Joseph Hills in a very interesting and deciding game played last week.

R. C. Arlington, the barber, was confined to his room on Sunday with a severe cold.

George Hench spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in Linglestown.

H. S. Shultz spent Saturday evening with friends in Harrisburg.

The dance held in Hershey Park Saturday evening was largely attended.

Frank Deverter will move Thursday into the home of Wilson Rhoads on Caracas avenue.

Ulie Maugans has been confined to her home for the past week with a severe attack of mumps.

The gravel foot crossings laid throughout the town are very much appreciated by our citizens.

Miss Eva Foltz, of Palmyra, spent a few hours calling on friends in our town on Saturday.

Miss Mary Maugans, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday and Monday with her brother, Emmert Maugans and family.

Lost, strayed or stolen, two thoroughbred guinea chickens. Suitable reward if returned to Jeff. Shelly.

William Curtis spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Reading.

Have You Been In Our New Shop?

Hand and Electric Shampoo and Massage

Monday night after 7 o'clock reserved for ladies.

HERSHEY BARBER SHOP

R. C. ARLINGTON, Tonsorial Artist

The meat department at the Hershey Store Company have just received two new wagons of the latest models. The one will be used for the delivery of meats, while the other will be used for the transportation of calves.

Russell Eshenaur spent Sunday with friends in Reading.

Many baseball fans will be glad to learn that John Snavelly, the star second baseman on the Hershey baseball team a few years ago, will again be seen in this year's line-up.

The Middletown Furniture Company are installing a number of display cases in the shoe department at the Big Department Store.

Russell Hershey, who is now employed at the Pennsylvania Iron and Steel Co., Steelton, spent Sunday at his home on Chocolate avenue.

Omar Hummer, who is conducting a meat market in Harrisburg, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Mrs. Joseph Hills and children spent Saturday in Harrisburg.

The Hummelstown and Campbelltown street railway company were the first to have their line open for traffic on Monday morning.

Mrs. Edith Fuller and Mrs. Mary Williams spent Saturday afternoon with friends in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Laura Boyer was on the sick list last week.

William Peters spent Sunday at his home near Campbelltown.

Mrs. Michael Chabitnoy and son Charles are spending a week in Lebanon with Mrs. Chabitnoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zellers.

Mr. F. B. Snavelly was on the sick list for several days this week, suffering with a severe cold.

Mrs. Milton Knoderer, of Steelton, is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Alice Leedom, who is ill at her home on Caracas avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raber, of the Hershey Industrial School, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Jonestown.

Mrs. Charles Eslinger and Mrs. Wm. Penacove, of Penbrook, attended the funeral of Michael Yingst, on Tuesday.

Misses Mary Painter and Blanche DeBolt spent Saturday afternoon in Harrisburg.

James Murray, timekeeper at the Chocolate factory, is going into the chicken business. He attended his first country sale last Saturday and purchased a wagon load of fine Plymouth Rock hens.

Ralph Maulfair has sold Bessie, his fine sorrel driving mare. The sale was made Monday.

Harry Hoy, a machinist from Lebanon, began working at the factory Wednesday morning.

Frank Magee moved from Palmyra to Hershey Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Baker and daughter Sara, of Penbrook, visited Mrs. D. C. Baker on Tuesday.

The Berks and Reading Turnpike company are repairing the pike at Hershey.

The annual play given by the Lebanon High School Alumni will be held in the Hershey Park dancing pavilion on April 9th. The title of the play is "Captain Racket."

W. R. Wick and family moved to New York on Wednesday morning where he has secured a position.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE FOR MR. GEO. EPPLEY

A few of the friends of George J. Eppley, made a call at his home on Chocolate avenue. Saturday evening the occasion being the thirty-eighth anniversary of his birth. The visit was a complete surprise to Mr. Eppley and the party took possession of the house and entertained themselves with cards and other games and served themselves with refreshments. The visitors left a handsome cigar stand as a birthday souvenir for Mr. Eppley. Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Eppley were Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Snavelly, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Glynn, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Copenhaver, Miss May Hershey and Messrs. Leroy Hoeler, Joseph E. Hills, J. R. Kreider, and J. R. Snavelly.