His victory garden plot—the first he's ever worked—is on Twelfth avenue near Maple street. The tomato measures approximately 3 1/2 inches in diameter and is a good specimen.

Two Lose Gas Ration Books For Violations

Driver loses ration for duration, another for 2 months

NO SUMMER TRIPS

Driving to summer homes out—May drive to close

One gasoline ration book was revoked for the duration and another suspended for two months by War Price and Ration Board 2646-5, Whitmarsh, at hearings last night.

Peter D'Allessandro, of 338 Jefferson street, Black Horse, who was said to have three T coupons in his possession when his car was stopped by OPA inspector May 31 in Norristown, lost his book for the duration. The T coupons are for commercial vehicles.

Jasper Henry White, of East Tennis avenue, Ambler, will be deprived of gasoline for two months as a result of having been found guilty of speeding by a magistrate in Plainfield, N. J., last April. This was the second suspension within a week.

D'Allessandro told the board a man whose identity he did not know gave him the coupons.

No Driving to Summer Homes

If you think you have reason to believe you are entitled to drive your car to a summer home, forget it.

This was the gist of a statement issued today by OPA's C. Freas, chairman of War Price and Rationing Board 2646-5, serving this area. He said the ration board office has been deluged with requests on this matter.

"The only permissible trip would be where there is clear proof that it is necessary to drive to a summer home to close it for the season in order to prevent imminent damage to the property and where there is an absence of alternative means of transportation," said the chairman. He added:

"Travel to summer homes for vacation purposes and not in connection with an occupation performed here, is not personal necessity driving and, therefore, is not a permissible use of basic rations. Also it is not permissible to drive an automobile to a summer home on basic rations for the purpose of keeping it there to obtain necessary supplies."

"Driving to summer homes to make repairs is not essential driving. Moving property to summer homes is not essential driving."

Named for New Fire Board

No. 2 Co. chooses its representatives — Council to approve

Conshohocken No. 2 Fire Company has named four members for the new Borough Fire Commission, which will replace the former Fire Defense Board. According to a new ordinance creating a fire commission, each of the two local fire companies will be represented on the commission by four men. The commission will have complete control over fire measures within the borough, will make recommendations to Town Council and have authority to eliminate fire hazards here.

Named by the No. 2 Company at its June meeting, Monday, were Vernon E. Matz, Harvey L. Shaw, Benjamin F. Beaver and Franklin Thomas, company engineer. Joseph P. Thomas and August Ruser were named deputies, to act as assistant Fire Chief Theodore Speaker. Sr. Two members were admitted and two proposals received. Three fires were reported.

A donation of $25 to the Salvation Army was approved. Motion pictures were shown by Reuben DeHaven, Charles W. Moore Presided. Refreshments were served.

Instruction

Eighteen men of the No. 2 Fire Company were given instruction in operation of the company's three pumps, Tuesday night for the second time, on the grounds of the John Wood Manufacturing Company. Franklin Thomas was the instructor. The purpose of the instruction is to train members to replace the younger men now in the service, who were accustomed to handling the pumps. The instruction will continue for six or eight weeks, Thomas states, every Tuesday night at the Wood Company plant, chosen because of ease in pumping water from the river at this point.

The nominations of the Washington Fire Company for the new fire commission are: Harry Barrett, Walter Pope, John Riggs and Robert Blair.

Town Council will act on the nominations at the July meeting.

Burgess Plans Ration Office

West Side official secures aides—To open office in July

Ignoring the half-hearted support offered by the West Conshohocken school board in obtaining a local ration office for the convenience of the residents of that borough, Burgess Harry Mosman has already completed plans for the venture.

Miss Mary Rockett, daughter of John Rockett, 1037 Ford street, has volunteered to manage the office and on Monday began a course at Bryn Mawr to acquaint herself with the various application forms and the manner in which they must be filled out. She will also familiarize herself with other details of the office. As soon as she has a thorough knowledge of the workings of the office she will instruct a number of other volunteers who will assist her at the new office. All of those connected with the office will give their service without charge. Town Council will defray Miss Rockett's expense for transportation to Bryn Mawr until she has received full instruction. She is a graduate of the West Conshohocken high school class of 1940 and was one of the honor students.

Others who have agreed to assist with the work are Miss Margaret Halladay, Kathryn Hallard, Virginia Green and Mrs. Isabel C. Tyson. The opening of the office will depend on the length of time it takes for the force to become acquainted with the work but it is hoped arrangements can be completed by the early part of July.

The office will be opened in the borough hall and will be open two nights a week, Tuesday and Friday. Only applications will be received at the branch office. Assistance in filling these out will be given by the office staff. The applications will be returned the following day to the headquarters at Bryn Mawr for final approval. The board has agreed to act on the applications as soon as they are received and those that are approved will be mailed immediately to the applicant.

This will eliminate the necessity of West Side residents having to go to Bryn Mawr to make application for an additional allowance of any rationed article.

"Meanest" Thief Stole Water Fixtures

The latest version of the "meanest" thief has been uncovered here. A spigot and length of pipe, installed at the fountain in the Mary Jane Sutcliffe Park for the immediate return of victory gardeners, and for the prospective use of children for drinking water in the Sutcliffe playground, was stolen within twenty-four hours after its installation.

Gustav Abrams, chairman of the recreational committee, today disclosed the theft and states that the thieves, if caught, will be prosecuted.

The ODT warned that "there will be no relief and any change at all, would probably be in the direction of further reduction in mileage."

Half Hour Bus Service Here on S V Lines

Starting Monday, service to Norristown on new schedule

NO OFF PEAK TIME

Change distributes loads—Keep within mileage

For the purpose of reducing overloads but at the same time conforming to the mileage restrictions imposed by the Office of Defense Transportation, Schuylkill Valley Lines, Inc., today announced additional bus services under the present emergency schedules. The changes, effective Sunday and Monday, will be on Penn Square, Harmanville-Conshohocken, and Collegeville Routes.

Beginning Monday, and daily thereafter, additional trips will be added to the Norristown-Harmanville-Conshohocken route. Service headway will be changed so that buses make trips on this route every half hour instead of every 45 minutes between 8 a. m. and 11 a. m. from Norristown on the hour and 30 minutes after the hour. They will return from Lee Tire every half hour at 25 and 55 minutes after the hours from 8:25 a. m. to 11:25 a. m.

For Sunday operation, beginning this Sunday, additional buses will leave Norristown, Main and Swede streets for Collegeville at 10:55 a. m., 12:55 p. m., 4:55 p. m. and 6:55 p. m. These buses will return to Norristown from Collegeville at 11:37 a. m., 1:37 p. m., 5:37 p. m. and 7:37 p. m. Another new trip effective Sunday and every Sunday thereafter will be a bus to Penn Square leaving Main and Swede streets at 9:30 a. m. and leaving Germantown pike and Swedesford road at approximately 9:45 a. m. for Norristown.

Clinton D. Smith, vice president and general manager of the bus company, said these changes are being made as a result of constant traffic checks on passenger loads. Since May 28, when Schuylkill Valley Lines began a 20 per cent cut in mileage schedule as ordered by the Office of Defense Transportation, the company has been conducting traffic checks. These checks are for the purpose of securing the best distribution of the total number of miles prohibited under the emergency war order. The Government order allows the company to operate only 80 per cent of the mileage of the entire fleet.

Mr. Smith pointed out that in normal times there is a seasonal decline in the bus traffic at this time of the year, especially during the so-called industrial rush hours additional passengers are being carried during the "off-peak" periods of the day because of the curtailment of service during those periods.

Therefore, Mr. Smith stated, traffic checks had to be made and will be continued in order to work out the best possible mileage schedule.

"We will realize that the constant changing of schedules is annoying but on the other hand the company is doing its very best to serve the entire public with the least amount of inconvenience, despite the mileage restrictions ordered by the government as another step in the war effort," Mr. Smith said.

At the same time the bus company official reminded bus passengers of a recent statement from the Office of Defense Transportation when the public was warned against "false optimism regarding possibilities of early relief from restrictions or transportation in the gasoline shortage area."

The ODT warned that "there will be no relief and any change at all, would probably be in the direction of further reduction in mileage."

Asked to Entertain Service Men

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Widener of "Erdemheim Farms", Whitmarsh Township, will soon open a freshly furnished jockey house on their estate, for the use of convalescent soldiers, merchant seamen and sailors in this area. Twelve men can be accommodated at one time in the house.

An appeal is made to any groups of residents who can entertain the visiting service men there, to contact Mrs. C. B. Burke, Plymouth Meeting, Navy League Convalescent chairman in Whitmarsh Township.

Local Man Given 45 Days Jail Sentence

Plead guilty to entering neighbor's home in Hector st.

ENTERED ROOM

Motorist given forty days sentence—McNab is sentenced

Walter Griffin, 38, colored, of 356 East Hector street, was sentenced to a term of 45 days in the County Prison today by Judge George C. Corson after pleading guilty to a charge of forcible entry.

Griffin told the court that he was under the influence of intoxicating liquor when he climbed through a third story window of a neighbor's home into a bedroom where he badly frightened two girls who were asleep.

Griffin told Judge Corson he thought he was going into his own home. Judge Corson said he believed his story but would give him a sentence as a warning to keep out of neighbors' homes. Officer Harry Snear testified as to his arrest.

Driver Sentenced

William Shirey, of Evertown R. 2, a father of three children, was sent to jail for 40 days and ordered to pay the costs by Judge Corson today when he pleaded guilty to drunken driving.

Shirey was arrested twice previously in Montgomery County. In July, 1942, he was charged with drunken driving and placed on probation for two years. In August of the same year he was caught driving without a license and was sent to jail for 30 days.

3 Months Sentence

J. Darling-McNab, Chestnut Hill, convicted by a jury last week at Norristown, was sentenced this afternoon by Judge George Corson, to serve 3 months and 30 days in the county jail on a charge of wantonly pointing firearms and was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for a year on charges of assault and battery for resisting arrest.

MOLLY TELLS— Clare Booth Luce Is As "Globaluscious" As Her Pictures—More New Words

She is: Globaluscious, Globalluring, Globalbert, Globala mode—She's GlobaLuce.

"Speaking her own language. Molly" offers the above description of Clare Booth Luce, Congresswoman from Connecticut, author, journalist, playwright as an answer to her visit to nearby Haverford, Monday, when she coined several additional "global" words following up her famed "globalism" expression, which echoed "round the world" after catapulting into print following her virgin speech on the floor of Congress.

The guest speaker at annual Old Eons' Day program at Haverford school, the woman whose blonde beauty and brains have made her an outstanding international figure and whose play "The Women" scored a hit on stage and screen, was the only feminine guest at a dinner attended by three hundred old—and new—Alumni. That many more additional men and women came to hear her talk.

Howard Rawlsky, graduated with high honors, at commencement exercises which preceded the dinner, and Armstrong Powell of Cynwyd, former resident, also graduated "cum laude" were present at the noteworthy function.

Speaking on world affairs, Congresswoman Luce suggested along further "globalisms" that we set up a "globudget" to prevent our going "globanrupt," warned against "globidness" and feared we were tending toward "globindness" and that we were becoming "globalistic" to "globalology."

Completely feminine and glamorous in appearance, Clare Luce looks somewhat like a streamlined Dresden china figurine, with dainty, symmetrically modelled features, a slim physique, large heliotrope eyes and muted ash blonde hair.

Her frock for the Haverford dinner was a simple sport dress of powder blue, figured in black and white, with V-neck, long sleeves and simple buttons as its only trimming. Her trim feet wore high-heeled slippers of black and white and the famous velvet shoes stop her head—now her Congress hallmark—were of black. She wore no hat. Earrings were of pearl.

Her voice is lovely, moderately high and clear, but her gestures are bit nervous and too frequent. Even with "pixie" glasses, she looked pretty and more girlish than without them. She donned them only to read a bit of poetry during her talk.

Clare Luce, whose travels have taken her around the globe, spent the night in Haverford at the home of Leslie R. Severinghaus, headmaster of Haverford School. Mrs. Severinghaus is a sister of Henry Luce, husband of Clair Luce.

There seemed to be just one thing missing in the occasion. After her intensive talk on China, her scoring of America's foreign policy, her appeal that "America unite with the four million people of Asia and she would have nothing to fear" one just expected someone to cry: "Globealleluia!"

but none did. It was an interesting occasion and she has a face that could launch at least one ship, and a big ship.

She offered another word that will undoubtedly find its way into the Clare Booth Luce dictionary if one grows "Americast-an." A combination of American, European and Asian, it is the only appropriate name to describe Madame Chiang Kai-Shek she said. Spending Sunday night with her before Madame's departure for Ottawa enroute home, she referred to her as "that charming, exquisite woman."

"But despite her exquisite appearance, she will plunge right with aiding the madman and, as soon as she reaches China, again," was the congresswoman's tribute.

MOLLY MATSON.

Personals Mrs. Richard Bate, Jr., of East Sixth Avenue, is the guest of Mrs. Philip J. Crimian of Harrisburg, former local resident. Miss Gladys Hoagland, 304 West Tenth Avenue, returned Wednesday from Audubon, N. J., for the Summer vacation from Audubon High school where she is physical education supervisor.

Local Soldier Awarded Silver Star

Sgt. Alexander Cell, of this borough, wounded in the invasion of North Africa, is in Valley Forge General Hospital recuperating from his wounds. Sgt. Cell is the proud possessor of the "Silver Star" awarded him for bravery in action.

In a letter to Gerald Maguire, of this borough, a close personal friend, the wounded soldier writes: "I am getting along pretty well now although I'll have to undergo another operation in the near future. I was wounded while making the landing in North Africa (That was last November). I was in a special assault group and had been on the beach for quite a while. As a matter of fact I walked several times through a barrage of mortar shell French 75s and machine gun bullets but they finally got me—damn the 75s."

"I was hit in the chest by a shell fragment, and believe me, they certainly tear a man to pieces. I've lost part of two ribs but I don't think it will effect me in the future. At least that is what the doctors say. All in all, it wasn't a very pleasant experience but I can't kick a bit as I've come out of it very lucky, considering. "This isn't bragging but I am very proud of the fact that I was given the "Silver Star" for bravery in action while under fire and it's really something to have a decoration as beautiful as this. Well I must say so long."

Rapid Promotion for Local Soldier

A 21-year-old Conshohocken service man, in the Army less than ten months, has just been made master sergeant at Fort George Meade, Md.

He is Robert MacFarland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacFarland, 417 East Tenth avenue. They have just received word of his promotion from sergeant, inducted August 20, he was stationed at Camp Wheeler, Ga., until the end of September, when he was transferred to Fort George Meade.

A graduate of Conshohocken High school, he was active in athletics there, managing the varsity basketball team. Prior to entering the service, he was employed as cost accountant at Lee Rubber and Tire Company. His wife is the former Miss Naomi Stong, of Norristown.

Pvt. Grablewski who has been stationed at Camp Hood, Texas, since his induction in the U. S. Army in February, has been transferred to Shenango Personnel Replacement Depot, Greenville, Pa., and expects to be sent overseas in the not too distant future.

A member of Tank Destroyer Unit, Pvt. Grablewski has gone through a period of training that resembles actual warfare as near as possible. He says "It is really an acid test but a good thing to go through." "Bully," as he is familiarly known to his many friends, is a graduate of Conshohocken High class of 1942 and was employed in a clerical capacity with the Reading Company prior to his induction.

Mr. and Mrs. William Grablewski, East Elm street, spent the week-end with their soldier son at Shenango. They were accompanied by his fiancee, Miss Ann Kopin, 449 Coates street, Swedesburg.

"Seabee" Recovering From Tropical Fever

A local Naval "seabee" just back in the Pacific Coast area from Guadalcanal, scores strikes and striders in a letter just received here. He is William Speers, C. M. 2-C, U. S. Navy "Seabees," former Whitefish justice-of-the-peace. His home is on Ridge pike, Barren Hill.

Speers has just arrived at the Naval Hospital, San Diego, where he is convalescing from a tropical fever apparently picked up in the Solomon Islands. At least that is what the doctor says. "I often wonder, and many other service men do, about strikes back home and the greed for money," the seaman writes, "probably if these strikers should trade places with our fighting men, their way of thinking would change overnight."

"If men and women at home want to end this campaign, let them work and produce more and more of everything that is needed to bring speedy victory for the Allies," the former magistrate urges. "Good luck and success."

Cpl. Leonard Balkiewicz of Blythe, Calif., will return Monday after a 15-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Balkiewicz of 146 East Elm street. He was employed at Watts' Woolen Mills, Norristown, before induction a year ago.

Asks Reelection

RAYMOND K. MENSCH
Raymond K. Mensch, Gilbertsville, today announced his candidacy for re-election as a Montgomery County Commissioner.

He pointed out that the county's tax rate has been reduced 50 percent while at the same time the county administration has maintained its institutions, and government generally, on a high scale.

"Prior to my election a reduced County Tax was one of my prime motives and that has been achieved until at the present time the tax rate is the lowest of any debt free county in Pennsylvania.

"I am announcing my candidacy for a second term in the hope that I may be of further assistance in reserving good government on the sound, economical, 'pay as you go' basis that has been conducted during my first term in office."

CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 1943

The arm chair strategists are virtually agreed that it is about time for an invasion of Europe. The military commanders should be gratified to know they may now proceed, and they are ready.

Prof. Galbraith has resigned from the OPA and two assistant professors have been appointed to fill his job. The New Deal continues its policy of making two jobs where one existed before and the taxpayers pay the freight.

Get Rid of Lewis

John L. Lewis still maintains a defiant attitude towards the Government of the United States. When the government took over the mines, the coal strike was not settled although the miners returned to work. Lewis has given notice there must be a contract and extends the truce until June 20. If no agreement is reached between the miners and operators, the country faces a possible coal strike at a time when the tempo of the war is increasing.

It is time for the nation to stop blaming Lewis for defying an all powerful government and demand the government compel a fair adjustment of the miners' grievances and the mines be kept in operation.

If politics were taken out of the matter, there would be no defiance, no strike and no threat to our war industries and armed forces.

Help the Salvation Army

A campaign to raise funds for the Salvation Army has begun throughout the county. The quota for the county is $12,500, equal to less than five cents for each resident of the county.

In this borough an active campaign is conducted by Mrs. Reuben DeHaven, drive chairman, and fifty aides. No quota has been set for the borough but the liberality of the people here is counted upon to send the county quota over the top.

The Salvation Army is asking little in comparison with what they give. The Salvation Army is with our forces in every quarter of the world, aiding and comforting those who are separated from family and friends.

The Salvation Army made a great record in World War I. The veterans of that war have not forgotten what was done for them to make their lot more bearable and comfortable. The Salvation Army has profited by the experiences in the last war and has added to its services to the armed forces, with its activities spread over greater distances and with more demands for services, the Salvation Army is required to ask for additional support.

The drive committee is comprised of volunteers. Let them complete their work rapidly and successfully by making a contribution and do not wait to be asked.

Disposing of Refuse

The proposal by town council to purchase for taxes due the plot of ground known as "Martin's quarry," in West Seventh avenue, and use the land for a public dump and to install an incinerator for burning loose refuse, is not received with favor by owners of adjoining property.

Installing an incinerator, apparently, is the most objectionable feature as the residents of the neighborhood fear there may be offensive odors and also contend the borough should use the incinerators installed at the sewage treatment plant to dispose of all loose refuse.

As most of the refuse comes from the business section, the haul to the disposal plant is no longer than to the Seventh avenue site, and the incinerators are modern and of sufficient capacity to care for the present needs, and the work would be properly done at the plant under the supervision of the chief operator.

The property owners are taxpayers and they desire the borough use its present facilities before making expenditures that may be avoided.

Town Council should investigate the possibilities of the equipment at the disposal plant for disposing of loose refuse and use the Seventh avenue dump for the disposal of ashes and other materials suitable for filling. In the course of time, the present dump would be filled and would become building sites.

The borough cannot much longer postpone the collection of refuse as a public service. The question should be given study at this time.

White's Death Due To Accident

A certificate of accidental death by drowning has been issued by Coroner Rushong in the death Monday night of Gilbert White, 27, of Plymouth Meeting. White was found dead in a pool of water at White's Quarry, Germantown pike, Plymouth Meeting. The quarry is operated by his father. No marks were found on the body to indicate he had walked into any object or fell on a hard surface. The drowning cause was announced Wednesday afternoon by Dr. John C. Simpson at the funeral home of Paul D. Miller, here. Previously both Coroner Rushong and Constable T. Mason Osborne had expressed the opinion that White apparently had been electrocuted, because of the fact he clutched an iron bar in his hands and electric wires were strung over the spot where he was found by his brother Robert.

PREPARING FOR AFTER WAR CONDITIONS

Babson gives rules for every businessman—Cut out unprofitable lines—Merchants will become specialists and confine stocks to few lines—Make honest reports.

By Roger W. Babson

Babson Park, Mass., June 18.—Although I do not expect the European and Asiatic conflicts to be over until after election in 1944, yet the time is fast approaching. Hence it will be well for all businessmen—large and small—now to prepare a definite plan of post-war action. Certainly the "old days" will not return. New methods and policies are inevitable. Those who properly plan their work should succeed, but many of those who do not, will go under.

Study Profitable Items Perhaps the first step is to make a survey of your present business and find out which departments and items are profitable and which are not. The present time gives every businessman a wonderful opportunity to cut out non-profitable lines and various unnecessary customs which have developed during past years. It is surprising how many of these can be eliminated without hurting the customer or the employee. These eliminations should be made before the war is over.

After the war, merchants will become more and more specialists. Competition will be very keen, both with American concerns and with foreign competitors. This means that costs must be cut to a minimum which can be done partly by standardization. The lines carried should be the very latest and best. They should not be too extensive. It will be more profitable to give the best service at a low price carrying fewer lines. This often requires opposing both your own salesmen and the salesmen trying to sell you goods.

When peace comes there will be a temptation to expand. Customers will be rushing in and demanding goods which you are not carrying; while returning soldiers and munition workers will be urging you to give them jobs. Such of your former employees who have been drafted, you must take back if they apply within sixty days after their discharge; but it will not be patriotic to hurriedly enlarge your whole organization. Any business boom which takes place after peace will not continue indefinitely. Therefore, it is very important to base your stock and your labor costs on a normal business which can be depended upon to continue. Keep down fixed burdens such as rent, interest charges and other overhead costs.

Co-operate With the Government Do not be upset by all the reports which you are obliged to fill out and by the various restrictions and regulations to which you are subjected. Get used to these things and quit trying to buck the inevitable. As long as our competitors are also subject to them, we should co-operate with the Government. Above all things, do not put in evasive or dishonest reports.

All of us should, of course, take on certain work when the Government requests us to do so. On the other hand, let us not be over-take too much when other concerns are willing to take it for the same price. Hold at least 30% of your normal business, independent of the Government or war. Have in permanent stock only commodities which will be needed after the war. Many government contracts with concerns on the Atlantic seaboard will be cancelled when an armistice is declared with Germany. Contracts everywhere may be cancelled when an armistice is declared with Japan also.

Avoid Debt As far as possible the war-time conditions should be used for getting out of debt. The theory that it is good to go into a period of inflation with a large debt is wrong. Wise businessmen will make little or no capital expansions at the present time. The conditions facing us after the war will be so very different than they are today, we should enter them with large cash reserves and no debts. It is unwise now to speculate in raw materials or manufactured goods. There is no telling what prices will be after the war. The prices for some commodities will then go up; while the prices for other commodities will then go down. It is bad enough to have any slow moving items on hand when peace comes, but by all means avoid unnecessary commitments.

Insurance Accounts Receivable In addition to providing yourself with sufficient working capital and guarding against inventory losses, it is well carefully to watch receivables. If possible, keep these down to a 30-day basis. Even though you are careful yourself in providing for post-war reserves, many of your customers will not be so careful. Hence, when the Government and sub-contractors cancel their contracts, the latter may be unable to make good on their bank loans. It is well to insure certain accounts receivable.

Companies having outstanding cumulative preferred stocks should try to retire such issues. This would be in addition to eliminating bond issues and bank loans. It is also wise to set up a sinking fund of 1% of the net sales from now on to provide for losses on any receivables which are not properly insured. By all means do not "grab" for new war business at the present time.

What About Salaries? The salary situation is now pretty well frozen so that it is very difficult to raise salaries even if desirable. Cases that are worthy of increase should be handled by bonuses so as to avoid unpleasant readjustments after the war is over. Salesmen can be kept on a sliding scale, but this should be based on profits rather than on volumes. Although the temptation today is to keep all employees on, there are some who could now wisely be let go to their advantage as well as yours.

Service Men Tell Women's Club Their Appreciation of Club's Services

From the arctic regions of Alaska, from the tropics of the South Pacific, from many states in the Union, and from the high seas, the Whitmarsh Women's Club has recently received numerous interesting letters in response to a general letter of greeting and news of the home community and for gifts sent by the club to every known Whitmarsh Township member of the nation's armed forces.

The letter was a "double-barreled" communication. Presented on the club's official letterhead, it presented on its face, a general club letter, to the men, and the several women in service, prepared by the president, Mrs. C. B. Burke.

On the back of the club letter was another letter, written by one of twenty-five clubwomen appointed for the project, presenting additional news of the township, and its people. Each of the twenty-five women wrote the reverse-side letter to approximately a dozen service men. More than three hundred letters were sent from the club to all corners of the globe.

"I received your swell letter and was, as usual, very happy to hear from you and Whitmarsh," reads a letter from a Whitmarsh Township soldier in Alabama. "I received your gift yesterday," writes another in Alaska. A third writes from Africa. "I now have all the packages, letters and the book you sent me," he writes.

A cross-section of the replies is presented below, exclusively in the RECORDER.

Jacksonville, Florida.
I wish to thank you very much for the thoughtful and thoughtful gifts for the men in the service. We think you, the women back home, are doing a fine job. I wish also to thank you for the packages you have sent.

At the present time I haven't a picture of myself, but just as soon as I have one taken I will send it to you for your records.

One of Three

one of three sons of Mr. and Mrs. F. Lytton Patterson of Valley Green and Penn roads, Whitmarsh, now in the service of the nation. Mrs. Patterson is active in the Chestnut Hill branch of the Navy League and is a member of the Whitmarsh Women's Club.

Williamsburg, Virginia.
Concerning the little letters that the Club was sending to the boys, I think that they were a very nice idea. They were different from any kind of candy that the boys can buy at the Service stores. They can get all the chocolate and Baby Ruths, and that type of candy that they desire. But those little paper wrapped pieces are nice to put in the pocket and slip in the mouth at odd times. They keep your mouth moist and the sugar gives a little added energy and takes the sharpness of your hunger. Of course the packages must have in an odd thing, there is no reason why any man should get hungry around this country with the abundance and quality of the food that is fed them. But these young men could eat all day long and half the night if given a chance. It is the out-door life and exercise that does it. The glow is really excellent, much better than the men ever get at home, and I don't care who will think it.

There is never the left-overs that have to be eaten in some form or another. All the meals look like the advertisements you see in the colored plates in the magazines. And usually they all taste as good, breakfast is the poorest meals as they always have fried potatoes and salt pork. And there is seldom any left juice. That course is probably only a personal preference.

Although I am by no means away from home in the real sense of the word, I do feel that Pensacola is a far cry from the lovely Whitmarsh Valley. Your organization must indeed bring great joy to those abroad for I can vouch for those of us still within the Continental limits that your work brings our real homes close at hand.

It will indeed be a great day when we can again go about our business quietly along good old Bethlehem pike. I have been down here now a year but have been fortunate enough to have my wife and two children along. That alone is the greatest pleasure imaginable. How long I will remain is a question of a few months but I can out of this fortunate and interesting duty.

Please thank one and all of your members for me and I do look forward to hearing from you again.

I have received your letter of March 1st, and also the paper. I am very glad that our home town is thinking of the boys and working so hard to make everything so much easier and shorter.

There is nothing in the world that a soldier is more pleased to receive than news from his home or to hear that everything is going on as usual. We know our town is behind us one hundred percent.

I am in Africa at present and have been since November the eighth. The sun is in the warm side, we have very little rain, but plenty of water. As for anything we need, our Uncle takes the very best of care. When I see some of the other armies I am all the more thankful I am in the United States Army.

Alaska
I received your gift yesterday for the Salt Water Taffies. I enjoyed them very much and I believe every fellow in our barracks did too, as I passed them out among all. We were a great time whenever anyone gets any candy from home. We fellows share most everything we have.

I am in a swell outfit with a swell group of fellows. We all get along fine and our officers are more than still like to be back in Whitmarsh Township but we are all hoping and praying that we will not be too long before we are all back. I seem to be getting use to this army life and that makes things a lot more smoother.

Somewhere in Africa
I now have all the packages, letters and the book which you sent me. The salt water taffy arrived in December but the large box didn't arrive until last month. Late or not, everything was appreciated very much. The squad I'm sent there thanks too as they enjoyed it with me. We were in the field when the last package came in so it was appreciated even more than if we had been in a camp. Everything was in good condition.

We are given different things every so often. For instance, this week we received cigarettes, tobacco, matches, lipsticks and chewing gum. Oh, yes, writing paper, too. This is important to a fellow especially if he likes to write.

I've seen oranges, tangerines and lemons growing, and until here of late time when you see them. They are delicious. Figs, dates and olives are also found here.

From Alaska
Just a few lines to let you know I received the package of goods you sent me, also the box of candy and book, which I thought was very nice and I sure enjoyed it. I want to thank you for the paper and the Royal Roll which was very nice to look over and see the names of the boys I know who are in the Service. I want to thank each and every one of you for the swell work you are all doing for the boys in the Service.

Assuming that the rest of my neighbors in the armed forces are of a like disposition it is possible that they too must have had the same recurrent feeling—a feeling of "Others than my own kindred do care after all."

That sensation comes each time one of your thoughtful packages or notes arrives. I thank you for the gift and it is understandable for we fall other than to find it difficult to express our appreciation and our attempts seem rather poor blunderings. We do appreciate your thoughtful gifts and hope you will understand and tolerate our shortcomings.

Queue, L. I.
It is heartening to know that friends and neighbors "back home," as busy as they must be, still take time to write to me. I am glad to hear from you. Unfortunately, I also must not have received one of the letters which you sent me. The letter received today is the first one I have received in which I find you ask for a photograph. I am sorry to say that at present I do not have one but I will certainly send one to you as soon as I can have one taken. Once again may I thank you for your kindness and thoughtfulness.

Somewhere Overseas.
I am writing now and letting you know that I received the Christmas package you sent me. Candy and also the home town paper. I was glad to receive that paper for when I look at the pictures of the men in the service when I was back there. I am sorry that I can not tell you all about this but I happen to know where you are and we are having a good time.

Newport, R. I.
I can't tell you how glad I was to receive your letter this morning. I am sure that you will understand me sooner, but I hope you will understand. I am not much for writing letters but like to receive them. You women must sure be doing a good job at home. I know the boys overseas still wait for your gifts or letters as you are doing. You see my best pal in over there and he writes to me when he can. But he doesn't come from Whitmarsh. I do not think the boys here like to receive them because the sailors up here are doing their best to keep any ships from leaving the coast.

Nashville, Tenn.
My wife who is now living in Nashville with me, and I sincerely enjoyed reading your letter. It certainly is good to hear from our friends at home. We find Nashville a most friendly town, or should I say city, with very pleasant surroundings. I consider myself fortunate to have been stationed here.

Since your last letter, I have been promoted to the grade of Staff Sergeant. My position at Camp is Supply Sergeant of Cadet clothing stocks. The work is interesting and certainly keeps me busy.

Somewhere in the Pacific
When you mentioned my Mother in your letter it made me swell with pride, because I am very fond of my Mother. Now I often think of the things I wish I had done when I had the chance. But a person never thinks of those things until he is away from Mother and realizes just how good she has been in the past. To me, Mother is one of the best cooks in the world. I will remember at the Fourtown Fair how other ladies would ask Mother just how she got such lovely lemon meringue pie.

At Sea
Sorry I had to write in pencil but an writing this at sea and on the calmest of days (which today is not) these sub chasers just want to get up and do hand springs.

Madras, Oregon.
I have received your letter of March 1st, and also the paper. I am very glad that our home town is thinking of the boys and working so hard to make everything so much easier and shorter.

There is nothing in the world that a soldier is more pleased to receive than news from his home or to hear that everything is going on as usual. We know our town is behind us one hundred percent.

I am in Africa at present and have been since November the eighth. The sun is in the warm side, we have very little rain, but plenty of water. As for anything we need, our Uncle takes the very best of care. When I see some of the other armies I am all the more thankful I am in the United States Army.

Baltimore, Maryland.
Assuming that the rest of my neighbors in the armed forces are of a like disposition it is possible that they too must have had the same recurrent feeling—a feeling of "Others than my own kindred do care after all."

That sensation comes each time one of your thoughtful packages or notes arrives. I thank you for the gift and it is understandable for we fall other than to find it difficult to express our appreciation and our attempts seem rather poor blunderings. We do appreciate your thoughtful gifts and hope you will understand and tolerate our shortcomings.

From a W.A.C.
The girls really don't know what they are missing. As in every organization there are some that are hard to please, and some that don't like it, but there are so very many of the girls that really enjoy the life that the others don't really count.

California
During my five and a half months in the Army, I have passed through fourteen states and lived in three different camps, each in a different state. Each camp seeming better than the previous one. The Army food is the best. It is handled with care as to cleanliness and satisfying to the taste. Every one in our detachment has done K. P., so we know we are getting the best of help to prepare it.

Maxwell Field, Ala.
I received your swell letter, and was as usual very happy to hear from you. I am sure that you will understand me sooner, but I hope you will understand. I am not much for writing letters but like to receive them. You women must sure be doing a good job at home. I know the boys overseas still wait for your gifts or letters as you are doing. You see my best pal in over there and he writes to me when he can. But he doesn't come from Whitmarsh. I do not think the boys here like to receive them because the sailors up here are doing their best to keep any ships from leaving the coast.

At Sea
Sorry I had to write in pencil but an writing this at sea and on the calmest of days (which today is not) these sub chasers just want to get up and do hand springs.

Somewhere in Africa.

helping to introduced to the Axis the American way of war-fare. Unfortunately, I am limited service because of a defect on my left eye. This does not, however, keep me from expending the knowledge I have gained in civilian life and in the army concerning radio. I studied, with the help of others, of course, to fly and to handle small army aircraft. It was with a great deal of pride that I was fortunate to win the Army's "Enlisted Man's Pilot Certificate."

Here at Maxwell Field are about 3,000 flying cadets, who must be taught the elementary subjects so vitally needed for flying aerodynamics, physics, aircraft recognition, calculations, and how to become a gentleman and an officer. From here they go to another school for further flight and military training. And then on to others all at last they sport a set of silver wings and a gold bar on each shoulder. We are the ones who live with them, work with them and fly with them. Some of them are very slow to learn to fly, and others never learn to fly at all. In the past year and two months, I have gained for counting the one never recognized. I have been in two crashes and have had to fly to Memphis and back. I hope that this little bit of information has been of some interest to you and that you are not bored to death by such lengthy letters.

Thanks a million for your sincere friendliness, and may I hear again from you real, real soon.

Fort Knox, Kentucky
We will do our best for our country and hope that victory comes very soon so all the boys can come back to their homes to live a happy life again. I think the letter of Joseph Slovák that he wrote to the "Whiteman's Women's Club" which was published in the Conshohocken RECORDER and thought it was very interesting. There is no question that everyone's heart should be in the Whiteman's Women's Club for the great job you are doing in this war.

in the state where a great quantity of the country's gold is and I'm a few miles away from where they have it. As long as you are here I haven't even seen the place where they keep the gold. The state of Kentucky is a good place for exercise, for there are a lot of hills here. We have a hard time keeping from getting a cold for the weather changes so much. I have never seen weather change so fast as it does here. It is warm for a few days then all of a sudden it gets real cold. We had snow here last Thursday. I had the impression that it was a warm state before I came here but I have found out different. We have a lot of fun and are well taken care of. The food is well and we have plenty of it. I have gained 23 pounds so far, and I am in perfect health. I have met some very nice fellows who all get along well. I have found Army life to be anything but a fellow would want. We go to town over the week-ends now and then and really have a swell time.
