

WEST CONSHOHOCKEN

Mrs. Edward Smith, of Front street, is on the sick list. Miss Gertrude Fisher, of Front street, is ill at her home. Miss Emily Tarr, of Merion avenue, is confined to her home with illness. Stewart Dean, of Buck Hill Falls, is spending a two weeks vacation with friends in this borough. Miss Mamie Bonoski, of Britt-Moyer avenue, is suffering from illness at her home. Miss Elizabeth McShane, of Ford street, is confined to her home by illness. Frank Rorick, of Front street, who is in a Philadelphia hospital as a patient, is slowly improving. The condition of Mrs. James Rock et, who is a patient at the Bryn Mawr Hospital, is somewhat improved. Frank Kennedy, of Front street, has accepted a position with the Alan Wood Iron and Steel Company. There will be special collection for Italian Missions taken in St. Gertrude's Church, on Sunday. John Murphy and William Ewitt, of Front street, have secured positions with the Rainey-Wood Coke Company. The gunners of this borough are very numerous and have brought home some fine specimens of their hunting ability. Mrs. James Wertz, of this borough, has returned home from the Riverview Hospital, Norristown, where she was a patient. A Peddler's Parade will be held by the Junior Sunday school class of the Ballegomingo Baptist church tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. James Hamilton, who has resided on the Moorehead estate for a number of years, will move to East Elm street, Conshohocken, as the bridge contractors will soon begin to tear down the house in which he lives. Stewart Dehn, of Buck Hill Falls, who is visiting his brother here, has purchased an Overland touring car in which he expects to make a tour of the southern states. The Democratic candidates for county officers will come here tomorrow evening and hold a meeting at Front and Ford streets, at 7:30 o'clock and meet the voters. On Tuesday evening Mrs. John Rishel, of DeHaven avenue, was greatly surprised when the Sewing Circle of the Ballegomingo Baptist church, gave her a masquerade party. A very enjoyable time was had and refreshments were served at a late hour. The dance to be held in St. Gertrude's Parish Hall, on next Monday evening, for the benefit of the church fund, gives every promise of being a great success. Dancing will commence at 8:15. Professor Perry Smith's orchestra of four pieces has been engaged to furnish music for both the old and modern dancing. This is one of the newest and also one of the best orchestras in Conshohocken.

MORE STREET WORK ACROSS THE RIVER

The West Conshohocken Town Council met in a special session Tuesday evening by request of the Street Committee in reference to repairs being made to Ford street below Front. After a discussion the council decided to give the Street Committee full authority to have the street repaired temporarily. It was thought best not to repair it permanently as in a short time the water company, gas company and the telephone company will have to tear the street up to remove their pipes and wires in accordance with the plans of the new bridge. The committee was also given the power to purchase oil for the streets. They expect to have the oil here in about two weeks and the streets will then be oiled. No order has been filed for the oil but will be as the committee can receive satisfactory prices.

GULF MILLS

Betty, a child of Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey, of Mechanicsville, is on the sick list. Thomas O'Neill is making improvements to his dwelling at Mechanicsville. Francis McCullough, of Philadelphia, is visiting Robert Griffith, at Mechanicsville. Mrs. Thomas Lennen and children have returned from a few weeks visit to Mrs. Lennen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis in Chester. Mrs. Earl Foy and daughter have returned from Charity hospital, Norristown. A number of persons gave them a welcome home party at their residence at Mechanicsville. The large force of workmen employed on the Gulf Mills golf course during the spring, summer and early fall, has been reduced for the winter season. Chicken pox which broke out at Mechanicsville this week has not spread to any extent only a few cases being reported. Children affected with the ailment are recovering. A large sign has been erected on the property of William Spragg at this place. A trip through the country districts reveals the fact that many firms advertise their business by erecting large signs in conspicuous places. The home of John Smith and also that of the Hogan family on the Cross Roads, Upper Merion, have been sold as well as the farm accompanying the same. The Smith family will remove to Bridgeport, while the Hogan family will remove to their newly-purchased dwelling in Norristown. A Siberian squirrel fur scarf which was advertised in the Recorder as being lost near the Gulf Mills golf club house on Sunday evening, has been returned to the owner. The fur neck piece was found at Gloucester, N. J., it not having been lost at the aforesaid place. Together with a hat to match the articles of apparel were lost from an automobile by parties that had been visiting Mr. Weston J. Hibbs, secretary at his home at the Gulf Mills Gold Club. It is probable that more squirrels were shot in this locality at the opening of the season this year than for a number of years past, as gunners report the game quite plentiful. There was a time when squirrels were scarce hereabouts save in the woods belonging to wealthy people where they could be seen in numbers, but the hunters dared not to venture on the places for fear of arrest, and consequently being protected from year to year, the game multiplied greatly. That many of the squirrels left the woods on these estates and scattered about in different places is given as the assigned reason why gunners can now bag more in the 100-mile woods and other sections of Upper Merion. At the second fall meeting of the Mens' Bible Class of the Gulf Christian Church on Sunday afternoon, besides the instructive talk by the class leader vocal and instrumental numbers by prominent musicians will feature the session. About 60 members were in attendance at the opening meeting last Sunday, which was very gratifying to the cause and which was significant of the fact that the fall and winter work will be taken up with vigor. The officers extend an invitation to all men to join in the movement, and strangers are always welcome at the Sunday afternoon sessions. The members of the local class have received an invitation to visit the Bible Class of the Conshohocken Methodist church, of which Mr. J. Rufus Barr, of West Conshohocken, is leader. It has been accepted and the visitation will be made at an early date. The Gulf Mills class purposes to have other classes as their guests during the fall and winter season for which suitable arrangements will be made. D., of Peking, China, has had 26 years of varied experience in missionary enterprise, making itinerant preaching tours in innumerable native villages; passing through the Boxer outrages when allied foreign armies were needed to restore order and assure safety; many years in the sober business of training native preachers and other workers, along with editing various publications. Out of all this rich experience Dr. Fenn will speak in his missionary dress Sabbath morning in the Presbyterian church.

In the crisis through which the country is passing, China needs true leadership. In the newly developing countries christian missionaries are the real statesmen.

mutilated, weakened in body and mind, bearing scars which will be with them through life, or victims of that insidious disease, tuberculosis.

At the recent meeting in Philadelphia when the Division called the Branch Chairmen together to review the work and plan the future, first of all this November roll-call, one of the most comprehensive and convincing speakers was Miss Magee, of the Division head of the after-care work; that is the Department which intimately and interestingly cares for the disabled men. She said many things worth remembering one was, "The Red Cross Talks in Terms of Service." She said most emphatically that she would not give up her experience in this work for thousands of dollars; in my small way I feel precisely the same about my Home Service Red Cross work.

I was asked to give a report and I have used all this time for a preface. First I want to tell you that the co-operation and sympathy of the members and the Branch and of the towns people whom I have asked to assist me, has been without an exception; if some have done more than others it is only because the attending conditions permitted.

I could give you a long, long list of people who have assisted in whatever way I asked them. The women who loaned their cars, then Mr. Moore who has cheerfully provided motors at all times, and at a most reasonable price.

Especially would I like to mention the invaluable assistance which I have received from Mr. Joseph Wil, my Polish interpreter, and Julia Bartolo, my Italian interpreter. Mr. George M. S. Light has given generously of his time in assisting the boys with their papers which required certification.

Miss Beatrice Cloud our Branch Supervisor has held a meeting here the first Monday afternoon in each month, at which all the Home Service chairmen for this district were in attendance this includes the chairmen of West Conshohocken, Norristown, Phoenixville, and Ambler; at these meetings we talked over and compared cases; in many cases this helped to solve a problem for another chairman.

Some cases: Divorce, placing shell shock men in State Hospital, obtaining naturalization papers for many men; tracing worthless checks given by company clerks for money given to them to keep for men, having French girl sent from France for Italian husband, getting Liberty Bonds for an Austrian, who was discharged as enemy alien, Italian family sent to Italy, and deserters reinstated through Red Cross Field Directors.

This report is submitted with apologies for any mistakes that have been made in the Home Service work and with the deepest sense of gratitude that I have been able to do this work that has brought me into personal contact with the fine young heroes of the town who are veterans of the World War.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1919.

The Allies have saved Turkey from complete dismemberment and in gratitude the Turks are now carrying on a campaign of massacre against Christian residents of the Empire.

All real Americans will agree with Senator Watson that the first step in stamping out Bolshevism in this country should be to remove all office holders in the Government who have Bolshevism beliefs.

A report of the work done by the local Red Cross is printed in the Recorder today and gives the public information as to the great work accomplished by the women during the war.

Daylight Saving.

A movement is on foot in Philadelphia and Camden to have councils adopt ordinances regulating the clocks that daylight saving may again be used next summer.

A number of cities including New York are favorable to continuing daylight saving next year and should they pass local laws regulating the clocks, this borough would have to do likewise.

Daylight saving has been a great boon to office, store and industrial workers as it starts work in the cool of the morning and ends the work day during the heat of the afternoon.

The people in this community greatly desire the continuance of daylight saving and should Philadelphia adopt it next year, Conshohocken will surely follow.

With the big Eastern cities adopting "summer" time, the surrounding communities would be compelled to fall in line and suburban train schedules would have to be made to accommodate the traffic during the busy periods.

Europe Wants All.

From the meagre information given the American people from the International Trade Conference now being held at Atlantic City, it is gathered that the only things our Allies in the war want is all that America has.

What is leaked out from the private conferences shows that Europe is not satisfied with our generosity during the war—the greatest exhibition of unselfish generosity ever known to the world—but would have us go further now that the weak nations might be made strong and powerful.

Americans desire to aid in the rehabilitation of Europe but Americans also desire to gain the fruits of victory in legitimate trade.

Europe has been led into a false belief as to America. Hard headed business men, the type of men who made the country what it is, believe in and have greatly aided this country to practice altruism, but they also believe there is a limit even to altruism and a halt should be called when the country is asked to sacrifice its future business interests to the advantage of Europe.

We are asked to supply in unlimited quantities foods, coal, cotton, fats, steel and metals and other supplies of which there is a great shortage here. Our own needs are not considered, and the French representative has intimated that France will be a big customer during the next two years providing we make great concessions now.

England is suffering with great labor unrest. Unrest has penetrated France. The money of all Europe is depreciated and Germany, while willing and anxious to get to work, is suffering from the great curse of debased money.

The United States is the great, powerful nation of the world, with resources and producing capacities sufficient to supply the home needs and have great quantities of materials for export if production were maintained at the standard of which the country is capable.

Europe is suffering not only from scarcity of raw materials but also needs the means for fabricating materials. Many of her factories have been destroyed and many factories have not been changed over from war work owing to the lack of machinery. We have everything but the will and desire for work. We are paying no attention to stabilizing our industries that will enable America to branch out into world trade.

Europe is asking too many concessions of us, concessions that a conference cannot give as they involve the economic and political principles of the country, but were the whole industry of the country producing at full capacity, we could greatly aid Europe in her present distress, have prosperity at home and ignore the antagonism which is developing abroad against us.

Edward Steer, of Harmonville, has been laid up with a sore foot in which blood poisoning developed.

Miss May Markle, of Harmonville, is out again, having recovered from her recent illness.

William Fennel has had the tin roofs repaired of his Hickorytown hotel.

Mrs. Anna Ewing and son George, of Conshohocken, spent Sunday with Mrs. Walter Campbell at Hickorytown.

Mrs. William Moyer and Mrs. Mary Shawl, of Philadelphia, visited relatives at Hickorytown on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Eugene Lightkop and daughter Elizabeth, of Hickorytown, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Edwin Gearhart, of Norristown.

Miss Edna Berkhimer, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday in Harmonville with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Berkhimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wheaton and daughter, of Oak Lane, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Johnson, who on that day quietly observed their 19th wedding anniversary.

Richard Hosington moved his household effects to Camden, N. J., on Tuesday. Some time ago Mr. Hosington secured work in the ship yard near Camden and now is located where he works.

Leonard Beck is painting the Bowman residence in Harmonville where he resides. Mr. Beck is the husband of Nettie, daughter of the late Frederick Bowman who died about two years ago.

Mr. William E. White has been on the sick list for several days but is improving. He has been cared for at the "Eckend" cottage Hickorytown where the good attention he received contributed to his speedy recovery.

Train accidents have been of frequent occurrence between the Ridge Pike bridge and White Marsh Junction tower within the last few weeks. Not less than three have occurred but fortunately no one has been injured.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Emma Campbell, Lafayette street, Norristown, when her daughter Ella was married to Mr. Joseph Baer, of Norristown. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride formerly resided in Hickorytown.

The dwelling destroyed by fire last Spring belonging to the American Magnesia & Covering Company is about to be rebuilt. Charles Staley has men at work excavating and tearing down the damaged walls. The new edifice will be somewhat larger than the old one as an addition will be built at the back making the new building more commodious.

John T. Adams, formerly of Jersey Shore and Sunbury, now of Germantown, Philadelphia, spent Sunday evening with Miss Mary E. Kirk and early Monday morning left on a 30 days' vacation to visit his parents and friends in Jersey Shore and Sunbury. Mr. Adams expects to return about the 15th of November and spend the remainder of his vacation in Cold Point.

Thursday evening, Oct. 23, the Knights of the Golden Eagle will entertain the wives and sweethearts of the members of the organization in their lodge room on Cold Point Hill. The evening has been announced as "Ladies Night" and special arrangements were made to make the evening one of pleasure by entertaining items, literary and musical. When over a month has five Thursdays, the fifth one will be a special meeting for members and friends of the order.

Several of the trolley conductors have instituted a new method of discharging and receiving passengers at the Harmonville exchange. The old custom of making the transfer was a very dangerous one on account of automobiles passing while passengers were waiting and alighting on the side of the road, and it is almost a miracle that no one has been injured by passing machines. Now the doors are opened on the side of the cars next to the path which insures the safety of persons using the trolleys at that point, and this change meets approval of the traveling public.

A very interesting Christian Endeavor meeting was held in Cold Point Baptist church Sunday evening, when Miss Edith Marple discussed the topic, "Our Pledge." Miss Marple was assisted by Miss Mary E. Kirk, who delightfully rendered a solo, "I Know God's Promise is True." Quite a number of young people attended, and several took very interesting parts in the meeting.

of California. A most interesting and spiritual service was conducted by these two active christian workers.

OCTOBER 26 WILL BE THRIFT SUNDAY

October 24, Children in Schools Are To Register as Savers.

Next Sunday, October 26th, has been designated by the Savings Division of the Treasury Department as Thrift Sunday in the churches of Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and the State of Delaware embraced within the Third Federal Reserve District. On this day, clergymen will make "Thrift" the subject of their sermon or in some other way bring before their congregation the vital necessity of systematically saving at least a part of their income.

Thrift Sunday came as the culmination of a short educational campaign of thrift held in schools and churches. Letters have been received by the Savings Division from leading educators and prominent clergymen endorsing the Government's efforts in making thrift a national habit. It is the consensus of their opinion that churches and schools afford an impressive medium in bringing before the people the need of developing those habits of thrift and saving that are such a stabilizing influence in the restoration of industrial and social settlement.

The study of thrift has been made a part of the curriculum in the public schools and has received wholehearted commendation by Superintendents and Principals everywhere. Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, State Superintendent of schools in Pennsylvania, has expressed the opinion that there should be regular and systematic instruction in the subject of thrift in every school in the land.

Friday, October 24, Registration Day will be observed in the schools, when the children will register their intention of becoming regular savers and will be invited to give a practical demonstration of thrift by opening a saving account with their teachers.

CAR STARTS WHILE CRANKING

While cranking his car Wednesday evening, William M. Wood, of 200 West Furnace street, Norristown, was suddenly surprised to find the car starting. He avoided serious injury by jumping out of the way and stopping the car before it had gone any distance.

He had left the car in gear when it stopped and did not change it to neutral before starting. Before he could stop the car it had crashed into a rear building of the American Stores Company on First avenue where the car had been stopped.

Mr. Wood's wife was the only one in the car beside himself. No one was hurt and the car was not damaged but the window of the building was broken. Before leaving the place Officer Mullen was summoned to guard the building while Mr. Wood brought John Skilton, manager of the store, to the scene as food stuffs are stored in the building.

The accident happened about 9 o'clock.

LOCALS WILL FIGHT FOR EASTERN TITLE

Tomorrow's Game With Holmesburg Will Decide the Championship of Eastern Pennsylvania.

The game between the strong Holmesburg team and the local boys on the Norristown high school grounds in the Stockade of Norristown tomorrow will decide the championship of eastern Pennsylvania.

Both teams have been strengthened since the beginning of the season and are both confident of victory.

With the addition of "Bert" Yeabsley to the Holmesburg line-up the local team and fans anticipate a bitter struggle. Yeabsley would not sign up with the local team because the management did not feel that his demands could be met.

Holmesburg's manager has tried to secure the services of several of the local players but met with disappointment when they replied that they would be playing in the game but not on Holmesburg's side.

The first game played between the two teams was in 1915 when the local boys defeated the visitors by the score of 25 to 2 on the local field.

The next and last game was played on the Holmesburg field November 11, 1916 when the rivals took revenge by scoring 13 points to the locals 0.

The game tomorrow will begin promptly at 3 o'clock.

A game much different to the ones played here so far this season is expected tomorrow with the teams composed of former college and service men. Conshohocken's line is about as strong as any line in this section of the country and the back field is equal to the line in every respect.

Manager Crawford has been busy during the past several weeks making arrangements for the game and securing additional men for the remainder of the season.

The management has decided that it will not make any arrangements to play teams that are organized just for the one game as it is not fair to the public. Such teams usually organize for the purpose of making money and not to put up a good game of football. The score is usually high and the fans are not satisfied with the results.

There will appear in the locals line-up two new faces and one familiar face, which he has secured for the remainder of the season.

Earl Potteliger, known to all the local rooters as a football artist of some repute, will again be in his position at halfback. Another acquisition to the local team is Eyrick of Phoenixville, who needs no introduction to the people of this borough, as he was the backbone of the Union Club for many seasons, playing wonderful ball. He will no doubt, be played at halfback in which position he will fill most capably.

The local team is in splendid condition for the event and every man is imbued with the spirit of giving Holmesburg the worst lacing they ever received.

Manager Crawford in speaking to a representative of the Recorder as to his opinion of the contest said, "We each have won a game and lost one, tomorrow will decide the champions; Conshohocken is now in a position to administer a bitter pill to their rivals."

Managers Gerker and Potts, of Holmesburg, too, have been working ardently all season in order to present a most formidable team against the locals. They know that they will face a strong combination of ball players, but they do not know that the local eleven this season, is much stronger than in the previous years when the teams met each other.

A familiar face on the visitor's team will be "Bert" Yeabsley, who played a halfback position on the local eleven for several seasons. Yeabsley is a good consistent player and can carry the pig skin in grand style. He played with the visitors last Saturday for the first time and made good with the management.

Holmesburg is well made up with college stars such as "Dick" Diamond whose playing is up to the standard: Kidder Casker, Morrison and Scott, who all know how the game should be played.

The local eleven held their final practice yesterday afternoon on the Twelfth avenue grounds, when all the players got the new plays down pat and it now remains for the weather-man to produce good foot ball weather on Saturday when the locals will put their rivals asleep, who upon awakening Sunday morning, will wonder how it happened.

THE ALAN WOOD GAME On Sunday afternoon at 3.15 sharp on the Golf Grounds in the Iron Borough, the Alan Wood Iron and Steel Company, fresh from their great victory over Magnolia A. C. of Frankford, will have as an attraction the Strong Holy Saviour Team of Norristown. The Holy Boys played Phoenix A. C. formerly Union Club on last Sunday. In former years their team averaged 120 pounds. This year they have added several stars to the lineup and now they average between 150 and 160 pounds. So they should make the Iron Workers hustle to win. They are going to invade the Iron Borough with the strongest team in their history on the gridiron.

Manager Catanesse stated on Tuesday evening that they are coming down confident of bringing home the bacon, and the Iron Workers feel the same way about it. It is expected that several hundred will journey to the Iron Borough with the Holy Boys. They always have a large crowd of rooters with them wherever they go. On last Sunday about 100 accompanied them to Phoenixville and owing to the trip being so short to Conshohocken, it is expected their amount of rooters will more than double the amount which went to Phoenix. This should be one of the hardest fought battles of the season.

Manager Catanesse states that his team has been practicing hard for the big battle.

Alan Wood hasn't tasted defeat yet this season, and they feel sure that their followers will turn out strong and cheer them to victory, and also assist them in finishing the season.

The Holy Boys will be on the grounds at 2.15 sharp and the game will start at 3.15 on the Golf Grounds in the Iron Borough.
