Misinformation

A radio news broadcaster and commentator recently gave a misinformative talk on the salary of a congressman and how the poor legislators, if they are to serve the people, spend sums in excess of their salary for expenses incurred in the public interest and must pay taxes on these expenditures.

The broadcaster would leave the impression with the people that a congressman's salary is $10,000 and he must pay clerk hire, traveling expenses and all other expenses out of the $10,000 salary. That is not so. A Congressman is paid $10,000 per year salary, $9800 for clerk hire, free mailing privilege, traveling expenses when on official business and other compensation.

Congressmen are not mistreated else congressmen would not spend money and conduct strenuous political campaigns to retain their seats in congress.

The action of the House in voting additional compensation to its membership of $2500 annually, with no accounting and tax free is not generally accepted as being a raid on the treasury and a subterfuge to get a raise in salary.

Montgomery County's representative, Samuel K. McConnell, Jr., had no part in this questionable business. He voted against it.

Will We Meet Our Loan Quota?

The Nation is still at war with a most vicious, fanatical enemy. Many of our local boys are fighting that enemy on distant islands in the Pacific and in Burma and China. They have and are suffering many privations and are in constant danger of death.

That the danger time may be shortened and the boys returned home to their families and friends, the Government is asking the people of this community to lend it $1,612,600 and for the loan the Government pledges to pay the loan in full with interest. The popular savings bond is the "E" bond, which matures in ten years paying $100 for each $75 invested and the bond held to maturity.

In the first week of the loan campaign, the people here have purchased bonds amounting to $336,481. The loan has a good start and each week the sales should increase.

The amount the people here are asked to loan is higher than previous quotas but is not beyond the people's ability to lend. The annual payroll of local industries has reached record figures. The annual payroll of local industries is in excess of $15,999,000. The Government in asking for a loan of $1,612,600, which will be repaid with interest, is not asking much to assure its safety.

The boys in the service met their quotas and are still going over the top. Assure those boys they are being given 100 per cent support from the home front. Let this bond drive go over the top.

Cigarettes

had a tight fence with barber wire over the top and groups of guards at every gate. The inside, in which we had to sneak was the best treat. You could see the living conditions of the people and how they ate. They had little groups of houses made or at least woven out of palm tree leaves and bamboo poles.

We met some very intelligent Filipino people while exploring around. Two of them had Masters Degrees from Columbia University in New York and a lot of whom had gotten a college education here in their own university.

That afternoon we were walking around on Main street and happened to notice a sign. Stage Show, so we walked in (for $1.50) 3 Pesos, but the enjoyment really paid for it in just a few minutes. They had a singer that reminded me of Kate Smith, not only in looks but a very good singer indeed. The man singer sang a few of Sinatra's favorites in a deeper voice than Sinatra himself. They had a few swell native dances of the different provinces of the Philippines. The show as a whole was one of the best I have seen in a long time. These Filipino people are very much Americanized in most respects, even some of them do the American "Jitterbug", very cute style too.

We are going to have some well USO Shows on the ship next month. We already have a schedule for the month, some of the famous orchestras of the Philippines. One of the orchestras is called the "Genn Miller music of the Philippines", so you can imagine that we will enjoy it very much. They will probably have some nice entertainment beside the orchestra, too.

This morning was Sunday and we had church services up on the boat deck. The Chaplain had a very good sermon on American Ideals and Temptations. Our Chaplain really know how to put across a nice sermon.

Well Mom, I guess I had better close now and go eat a little roast chicken, as that is what we are having for dinner. Stay Sweet. Your son, Jim"

NEWS OF LOCAL MEN IN ARMED FORCES

S Sgt. Paul Heller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Heller of Gulph road, who was taken a German prisoner at Luxembourg on December 23, and liberated a few weeks ago, arrived at his home on furlough Saturday.

S Sgt. James Graham, son of School Director and Mrs. James Graham, of 631 Ford street, West Conshohocken, undergoing treatment in a hospital at Camp Barnes, N. C., enjoyed a four-day leave at his home, returning to the camp on Sunday.

Seaman 1c Joseph Elmo, 21, will leave at the end of the week for the state of Washington, after being here on leave since Thursday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elmo, 300 West Sixth avenue.

In service since February, 1943, he took his basic training at Sampson, N. Y., and has been in the Pacific theatre of war for seventeen months, taking part in numerous major sea engagements.

A brother, T. S. Nicholas, Elmo 36, is stationed in Laredo, Texas, and another brother, Francis, 31, is on sea duty in the Atlantic. A cable Sunday to his parents reported him "safe and well."

S Sgt. Alan Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wood of 111 East Third avenue, while serving in France, February 2, 1943, while serving with an Infantry Unit in New York on Thursday by plane and immediately talked to his mother over the long distance telephone. Thursday marked the birthday anniversary of his mother and in speaking of the telephone call she said it was the best remembrance she has ever had. Sgt. Wood, far from fully recovered from his wound, was transferred to the Woodrow Wilson Hospital at Staunton, Va. He expects to be granted a furlough in the near future.

James William Giannini, Jr., 23, Conshohocken, second class, USNR, West Conshohocken, recently arrived at the Naval Training Station, Norfolk, Va., to undergo training for duties aboard a new destroyer of the Atlantic Fleet.

He wears ribbons for the American Asiatic-Pacific area, with five stars and the Philippine Liberation ribbon with two stars. He was awarded the Presidential Unit Citation while serving aboard the USS O'Bannon.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. James Giannini, Sr., of 219 Ford street, he is married to the former Dorothy Mae Barr of Conshohocken. Before enlisting, he was employed by the West John Mill Co.

Sgt. William Raymond Mashman, 22, of Mill road, Plymouth township, tall gunner, was one of five men from the Philadelphia area flying in Eighth Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress of the 385th Bombardment Group command by Colonel George Y. Jumper, Natoma, Calif., who have been decorated for "meritorious achievement" while participating in bombing attacks upon military, rail and industrial installations in Germany. Sgt. Mashman received his first Oak Leaf Cluster to his Air Medal. His wife, the former Miss Dorothy Baker of West Eighth avenue, and son, Raymond, two years of age, live at 5902 Chew street, Philadelphia. Prior to entering the AAF in October, 1943, he was employed as a crane operator for the Alan Wood Steel Company. He received his wings in June, 1944.

Philip G. Eckert, seaman, first class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Eckert, 657 Fulton street, Conshohocken, was aboard the Essex class aircraft carrier when her planes battered Okinawa prior to the Marine and Army landings.

With other units of the Pacific Fleet, this ship sent out her planes in a long series of sweeps and strikes that blasted enemy aircraft, shore installations and shipping from the Ryukyu Islands to the Japanese homeland.

Veteran Pacific fliers aboard the ship consider the recent action among the severest of the war in the Pacific. Sometimes day and night were broken by only short pauses for food and rest. Planes were fueled, armed, prepared, then landed and at once launched to fight again.

Besides doing her primary job of servicing the air group, the carrier put in a few licks with her own guns, destroying one enemy plane and helping down another.

Pfc. Stephen Maziarz, 22, of East Hector street, shook his head astonished and incredible that it still was on his shoulders. He had just been dug out of his dirt-filled foxhole by his buddies on Okinawa, where he is serving with the Seventh Infantry Division.

Maziarz was lying in his foxhole during an extremely heavy Jap artillery barrage when a shell of large caliber exploded not more than two feet in back of him. The door he used for a roof was shattered and the Pennsylvania shaken up, but he was not wounded. Soil and rock covered him haven and only quick shovel work by his buddies saved his life.

He is now back in the fighting, helping to wrest this home island of the emperor from the Japanese army.

Stephen, who is a member of the staff of "The Spoler," a cannon company newspaper, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Maziarz.

Lt. Smith Has Spent 9 Months in China

Lt. Albert E. Smith, 18 1619 Curran street, Highland Gardens, Chester, Delaware county, has completed nine months as a fighter pilot with Major General C. B. Chenault's Fourteenth Air Force in China.

Lt. Smith has scored one probable destruction of a Japanese plane in the air and has taken part in numerous strafing missions. He is the husband of Mrs. Olive D. Smith of the Curran street address, and the son of Mrs. Kate S. Smith, 1046 Ford street, West Conshohocken. He attended West Conshohocken High school, and before entering the AAF in July, 1941, was an order clerk with the John Wood Manufacturing Company, Inc. He left for overseas in April, 1944. Two brothers, Capt. Edgar M. Smith and Sgt. John H. Smith, also are in the Army.

The squadron of which Lt. Smith is a member is a unit of the "Flying Tigers" fighter group commanded by Col. Edward F. Hector, which is a part of Col. Clayton B. Claassen's East China Wing.

Since its activation in China 34 months ago, this group has destroyed and damaged 1775 Japanese planes, of which 621 were shot down confirmed in aerial combat and 317 destroyed on the ground.

In operations against Japanese ground forces, the "Flying Tigers" group has destroyed, by conservative estimates, approximately twenty-two thousand motor vehicles and a thousand motor vehicles as well as damaging two thousand more vehicles. Japanese shipping losses caused by this group total over 130,000 tons since the group probably sunk and a quarter of a million tons damaged. Nearly four thousand small boats and over five thousand sampans (river craft) were sunk by this group in East China rivers and lakes used by the enemy for transporting troops and supplies. In addition, the group provided protection against Japan so aircraft to Chinese cities and troops, despite always being outnumbered by enemy air strength.

Pvt. Ferdinand Joseph DiRoseta of 146 Third avenue, has arrived at the Field Artillery Replacement Training Center, Fort Bragg, N. C., for basic military training and has been assigned to Battery D-29, Battalion 3, Field Artillery Training Regiment. Upon the completion of his initial military training he will be transferred to a field organization.

For extra-ordinary achievement courage and skill in guiding bomber formations to key targets in Nazi Germany, First Lieutenant James F. Conroy, 21-year old B-17 Flying Fortress Navigator, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Conroy of 5212 Wakefield street, Germantown, has been awarded an Oak Leaf Cluster to his Distinguished Flying Cross.

Formerly a personnel clerk for the John Wood Mig. Co. of Conshohocken, Lt. Conroy has been previously decorated with the air medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters for achievement in action. Veteran of many major eighth air force bombing attacks, the Pennsylvania diver serves with the colorful 98th Bombardment Group, which holds a war record for the destruction of enemy aircraft by a lone group of single engagement—having shot down 63 German fighters over Munster, Germany on October 10, 1943.

Lt. Conroy's group has been cited by the President for skill and daring in battle, and shares in another Presidential award for aiding in the Third Air Division's epic shuttle attack on Messerschmitt Plants at Regensburg, Germany.

Robert Ramsey, of Eighth avenue and Fayette street, founded last September 23 in France and under treatment at the Ashburn General Hospital, Texas, since March 1, has been given an honorable medical discharge from the Army and returned to his home and civilian life yesterday morning. In service more than two years he was stationed only a few weeks before overseas.

John Z. Holland, seaman, first class, USNR, son of Reuben S. Holland, Spring Garden street, West Conshohocken, is fighting aboard a veteran battleship which poured 1,500-pound shells onto Okinawa for six days to clear the way for troops taking part in the greatest amphibious landing of the Pacific war.

His ship, which saw service in World War and has blasted the Japs through five previous campaigns of this war, underwent numerous air attacks during the last few days before the landings. Two torpedoes launched against her never reached their mark.

Before dawn on "Love Day" she was brought into position to give the beaches a final working over. The men were up at 2:30 a. m., and their battle stations soon afterward, undaunted by three Jap suicide planes which made futile runs against the ship.

At 6:30 a. m., along with other ships of the task force, the battleship launched a series of barrages on pill boxes, airplane revetments, observation posts and caves. Scores of Navy planes struck at inland targets at the same time, while to seaward landing craft were moving in.

By 7:30, smoke from the intense barrages screened the island. In a lull that came an hour later, some of his mates were able to watch through the smoke with binoculars as the first waves of Marines hit the beach.

Anxiously awaiting reports of the Marines' progress over the ship's loud speakers, he and the crew sent up a cheer at news that strategic Yontan airstrip had been taken. The ship's bombardment had paid off.

Halpin, a native of Gulph Mills, where he conducted a store for many years, suffered a fractured skull, concussion, lacerations of the right hand and internal injuries. He had been employed as a laborer for an East Norristown township building contractor.

According to Chief of Police David Burns, Lower Providence, driver of the car was M. G. Horstmeier, 55, of Royersford, R. D. 1. He was released under bond by Justice of the Peace Russell C. Thomas, Trooper 2, a waiting action of Coronor W. J. Rushong.

In a statement to Chief Burns the driver said he was traveling west on Route 422 at 30 miles an hour, when suddenly he saw Halpin's form crossing the road about 12 feet away. He quickly applied the foot brake and swerved to the left to avoid hitting him, he said, but the rear end of his car struck the man who was a pedestrian. Horstmeier stopped his car immediately and helped to place the injured man in the automobile of Mrs. William Irvin, Trooper, who took him to the hospital.

Chief Burns measured skid marks 86 feet in length at the scene Sunday morning.
