FOREWORD

As the spirit of patriotism is so brilliantly reflected by the sunlight, from this our High School; so it is our profoundest desire that these pages will in much the same way reflect some of the sunlight of our school days.

MISS VIRGINIA WEINSCHENK

DEDICATION

MISS VIRGINIA WEINSCHENK

In appreciation of her well-directed guidance and advice
during our years at Ne-Ca-Hi
WE, THE CLASS OF JANUARY, 1939 dedicate this yearbook to

MISS VIRGINIA WEINSCHENK

our supervisor, teacher, and friend.

THE THEME

During the past century the world has passed through a great transition. Communication, travel, music, all were slow of tempo. But today each has been accelerated infinitely until life and the things in it go by us in a blur. Throughout this transition the music of the day has faithfully recorded the trend of the times. These styles have gradually grown faster and faster until instead of the staid symphony, we find reigning a new style, swing.

To this metamorphosis from symphony to swing we have likened our stay at Ne-Ca-Hi. For three years we have learned the ways of a high school, beginning slowly, symphonically, as sophomores with few activities or desires, then being taken more into the whirl of school life as juniors, and finally "swinging out" into all the various paths of school activity. And so we have chosen this striking metaphor between school and music as our theme, "From Symphony to Swing."

NEW CASTLE BOARD OF EDUCATION

THE SCHOOL BOARD

This is the legislative body of the school district of the City of New Castle. The School Board consists of nine elected members, with seven assistants, advisors, and ex-officio members. It is the duty of this body to balance the school budget in such a way as to give the students of New Castle the very best materials and instruction at the least public expense. The Board employs, as far as possible, New Castle labor, deviating from this principle only when the public will benefit from such a move.

The identification of members in the picture opposite is as follows, from left to right:

Top Row: Dr. A. B. Foster; C. C. McKibben, treasurer; Bart Richards, news representative; Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools; Dr. W. D. Cleland; C. H. Young, solicitor; S. G. Ligo, superintendent of buildings; J. B. Bechtol, secretary; Roy W. Hazen.

Bottom Row: Daniel B. Woolcock, president; Miss Harriet Weddell, stenographer; Dr. W. F. Jackson; C. M. Whittaker, vice-president; A. C. Hyde; Griff Thomas; Robert L. Preston.

ALMA MATER

To the praise of our dear High School,
Sing we loud and long;
Glory, honor and affection,
Give we her in song.
Hours of gladness, free from sadness,
Happy students here;
Sing we to our High School friendships
And our High School dear.

All her children sing her praises
With a love most pure,
For her aims and inspirations
Changelessly endure.
With her beckoning hand before us
We will do and dare,
Live to honor truth and virtue
In these halls so fair.

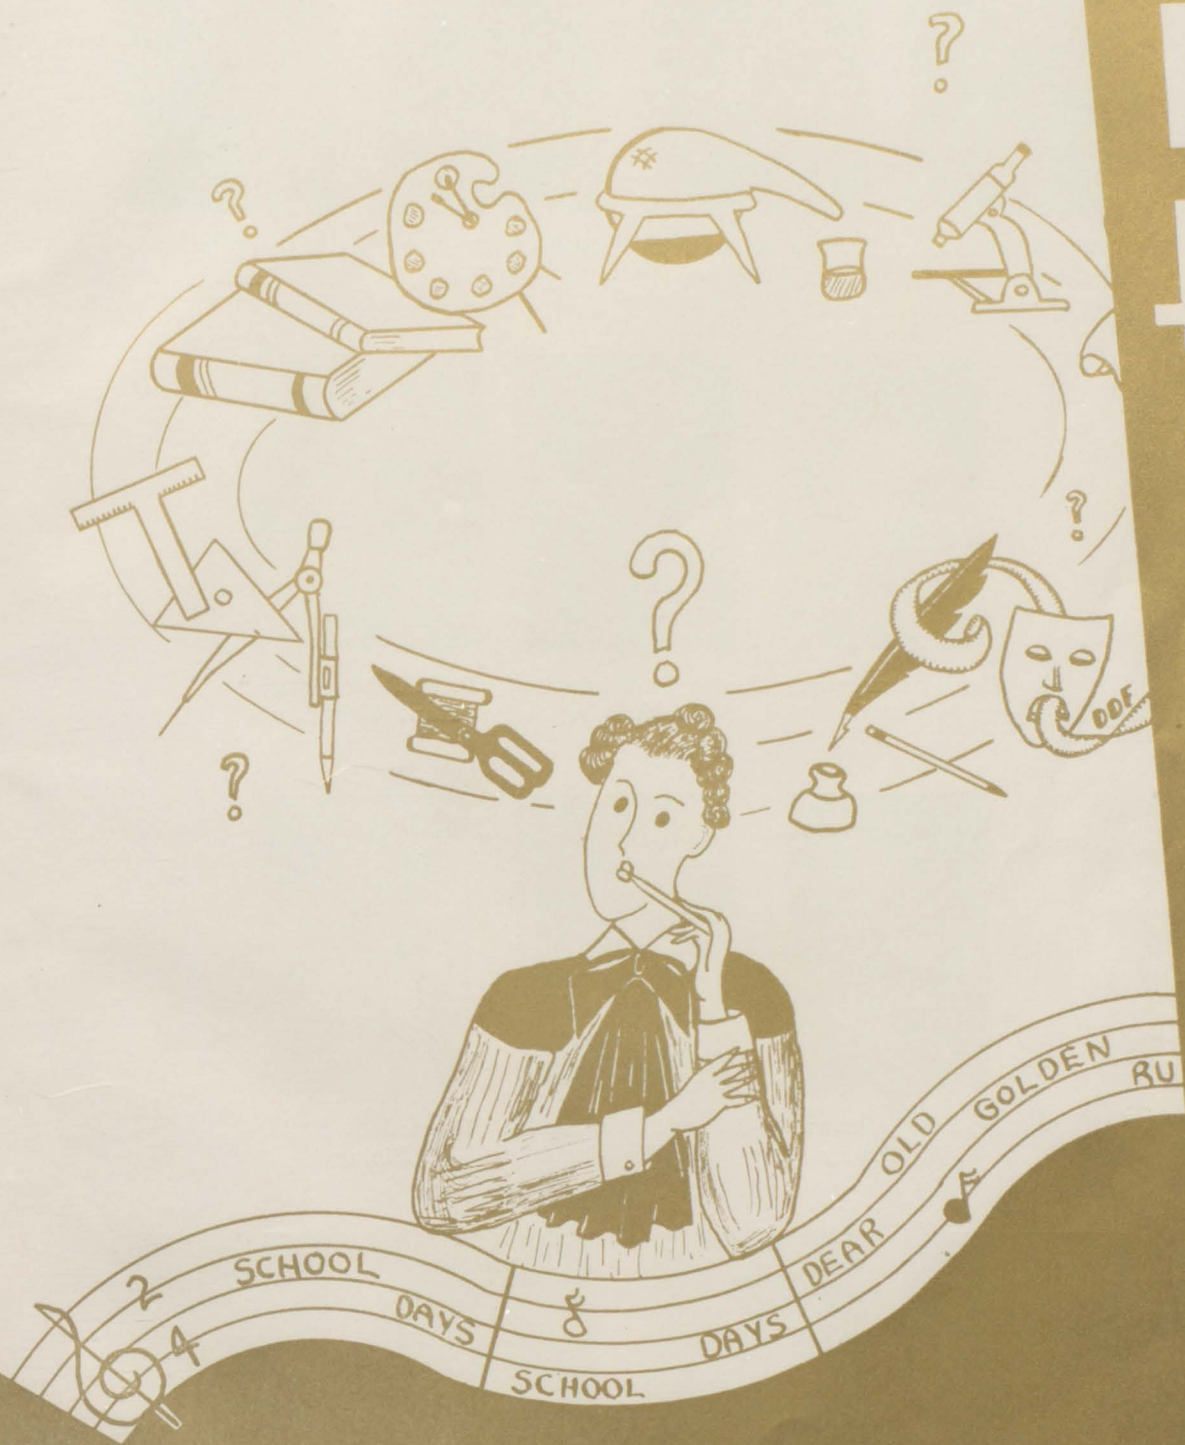

Bonds of Friendship here we're forming,
They will never break,
They will last still true, unwavering
For our High School's sake.
And the memories we will cherish
As life's path we tread,
Of the friends we knew and valued
Wearing Black and Red.

When our student days are over,
And no more we're here;
Still we'll sing of her with reverence,
Alma Mater dear.
Swell the singing, ever ringing,
Gladly we'll recall,
When our student days are over,
Life in these fair halls.

—Katherine Foulke.

THE SERVICE SQUADS

One of the mainsprings in the hustle bustle that is Ne-Ca-Hi is that great school-wide program known as the Service Squads. With little or no recognition throughout the entire school year, these organizations faithfully and quietly perform their menialities unseen and unappreciated. And so it is at long last that we take this opportunity to demonstrate outwardly that which we have long felt inwardly, our appreciation of the Service Squads.

The Dofobs, the name chosen to designate the Library Service Squad, has real significance as it was originally used as the name of the club of literary friends which was headed by Charles and Mary Lamb. The name is made up of the first letters of the following words: Darned Old Fools Over Books.

The Dofobs are under the direction of Miss Helen Westlake and Miss Reba Sines. They have given Ne-Ca-Hi a service which she could not well do without.

Though high their name
 And also their station
 They take care of books
 For the Ne-Ca-Hi nation.

THE GERMAN CLUB

The German Club has completed another period of progress which has been achieved by the enthusiastic response of the members.

The club continues its interest in the basic purpose of its organization, namely, German conversation, a study of the cultural background of the country, and the customs of the people. Various speakers who have travelled in Germany, recently, have contributed much information of historical importance.

The members of the club have not confined themselves to the club activities alone, but have participated in assembly programs, social functions, and joint meetings with other groups from the entire Modern Language Department.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

The Girls' Athletic Club of the New Castle Senior High School was organized in September, 1938, and is comprised of the squad leaders of the Physical Education classes. The object of the club is threefold: to promote in every way girls' athletics in the school, to aid in keeping the spirit of sportsmanship alive at all times, and to aid in all intramural athletics. Last year, before the club was a definite organization, the squad leaders collected and covered over one thousand books and presented them to the indigents of New Castle at Christmas time. This year our Christmas project was the packing of baskets of food for these same people. On December fifteenth and sixteenth the club presented an exhibition to the school during an assembly program and it was very well received by the students. This club may be identified by the blue and white emblems which adorn the sweaters of the members.

THE OFFICERS OF THE CLUB ARE:

President	- - - - -	Dorothy Metzler
Vice President	- - - - -	Frances Golis
Secretary	- - - - -	Betty Raney
Treasurer	- - - - -	Jean Dufford
Advisor	- - - - -	Miss Margaret Fischer

THE CHORUS

The Chorus has been developing steadily this year. An A Cappella Choir of seventy voices was organized at the beginning of the term, and has been quite active. Its first concert was for the Administration Department of the Mid-Western P. S. E. A., where the Choir was highly praised by superintendents and principals. Thanksgiving and Christmas programs have been presented, and the climax of the term's work has been the January Baccalaureate. The choir is looking forward eagerly to the time when it may obtain vestments so that it may be harmonious to the eye as well as to the ear.

THE SENIOR HI-Y

The prime aim of the National Hi-Y organization is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character based on clean living, clean sports and clean scholarship. The Hi-Y's program is planned with these points in view.

The Senior Hi-Y is active throughout the year, being represented on the sports calendar by able football and basketball teams.

The club program consists of regular club meetings, interesting talks by well-known speakers and delightful social events for the enjoyment of the club members.

Under the capable leadership of Charles Burton, the club ranks as one of the leaders in Hi-Y work.

THE GIRL RESERVES

The Ne-Ca-Hi Girl Reserves under the splendid leadership of Jane Haven enjoyed a very interesting semester. The 220 members participated in a well-rounded program which included a beautiful recognition service, a sweater dance in the High School gym, several educational and entertaining lectures, a panel discussion on a timely subject and a question and answer program with a selected team from the Senior Hi-Y Club as opponents. On alternating weeks each girl attended one of the following interest groups: Newspaper, Games, Book Reviews, Basketball, Bowling, Chorus, Handcraft, or Rifle. Under the supervision of the service committee, the club packed several baskets at Thanksgiving time and treated the little girls of the Sciota Street Mission at Christmas time.

In the College Sorority House of any American college, a dance party is being enjoyed by young collegians. Suddenly, during a moonlight dance, one of the young men, Lee Macon, drops dead, a gory hat pin sticking in his back.

It is decided to summon a detective. During the lapse of time required for the detective to arrive, the Dean faints and Russ becomes hysterical.

When the blustering policeman "takes over" the case, Rita, Doreen, and Billy are listed as suspects in the cowardly crime.

When all nerves are strained to the extreme, Professor Slopes presents his theory of discovering the crime through mental and physical strain.

Convinced that he is getting nowhere, the Chief is persuaded to leave and permit Judy to solve the mystery. In the next exciting scenes, Val is killed and Judy is nearly strangled by Russ. It is discovered that Russ is the real culprit; that he killed Lee in order to avoid complications due to a hit-and-run accident. As the handcuffs are applied to the youthful criminal, he attempts to flee. His escape is halted by the students. Then, Lee, the dead man, enters the room, and it is revealed that the murder mystery is a college play being presented by the Sorority Club.

Under the able guidance of Miss Hartsuff, the January class of 1939 presented their Senior Play on Friday evening, November 18, 1938. The play was entitled "Don't Ever Grow Up," a three-act comedy by James Reach.

SYNOPSIS

"Don't Ever Grow Up" is the story of Mimi Meadows who is on the threshold of sixteen. She manages the "Bulldogs," the local football team which is bent on defeating its hated rival, the "Panthers." Success seems about to be theirs for they have secured the services of Hal Kenny, third-string All-American half-back. Mimi has persuaded her mother to let her use their lawn to celebrate a "Victory Bazaar," on the night following the game, which is also Mimi's sixteenth birthday. But things are complicated somewhat when Mimi falls headlong into the first "crush" of her young life—on Hal Kenny. It seems the latter is being used as a foil by Elaine, Mimi's elder sister, to arouse the jealousy of Glenn Stevens, her wealthy young suitor.

Mimi is willing to go to any lengths to prevent Hal from throwing himself away on the heartless Elaine. She makes her supreme sacrifice and Hal, much to his amazement, is saved from himself. Much more happens, and at the close Mimi discovers that being sixteen is indeed the "something special" she has looked forward to all her life. She also discovers that old friends are sometimes the best, and she and Dud, her original sweetheart, patch up their quarrel.

THE SENIOR B CLASS

The present Senior B class came into existence in September, 1936 as Sophomores B's. Our President for the Sophomore year was Edward Noga. During that time, we, being then most modest and deferring to the rights and privileges of our upper classmen, held no meetings.

It was in our Junior year that we began to rise to our now glorious (?) height. Ned Davenport was elected president for that year.

As Juniors, the class assembled to several meetings in which many of our talented members took part. We chose green and white as class colors.

In the Junior A semester we had a Junior Prom to which we invited the members of the Junior B class. In our present standing as Senior B's, we honored the graduating class with the traditional Senior Dance.

Our present executives are Merritt Reynolds, president; Carl Sherer, vice president; Suzanne Flick, secretary; Ruth Cartwright, treasurer; and Miss Helena Stevenson is our cherished and indispensable adviser to whom we credit the success of our fine class.

THE JUNIOR A CLASS

January 28, 1937, was a never to be forgotten day for New Castle High School. Do you mean you have to ask the reason why? The high school faculty can readily tell you because the event of the Sophomore B class meant some 265 additional worries for their already burdened shoulders to assume.

In the Sophomore A semester, we elected two Student Council members who were Kathryn Wilson and David Schoenfeld. Early in our Junior B semester, we made the acquaintance of our supervisor, Mrs. Matheny, and our election of class officers and Student Council members gave us our first real feeling of unity.

On March 29, 1938, we held a Junior B class meeting at which the class colors were announced—blue and silver—and as Junior A's a meeting was held November 8, 1938.

Our social life has to its credit one bright event—a Junior A Dance to which the Junior B class attended as guests.

We have the honor of our members on the football team, and likewise we discover the names of many of our class members on the honor roll every report period.

Our hope is that this last year may be a credit to our school as we strive to keep ever before us our school motto, "Perge Modo."

THE FOOTBALL SEASON

The Ne-Ca-Hi "Red Hurricane" marched through to another of its perennially fine seasons this fall with a record of eight victories and two defeats. Technically, in WPIAL records this would be seven wins and three losses, since the Butler game was awarded by a 1-0 count to Butler. This was due to a misinterpretation of WPIAL rules by the New Castle officials.

The Youngstown East "fracas" and the Monesson "set-to" were by far the most thrilling games of the home season. In the Youngstown East affair New Castle built up an 8-0 lead early in the second half only to find a fighting Ohio eleven coming back with seven startling points, and a promise of more, had the game not ended quickly. In the Monessen engagement New Castle contracted a 9-0 deficit in the first half due to some faulty play, but delivered the "goods" in the second half with the two needed touchdowns.

Little should be said concerning the Massillon engagement, except that no high school team, or many college teams, could have opposed the inspired Tiger eleven that night.

In Sharon it was a battle of slush and unending punts, both teams waiting for the break, which finally fell to New Castle in the form of a safety. The feature of the game was the low temperature and blinding snow, and not the play of the gridders.

In the other contests the "Canes" showed the usual fighting spirit which dominated their play, losing only to Warren. The Warren setback was just "one of those things"—the boys simply couldn't put it over.

The "Red Hurricane," 1938 edition, played to approximately 70,000 fans during the entire season. Outstanding among the regular players were: Roussos, Roberts, Lauro and Gender.

This season marks Head Coach Philip Bridenbaugh's fifteenth year at Ne-Ca-Hi. He has yet to coach an unsuccessful eleven.

THE FOOTBALL USHERS

During the 1938 football season Ne-Ca-Hi was served by a squad of approximately 75 ushers under the faculty direction of Mr. Donald Copson, and the student captaincy of Mike Wasilin. These students ushered fans to their seats in fair weather or foul during the entire home season of six games.

In recognition of faithful service rendered by this group of students, this opportunity is taken to express the appreciation felt by the Athletic Council and the entire student body.

THE CLASS SONG

Tune: "Two Sleepy People"

Here we are,
We've made the grade at last,
We've worked and played and studied,
Now our school days are past;
A class of skillful people,
So happy and so gay,
But not ready yet to break away.

There we were,
Struggling through a class,
Not listening to the teacher,
But trying so to pass;
A class of sleepy people,
Just having so much fun,
With no time to get our nightwork done.

Do you remember those times we used to chatter in the hall?
Teacher didn't like it at all;
Do you remember how often came those questions just to stall?
The class of thirty-nine,
No matter—it's just fine.

Here we are,
High school days are done,
Got a bit of knowledge,
Had a lot of fun;
A class of right-nice people,
Just trying to comply,
And too sad at heart to say "good-bye."

"BY THEIR FRUITS"

Family trees are funny; time was when they were tended and pruned, all dead timber being carefully cut out; but now bare limbs are a common sight on even some of our oldest and best family trees.

Some of them produce a lot of peaches, and the same branch may also bear nuts. Many blossoms are found nestling in the leafy branches and perchance a few withered wall-flowers are found tucked away in sundry nooks.

Lemons are common on some of the trees; prunes and quinces also abound. Some of this fruit is easy picking and some of it has to be pretty well shaken before it will fall.

You will find many little love nests tucked away in the branches of the old family tree, and also some pretty queer birds.

But, everything considered, the family tree is a pretty good tree, and it is quite a calamity to fall out of it.

THE ORIGINAL CLASS SONG

(Tune—"Reuben, Reuben")

By Daniel Woolcock

CLASS OF '39

When you look in Ne-Ca-Hi School
For a class especially fine
You will stop when you have come to January '39.

In all sports or other contests
Pretty girls or I Q tests
All scholastic work that's doing
'39 leads all the rest.

When our high school days are over
Each of us will truly pine
Though we're poor or live in clover
For the class of '39.

So we ask you if you wish to
Pick the class that will outshine
All the rest in Ne-Ca-Hi School
Give three cheers for '39.

THE LETTER "E"

Always out of cash, forever in debt, always in danger, and in hell all the time. But never in war, always in peace, the beginning of ease, and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no life, no meat, no heaven. It is the center of honesty and makes love perfect.

THE ALPHABET OF POPULARITY

Always smile pleasantly.
Borrow not at all.
Consider others first, self last.
Deal kindly and honestly with all.
Everywhere observe good manners.
Frankly admit your mistakes at once.
Give generously of your talents.
Help your fellows here and there.
Invite friends frequently to your house.
Judge not hastily.
Keep your troubles away from the world.
Lovingly give, liberally to receive.
Mind your own business very strictly.
Never gossip idly about others.
Often take time to act graciously.
Pay your debts promptly when due.
Quietly anticipate the wishes of others.
Refuse ever to act deceitfully.
Seldom criticize adversely.
Treat everybody equally well.
Usually listen more and talk less.
Venture not too curiously.
Wherever you are talk cheerfully.
Xtend your hand with kindly cordiality.
Yet never greet over effusively.
Zealously guard your temper at all times.

A WEE BIT O'SCOTCH

It is rumored that Scotchmen prefer blondes because the overhead is so light.

Shoe strings don't have tips in Scotland.

The greatest price-fighters are Scotchmen.

No, the Scotch aren't close—you can touch anybody who is close.

The first time the Scotchman used the free air at the filling station he blew out all four tires.

It wasn't until toll bridges were built in Scotland that the Scotchmen learned to swim.

Ah! We just found out why Scotchmen rarely eat spaghetti. Holding their heads up so high wears out the backs of their collars.

A Scotchman always pays as he goes; unless he goes with somebody.

The Scotchman makes carbon copies of his love letters to his best girl so as to have a good start if he ever has to go through the same thing with another girl.

The birds outside the Scotchman's window all sing, "Cheep! Cheep!"

Sure sign of summer—when a Scot throws his Christmas tree away.

Most Scotchmen read nothing but free verse.

Have you heard about the woman who went on a hunger strike? Forty Scotchmen proposed to her.

A Scotch doctor had a patient who ran a temperature of 108 degrees, so he put him in his cellar to heat the building.

A Scotch golfer, after fourteen years of retirement, has resumed his game. Evidently, he has found his ball.

But you have to give the Scotchman credit for one thing—he never passes the buck.

REMINISCENCE IN SONG

"Juliana, "Love of My Life":

"There's a Far-Away Look in Your Eye." Are you "Daydreaming" of "That Week in Paris" in "Tu-Li-Tulip Time" When They Played The Polka"; of "That Cute Little Hat-Check Girl" and the "Little Drummer Boy"; of the night when I said, "Music Maestro, Please" to "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and they played "Lovelight in the Starlight" "Especially for You"? "You Put Your Heart Into A Song" and we did "The Yam" and the "Lambeth Walk." You said, "Isn't It Wonderful, Isn't It Swell?" and I replied, "What Have You Got That Gets Me." "I Hadn't Anyone 'Till You." Then I decided to "Stop Beatin' Around The Mulberry Bush" and "I Married an Angel." Now It Can Be Told "In Any Language": "You Go To My Head" and "You Leave Me Breathless," "So Help Me." I'm "Home In Your Arms" and "You're Lovely, Madame" so "Don't Let That Moon Get Away" and we'll have "A Little Kiss At Twilight." To me, your "Flat Foot Floojie," you're still the "Same Sweet You."

INTELLIGENT STUPIDITY

Quartz is the name for two pints.

The Augustan era was the mistake of Augustus.

A circle is a round line with no kinks in it, joined up so as not to show where it began.

The inhabitants of Moscow are called mosquitoes.

Mushrooms always grow in damp places and so they look like umbrellas

The Zebra looks like a horse, only striped, and is used chiefly to illustrate the letter "Z".

Helium gas is very injurious to the human body. Therefore the experimented should be performed, only on the teacher.

Shakespeare wrote tragedies, comedies and errors.

Homer wrote "The Oddity."

Chaucer was a great English poet who wrote many poems and verses and sometimes wrote literature.

A skeleton is a man with his inside out and his outside off.

A refugee keeps order at a football match.

An appendix is a portion of a book for which nobody yet has discovered a use.

Ali Baba means being away when the crime was committed.

Lord Macaulay suffered from gout and wrote all his poems in iambic feet.

During the Napoleonic Wars round heads trembled in their shoes.

MODERN PROVERBS

It's a long road that has no stoplight.

A man is known by the hours he keeps.

A rolling stone eventually stops.

Live and love.

A new broom costs money.

Nothing ventured, nothing lost.

It's an ill wind that blows along the east front.

All that shines is not serge.

Be true to your teeth or they will be false to you.

Silence is golden but many a man is talked out of his silver.

The poorest hour is just before the pawn.

If at first you don't succeed, cry, cry, again.

Never do today what can be put off until tomorrow.

A bluff covers a multitude of sins.

A stitch in time saves much embarrassment.

PUNCTUATION PUZZLE

Caesar entered on his head, his helmet on his feet, armed sandals on his brow, there was a cloud in his right hand, his faithful sword in his eye, there was an angry glare saying nothing. He sat down.

TEXT BOOKS AND SUCH

The faculty believes that most students are unaware of the numerous uses for textbooks. Exhaustive research indicates the following advantages of having such books:

- (1) They look well between most types of book-ends.
- (2) They are convenient to throw at someone when an ink bottle is out of reach.
- (3) They are easily adjusted for small brothers and sisters to sit on while practicing the piano.
- (4) They serve to impress unsuspecting instructors when carried openly to class.
- (5) They are thought to contain information incidental to a college education.

THE UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM

My fr-ran-nz, and I do mean my franz, (thank you, thank you) I propose to transport the Atlantic Ocean into the Pacific by means of the B. B. A. (Bucket Brigade of America). This will put millions of parasites to work. (Thank you, thank you) And to complete this project I shall fill the Grand Canyon with free beer from which we may all partake. (Thank you) with a slight (?) tax to cover expenses. (No applause).

FINIS

We have tried to put in our year book just what we would like to preserve. We have portrayed, in pictures, the major scale of our school life—the gay notes and sad notes of our high school days. For some, this will be the last scale they will ascend, while others will continue to acquire higher notes of learning. We trust that each member of the class of January, 1939 will play well his instrument in the grand symphony of life.
