

MOLLY TELLS— Spain Was Land of Romance When Club Devoted Entire Season to Its Study in '07

"Fair Land! Of Chivalry, the old domain, Land of the wine and olive, lovely Spain!" The spirit of liberty is abroad in Spain and the face of the Nation is toward the rising sun, and it is not impossible that the Twentieth Century may see the glory of old Spain fading and growing dim before the greater glory of the new.

This romantic acceptance of that sunny European country was a general one when the Woman's Club used it as the introduction to its club calendar of 1907-08 and believe it or no—devoted the club year in its entirety to a study of that one-time lace-mantilla-and-red-roses-land.

Molly wandered as she happened across the 37-year-old booklet if members of the club who participated in that year's project, "General Subject—Spain," recalled the essence of those early club papers, when the wind-blown olive of Spain were replaced by the blood, sweat and tears of its recent Civil War and the shadow of World War two cast upon it.

The little faded green club booklet of 1907 strikes up a nostalgic desire to forget, even for a day, the horror into which most European countries have been plunged, and clothe them again with the colorful, romantic haze through which most of us looked upon them thirty years ago.

"Spain!" can't you recall yourself or a friend saying dreamily in those Other Days, "That's a country I always wanted to see—some day I'm going to see it. It's so bright and gay and sunny and the people seem so happy."

Then it was Spain of the Alhambra, the ballads of Cid the land of Castile and imbued with cultural instincts, made broader knowledge of this lovely country which some had visited, some would visit, all hoped to visit, the object of their club year.

Molly will present just a few of the subjects of the club papers, striking in the degree of contrast in the inexact distant concept of Spain in those days of long ago and the stark close-up with which a realistic era replaces it today.

For instance, Mrs. Ella Lubbe Ross opened the Spanish discussions with a paper on "Gerona and Its Cathedral," Mrs. Annie McFarland Lukens told of famed Alhambra described on the calendar as "The Last Sign of the Moors." Mrs. Ida S. Wood presented a General Sketch of Spanish Literature, including the Romances of Chivalry.

Mrs. Mary A. Sheppard talked of the relationship of Spain and America in her paper, "Discovery of America," Mrs. Marie Z. Bradshaw told of romantic Seville, Mrs. Helen Hvenden told of the City and Mosque of Cordova, Mrs. Virginia Duglison Davis summarized the Court of Spain; Mrs. Mary Patterson Beaver generalized with "Gatherings from Spain."

All since have passed away, but numerous other informative papers were presented by other members, some of whom are still active in the club.

Mrs. George Higley told of the Moors in Spain—711 D. to 1942 on October 16, 1907. Mrs. Charles Heber Clark summarized "The Inquisition—Its Effect on Spain as a Nation," Mrs. Abbie C. Cranor took as her extensive subject, "Spanish Art and Artists: Rivera, Velasquez and Murillo," Emilie Y. Davis told of Madrid and The Escorial; Mrs. Harriet Matthews Sagebeer compiled a review of Calderon, the Shakespeare of Spain.

Spain's popular author, Cervantes is listed as a paper topic but the purveyor of the paper is unfortunately unlisted.

Mrs. A. Conrad Jones was the president in that aesthetic era of world peace. Mrs. Charles Heber Clark was vice president, Mrs. Henry D. Cranor, recording secretary, Mrs. David Beaver, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Annie Y. Browning, treasurer.

Mrs. Beaver was chairman of the project or Spain; Mrs. Annie McFarland Lukens—the late Mrs. Charles Lukens—Mrs. Clark and Miss Pennypacker Crawford are mentioned as the membership committee.

Club interests were not so practical as they are in more modern times. Each year, from the club's formation in 1897, a cultural project was carried out in this sequence: American History, English Literature, Germany, Italy, Edwardian and Medieval England, held over for a second season; Japan; Holland and the Spain of the above presentation.

Woman's Club Opens Season With Luncheon and Program

The Woman's Club of Conshohocken opened its 1944-45 season Tuesday, with a luncheon at 12:30 in the social rooms of the First Baptist Church, with more than ninety members and guests in attendance.

Officers, members of the Advisory Board and committee chairmen were introduced to the assemblage by Mrs. Thomas L. Christian, president. Mrs. Charles Heber Clark, member of the club since its earliest days, who marked her nineteenth birthday anniversary last Saturday, was also introduced after a tribute by Mrs. Christian.

In an informal talk following luncheon, Mrs. Christian stressed the organization as "a friendly club" and turned the remainder of the afternoon's program over to Mrs. I. Harold Shoemaker, Norrisstown, fine arts chairman in the club.

The catered chicken menu was served by members of the Red Cross Canteen Unit which includes a number of club members, garbed in their white-trimmed blue uniforms. Tables were decorated with Fall flowers. Mrs. G. E. McCarny asked the blessing before luncheon.

Guest Artist Mrs. Maroa Bailey, of Ardmore, president of the Hatway Shakespeare Club of Philadelphia, and former Chautauqua dramatic artist, presented highlights of the life of Harriet Beecher Stowe, author of Uncle Tom's Cabin in a sketch "Through the Romantic Years."

Mrs. Bailey was introduced by Mrs. Shoemaker. Stage settings and gowns worn by the character artist reflected the Civil War era.

Mrs. Stowe, the sketch revealed, was prompted to write her stirring story after seeing the original Simon Legree abuse an old colored slave named Tom. Her story first appeared in serial form in a paper, and so aroused the minds of its readers that in a short time it was published in book form and sold more copies than any book of English fiction. Spanish Fined $100, Transported Liqueur

Criticizing the mild first offender sentence provided under the Liquor Control Act, Judge George C. Corson today directed Joseph T. Spanish, Maple street, Conshohocken, to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of to serve 10 days in default, after he entered a guilty plea to the charge.

At the request of his counsel, Attorney Morris Garber, the sentence later was revoked to give Spanish an opportunity to raise the costs within a week's time. If he pays before next Friday he will not be required to return.

Spanish was arrested by County Detective Albert Murray and Conshohocken Police while driving an automobile in Conshohocken, carrying two five gallon cans of uncut liquor.

"The penalty under the act for first offenders is no more," observed Judge Corson, "but persons involved in the illicit transportation of liquor can get persons not previously arrested so that as first offenders they'll escape with $100 fine." However, no matter what we may think of an investigation being made by Federal authorities of "higher ups" in the alleged liquor ring, Spanish's counsel said Spanish is cooperating with Federal officials who released him for a further hearing last week and permitted him to sign his own bail bond.

Spanish also is under indictment in the Federal Courts and he was not placed on the stand today because of an investigation being made by Federal authorities of "higher ups" in the alleged liquor ring. Spanish's counsel said Spanish is cooperating with Federal officials who released him for a further hearing last week and permitted him to sign his own bail bond.

Phipps Sent to Jail for Three Months

Charged with the larceny of several razor blades from a Conshohocken barber shop after the latter had befriended him, Walter Phipps, 56, of Plymouth Meeting, today pleaded guilty before Judge Corson.

The man told an unusual story, the jurist seemed inclined to hear him.

Phipps said when he is sober he knows exactly what he is doing and remains out of trouble, but when he is drinking liquor, just about anything can happen.

Due to the seriousness of the charge against him, Phipps was asked if he desired counsel, and replied he did. Attorney Russell J. Brownback, Norristown, who was in the courtroom when the time was given the post by Judge Corson.

But Phipps didn't require any counsel when it came time to make a plea of mercy. He did that just quite well himself.

The defendant told Judge Corson of his record in World War I when he was cited for gallantry for service in the Argonne Forest and his helplessness to refrain from liquor. When he becomes drunk he doesn't intend to.

That was the case, he said when he stole razors from Frank Ruggiero, "who has been my friend for 30 years."

As long as he remains in Plymouth Meeting, Phipps told Judge Corson, everything is all right. "But I always get into trouble when I go to Conshohocken," where Phipps was born and reared.

Phipps spoke highly of Plymouth Meeting (where Judge Corson also resides) and at the close of remarks said in a rather low tone to the jurist that his sister, with whom he lives, buys coal at Corson's coal yard.

"I don't know whether counsel heard that or not," said Judge Corson, "but he said he buys coal at Corson's Coal Yard. I don't know whether that's an asset or liability for the coal dealer in these days of coal shortages."

"That," replied Mr. Brownback, "proves that Walter always knows exactly what to do when he is sober."

Judge Corson directed Phipps to pay the costs and a fine of $1 and to serve three months in the County Prison, dating from September 13.

The committee also provided for the beautification of Eleventh avenue of this work is to be started and completed, if possible, by November 11. The entire trees will be planted along the entire avenue and vines will be planted all around the field at suitable distances. The ground strips on each side of the cement walk will be macadamized for the tree planting.

The committee is preparing for distribution of a rain storm and the proposed entrance to the field. These will be distributed to all stores and organizations in order that the residents in general may see the beauty of the approach.

The committee will also provide for the building of tennis courts on ground to be leased to them by the Conshohocken School Board directorate adjacent to the athletic field at the immediate rear of the cemetery. These courts will be similar to those built at Chestnut Hill College and in several places around the county. A new kind of plasticized macadamized surfacing will be adopted instead of the old surfacing. These kind of courts have been very successful wherever they have been built. The advantage of this kind of court is that tennis can be played immediately following a rain storm and the surface stays more uniform than is possible with the variation of ordinary ground which reacts to variations in weather. The courts will be enclosed suitably, and it is expected that the macadamized surfacing will be completed before early Spring.

The manufacturers, school board and the borough council have combined their efforts in a commendable manner to provide for the town up-to-date athletic facilities. It is planned that as soon as the improvements are completed a resident caretaker will be employed to see that the grounds do not again fall into the dilapidated state from which they have been rescued.

no other diversion during the evening. A discussion followed and it was agreed to place the suggestion before town council with the hope of having a community committee selected and a general interest created in the movement. President Harry Halladay and Mr. Graham agreed to place the proposition before council.

Orders were granted for bills in the amount of $387.83.

The treasurer reported a balance of $22,053.37 in the general account. Mr. Sowers was the only absentee. Mr. Halladay presided.

Large Registration The Past Week

The overwhelmingly heavy Republican registration in Montgomery County during the past week indicates that this county is going all out to help produce Republican victory in Pennsylvania on November 7. Lloyd H. Wood, chairman of the County Republican Committee, declared this week.

From Monday through Friday a total of 5207 Republicans were registered by Traveling Registrars and at the Court House. During the same period 1095 Democrats and 200 Non-partisans were enrolled.

It is well known that Pennsylvania, with its 35 electoral votes, occupies a crucial position in regard to the outcome of the presidential election," Wood said.

"Montgomery County, with its large Republican majority in registration and its traditional Republicanism, may well prove the decisive factor in swinging the State into the Dewey column. The outpouring of citizens who registered Republican certainly shows that they intend to do their part in bringing this to pass," the county chairman asserted.

"In every one of the 191 election districts of Montgomery County great interest is being shown in the campaign while the forthright, sincere and fighting speeches of our presidential candidate are winning new friends and supporters to our cause."

"Montgomery County Republicans are going to do everything in their power to end the myth of the indispensable man, the ineptness of the New Deal, the wrangling in high places by helping elect Thomas E. Dewey President of the United States."

Blocks Observing 60th Anniversary

B. E. Block & Brothers, Montgomery County's largest department store, located at 15 West Main street, Norristown, began the observance of its 60th anniversary this morning.

In appreciation of the continued success through the many years, this progressive firm is offering to its patrons exceptional bargains in every department. These have been purchased especially for the anniversary sale and can not be duplicated at the prices.

The store was founded on a policy of fair dealings which has been continued throughout the years and its reputation it has grown to be the country's leading and most respected store of its kind. Through years of prosperity and depression alike, Block Brothers have maintained the same high standard of merchandise and the volume of business they have done and are doing is positive proof of this statement.

The store is jammed with bargains in furniture, floor coverings, clothing, jewelry, house furnishings and scores of other articles.

The active management of the store is under the personal supervision of Simon E. Block and Louis E. Block, brothers of the founder, to extend an invitation to the public in general to visit the store during the anniversary sale, designed to please old friends and make new ones.

Faith Clarke's SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

FALL VALUES in the Snellenburg Store are among the most advantageous in town. Just now, it is possible to buy marvelous Julliard or Stevens woollens, in 54-in. widths, at only $2.65 a yard. Not only does the price attract, but the variety of weaves and patterns is a joy. The Julliard weaves include superline dress flannels and that manufacturer's wonderful "Mello" dress crepes. Stevens woollen offerings are stunning herringbone coatings, plain casual coatings, and Tartan and novelty plaids. Some materials are sponged and shrunk. The Pattern Dept. is nearby, if you are just a beginner in sewing, start with a skirt! Woolen Goods Dept. (2nd fl.)

FINDING TIME for everything she has to do is a young mother's major problem. First and foremost, it should be possible to keep a very young or toddling child from underfoot as well as happy. A play pen gives magnificent assistance. The Snellenburg Infants' Shop now has a good pen at only $6.95! Its wood floor is a protection from cold and dirt. The whole pen is nicely finished. Child-training experts approve of pens, provided the baby is not compelled to spend too many of its waking hours thus confined to a small space, and is not left alone too long! The same Infants' Department has collapsible bassinets at $6.25, also combination bathnettes and bathtubs at $7.50. (2nd fl., Chestnut St.)

REALLY GOOD BLOUSES are an economy. The Snellenburg Sportswear Dept. has a $4.50 group that I can recommend for wear and for style. Those come in plain tailored or softer lines and in white and pastels. Moreover, the sizes range from 22 to 38! Look them over for yourself and select the style and color which do most for you in particular. Whatever you buy must flatter you if you would look your best. This Snellenburg Blouse Dept. in the store's Sportswear Dept. is one of the most satisfactory in town, both for price and selection. (2nd floor.)

A JOY to men and women of the Services is a "Cigarette & Lighter Kit" containing a wind-proof pocket lighter, a year's supply of extra Ronson flints, and 100 Chesterfields! Mailed free! $2.20, Smoke Shop. (1st fl.)

P.S. Shop at this friendly store—Market from 11th to 12th, thru to 1125-29 Chestnut St., Phila. Or order by mail. Or phone free (5c, 10c and 15c out-of-town calls only.) Clippings appreciated. Penna. number, ENTprise 10150; New Jersey, WX-1150, Cheerio. Faithfully, FAITH.

Dual Surprise Event Last Night

Mrs. George Pope of 9 Merion avenue, West Conshohocken, entertained at a surprise party last night at her home in celebration of the 19th birthday anniversary of Miss Betty Rockett, lower Ford street, and of the second wedding anniversary of Mrs. John Brandt also of lower Ford street, whose husband is serving with the Army in New Guinea. A feature of the evening was the showing of motion pictures by Elwood Pope, followed by music, games and refreshments.

A series of moving pictures, released by the War Department dealing with the present world wide conflict will be shown at the Conshohocken High school auditorium. The pictures are being shown here under the sponsorship of the Manufacturers' Group of Conshohocken through the courtesy of the local school board. The first film, entitled "Prelude to War", will be shown twice next Thursday evening at 7 and 9.

The pictures are open to the employees of the local industries and their families and admission will be by ticket only.

Originally produced for showing to our armed forces, now released to industry and the home front, "Prelude to War" is the first of a series of special films prepared by the Army to show "Why We Fight." In exciting sequences—many from German, Japanese and Italian official films—it shows the start of the treacherous attack by the Axis countries on their innocent neighbors. The cold blooded plan of world conquest, with America as the final and richest prize, is clearly revealed in dramatic action pictures—to show American labor why we fight and what we fight for and against. A film that has been hailed by leading drama critics. Directed by Frank Capra. Commentary by Walter Houston.

Lieut. Beth Gabin is Only WAC on Duty at Army Air Force Depot, New Orleans

The photograph of a local WAC and a story about her occupies the front page of a recent issue of "The Depot Gazette", official publication of the Army Air Force Depot at New Orleans, Louisiana.

"1st Lieut. Beth Gabin, WAC, Adjutant, is our first and only WAC," the story relates. "She was born and educated in Conshohocken (but you don't pronounce it right) Pa. Lieut. Gabin joined the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, February 1, 1943.

"At the completion of five weeks basic training at Daytona Beach, Fla. she was stationed at Fort Francis E. Warren, Wisc. Four weeks later, Lieut. Gabin entered OCS at the First WAC Training Center, Fort Des Moines, Iowa, and was commissioned a third officer (same as 2nd. lieut.) May 30, 1943. After completing Intermediate Officers' School at Fort Des Moines, she was assigned to Headquarters, ASC, Patterson Field, Ohio, in September, 1943, where she served as Assistant Chief, Transfer Unit, Military Personnel Section, Personnel and Training Division. In June of this year, Lieut. Gabin was transferred to Headquarters, AOA-SC, Newark, N. J., where she was assigned to the Civilian Personnel Section. Three weeks later she received orders transferring her to this Depot."

The story concludes, "Lieut. Gabin says she considers it an honor to be the first WAC assigned here, and she thinks New Orleans people are very friendly and hospitable. She also says she expected it to be much hotter in New Orleans. Just wait, Lieutenant, just wait!"

In a recent letter received here from Lieut. Gabin, she writes, "I arrived here in New Orleans, July first. I've found it a friendly town, with many points of beauty and historic interest. I love the way one steps from the narrow, dirty streets through big unpainted wooden doors into astonishingly lovely courtyards. Three weeks ago I moved into an apartment of my own on Royal street, the most famous of the French Quarter streets, though now divided into apartments. The building was formerly the home of Eugene Fields. The courtyard is small, but one of the prettiest in the Quarter. Half a block away is the notorious Pirate's Alley; across the street is the former residence and courtyard of Adelina Patti. I find it thrilling to be surrounded by history."

"I chafe at my comparative inaction. I find it so hard to sit at a desk and push papers around while men are being killed and wounded in such great numbers. Well, they tell me somebody has to do it. "My position here is that of adjutant."

High Teams Play This Week

Both high school teams have scheduled strong opponents for this week-end.

Conshohocken will travel to Bristol tomorrow afternoon to clash with a strong Bucks county eleven. St. Matthew's Mirrors were originally booked to tangle with a powerful Archmere Academy team at Claymont, Del., this afternoon but the contest has been postponed until Sunday afternoon.

The game between the Golden Bears and Bristol was scheduled as the opening game of the home season for the Bruins but due to the fact the Center athletic field is not in condition the contest was transferred to banks of the Delaware and the home opener here has been delayed.

Eristol has been an opponent of the local team for several years and throughout the series the Bucks County team has been the favorite. It is expected that the contest will be a close one but the home team is hopeful of reducing that margin tomorrow.

Coach Bean and his tribe have been pointing toward the game all week and will take the field full of confidence. Inspired by the showing they made last week against P. S. D. when they held the Mt. Ararat to a scoreless tie, the Bears are confident of victory. While some of the boys were bumped around in the opener none was put out of commission and the team will take the field at full strength, and with another week of practice in correcting faults that were apparent in the opening game there is every reason to believe the team will make a commendable showing.

Mirrors at Claymont
St. Matthew's Mirrors will play their second game of the season on Sunday with the strong Archmere Academy eleven at the opposition. The game will be played on the latter's field at Claymont, Delaware.

Coach Charley Hevy and his assistant, Tom Kelly, realize they are meeting one of the strongest teams on their schedule in the Archmere team, which last week trounced a favored Pennsboro eleven by a 39-12 count. However, the Mirrors have high hopes of breaking into the win column. All of the boys who took part in the opening game at Atlantic City are in first class condition. Including those who suffered minor injuries and the team will be strengthened by the addition of Bob Ehlinger, capable wing-back who was prevented from participating in the opening game because of injuries sustained in early season practice. He will be in the starting lineup and will add to the strength of the team.

With his team at full strength Coach Hevy feels confident that his blue and white clad minions will give an excellent account of themselves.

SPRINGFIELD-QUAKERTOWN GAME, SATURDAY

The Springfield Spartans will travel to Quakertown for their first away game. This Saturday, October 7, the Spartans will try for their high consecutive victory.

Quakertown, in its opener on September 30 with Doylestown was defeated by the overwhelming score of 37-0, therefore it should not be hard for the Gockleymen to win over the Quakers. The Springfield High eleven won their first game with Lansdale, 29-13, on September 30.

Awarded the Flying Cross and Air Medal

Staff Sergeant Stanley (Swing) Griedus, son of Mrs. Catherine Griedus, of 445 West Tenth avenue, and husband of the former Winifred Hewitt, of Philadelphia, has been awarded the distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal by Major General H. C. Davidson, Commanding General of the 10th AAF in India, for extraordinary achievement while participating in medium bombardment missions under enemy fire. A tall gunner on a B-25, the local airman has 56 missions with some 230 combat hours over Burma.

S/Sgt. Griedus, 25, has been in the service approximately three years. He received his basic training at Fort Sill, Okla., and received further training in Florida, Georgia, North and South Carolina, before going overseas seven months ago.

He formerly lived in West Conshohocken and attended school there. He attended the West Side school where he played baseball and basketball. He was also a member of the school band and played with a number of orchestras in this section. He has a son, born on September 28.

Two brothers are also serving in the Army. Pvt. Frank Thomas Griedus, 21, is a Paratrooper now stationed in New Guinea. He was inducted two years ago and received his basic training at Fort Benning, Ga., and has been overseas five months. He attended West Conshohocken high school and participated in both baseball and basketball. Prior to entering the service he was employed with the Glassine Paper Company.

Pvt. John Griedus, 27, is serving with a Medical Corps in China.

He was inducted two years ago, received his basic training at Camp Barkley, Texas, and after two months of training left for overseas duty. He, too, attended the West Side school, and was a member of one of the school's championship basketball teams. He was employed with the Summerlin Tubing Company, Bridgeport, prior to induction.

Stole the Club's Gambling Machines

The recent raid on gambling devices at the fashionable Whitehurst Valley Country Club is blamed, indirectly, for the theft of nine slot machines from the Norristown Moose Lodge, it was disclosed today by officials of the club.

Fearing a blanket raid on all arm bandits in the area after the recent word of the Whitehurst raid on September 23, the Moose boys quickly emptied the coins from their machines and secreted them in a ramshackle frame garage in the rear of the home on W. Main street.

Extra precautions were taken to insure the safety of the device. First, the perspiring members lifted several loose boards from the floor of the garage. Then lowered the machines into what had formerly been used as a pit for greasing automobiles. After replacing the boards, a car was run into the place and was parked directly over the pit.

This setup, it was assumed, would bridle with innocence, in case any snooping cops descended upon the lodge home.

However, somebody talked, and whereabouts of the devices fell upon those of the wrong ears, and they did not belong to the police.

On a recent evening, when the Moose officials felt fairly safe that "the heat was off," for the present time anyway, it was decided to replace the bandits in their original enclosure in the taproom and bowling alleys.

A group was dispatched to do the muscle work of raising the coin gobblers from their hiding place, but when the floor was removed, the hole disclosed nothing but empty space.

Many Priests Attend Funeral

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning from her late residence for Miss Margaret Kennedy, sister of the late Archbishop Thomas A. Kennedy, distinguished prelate of the Catholic Church, whose death occurred after a one day's illness, last Friday night at her home, 517 Spring Mill avenue.

Rev. Joseph W. Kavanagh, administrator of the church, celebrated the high requiem mass at 10, with Rev. James McCall, assistant rector of the church as deacon and Rev. Joseph T. J. assistant rector of St. Mary's R. C. Church as sub-deacon. Clergymen present from other parishes included Monsignor Charles Fitzgerald, New Rochelle, N. Y.; Rev. Father Hagerty, of Camden, N. J.; Rev. Dennis Corbett of Phoenixville; Rev. Francis Higgins, head of the parochial schools in the archdiocese, was present at the final ceremony at the grave in St. Matthew's old cemetery. Bishop Hugh Lamb, of Philadelphia and Bishop Bartholomew Eustace of Camden, visited the Kennedy home this week to extend their condolences.

Pal-bearers were Thomas F. McCoy, Sr., Michael J. Kehoe, Mattie Tracy, William J. Casey, John Fogarty and James O'Neill. A large number of persons paid their last tribute of respect Tuesday night and Wednesday morning and were present at the obsequies.

School Children are Hypnotized by Error

Several students living in White-marsh township were in the audience of 550 Wednesday morning when a hypnotist presented a scientific study of his art at Springfield Township high school.

New Teachers -

Cafeteria: Mrs. Robert Winter, chairman; Charles T. Block, Miss Minnie Rose, Lloyd C. Brumbaugh, Athletic; Thomas Caldwell, chairman; Miss Minnie Rose, Lloyd C. Brumbaugh.

Planning Committee: The entire board will function as a committee for the future educational program of the Whitmarsh Township School District for the best interest of the children and the taxpayer.

County Supt's Survey
In a survey of the district made by A. M. Kulp, county superintendent and read at the meeting by Mr. Block, the county school head makes many vital suggestions. The survey is printed below in full:

October 3, 1944
To Members of the Whitmarsh School Board:
This report omits the usual outlining of attendance conditions, building situations, etc., and deals only with specific recommendations to the Board.

Education
A. Principals' Duties:
The administrative change from a supervising principalship to two separate principalships of buildings for 1944-45, will involve several administrative changes. The scope of the educational service is to remain as it was prior to the change.

Assuming that the educational service is not to be curtailed, it is definitely recommended that the following duties be assigned to Miss Rose and to Mr. Brumbaugh in their respective schools:

1. General supervision of discipline.
2. Study and make reports on the transportation service.
3. Supervision of playground and play activities.
4. Supervision of corridor movements.
5. Supervision of the school cafeteria.
6. Adjust complaints of parents.
7. Coordinate instructional periods for music and art.

The two principals and the teachers in their buildings, through group suggestion and cooperation, should:

1. Plan a program to build self-control, to improve the morale of the school, and to develop a spirit of group loyalty which will make it possible to relax some of the external controls which now determine how the school is disciplined.
2. Prepare a program of organized games and physical recreation.
3. Agree upon a policy of reporting pupil progress and promoting children.
4. Study certain tools of instruction with a view of recommending their purchase by the Board.
5. Plan and inaugurate a testing program whose results may be used to improve the tone and the efficiency of the school.
6. Continue and improve the system of continuous individual records on file in the school.

In cooperation with the County Superintendent's Staff, the principals and their teachers should:

1. Study means of improving the program of instruction.
2. Study the advisability of reorganizing the curriculum.
3. Continue the development of the library.
4. Plan a program of visual education to supplement academic instruction.

In cooperation with the school board, the principals and teachers should plan means of interpreting the schools to the public through the media of:

1. Parent-Teachers Associations.
2. Newspaper publicity.
3. Operettas and plays.
4. Exhibits of school work.
5. Yearbooks and other reports distributed among parents.

B. Teachers:
In view of these additional responsibilities, it is recommended that some relief from classroom teaching be given to the two building principals by the election of an additional teacher. This teacher could relieve Mr. Brumbaugh for a certain number of periods and Miss Rose for a similar number of periods, thus releasing them for the performance of certain duties outlined above. I recommend Miss Jean Thomas, West Chester, R. D. No. 5, Pennsylvania, for election to this position, and that her status be defined as a permanent substitute teacher. I recommend a salary of $1400 or $1450, preferably the latter.

Teaching Vacancies:

To fill the vacant position in Art, I recommend the election of Miss Nancy Sellers, 1509 West Loudon street, Philadelphia, as an art teacher at a salary of $1500.

To fill the vacant position in grades 3 and 4, I recommend the transfer of Miss Simpler from the Spring Mill school, since she desires the transfer. I should then recommend Mrs. Kathryn MacFarland to election to the position in Grade 1 in the Spring Mill school. Miss Simpler's salary should remain as it is now, and Mrs. MacFarland's at the discretion of the Board.

School Discipline:
Miss Anson and Miss Mills seem to have some difficulty with certain average eighth grade boys. Mr. Brumbaugh does not have this difficulty. Mr. Brumbaugh, according to Mr. Detweiler, gave Miss Mills some assistance and it seemed to be effective. If these recommendations are followed, he will have time to give Miss Anson the help that most beginning teachers need.

School discipline can probably be improved by the organization of Safety Patrols with some responsibilities on school building traffic, especially corridor traffic.

Any relaxation in routine corridor activities should be gradually and as a result of building school loyalties and developing self-control throughout the school.

II. Transportation
I would recommend to the School Board of Whitmarsh Township that the Policy of School Transportation be enlarged to make provision for the evenhanded transportation of high school students, as well as the elementary students who are now transported. It would seem that the costs of transportation of non-resident high school students should be borne in the same manner as tuition costs are paid; i.e., out of public funds. My recommendation is two fold:

1. Temporary recommendation: I'd suggest that the Whitmarsh School Board request a conference with the Springfield Township School Board at an early date. At this conference an effort should be made to continue transportation arrangements to the Springfield Township high school on the same basis as they existed prior to certain restrictions enforced by the O.D.T. If the solicitor for the Springfield Township School Board should be used and the O.D.T. would allocate the necessary gasoline I'd suggest that the Whitmarsh Board enter into the necessary agreement.

2. Permanent recommendation: A study should be made of school transportation needs and of transportation facilities with the purpose of organizing school transportation that will provide for pupils enrolled in the Barren Hill and Spring Mill schools, and also for those electing to attend the Ambler, Springfield or Norristown High school. This revision of the Transportation Policy could probably not be made effective until September, 1945.

In cooperation with the County Superintendent's Staff, the principals and their teachers should:

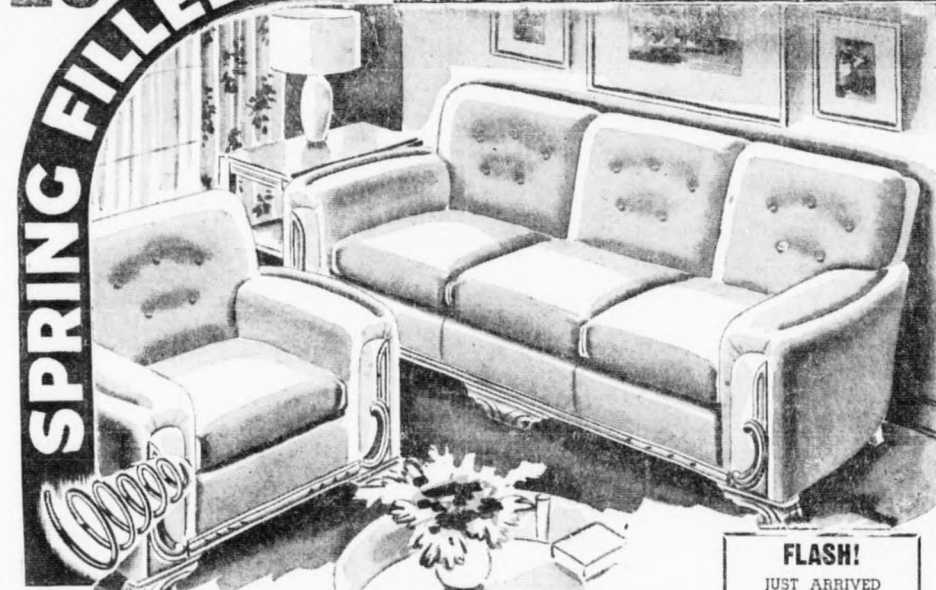

1. Study means of improving the program of instruction.
2. Study the advisability of reorganizing the curriculum.
3. Continue the development of the library.
4. Plan a program of visual education to supplement academic instruction.

Pinchot Tries for the Limelight

"Ole Hoss" Pinchot, who will be remembered as having been given two terms as Governor of Pennsylvania, announced his support of the Democratic ticket.

At one time the former Governor had great influence in this state. The better he was known, the greater was his loss of influence among the electorate. He left Pennsylvania with a record of turning against the friends when he believed he had no further use for them in achieving his personal ambitions.

It would greatly assist the Republican Party were Pinchot to campaign the State with Joe Guffey.

A Community Chest

Local manufacturers have gone on record as favoring the establishment of a Community Chest for local needs.

This community joined with the Philadelphia War Chest last year. The affiliation did not meet with the approval of a number of persons active in local activities but they offered no objection as organizations for this area by the Philadelphia War Chest had been started and publicly announced. The opponents to the plan offered no objections as they desired there should be no disunity on the local front and in the belief one year's trial would show joining with outside interests would not benefit the home institutions in the same degree as would a home Community Chest.

From contributions last year of approximately $30,000 there was awarded for use of the home institutions approximately $8,000.

One experience has been enough. It is now fully recognized the home Community Chest is the answer for the elimination of multiple appeals for funds for the various institutions. It is also assurance to the established institutions that they may continue throughout the year to meet their budget needs and will not have to curtail essential services.

It should be kept in mind, funds from a Community Chest are only for services available to every resident.

Many communities have operated Community Chests for years and their success in placing on a firm foundation the local institutions which are doing so much for the welfare and well being of their communities that each year more communities are adopting the idea.

All residents should join with the manufacturers in establishing Conshohocken's Community Chest that necessary public services now being carried on may be assured of permanent support and given the opportunity to expand their services as needed.

Signs of Progress

West Conshohocken will launch an important experiment next week and after a three months' trial, if the service is successful and not too costly, the borough will provide a service for the regular collection of refuse.

Starting next Monday, borough workmen will collect all refuse, set out by householders for collection in the Third ward, Tuesday and Wednesday, they will clean up the Second ward and Thursday and Friday the Third ward. There after collections will be made throughout the borough on Wednesday and Thursday each week.

The success of the experiment will depend upon the residents. If they will cooperate by placing refuse in containers placed for quick and easy handling the borough will be able to provide the service at reasonable cost.

Town Council also plans to abolish several dumps that are unsightly, menace health and retard borough progress.

The West Side has had troublesome experiences with young people, who in the absence of recreational facilities devise their own plans for amusement and these plans frequently included vandalism. The School Board and Town Council are going to try and do something to aid the young people by providing recreational facilities. The use of the high school auditorium for entertainments and games is offered and a joint committee of the School Board and Town Council will seek assistance of welfare workers to devise a plan of recreation that will appeal to and interest young people and ween them away from their only playgrounds—the streets.

This newspaper has for a number of years suggested the County establish a Bureau of Recreation placing a competent man trained and experienced in welfare work in charge of all recreation at the Montgomery County Park and plan programs for the year round, encouraging groups from the several political divisions of the county to take part in the program and to advise and assist communities within the county to establish recreation centers and aid them in planning programs.

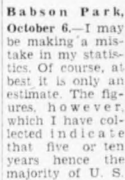

West Conshohocken is a striking example of the need for such assistance and many other communities have the same need.

It is better to have an enlightened, contented, ambitious, healthful youth than vandalism, juvenile courts and detention houses.

Who Will Control The U. S.

forming youth movement

BY ROGER W. BABSON

Babson Park, October 6.—I may be making a mistake in my statistics, but at least it is only an estimate. The figures, however, which I have collected indicate that five or ten years hence the majority of U. S. families will be receiving a pension check from the Federal Government. Furthermore, within twenty years the majority of the voters of this country may be receiving pensions. In this compilation, I, of course, include those receiving something from the Civil War, the Spanish War and World War I as well as those who will have been in World War II.

What About Labor?

The general feeling is that the labor unions will control our Democracy. Businessmen and investors are especially fearful of the power of labor. This does not worry me for two reasons—first, because the history of the labor movement in England shows that after labor gets everything organized it has nothing to fight for without cutting its own throat. Therefore, labor then no longer becomes a front-page news item, while the labor leaders find they can make more money at some other line of work.

The second reason why I am not worried about the power of labor is because, in the last analysis, labor is a commodity whether we like to admit it or not. My friend Sidney Hillman will not agree with me on this point, but he is wrong. Labor today is powerful because labor is scarce; but later, when the supply of labor exceeds the demand, labor's power will be nil. The membership of the unions will then again drop off, while the income of the labor leaders will then tumble as did the profits of Wall Street brokers in 1929. Labor's influence is now at its peak for this cycle. Its honeymoon is about over.

Present indications are that the World War II veterans will not be very friendly to labor after their return. They, who have been risking their lives in foreign lands at a small pittance and living under the hardest imaginable conditions, naturally will not feel friendly to those who have been remaining at home with all the home comforts and the highest wages in history. If labor has sense enough to keep out of politics and quit asking for any favors after the boys return very well. If, however, labor continues a postwar struggle for higher wages, more power and other benefits, there is bound to be trouble.

The above should mean that the returning veterans may be a conservative influence. The veterans bloc may unite with the conservative bloc and keep the ship of state off the rocks. If so, the money which businessmen and investors through taxes, will pay for pensions, may be good insurance. Hence, although taxes will continue high in the postwar era due to the tremendous pension bill, army and navy appropriations, etc., yet these may be good investments. In this world, it is really not a question of what we spend, but what we have left.

Communism Scare

Business, commodity prices and the stock market will have a Communism scare some day. From my knowledge of Russia and England, it would not be surprising if real estate should develop. Neither country is in this War for its health. Both want a portion of the swag and perhaps the same portion. Then the United States may be called upon to take sides. This future situation might easily become the culmination of the present bull movement.

Businessmen and investors will then get panicky and run for cover, but I believe there will be nothing for us to fear. Although Russia may then have the army to take what she wishes in land, she will want loans also. Great Britain and America will continue to hold the purse strings. Our returning service men will not only be a bulwark against unfair labor demands, but they will also stand for free enterprise, not Communism. They should be a stabilizing influence on legitimate business and investments, favoring the good features of cooperation; but suppressing all unfair practices.

This Nation's Republican

Victory after victory in elections throughout the Country have restored leadership to the Republican Party—the people have returned to Republican government in the city halls, the court houses, and state capitols where government is closest to the average American.

In election after election, the people have restored Republican leadership to the Congress of the United States. The trend everywhere is toward Victory in the National Election. There is confidence in the ability of the Republican Party to direct and lead a forward, progressive America.

Voters are growing more critical of the ways in which their National Governmental affairs are being directed; they are looking askance at the strange policies, questionable practices, bureaucratic handling, and the confusion in high places. That is why there have been changes:

from 16 Republicans in the Senate in 1937 to 37 in 1944, from 88 Republicans in the House of Representatives to 212, from eight Republican governors in 1938 to 26 in the U. S. now.

That is why three out of every four Americans now live under state Republican administrations.

That is why we say that the Nation is Republican, and why the Republican Party, with the sturdy leadership of DEWEY and BRICKER, will win on Election Day in November.

In Washington, where bureaucratic activities thrive, a New Dealer still lives in the White House. But out in the states where the people live, Republicans are directing our affairs.

The people in 26 Republican states—including the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—already have elected the kind of government—Republican government—that should lead us in the tumultuous years ahead.

This is the year of determination—to have more of that sturdy Republican leadership in local government, in the states, in Congress, and especially in the White House.

HERE COME THE RESERVES!

SHOCK TROOPS may capture vital beach heads: But then must cope the reserves: to hold them!

In the same way the profitable farm must have financial reserves behind it to be safe. No owner or tenant can operate satisfactorily when one crop failure, one crisis of sickness, accident or weather, can push him over the edge of disaster.

For you; as for countless farsighted farmers and ranchers all over the country, War Bonds are an investment in farm security as well as an obligation to your country:

While they are helping to equip our Armed Forces, your Bonds are also building up a backlog of strength for you against emergencies: Just when you'll be needing money most for vital postwar replacements; every three dollars you've invested will come back to you at maturity increased to four: to help pay the bills!

So put every War Bond you can behind the war—and your farm!

5 REASONS FOR INCREASING YOUR WAR BOND PURCHASES

1. The tempo of this war is hitting its highest point. Government expenditures for war are at the peak. MORE MONEY IS NEEDED . . . NOW!
2. In cooperation with WHO HAS THE MOST MONEY, individuals are not having their share of War Bonds. America must correct this situation.
3. War Bonds provide the farmer and rancher with the financial reserve he must have to survive the ordinary ups and downs of farming as a business.
4. Money will be needed urgently at a future date to replace and repair farm equipment, machinery, and buildings. War Bonds will provide it.
5. War Bonds are the safest investment in the world, return a good rate of interest, are easy and convenient to buy . . . from bank, post office, rural mail carrier or Production Credits Association.

For America's Future, for your Future, for your children's Future

More Than 100 Service Men "Overlea" Guests Since July 1

"Overlea", attractive Chestnut Hill dwelling where convalescent service men are entertained each weekend through the generosity of a small group of residents of this area, has welcomed more than a hundred men in various branches of the armed forces, since it opened its hospitable doors in July.

Eighteen states and two foreign countries were represented among its large list of guests.

The men entertained were injured in invasions over a far-flung battle front from Africa to the Marshall Islands, including Sicily and Atiu, in the epochal invasion of Normandy, or on ships bombed, torpedoed and sunk by mines. One of the men who spent a weekend there said he had not been in a home for four years.

Mrs. C. B. Burke, volunteer resident project chairman for "Overlea" gives the following interesting summary of the first two months at the nearby place of hospitality for service men.

"During the hot weather the first thing our guests asked to do was to swim, especially the blind boys. Several private pools have been available and the boys enjoy that as much as anything.

"The public has been most anxious to help and to use 'Overlea' as a place where they can do something for the wounded. The house was cleaned by volunteers and every Thursday morning volunteers help our three paid employees clean and prepare the house for the week-end guests. One volunteer has ironed shirts every Saturday afternoon for the men, so they will be fresh for Sunday. Individuals, or small groups, have furnished and served refreshments for the Friday and Saturday night parties. Free floor shows are sent to us Saturday evenings. We pay only the travel expenses.

"The following gifts have been received: candy, 2 quarts honey, 4 dozen silver teaspoons, material for draperies for three rooms, and they were made without any charge by three employees of an interior decorator; breakfast and dinner dishes, water goblets, snack set for parties, punch bowl, andirons, games, 3 signans, 6 night shirts for men with legs in casts, 8 pajamas, 18 pairs home-made bedroom slippers, 12 army shirts, electric mixer, turkish towels, ash trays, vegetables, flowers, 160 quarts of milk, 50 cartons cigarettes, tobacco, 12 pounds candy, 20 pounds cookies, 10 gallons spring water every week, 8 layer cakes, 4 dozen cup cakes, books, magazines, pingpong table, keg of soft soap, keg of snap powder, 10 gallons shellac, 44 quarts ice cream, 1000 letterheads, 1000 envelopes, yester records, and 2

Harvest Day at Baptist Church

Harvest Home and Rally Day service will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 at the First Baptist Church with Dr. Mary E. Kirby, youthful physician who interned at Lancaster General Hospital, as the speaker.

Dr. Kirby was born in Assam, where her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Kirby, are located. She is a graduate of Judson College, Rangoon, Burma, and transferred from there to Denison College, Denison, Ohio, from which she graduated in 1938. She expects soon to return to Assam and to take up special medical work in the same field in which her parents are working. She was introduced to the Northern Baptist Convention, and addressed it briefly at its session in Atlantic City last May. The service is open to the public.

Because of the special service, the Sunday School will meet at 10 instead of its usual hour of 9:15.

After records have been taken and plans made, the school will hold a processional march into the auditorium to join the church congregation in the annual rally day service.

Preston Custer, superintendent, and Clair Peifer, assistant, will be in charge of the Sunday School part of the program.

Rev. Abner J. Davies, pastor, will introduce the special speaker. Sunday evening services will be resumed at this church, Sunday at 7:30. Recently returned from vacation, Prof. Walter De Prefontaine will lead an opening song service, and there will be music of special thanksgiving for harvest blessings.

The pastor will speak on "The Harvest Law still Holds Good." For both of the services, the rooms will be fittingly decorated for the harvest time. The evening service will be held in the Fireplace Room.

The RECORDER will be mailed twice each week to any U. S. Army Camp for $2.00 a year.
