THE AUNT AND TREE.

There grows an ash by my door door. And 'tis the boughs are barks draw in fairest wads of summer green.

LILIAN FOLLY.

Pretty Lilian Folly, exquisitely outlined, from the sleek ostrich plume of her hat to the tip of her dainty foot,

THE GREAT AURORA DISPLAY.

The brilliant aurora which illuminated our northern heavens in the early part of April seems to have been the most wide spread and complete phenomena of this kind witnessed in the middle latitudes for years.

THE CIRCLE.

"What is the world's that?" asked the young girl of Don and Dorry, and their host and hostess candidly admitted that they hadn't the slightest idea what it was.

THE CITY OF ROSES.

A sojourner in New Orleans says I don't believe there is any region on earth where roses grow in such abundance, variety, beauty and sweetness as they do in this country.

OBEDIENCE TO PARENTS.

Walking down the avenue a few days since, I saw a group of little girls who were having a good time with their parents.

Religious Notices.

MORAVIAN.—English services on Sunday at 10 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. EVANGELICAL.—German preaching on Sunday at 9.30 A. M.; prayer meeting at 7.30 P. M. LUTHERAN.—Services at Bricker-ville on Sunday at 9 A. M. LUTHERAN (New Haven).—Prayer-meeting on Saturday evening; English services on Sunday at 9.15 A. M. REFORMED.—Services on Sunday at Bricker-ville at 9 A. M. and at White Oak at 2 P. M. GERMAN BAPTIST.—Services on Sunday morning at Kreider's, Millport and Mohler's.

REMOVED TO TOWN.—On Tuesday Mr. Emanuel Grub removed from Lincoln to this place, in part of Mrs. Lydia Doster's house on Broad street. He sold his Lincoln residence to Elias Haacker for $2,440.

DOES NOT PROVIDE FOR HIS FAMILY.—On Tuesday afternoon Urian Balmer of Pine Hill, was arrested and taken before Squire Reidenbach, the charge being that he neglected to provide for his family. The case was postponed for a further hearing on Saturday, and in the meantime Balmer was compelled to enter bail for $300.

COME INTO THE HORSE BUSINESS.—Our young townsman, Zeas Eby, is going to be, in the common expression, a horse jockey. He brought here last week six head of fine Virginia horses, among them being a specially fine gray, which he says can trot a mile in four minutes. In a few days he will again go to Virginia and return a week later with more stock.

A COW WORTH HAVING.—Jacob G. Keller, of Penn township, is the owner of an Alderney cow, weighing barely 700 pounds, which, besides supplying the milk for a calf, gives 14 pounds of butter weekly. Mr. Keller values this little animal at upwards of $200, and well may he do so, when he takes into consideration her wonderful productive qualities.

A BIG JOB.—On Thursday, May 18th, E. B. Weigand, of Reading, J. A. Buch and Israel G. Erb, of this place, will go to Juniata county for the purpose of surveying a large tract of woodland belonging to J. A. Buch & Bro. They will be gone at least five days and while in the woods can look for nothing more than wood choppers' boarding—pork, beans and the like.

BARNUM IN READING.—An immense crowd assembled in Reading on Tuesday to see Barnum. The cheap fare over the Reading and Columbia Railroad was an inducement to many and so heavy was the traffic that an extra train was put on the road. There were few, however, from this place, and those who went "did not go to see the circus," they had other business—at least so they said.

ROUGH ON RATS.—John Jurell and Samuel Goda, living near this place, with the assistance of a little dog, killed forty-three rats on the premises of the latter person on Wednesday in two-hours' time. While the dog was invaluable in grinding them with his sharp teeth, the two men made good use of clubs in dispatching the troublesome pests. They would like to know if any one can do better than this.

A DECIDED IMPROVEMENT.—The Litz drug store will undergo a big change in the coming fortnight. A handsome French plate glass front will be put in the store room enlarged, refitted and repainted. While this is going on the private office will be used as a store room, the entrance being at the hall door of the private residence.

ANOTHER LOVEFEAST.—In addition to the Dunkard lovefeasts to be held as mentioned in last week's RECORD, one will be held at Royer's meeting house near the Middle Creek on the 25th and 26th of May. Since the above was put into type we are informed that Rev. Jacob Reinhold will hold lovefeast services at the residence of J. B. Nolt, near Oregon, on Sunday afternoon and evening, May 14.

A HINT TO MOSEY.—Mosey, of the Manheim Sentinel, in talking of serious consequences which may happen at the Springs, must remember that those grounds belong to the Moravian Church, and it would be the wrong place to commit a deed of the kind on church property. But, by the way, if ever Mosey and the ghost of Lewis Murr meet there will be a big item to record. The Sentinel hung Lewis Murr on his gallows several years ago, yet last week it contained his name among a list of bills for sale. But there is still an estate here of the said Lewis Murr, and if the Sentinel has a legal claim it can get the amount due by bringing suit against his administrators.

GOOD RESULTS.—Mr. Augustus Enck, of this place, can beat all in the chicken-hatching line that came to our notice this season. As a rule people are complaining of the very poor results. From three hatches, each one having 13 eggs, making 39 eggs in all, he got 37 little peepers. Who can beat it?

AT THE ROTHSVILLE STORE.—Have just returned from the city with a full and complete line of spring and summer goods, which I offer at great bargains. I have poplins in remnants of Delaines, Bagins, Muslins and heavy Duck. Of lace remnants I received an entire new lot. In Groceries I have a full line.

PRODUCE TAKEN IN EXCHANGE FOR GOODS and highest market prices allowed for it. Please give me a call and be convinced. D. M. HAECKER.

OWEN P. BRICKER, Esq., attorney-at-law, is in town every Saturday and Monday morning and can be consulted on all legal business.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

CLEANINGS FROM ABOUT HOME AND FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

A jury for the purpose of considering the widening of the street leading from Main street to the Warwick road running to Brunnerville will meet at the Sturgis House on Thursday, May 25, at 9 A. M. Rev. B. D. Albright was not a little surprised the other day to find a handsome office chair at the railroad direction to him. It came from Philadelphia, but from whom is a mystery. County Superintendent Shaub will examine teachers of Warwick and Litz at Litz June 5th; Elizabeth Whitlatch May 29th; Clay May 30th. If you can't afford to paint your fence, give it a coat of whitewash. None are too poor for that; and it's surprising what a vast difference it will make in beautifying and making cheerful the home and its surroundings.

Five hundred and twenty-five tickets were disposed of for the sisters' lovefeast held in the Moravian Church last Sabbath. Our butchers are complaining very much at the scarcity of beef cattle, where-with to supply their customers, but hope that we may not be compelled to substitute horse yet. After this week Charley Miller will run his accommodation line to Lancaster every Tuesday and Saturday. Rain, rain, rain. Rain on Saturday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and no telling when there will be more settled weather. One of our townsmen, who had gone to Reading to "take in the Barnum circus," declares that Jumbo is no elephant, but a mastodon. Sessenan brothers, painters, have just finished painting on the premises of Jacob G. Keller, in Penn township. They have repainted the house, summer kitchen, tobacco shed, barn, fences, and also papered part of the interior. The little girl who has inaugurated rooster jumping. Parents should be careful and not permit their little daughters to indulge too much in this favorite amusement. It is dangerous.

A new time table will go into effect on the Reading and Columbia Railroad on Monday next, 16th inst. There is a probability that farmers will plant an unusually large space with potatoes, making that article a cheap one next fall, provided there is an average yield. The comet will soon be visible to the naked eye, and even now with a good strong glass it can be seen late in the evening, 12 o'clock; you will see pretty well up in the northern heavens the brightest star Vega in the harp. It may be clearly recognized by two faint stars close by it, with which it makes a beautiful little triangle.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS.—A dramatic company, under the management of Perre & White, gave three performances in Broad Street Hall the first three nights of this week. On Monday evening they played "Di-vorce," followed by the laughing farce of "Caught in a Trap." On Tuesday evening they gave us "East Lynne," and on Wednesday evening "Lady Audley's Secret," followed by the comedy of "O. Callahan," or His last legs.

The rainy weather each day and evening interfered to some extent from having a big turnout. Yet the hall was tolerably well filled on each occasion. All the performances were well rendered, the principal characters being well acted and all the actresses having the audience with them all the time. The afterplays were also very good and elicited rounds of applause. In "East Lynne," Miss Carrie Stanley, who took the role of Lady Isabel and Madam Vine, executed her parts so well that at times she had the audience almost in tears.

The company's expenses are heavy and the manager assured us that they lost money here. There are ten of them. They seemed to think that Litz people should have done better when they had the opportunity for once to witness a good performance right here. We were also informed that they will return next fall, with a company of fifteen, with a full set of fine scenery, &c.

MASTERSVILLE BREVITIES.—Grass butter is here, but scarce and a little up in figures. The barefoot boy showeth his own sorrow. The heavy frost of last week did not result in much injury to fruit and vegetation in this section. Wheat fields look exceedingly well in this vicinity and promise a bountiful harvest, but the grass fields are backward and the hay crop will be rather light, judging from present appearances.

The first hand organ of the season proclaimed the profoundest attention of our people one day last week. Our merchant, John S. Masterson, is devoting his spare minutes to the ornamentation of a waste strip of ground surrounding his store, which he purposes converting into a beautiful flower garden. Rare plants have already been secured for the purpose. May success attend his efforts. The remaining child of Mr. Samuel Fasnacht, of whose illness mention was made some weeks ago, died last Friday and was buried on Sunday. Thus, in a few weeks, death has blighted a once happy family, and the bereaved parent merits the sympathy felt by his behalf.

The Messrs. Thome, physicians, are kept exceedingly busy attending to the many sick in the surrounding country. The tobacco in this section is gradually being bought up at fair prices. A large lot of the 1881 crop was purchased last week by John J. Thome. "INCORRIGIBLE."

MAY PARTY EXCURSION.—A May party excursion to Philadelphia will take place on Thursday, May 18th. Round trip tickets, good returning for three days, only $1.50. Special train leaves Litz at 8.40 A. M., Ephrata 7.01.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. EMMA HENSEL.

We record the death of Mrs. Emma Hensel, the amiable and accomplished wife of W. U. Hensel, esq., of the Intelligencer. The sorrowful event occurred on Saturday evening, and although it had been anticipated, proved a great shock in the end to a very large circle of relatives and friends. Mrs. Hensel had been ill for weeks with inflammatory rheumatism, culminating in blood poisoning and a complication of troubles, resulting in her death as above stated. For a long time she had been considered in a precarious condition, but about the middle of last week she exhibited signs of great improvement, and for the first time during her terrible illness—there seemed to be a hope for recovery. In an unexpected moment, however, the disease changed for the worse, so that when the end came it proved a terrible shock to all who heard of it. Mrs. Hensel was the eldest daughter of Mr. A. C. Flinn, (senior member of the firm of Flinn & Willson,) and a grand-daughter of Christian Kieffer, esq., ex-Mayor of Lancaster.—New Era.

DANIEL K. GRIM. Most of the dry goods dealers of Lancaster county have had dealings with the firm of D. K. Grim & Sons, Philadelphia, and many others outside of the business know the junior member of the firm, George Grim, who visits this county frequently. On the morning of the 4th inst. Daniel K. Grim, the senior member of said firm, died at his residence, 540 North Sixth street, aged 67 years. Mr. Grim was born in Berks county, this State, and in 1835 succeeded his uncle in the wholesale dry goods business at Fourth and Vine streets. The business was continued there until 1845, when it was removed to Third street, above Vine, and where subsequently his brother, David K. Grim, became associated with him under the firm-name of D. K. Grim & Brother. In 1856 David retired. Ten years ago Mr. Grim took his two sons, Henry and George, in partnership and the firm became D. K. Grim & Sons. They continued to do business at the old stand until last January, when they removed to 430 Market street. This house, now carried on by descendants of the third generation, is believed to be the oldest dry goods house in the city.

The subject of this sketch was an active member of the Merchants' Beneficial Association, and at the time of his death was a member of the Board of Trustees. He was also for a time one of the Board of Managers of the Northern Home for Friendless Children. He was also one of the oldest members of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, and for many years held the position of Secretary to the Board of Trustees of the church.

REUBEN HECKER, Son of Jacob Hecker, residing near Bethany Church, in Ephrata township, died after a week's illness of erysipelas, on Tuesday morning, at 2 o'clock. He was a member of the Reformed Church at Bethany, and his mortal remains were interred there on Thursday afternoon of this week. His departure will be felt in the community in which he resided, but at no place more than in the family. He leaves a wife and four children who depended upon him for the necessities of life. He must be near sixty years of age.

MARTIN VAN BUREN NEAVING, Son of Raebael and the late Jacob Neaving, died at his residence in the city of Lancaster on Tuesday at 9.30 P. M. of consumption, aged 33 years. Mr. Neaving was also sexton of the church of St. Matthew's, and was married to Miss Libbie Long of Manheim, and is the father of five small children. Mr. Neaving was a shrewd business man, was well known over Lancaster county, and several years ago was engaged in the liquor business at Akron with A. G. Killian. From 1870 to 1873 he resided in the city of Philadelphia, where he was also engaged in the wholesale liquor business with Charles Kreiter. It was there where he frequently met him with his family by his side enjoying the comforts of a happy home, presided over by a kind father and husband. The interment will take place at Fairview Cemetery, Manheim borough, this (Friday) at 10 o'clock A. M.

A PRISONER'S FRENCH LEAVE.—William Bowers, a convict serving a term in the county prison, made a bold and successful escape from that institution about noon on Tuesday. He was employed in carrying tobacco to the cigarmakers and had to a certain extent the run of the corridor. He was given his dinner shortly after 11 o'clock. While there was but one underkeeper in the corridor feeding the other prisoners, and keeper Burkholder was eating his dinner, Bowers slipped, unnoticed, from the corridor to the yard, taking with him a step-ladder about five feet in length. He next forced an entrance into the room (next to the carpenter shop) where the clothes of prisoners are kept. He picked out his suit and carried it with him. The bad condition of the wall rendered it easy for him to get over. He scaled it at the northeast corner and when he was outside stripped himself, put on his citizens suit and fled. He was not missed until his convict suit behind him. But he was not missed until his convict suit behind him. But he was not missed until his convict suit behind him.

He was convicted at the January quarter sessions court of committing an aggravated assault and battery on Henry C. Keller, and was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of nine months and two weeks. SCARCE.—Very few of the large number of cattle fed and fattened by the farmers throughout the county last winter remain unsold. It is said that there is not a sufficient number of cattle in the county to supply our home markets with beef. The Virginia cattle, which are now being pastured, will put in an appearance in about six weeks. Beef no doubt would go to higher prices if it were not that fish just now are plentiful.

PERSONAL ITEMS.—Jacob G. Reinhold, of New Haven, has returned from Dayton, O., whither he had gone last March. He hadn't homesick, but says he didn't like the place. He now has a position in the store of Williamson & Foster, Lancaster.

Mr. George Barr, of Philadelphia, was in town over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Flory, of Lancaster, spent Sunday in Litz. Miss Sarah Miller, of Hamburg, Pa., visited Litz relatives last and this week. John W. Mohr, of Reading, formerly of this place, was here from Saturday to Monday. Although not as stout as formerly, he looks well and says he likes Reading.

Mr. Benny Shertzler, employed in the store of Hood, Bondright & Co., Philadelphia, spent Sunday in this place. Mr. Aaron Adams, formerly of the Kemper House, has gone to Lancaster as bartender in the Franklin House. Mr. Wm. H. Bollinger and family visited Litz friends on Sunday. He reports business brisk. Mr. David Kemper, from near Akron, was in town on Wednesday, visiting his brother, Levi G. Kemper, who is confined to his bed with dropsy but is not seriously ill. Mr. Albert Bomberger, of Lebanon county, formerly clerk in Miller's store, visited friends here this week. Next Thursday he intends going West.

Mr. Haydn H. Tshudy is attending the Republican State Convention at Harrisburg this week as a delegate. Mr. Haydn N. Miksch, of the firm of Fry & Miksch, went to Ohio on a business trip. Mr. Jacob Sheasley, of Franklin, Pa., father of Miss Maggie Sheasley, a pupil of Linden Hall, visited here this week, after which he went to New York and sailed for Europe.

SPEEDWELL STOCK SALE IN NEW YORK.—A fine lot of trotting horses were sold at public sale in New York last Thursday. They were the property of the Coleman estate, from the Speedwell Farms, Elizabeth township. There were in all fifteen, but the interest was largely centered in the sale of Furity, a single white mare, unmarked by a single white spot. Mr. William Easton, the auctioneer, read her pedigree. She was foaled in May, 1878, her sire was Middletown, and her dam Swallow; by Abdallah Chief, second dam Fancy, by Black Dick, third dam Sail, by Black Prince; fourth dam Fanny, by Findly.

The bidding began at $1,000, and ran up through the hundreds to $5,000, where it hung for ten minutes. Then the auctioneer explained that the mare had already trotted a mile in 2.21 on a slow track, and said that with careful training she could cover a mile on a good track in 2.18. Thus fortified, would-be buyers began to bid again, and the mare was finally knocked down to Mr. John W. Shaw for $6,000. Roanoke, a gray gelding, sired by Middletown, was sold for $150; Stockwell, a bay gelding with black points and no white markings, by the same sire, was started at $300 and knocked down to the second bidder for $305; Ivanhoe, a bay gelding with two white hind feet, went for $200, and Baywood, a beautiful bay gelding without white, sired by Middletown, brought $500. The largest prices obtained for other lots were $320 for Hopewell, a steel gray gelding, 5 years old, with one white hind foot, and $205 for Amazon, a bay filly with black points.

Record-ings.—Barefoot boys.—Will we decorate?—Early potatoes will be late.—Our Squire's business is dull.—Corn planting is in operation.—Whit Monday comes May 29th.—A session on Day next fixing up.—The country roads want driving.—Soap bubble parties are the latest fancy.—Barnum's daily expenses are $4,800.—Pinegrove has a deaf and dumb tailor.—Onions and radishes are in the market.—Every one seemed to be out last Sunday.—You can soon go bass fishing.—June list.—Snow in some parts of the State last week.—Will we have any strawberry festivals?—Distillers complain of the high-priced rye.—New Holland has a "snoot" hand. What is it?—What will be done if the bay crop again proves a failure?—Read the new advertisement of J. D. Witters, in another column.—Our public schools will close the last of May with an entertainment.—The wise father is preparing to place another hinge on the front gate.—A lazy man never goes crazy; in fact, never goes anywhere, if he has to walk.—So, Rank, of the New Holland Cleron, can now consider himself a politician.—Hall last Saturday, and our Hall Insurance Company should go to work on the strength of it.—A key ring containing two small keys was found and can be obtained by the owner at this office.—The steadily increasing circulation of the RECORD should be remembered by those who have something to advertise.—The Sentinel says "smiling May is here with all her beauty." Well, we haven't seen much smile or beauty thus far.—Mrs. A. L. Shelley has received a full line of spring and summer millinery and fancy goods. Go see her stock.—John Wanamaker spends more money for advertising than any man in America and the profits of his business are immense.—A number of our exchanges are advertising for boys to learn the printing business. Devils seem to be getting scarce.—The Manheim Sentinel is publishing a list of delinquent subscribers, ranging in sums from two dollars up to fifteen. We will do the same if a few certain ones don't soon come to time.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.—Lancaster Classis of the Reformed Church will meet in annual session in Columbia, June 1, 1882, at 7.30 P. M. The opening sermon will be preached by the retiring president, Rev. Schweitzer, of Lincoln.

The last of the spring communions in Bethany charge, of which the Rev. D. C. Tobias is pastor, was held on Sunday last at Bethany. The large edifice was well filled and the best order prevailed. There were also large audiences at White Oak and Bricker-ville on previous occasions. The year's work sums up the following: By confirmation, 11; by reception, 6; total, 7. By baptism, 10; total number added 27. The death roll for the year numbered 9; six adults and three children, leaving 18 members as a net gain in membership for the year.

Rev. John Giblin, of York, left on Wednesday morning to attend the meeting of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania of the Dunkard denomination, now in session near Pottstown. Communion services will be held in the Bricker-ville Lutheran Church, Rev. M. Fensler, pastor, on Sunday, May 21st. A number will also be confirmed on that day. Services will begin at 9 A. M. Preparatory services Saturday previous at 1.30 P. M.

MINISTERIAL AND S. S. CONVENTION.—The annual ministerial and Sunday-school convention of Reading district of the Evangelical Association will be held at Akron May 29-31, morning, afternoon and evening. The Sunday-school will be discussed at length and such resolutions adopted as will be for the welfare of the institutions. On Wednesday evening an interesting children's meeting will be held, to be addressed by Revs. S. Nolt, J. J. Reitz, L. N. Worman and others. Litz congregation will no doubt be well represented.

AN AGED CITIZEN.—Mr. Jacob Hecker, father of Reuben Hecker, whose demise we are called upon to chronicle in this issue of the RECORD, is the oldest resident in Ephrata township, excepting Mrs. Peiffer, who may be as old, if not a little older. If we are correctly informed, Mr. Hecker will celebrate his ninety-second birthday on the seventeenth day of July next. He is a well-preserved old man, not hard of hearing, enjoys good sight, and is otherwise a remarkable person for one so old. Years ago he lived in the house now occupied by Mrs. Caroline Zentmyer, in Warwick. He is well known to the older residents of our town.

White Counterpanes for 50 cts., $1.12, $1.35. Marseilles Quilts for $3 and $6. These are something very handsome indeed. Colored Counterpanes for $1.12, $1.35 and $1.75. TICHUS AND LACE TIES. We have a fine assortment in these goods for our lady customers, and would invite them to come and see them. It may not be generally known that we keep a full line of Ladies' Fancy Goods. Our stock of Corsets, Ribbons, Gloves, Ties and the thousand and one articles wanted by ladies, will be found here in good assortment.
