

WEST SIDE

The regular monthly business meeting of the trustees of the Ballingomgo Baptist church will be held this evening.

There is an improvement in the condition of Albert Waltemyer, who is confined to his home on Front street, suffering with a mild attack of diphtheria.

Rev. William Phillips, pastor of the Ballingomgo Baptist church, is making arrangements for a week of special meetings to begin on Sunday, November 5th. There will be a speaker for each evening.

The rabbit season will open next Wednesday and many of the local lovers of the sport will be out in quest of the wily cottontail. A number of trips to popular sunning places have been arranged.

In the Pyle Memorial Methodist church next Sunday morning the speaker will be Eben Seymour, of the First Wesleyan church of Philadelphia. In the evening the speaker will be Joseph Sproul, also from the First Wesleyan church.

The quarantine has been lifted from the home of Norman Riker at 529 Ford street, wherein his son Albert has been confined with an attack of diphtheria. The boy has fully recovered and the house was fumigated on Wednesday.

The Halloween party of the Boys' Club of the Community Center will be held in the Park House annex on Friday evening of next week.

The senior class of the local high school entertained the pupils of the Conshohocken high school at a Halloween party at the home of Miss Ida Carr, on Merion avenue, last evening. A most enjoyable time was spent in a diversion of amusements. Refreshments were served. The interior of the house was tastefully decorated, carrying in effect the full spirit of the Halloween season.

The Happy Workers Sewing Circle of the Ballingomgo Baptist church was entertained at a masquerade party last Tuesday evening at her home on Morehead avenue. A large number of the members were present and a most enjoyable time was spent in music and games. An elaborate luncheon was served. The interior of the house was tastefully decorated in keeping with the Halloween spirit.

The dance conducted in St. Gertrude's school hall on Monday evening was a huge success, both socially and financially. The interior of the hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the young ladies in charge of the affair. After dancing had ceased refreshments were served. Guests were present from Philadelphia, Bryn Mawr, Bridgeport and the Conshohockens. The committee in charge included the Misses Helen McCarrick, Elizabeth McCramney, Katherine Costello, Margaret Costello and Agnes Wilson.

The final meeting of the West Conshohocken Memorial Association prior to the dance was held last evening at the office of Magistrate B. K. Tomlinson. All arrangements for the benefit Masquerade ball, to be held in P. O. S. of A. hall, Conshohocken, next Monday evening. It was decided to award prizes for the prettiest costume and one for the most grotesque. Tickets were mailed to every family in the borough and while a number or favorable replies have been received there are still many to hear from. The cause is a worthy one and the association feel as though a prompt return should be made by every one receiving tickets.

Literary Society Meeting
The regular meeting of the West Conshohocken High School Literary Society was held in the school building this afternoon. A number of parents of the children attended and thoroughly enjoyed the following interesting program which was rendered:

GULF MILLS

Miss Sara Lapin, of Ardmore, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mosman, Jr., at Mechanicsville.

Mrs. John Bradbury, of Frankford, Philadelphia, at one time a resident of this vicinity, was visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. William McDowell, of the Ballingomgo road, Gulf Mills, who has been on the sick list, is much improved.

The sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. John Harbison, of Radnor, near Gulf Mills, were visiting the Harbison family on Sunday. The visitors are Philadelphians.

Miss Ethel Smith, residing in the state of New Jersey, formerly a resident of Mechanicsville, has been spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Josephine Gambel, at the latter place.

The scholars in the primary department of the Bird-in-Hand school will enjoy a holiday on the day of the November election. The elections in the lower district of Upper Merion township have been held in this public school building for many years.

The Misses Worthington, of Philadelphia, passed Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pearson, of the Gulf road, Gulf Mills. The Misses Worthington were schoolmates of Mrs. Pearson at the West Chester State Normal School, Mrs. Pearson at that time being Miss Eva Stiteler.

A number of strangers from different places attended the service at the Gulf Christian church on Sunday morning last. Noticed also among the congregation were persons who at one time worshipped in this church regularly, but who removed from Gulf Mills to various other places some years ago. These former residents seldom visit here without going to the historic church to hear the word of God.

Residents of Gulf Mills and vicinity, who depend on cisterns and wells for a water supply, welcomed the rain of Monday night, as it replenished the reservoirs, some of which were entirely empty and in others the supply nearly exhausted. While the main of the Springfield water system extends under the Ballingomgo road through Gulf Mills, quite a number of the residents still depend on wells and cisterns for water, and even some of the householders secure their supply from springs. At Mechanicsville the villagers have no access to a water system and are obliged to resort entirely to wells and cisterns. In the time of a drought this section is badly handicapped for lack of water. The village of Mechanicsville is located between the mains of the West Conshohocken water system and that of the Springfield, and yet they are without the service of either.

New seats and desks of a modern type have been installed in the Bird-in-Hand school.

The displays in many store windows at this season of the year indicating the approach of the traditional All Halloween, are greatly diversified. In some windows we observe displays of weird looking articles, in other the grotesque and fanciful, while grocery stores, fruit stores and of that nature have windows decorated with the foliage of autumn, and a various assortment of fruits and nuts attractively arranged to catch the eye of the prospective purchaser. Beautiful red apples polished like mirrors, immense bunches of Belgian hot-house grapes, clusters of grapes of the Malva and Tokay varieties, persimmons that resemble the tomato, curious-looking pears that do not look appealing to the inner man, peaches and plums from other climes, and different other fruits, and nuts of various kinds, make up displays from which can be selected many things suitable for Halloween. Owing to the blight, which has ravaged the chestnut trees by the thousands, there is a scarcity of these nuts and consequently they do not figure so prominently in the event as some years ago.

Rev. Albert Loucks, who became pastor of the Gulf Christian church in July, 1920, and who tendered his resignation on Sunday, October 1, to become effective on October 31, will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday morning. The subject of the discourse will be "Stewardship." On Sunday evening Rev. Loucks will preach the last of a series of sermons which he started about four weeks ago and which have proven very interesting. The theme of this last one will be "Reunion." Rev. Loucks and his family will leave for Hartwick, Otsego county, New York, about the middle of next week, as it is expected that arrangements can be made to start at that time. As the church will be without a pastor on Sunday, November 5, the ministerial committee of five appointed to serve in securing another pastor to succeed Rev. Loucks, will secure a supply clergyman for that day and will continue to do this until a regular minister is installed in the charge. The members of the ministerial committee are Benjamin Davidson, chairman, George Bailey, George Shoffner, A. Irvin Supplee and Robert Cowan. Miss Bertha Stinson, the church clerk, will have charge of all correspondence.

John McFarland, of Gulf Mills, has returned from a business trip in the South.

William Dennerty, of Norristown, was cut on the face by glass from a broken windshield when his car collided with a truck driven by John McGinty, of Second street near Lehigh avenue, Philadelphia, on Lancaster pike near the Devon Road. Dennerty's injuries were dressed by a nearby physician. It was said the collision was accidental.

It is stated that Stanley G. Flegg, 3d, who purchased the Fletcher residence, with garage and tract of ground at Gulf Mills, will reside in the dwelling during the winter months. Henry Clapsadle, superintendent on the Fletcher estate for a number of years, is still occupying the dwelling on that part of the estate still in possession of the Fletcher family.

The Alumnae Association of Bryn Mawr College will bring the famous Stuart Walker production, "The Book of Job," to Philadelphia for presentation at the Academy of Music on November 1. The production is being given for the benefit of the alumnae regional scholarship fund, through which the college doors are often opened to young women who could not otherwise afford to go to Bryn Mawr.

The funeral of Dennis Tague, a former resident of Gulf Mills, and well-known here, and for about 25 years employed as gardener on the Brown estate in Radnor, took place on Wednesday morning from his late residence on the Radnor-King-of-Prussia road, near Radnor station, where he had resided for a number of years. High Mass of Requiem was celebrated in St. Thomas church, Villa Nova. The interment was made in St. Augustine's cemetery, Bridgeport. Deceased at one time was employed in the McFarland textile mill at Gulf Mills and after relinquishing this work turned his attention to gardening and landscaping. In addition to the brothers already mentioned as surviving him, John Tague, of Gulf Mills, and Thomas Tague, of Ithan, Pa., a former policeman in Radnor township are also survivors.

Rev. Albert Loucks, who is about to close his pastorate at the Gulf Christian church, was the host to a large gathering at the parsonage last evening. The event was in the nature of a surprise to the ministers as well as a farewell reception given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Loucks prior to their departure from Gulf Mills to their new home in Hartwick, New York. Those who made arrangements for the affair did it so quietly and methodically that Rev. Loucks was taken completely by surprise. The large number of guests gathered in the church, which is across the road from the parsonage, and proceeded to the minister's home, gave him surprising and cordial greetings. After recovering from the surprise accorded him, Rev. Loucks entered into the occasion with a genial spirit, and he and his wife entertained the guests in a fine manner, the evening being pleasantly spent in sociability and other diversions. A repast was served. Mr. Loucks told those who had assembled that he would always retain a kindly thought and regard for them as he continued his ministerial career, and hoped to see them continue their strong affiliations with the Gulf church, which he endeavored to serve faithfully, energetically and efficiently. One of the greatest surprises of the event came when Rev. Loucks was presented with a purse of money on behalf of the church and community. He responded very feelingly for the gift and thanked the donors for their spirit of liberality. Before the guests departed for their homes they wished Rev. Loucks success in his field of labor at Hartwick, and happiness for himself and family in the future.

The service of Holy Communion will be held at Trinity Mission, Gulf Mills, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Lamb, of Wayne, officiating and preaching the sermon. In the evening at 7.30, Mr. G. H. Randall will conduct the service and Walter Gale, of Philadelphia, will make the address.

Residents in the Gulf Mills district who have children in the seventh and eighth grades at the Bird-in-Hand school, received notice from Miss Mary McLean, supervising principal of the Upper Merion schools, to the effect that these two grades would be transferred to the new school at Swedeland. This was done in order to overcome the crowded condition at the Bird-in-Hand school, where there were no graduates last term and when many beginners were admitted for the first semester in the new term. When the new school at Swedeland was completed and opened last fall, it was stated that it was the intention of the school board to transfer some of the higher grades from Bird-in-Hand to the Swedeland place of learning at that time. This was not done, however, as the board believed the building at Bird-in-Hand was large enough to take care of all the pupils in that section of the township. When the new term opened in September the inadequacy of the facilities at Bird-in-Hand were clearly shown, and the school board being called on to remedy the conditions, resorted to what was said to be their original plan, that of transferring the seventh and eighth grades from Bird-in-Hand to Swedeland, which was done this week. The pupils who will make the change will be obliged to be ready for school earlier in the morning and will be taken to and from Swedeland in a motor bus. The school board is also endeavoring to devise a way to overcome the crowded condition of the Union school at King-of-Prussia, where the scholars have also greatly multiplied since last term. The Bird-in-Hand school building was built in 1870, thus for 52 years all of the pupils in the district have attended that place of learning, and with the removal of those in the seventh and eighth grade to Swedeland marks a new epoch in the history of the schools here. Prior to the Bird-in-Hand school being established, some of the school children in this section attended the original school at Swedeland, which was demolished in 1898.

APPLES—NO PICKERS, PRESTO! 'TIS SOLVED
Andrew Maylof solved the labor problem of Prof. Samuel Authur King of Bryn Mawr College, Tuesday night in an unexpected manner. For days Prof. King has allowed a large apple crop to remain on the trees of his farm at Villa Nova because he was unable to get farm help just as he was worrying Wednesday how he could save the crop a touring car stopped at his door and a policeman stepped out. With him was Andrew Maylof, of West Conshohocken, and in the automobile were apples, at least twenty bushels.

Policeman Minna, of the Lower Merion police station, told Prof. King that the heavy load had aroused his suspicion and that, after questioning, Maylof admitted taking them from the King farm.

So happy was the professor to see his apples picked that he promised not to prosecute Maylof if he unloaded them into the cellar of the King home. Maylof agreed, and often having spent all day gathering the big crop he spent three hours of the evening transferring the load from the car into the cellar, using his hat as the only available receptacle.

FIRMS PAY TRIBUTE TO BASE BALL TEAMS

dustrial League, was the next speaker. In a few well chosen remarks he presented to Mr. Kearns, of the Lee Tire & Rubber Company a beautiful silver cup—the trophy of the league for winning the championship.

Frank Sutcliffe, president of the John Wood Manufacturing Company, was next asked to respond and in his own inimitable fashion referred to the spirit of friendship and sportsmanship between the two teams. He dwelt on the co-operation existing between the employer and employees of the two plants and said that if all of the plants in town would enter into the same spirit of co-operation it would make a far better town, not only in sports but in all lines.

A. A. Gathwaite, treasurer of the Lee Tire & Rubber Company, spoke in favor of athletics. He complimented Mr. Kearns for building up sports in his company and said that the company will always do their part to foster athletics and that the company always had a little cash for any athletic movement.

Victor Mauck, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Wood Company, said that the growing and co-operative spirit in Conshohocken is due to Mr. Kearns and Mr. Sutcliffe. He urged more enthusiasm in developing the sports with other sports which will go to make for a strong Conshohocken spirit.

John M. Dettra, of the Lee Board of Directors, said that he thought his base ball days were over but the events of the evening had revived them. He spoke of the friendship existing between the two firms and said that at a recent meeting of his board of directors a resolution was unanimously adopted favoring a closer friendship between them.

Others who responded included Mr. Mancer, Bill Kennedy, O. S. Johnson, S. K. Mitchell, Irving Heywood, Gray Weber and John Wood, Jr.

All of the speakers urged a closer co-operation between the employer and employee and for a furtherance of clean sports.

The evening's enjoyment was concluded about 11:30 o'clock and all present departed for their homes well satisfied with the time spent in the uplift of sport and feel that it will tend to weld closer the friendly relations existing between the employers and employees of the two concerns. It was indeed a truly great success.

LITTLE TALKS ON THRIFT

By S. W. STRAUS, President American Society for Thrift

NEVER have been able to get ahead much. Luck has always seemed to be against me.

should teach a most valuable lesson in thrift.

We hear much about good luck and bad luck in the world—a great deal more than is best for our progress.

When we analyze personal success we find the element of luck had little or nothing to do with it. And when we analyze the failures we find that bad luck was not to blame.

So-called bad luck should be a blessing in disguise, for in overcoming it we gain strength, courage and ability. And so-called good luck very often brings direct or eventual failure.

If you are in any way depending on the winds of good luck to waft you into the harbor of your dreams you will be most grievously disappointed.

Rely on yourself. Learn your lessons in the rugged school of hard work, thrift, patience and perseverance. Scratch the word luck from your vocabulary. If things go against you accept them as the challenge of a worthy foe and increase your resolutions to win. If things come your way don't get the idea that you have become one especially favored of the gods, such as those you read about in your fairy-book days. Look out for apparent good-luck. It may prove your undoing as it has in the cases of many others.

DRIVE FOR FUNDS FOR WELFARE WORK

County Council Needs Funds to Carry Out Great Work of Protecting County Against Poverty and Disease.

The Council for Social Welfare of Montgomery County started a drive for funds on Wednesday, and is now engaged in sending letters to philanthropic persons throughout the county soliciting contributions. A contribution of a dollar or more is asked from each person.

The Council for Social Welfare acts as a clearing house for all problems affecting the social welfare of the county. The regular meetings held the second Friday of every other month at the headquarters in the Court House Annex, Norristown, afford opportunity for the charity workers and social welfare agencies to get together and discuss the problems that confront them in philanthropic and health conservation effort for the people of the county.

Among the activities directly conducted by the council are the Well Baby Clinic; Social Service Exchange and General Health Clinic. There is about to be established a Genito-Urinary Clinic and a Dental Clinic.

The Social Service Exchange is a clearing house for the social welfare agencies of the county. The Exchange maintains a card index of families known to the social agencies. Whenever a family is reported in want or in need of social service or health attention, the Exchange sees that the proper agencies are called in and that there is no efficiency lost through several agencies simultaneously applying relief.

The General Clinic is held on Monday afternoons at the Preston building, Norristown, in charge of Dr. Reineck Knipe and Miss Lillian Brown, State Nurse, assisted by Mrs. William G. Miller, John Simpson and Remo Fabbri. Besides the cases coming to the clinic, tuberculosis patients all over the county are visited and necessary hygienic precautions instituted to prevent the spread of the disease. The removal of tuberculosis patients to sanitariums is also arranged for, when necessary. The nurse also follows up all operations for the removal of tonsils and adenoids among school children whose parents are unable to provide proper care in such emergency.

The Genito-Urinary Clinic is to be opened next month and the Dental Clinic, for public school children will open as soon as the necessary funds are in hand.

The officers of the Council for Social Welfare are as follows:

Franklin L. Wright, president, Norristown; Mrs. Mary Willets, first vice president, Whitmarsh; Prof. H. F. Landis, second vice president, Norristown; Rev. C. H. Kehm, third vice president, Pottstown; H. Frazer Harris, recording secretary, Chestnut Hill; Mrs. George J. Cooke, corresponding secretary, Ambler; Miss Marjorie Childs, treasurer, Norristown.

Chairmen of committees: J. D. Kane, Norristown, finances; Miss Nancy P. Highley, Norristown, house; Miss Helen Cole Carter, Ardmore, program; Mrs. H. Norris Harrison, Jenkintown, nomination; Mrs. George J. Cooke, Ambler, health; H. Wilson Stahlnecker, Norristown, registration.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The Montgomery County League of Women Voters held its annual meeting in City Hall, Norristown, where it was entertained by the local League. Our hostess, Mrs. Aaron Swartz, chairman for the Norristown branch, opened the meeting and welcomed the chairmen and delegates.

Mrs. M. W. Montgomery, of Wynneott, vice-chairman of the Montgomery County League, spoke in appreciation of the hospitality of the Norristown League and turned the meeting over to Mrs. Herman L. Schwartz, of Wynneott, retiring chairman of the Montgomery County League. After greeting the meeting, Mrs. Schwartz called for the minutes of the last meeting, held in the fall of 1921. These were given by the secretary, Mrs. George Blair.

The next report was given by the treasurer, Miss Margaret P. Saunders. A most interesting item of her report being that the annual expenditures for the Montgomery County League to date have been over $2000.00.

Mrs. Schwartz then spoke of the great benefit of having delegates attend conventions and asked the branches to help with the "Box" or Legislative funds—the proceeds to be used for sending delegates to Harrisburg while the legislature is in session.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held at the Park House on Wednesday afternoon. Regular routine business was transacted.

Arrangements are being made for the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Club in November.

An interesting report of the County Federation held at Hatboro on October 19, written by Mrs. Charles Jones and in her absence was read by Mrs. Frank Jones.

Mrs. May Cohen sang several delightful solos, accompanied by Mrs. J. Q. Thomas at the piano.

Mrs. Conrad Jones, president Mrs. George Light and Mrs. F. B. Wilson, who were club delegates to the recent convention held at Reading, Pa., it being the twenty-seventh annual convention, all read very interesting reports, and spoke of being most cordially entertained.

There were 479 registered delegates and alternates at the convention besides the many other members who were present. Twelve members from the Conshohocken Club attended some of the sessions.

The secretary was authorized to write a letter to town council asking them to enact the curfew law. The siren to be sounded at 9.15 p. m. as many children are on the streets late at night.

The Club is offering two prizes of $5 and $2.50 to be awarded to students of the High school for the two best essays written by students on some phrase of "Constructive measures for peace."

The committee arranging the contest is: Mrs. Henry D. Cranor, Mrs. George T. Lukens and Mrs. William A. Cooper. Details of the great contest will be announced previous to Armistice Day, November 11.

Eastern Star Meetings

The Norris Penn Chapter of Eastern Star, Norristown, held a Past Matron's night at their meeting room on Wednesday evening. A number of members from Banner Chapter 149 of this borough attended.

Mrs. Edna Bosler, of Powell street, Norristown, entertained the Sewing Circle of Banner Chapter at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Anna Renninger, of Fayette street, will entertain the members of Banner Chapter at her home on Monday evening.

GOLDEN STARS HAVE HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Miss Lillian Hiltner, 137 East Seventh avenue, entertained the members of the Golden Star Club at her home, on Wednesday evening, at a Halloween party. The evening was spent in Halloween sports, dancing, etc. Snappy refreshments followed the games.

Those present were: Elizabeth Quigg, Mabel Nester, Emma Ruth, Thelma Hallman, Virginia Coien, Eulia Adair, Myrtle Preas and Blanche Smith.

THE NEEDLEWORK GUILD

The Conshohocken Branch of the Needlework Guild of America, will hold its annual meeting, collection and distribution of garments on November 1st and 2nd, in the Mary H. Wood Park House.

A cordial invitation is extended to contributors and funds of the Guild at 3 o'clock on November 1st. Exhibition of garments, speakers, musical program, and Tea will be served. Directors will please report their garment collection at 9 o'clock.

Directors wishing garments sent to private cases must send name and full information to the committee on Private Cases one week before the annual meeting. Committee on Private Cases is Mrs. Frank Wilson, Miss Marie Tracy, Mrs. G. F. Sheppard, Mrs. Wm. Renninger, Miss Elizabeth Steward, Mrs. Howard Koch, Mrs. Laueella Holland, Mrs. Walter H. Corson.

Receiving and checking,—Mrs. Charles W. Jones, chairman.

Two articles of a kind in size and quality are asked from each contributor. There is joy in giving which none but he who giveth knows.

TEACHERS GIVEN DEMONSTRATION

A demonstration in the Beacon system of reading, a phonetic system was given in the first five grades in the public schools yesterday, by Mrs. Philena B. Cox.

Mrs. Cox gave a practical demonstration of the system with pupils in the first and second grades and afterwards the pupils of the first three grades were dismissed and the system was explained to the teachers having them use the system as the children would use it.

The system will be introduced into the schools and will give the same instruction in reading throughout the grades. Later, the same system will be used in teaching other studies.

A special meeting of Town Council will be held on Monday evening to consider the building of a roadway in West Eleventh avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pitman of East Tenth avenue.

Miss Theresa Sands attended the twentieth wedding anniversary of her brother in Philadelphia the past week.

Mrs. John Kelly, of Fayette street, entertained the packers of the Boro cigar factory, at cards, at her home last evening.

Miss Elizabeth Moore of East Fifth avenue was given a dinner the past week in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent with cards.

Mrs. William W. Renninger will entertain the members of Banner Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at her home on Fayette street at a masquerade party next Monday evening.

Mrs. Robert J. Crawford was hostess to the Five Hundred Club at her home 1024 Fayette street, on Tuesday evening. Favors were awarded to Mrs. Frank Messinger and Mrs. George W. Taylor.

The Misses Mabel Wilkins, Elma M. Jones and Helen Cole were delightfully entertained at luncheon on Tuesday afternoon at the "Cathay" by Miss Helen E. Koch, of Fayette street.

Mrs. A. Gabin, of Spring Mill avenue, who has been a patient in the Howard hospital for the past few weeks recovering from the effects of an operation, is expected to be discharged from the institution next Monday and return to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Weber are being congratulated on the birth of a son Randall Clark Weber, born the past week at Riverview Hospital, Norristown. Mrs. Weber was formerly Miss Sheffy, teacher in the commercial department of the local high school.

A card party and dance will be held this evening in the K. of C. hall for the benefit of the Knights of Columbus. O'Brien's orchestra of Philadelphia, will furnish the music for the dance. The hostesses will be the Misses Anna Scharf and Marie C. Blanche.

Mr. and Mrs. George Prentice, of Camden, N. J., left on Tuesday for Florida, where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Prentice, prior to her marriage, was Miss Elizabeth Rayson, daughter of John Rayson, of West Conshohocken and was born and raised in this borough.

Isaac Laver, a former well-known resident of this borough, but now a resident of Bryn Mawr, suffered a stroke of paralysis on Tuesday and is now in a serious condition. He is a brother of Harry Laver, of West Conshohocken.

The Brotherhood of St. Mark's Lutheran church will give their second annual Cobweb social in the basement of St. Mark's church, Fifth avenue and Harry street, tomorrow evening. Elaborate preparations are being made to make the entertainment a most enjoyable one.

At West Seventh avenue and Maple streets, on Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings, a rummage sale will be conducted in the interest of the work of the Baptist Social Union. House cleaning time in many homes has provided an ample display of useful goods, and a visit to the sale will be well repaid.

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Kirkpatrick, who died last Saturday evening, took place from her late home, 335 East Hector street, on Wednesday afternoon and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Services were conducted in Calvary P. E. church and were in charge of Rev. J. Kennedy Moorhouse, rector. The interment was made in Barren Hill cemetery.

Under the combined auspices of the Social Union and the Social Committee of the Young People, a Halloween social was given in the lecture rooms of the First Baptist church on Thursday evening. With all the customary Halloween decorations, with appropriate games and ample refreshments an evening "long to be remembered" for joy was assured.

Andrew Long, Jr., is confined to his home on East Eighth avenue by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Speaker, of East Fifth avenue, were visitors to Doylestown on Sunday.

William F. Graham is having the exterior of his home on East Eighth avenue replastered.

"Referendum" On Education Urged By Pres. Thomas

State College Head Asks People To Approve Plan To Raise $2,000,000

Dr. John N. Thomas, President, Pennsylvania State College

The "referendum" on higher education in Pennsylvania, suggested just a year ago by President John M. Thomas, of the Pennsylvania State College, at State College, is being presented to the people of Pennsylvania this week. Committees in the 67 counties of the state are offering to all Pennsylvanians the opportunity to vote their endorsement to the plan to better the state's institution of higher learning by providing through an emergency building fund of $2,000,000, health, welfare, and residence units for its students.

The college decided upon the novel plan of an informal referendum of its problem to the people of the state and is seeking support from all classes of persons in a campaign for more adequate public support. In a statement on the "referendum," Dr. Thomas said:

"With but a single dormitory accommodating only 150 of the 3,000 men at the college, a hospital with only one bed for every 400 students and no physical education or social buildings for either men or women, it has been decided that direct action by the citizens of the state will most quickly remedy the immediate needs of the college.

"The Pennsylvania State College owned by the people of the state, should be a worthy apex of the public school system in this Commonwealth. Dignified with the name of University, it should provide this state with an institution such as that possessed by every state to the west and south of us.

"At the present time, the resources of Penn State are far below the standard at other institutions. The following table shows what Penn State receives from the Legislature for maintenance for a year, compared with what other states, smaller and poorer than Pennsylvania, provide for the maintenance of their universities: Pennsylvania State College $ 800,000 Ohio State University..... 1,912,568 University of Illinois..... 2,526,753 University of Wisconsin..... 2,541,545 University of Michigan..... 3,018,750 University of California..... 3,119,552 University of Minnesota..... 3,056,498"

St. Hedwig's Polish Catholic Club To Be The Attraction Here To-Morrow

Chester's Representative Team to Oppose Local Champions in This Borough To-Morrow Afternoon.—Visitors Have Strong Following and Will Be Accompanied by a Large Crowd of Rooters.—Try-Out For McCall, of Reliance.

St. Hedwig's Polish Catholic Club, the representative club of Chester, will be the attraction at the local athletic field to oppose the Champions in their weekly Saturday tilt. Ewing was scheduled, but cancelled the game late in the week.

St. Hedwig's is playing their first season although they claim to have a powerful team. The club has a large membership and is being backed by a large following of rooters, and they expect to bring a big crowd to this borough.

The local team held their weekly practice on the athletic field last evening and Francis McCall, a local boy playing with Reliance, practiced in the backfield. He will be given a chance in to-morrow's game against St. Hedwig's.

The teams will line-up at the start of the game as follows:

RELIANCIE TO PLAY AT SANATOGA PARK, SUNDAY

Reliance will journey to Sanatoga Park on Sunday afternoon and play their second game this season with Bechtel's Pottstown team and a battle royal is anticipated. The two teams met a few weeks ago and the contest ended in a tie score. The game on Sunday is to decide the supremacy. Both teams played hard games last week but the men are rapidly recovering from the effects of their grueling and will be in the pink of condition to tear at each other when Referee Hopkins sounds the whistle to start hostilities. Coach Jones has worked out a number of new signals and these will be used in the game on Sunday. The strongest team possible will be taken to Sanatoga and the local team feels confident that there will be a decision at the end of the game and that the odds will all be in their favor. It is expected that a large crowd of foot ball enthusiasts from here will accompany the team.

Amity Athletic Club Here On Sunday

Unbeatable Philadelphia Team Will Play Y. M. A. A.

The Amity Athletic Club, of West Philadelphia, will journey to this borough on Sunday, when they will tackle the undefeated Y. M. A. A. team on the golf grounds at 3.15 p. m. This is Amity's first appearance in this borough and if they run true to form, they should give the locals a great battle for they have won five games in a row, defeating Metro, Royal C. C., South Philly Scholastics, Mervine A. A. and Ryan A. C. and have not tasted defeat or been scored upon.

Amity has succeeded well under the tutelage of Label Goldblatt, former Penn star and has a number of trick plays, and are depending on these to turn back the locals. Realizing the kind of a game played by Amity, Coach Wilson, of the locals, has his team all primed for the game. Instead of relying on straight speed and brute strength to carry them through, the local team will depend on open work and launch an aerial attack, which will put the opposition to rout.

Coach Wilson put the "Y" boys through a stiff signal practice last evening and is confident his team will give their rivals a great battle.

Y. M. A. A. has had one of the best seasons of football, coached and drilled by Wilson, former crack lineman of Villanova. They have won all four games played, scoring 96 points to their opponents nothing. The team is composed of all local boys and in Coyne, Ford, Murphy, Blake, Mellon and Kehoe, Y. M. A. A. have one of the best amateur backfields in the county.

The line has been considerably strengthened by the addition of Schank, Jaquot and Harper.

Reliance Club Has Great Plans for the Future

The Reliance Football Club will hold a meeting this evening in their rooms at Hector and Poplar streets. The object of the meeting is to decide whether or not the club will participate in the coming Hallow'een parade.

All the members of the football squad are about over the effects of their hard game with Shamokin the past Sunday, with the exception of Fondots, who is still incapacitated with a slightly sprained ankle. Manager Mason is highly elated with the success of his club thus far and also appreciates the support given him by the large number of the club's followers and admirers. He is forming plans for the future which he thinks will more than make a success of the Club, not only for the present time but for years to come. It is his intention to participate in all branches of athletics and will race a basketball team in the cage the coming season under the able direction of William Irwin, Jr. Nothing need be said about Irwin's ability as a basketball man for the simple reason that he is well known wherever the game is played, having officiated for the A. A. U. and coached the local high school quartet. All the affairs of the Reliance cage-team will be left to him.

A novel plan conceived by Manager Mason in regards to his gridiron squad for 1923 has been approved by all the members of this year's eleven. In view of the great number of applicants applying for a place on the present squad, Mason has decided with the coming of next year's season to place two teams on the field under the direction of a college coach. Both will be playing teams but will practice together, much after the system of colleges. The first team or varsity will be composed of the town's best men and as the men on the second or scrub team show their worth in scrimmages and in actual games, they will be advanced to the first squad. In this manner it is hoped to produce in Conshohocken a championship team composed solely of local boys. Any person in town is welcome to try for either team.

Manager Mason feels proud of the fact that one of his fast backfield men is to have a try-out with the big Conshohocken team in their contest tomorrow. The man in question is Francis McCall and he has the Club's heartiest wish for success. Reliance and their followers are over to Pottstown on Sunday and every man of the squad seems confident of a victory. Practice will be held this evening and all members are requested to be present.

HOLMESBURG TO PLAY AT FRANKFORD

Frankford has at last succeeded in pulling the wool over the eyes of Holmesburg, and Manager Bowker has induced their time-honored rivals to play at Brown's Field again this season notwithstanding that it is Frankford's turn to play at Holmesburg. A conference was held between the officials of the two teams a few days ago when Frankford made a long explanation of how they had sold a large number of season tickets calling for a certain number of games to be played at home and could not break their faith with their followers by taking the team away.

Holmesburg fell for it and arrangements were completed to play the game on Saturday, November 18. Up to the present time there has been no conference between Conshohocken and Frankford regarding a game.

Manager Crawford early in the season informed Manager Bowker that it was his turn to bring his famous "Yellowjackets" here and he told it in such explicit terms that there could be no misunderstanding.

Frankford has a great team and while they might claim to be the champions of the country and succeed in having their claim sent broadcast through the large daily newspapers of Philadelphia, their claim must not stand until they have proven it by defeating Conshohocken. The locals lay claim to the title of champions and are justified in so doing because they defeated both Frankford and Holmesburg last year. The Quakers were the only team to defeat the locals last season and the Quakers did not organize this season. The fact that the "Yellowjackets" succeeded in signing up the majority of last year's Quaker team does not in the least change the complexion of the situation between Frankford and the local team. It simply means that Manager Bowker has strengthened his team for this season and in order for him to claim the championship it is necessary for him to win it and the only way it can be won is to play the present titleholder which is Conshohocken. Manager Crawford cannot afford to lower his dignity and submit to the demands of Frankford and play the game on Brown's field. There is no argument that can be advanced showing where it would be more profitable to either team. The local athletic field is far more convenient for the Frankford people to reach than Brown's field is for Conshohocken people to reach. The playing field here is far better than Brown's field was last season, the accommodations for handling a big crowd are far better here than at Brown's field and above all and the most important feature from the standpoint of both teams, the game were it played here (and it must be) would attract a larger crowd than if it were played at Frankford.

Wake up! Manager Bowker; continue to be the sport you have been in other years, live up to your moral obligations and bring your team to this borough as you should and retain the friendly relations that have existed between Conshohocken and Frankford and which has worked for the uplifting of the great outdoor game.

Sunday is Mitchell Day, the greatest holiday of the year in the coal regions. Manager Gilden, of the Coaldale foot ball team, sought to have Manager Crawford take his Conshohocken Champions to Coaldale as a holiday attraction but sufficient inducements were not forthcoming. The coal regions teams all season have succeeded in having columns of publicity in a certain Philadelphia daily newspaper proclaiming the popularity of the game in the coal districts and the great players that have been produced, but to Manager Crawford all this is bunk of the purest quality. Coaldale asked to have the greatest team in Pennsylvania in Conshohocken to travel all the way to Coaldale and play before what should be the greatest crowd of all the season for the sum of $500. Manager Crawford offered to take his team for the holiday attraction provided Coaldale would supply $1500.

Secretary McFarland tried to get Gilberton to come here tomorrow for a game with Conshohocken and the Coal Barons expressed delight in the opportunity but as the secretary read further down the letter, he was surprised to find that the lowest figure they could consider is $1000.00. Gilberton evidently is of the opinion that the mint is located in this borough instead of Philadelphia. Next!

High School Will Play 2 Games With N. H. R.

The game originally scheduled between the local high school foot ball team and the reserves of the Norristown high school for last Wednesday, at the local athletic field, will be played next Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 at the local athletic field, and a return game will be played at the stockade, Norristown, on Tuesday afternoon, November 7th at 3.30.

A game with Haverford high has been arranged for Friday, November 4, on the local grounds.

The local team issued tickets for the game scheduled for last Wednesday. These tickets will be honored at either the Haverford or Norristown game to be played here.

The local team is practicing daily and coach Mitchell has the team working smoothly and the boys are playing a speedy game. Their first real test will be against Norristown Reserves, coached by Zimmerman, who has produced a very fast team in the eleven representing the high school.
