"Unaware is what you take off the last thing before you put your nightie on."

"How is the new filing system? Success?" asked the agent of the merchant to whom he had sold a "system" a few days before.

"Great!" said the merchant.

"Good!" said the agent, rubbing his hands. "And how is business?"

"Business?" echoed the merchant. "Oh, we have stopped business to attend to the filing system."

NEW DOG LAW

Strict Regulations With Regard to Ownership of Dogs

By the Act of June 15th, 1911, tax collectors are required, when any person shall neglect to pay the tax on any dogs such person is assessed with, or shall fail to comply with the laws requiring dogs to have collars and the tax tags attached thereto, to give written notice to the person so neglecting, that if he fail to either pay the tax and comply with the law as to the collar and tag, or kill the dog himself within 10 days, the dog will be killed by the constable of the district. For every such notice delivered or mailed, the tax collector is entitled to receive 25 cents from the County Commissioners at the time of the settlement of his accounts. The tax collector is liable to a penalty of $2 for neglecting this duty, and on the failure of the owner of the dog to comply with such notice, it becomes the duty of the constable of the district, on notice being given him of such default, to kill the dog, for which service he shall be paid $1. by County Commissioners out of the dog tax fund, and if he fails in his duty, when notified, he shall be liable to a penalty of $2.

All dogs not wearing the collar and tax tag required, are declared public nuisances by the Act, and may be killed at any time by the owner or bonafide tenant of land on which such dog may be found, and the owner of the animal so killed shall have no recourse at law whatever.

Any person who permits a dog or dogs to be about his premises is deemed the owner for the purposes of the Act.
