Erratic Heating At Elementary School Blamed On Tampering

Trouble Not Due To Any Equipment Failure, Jordan Says

Erratic heating of classrooms in the renovated borough elementary school building is not the fault of any equipment failure but the inadvertent — or otherwise — tampering with the controls, it was emphasized here this week.

Heating troubles in the borough building have disturbed school officials since the very opening of the fall term. With the new oil heat not completely installed, no heat at all was furnished at the beginning of the term.

Since then the new system has produced the erratic result of sending temperatures in some rooms up to the 80 degree mark while other rooms have been down around 50 degrees. On several occasions kindergarten children have been sent home, with the result that a near-epidemic of colds and sniffles has resulted among the older children required to remain regardless of the room temperatures.

But, believe it or not, it is not the fault of the new equipment, according to Ellwyn Jordan, resident engineer who supervised its installation. Instead it has been caused, probably inadvertently, by persons, which might include almost anybody from school directors to the janitors, not operating the switches in the right manner.

Mr. Jordan even advanced the

Lambert To Acquire Nepera Co.

The possibility that the local plant of Warner-Lambert will be further increased through the acquisition of the Nepra Chemical Co., Inc., manufacturers of Anahist cold remedies, was being culled over here this week.

Warner-Lambert plans to acquire Nepera through the exchange of 178,079 shares of Warner-Lambert common and 70,702 shares of a new issue of $100 par, $4.50 cumulative preferred stock for all Nepera stock.

Warner-Lambert stockholders will vote at a special meeting called for December 12 on proposals to authorize the new issue of preferred and to increase authorized common shares.

Nepera, they said, had net worth of $9.5 million on May 31, 1956 and net income for 1956 is expected "to considerably exceed" the $1.3 million earned in 1955.

Nepera produces in its manufacturing plant at Harriman, N. Y., a variety of ethical pharmaceutical specialties, as well as a number of bulk fine chemicals, and intermediates which are employed in manufacturing other products by the company and for sale to the pharmaceutical industry.

Local Stores Will Remain Open Until 9:00 P.M. Saturdays

A number of local stores will remain open Saturday evenings, starting this week and continuing throughout December, according to an announcement made yesterday.

The move to remain open Saturday evenings until 9 p.m. was launched as an added convenience for Christmas shoppers. Plans also call for local stores to remain open each evening during the week prior to Christmas.

And when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: and thou shalt be blessed. . . . (St. Luke 14, 13-14.)

We who enjoy richly the good things of life—love, health, happiness, freedom from want and anxiety—surely are called upon to share them with the less fortunate. Sharing indeed will be blessed, being always a privilege and

Bobst Hands Initial Check Of $35,000

Park Committee Holding Check Until New Group Is Formed

A check for $35,000 toward launching the program of improvements in the Lititz Springs Park has been received from Elmer Bobst, members of the re-organization committee headed by Wilbur Miller announced this week.

At a meeting held Monday evening, Mr. Miller announced that the check will be held until after the new park committee is organized. The initial payment of the $100,000 gift announced last June, was made by Mr. Bobst when he visited Lititz last week for the formal opening of the Lambert-Hudnut plant.

In the meantime, practically every local church has been slating meetings to discuss the recent invitations mailed to them to participate actively in the new committee to be formed to operate the Springs Park.

"A number of church groups have called me for more details and the response to the invitations mailed out has been generally enthusiastic," Mr. Miller explained. "Our committee hopes that all local churches will agree to participate and will make their decisions known within the next week or so."

Little Hope For Zoning Before 1959

Lititz is not likely to get zoning much before 1959—if then—according to tentative plans mapped out at an important meeting of the Borough Planning Commission with borough council on Monday evening.

The matter of presenting a zoning ordinance to borough council is just not as simple as it sounds, Clifton E. Rodgers, of the Clifton E. Rodgers & Associates, of Harrisburg, informed the two borough groups.

Zoning will come at the end of a comprehensive survey and plan for the development of the borough, Rodgers explained. And that matter of drawing up an over-all plan will require a two-year period, at least, Mr. Rodgers agreed to make the plan for

John A. McGee Dies After Fall

John A. McGee, 649 East Main Street, died at the Lancaster General Hospital yesterday at 12:45 a.m. from injuries sustained in a fall through a window at his home.

McGee, long identified with the sawdust business here, was admitted to the hospital Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. suffering from multiple lacerations. Death however was caused by acute alcoholism, according to Dr. C. P. Stahr, following an autopsy.

The deceased lived in Lititz since 1938 and operated at the American Products and Lumber. He was a veteran of World War I and was a member of the Lititz Legion, the V.F.W., and the Elks Lodge.

Services will be held in St. James Catholic Church Monday at 9 a.m. with interment in St. Peter's Catholic Cemetery at Klinsville.

To Organize Rifle Clubs At Lititz Recreation Center

Plans for the organization of two Rifle and Pistol Clubs are well under way at the Rec. Center, Bob Sutherland, director, announced this week. He said he has procured an application for membership in the National Rifle Association of America; and that arrangements are being completed to comply with Director of Civil Marksmanship requirements.

The D. C. M. was instituted by an Act of Congress under the National Defense Act of 1916, and functions directly under the Secretary of the Army on the theory that "the United States is stronger if its citizens do not completely forget those skills and abilities which originally made America independent."

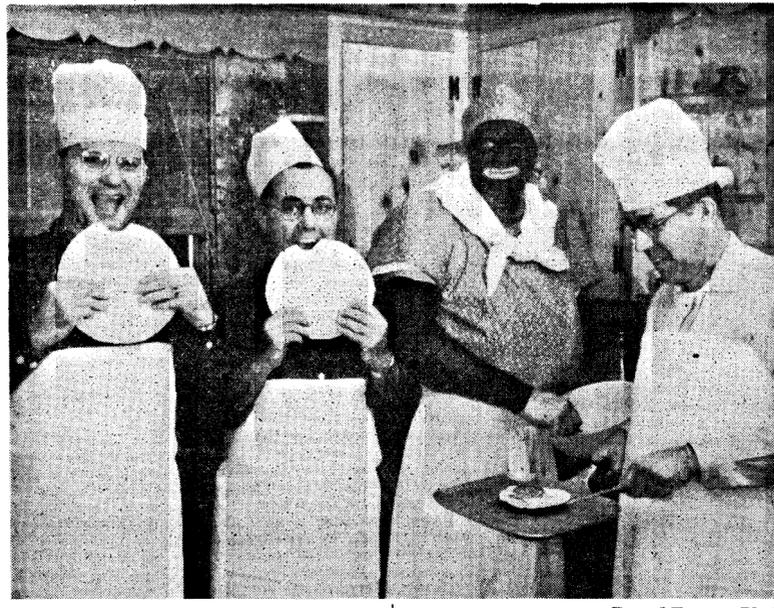

When the requirements of the N.R.A. and D.C.M. have been fulfilled, the local clubs will be eligible to obtain without cost ammunition and targets, Mr. Sutherland explained. He is now seeking the services of two marksmen, John Miller, North Broad St., and Jacob H. Birkenbine, Manheim, a former Pennsylvania State Champion, to assist him in the operation of the clubs.

One of the clubs will be known as the Senior Rifle and Pistol Club, and must have on its roster at least ten physically fit citizens over 17 years of age. The other will be for those between the ages of 12 and 18, with a membership of at least 10 who are physically fit.

Anyone interested in participating either as a member, or advisor or instructor, should lose no time in letting Mr. Sutherland know so that he may make his plans accordingly. Member-

A Rehearsal For The Big Day

Saturday Is Lions Pancake Day

Pancakes and sausage — all you can eat — are the appetizing features offered for this Saturday by members of the Lititz Lions Club who will stage their annual Pancake Day in the Lititz Firehouse.

The first batch of batter will be stirred up by Charlie Wagaman, as Aunt Jemima, at 6 a.m. sharp. Serving of pancakes and all that goes with them will be continued by the Lions throughout the day, ending at 6 p.m.

As a special attraction, music will be furnished by an old player piano, rolls and all, with John Keen on hand just in case the thing breaks down.

Yule Parties Planned By Rotary Club

Plans for Christmas activities were completed this week by members of the Lititz Rotary Club.

On Tuesday, December 4, members of the club will entertain approximately 25 boys and girls of the Nettville Home. The kiddies will be taken to the General Sutter Hotel prior to the meeting, in order to decorate a Christmas tree to be placed in the dining room.

Later, Santa Claus will make his appearance and will present the children with gifts. An interesting program of entertainment also is being arranged.

On December 11, the club will hold its annual Ladies Night Christmas Party. Rev. Wallace Fisher, of Lancaster, will speak and members of the Linden Hall Chorus will present a musical program. A string trio will furnish music during the dinner.

Rev. Robert Huddle, assistant pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, delivered the annual Thanksgiving message to the club this week. Next Tuesday the club will hold the second installment of its Past Presidents' program of reviewing the club's activities of the past quarter of a century.

Visitors Tuesday included Ed. Harnley and Richard Hackman, Jr., high school seniors, guests of the club; George May, Martin Keener and A. B. Hollinger, visitors from the Lancaster Club, and Orlo Proctor, of Elizabethtown.

Thanksgiving Dance Saturday Night At Recreation Center

A Thanksgiving Dance will be held at the Recreation Center on Saturday night with Larry Witmer, regular Center Disk Jockey on hand, assisted by Ed Miller. The Long Thin One of WLAN to entertain and hand out door prizes.

Several changes have had to be made in the winter schedule at the Center, according to Robert Sutherland, director of recreation; but he promises that early next month he will be ready to go with basketball, volleyball, foul-shooting contests, and physical fitness classes. Instructional classes have been

Fighting Delays Departure of Local Woman From Ethiopia

Miss Anna Mae Graybill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Graybill, Lititz RD2, who has spent the past five years in the Middle-East as a missionary nurse in conjunction with a program sponsored by the Menonite Church, was scheduled to return early in January; but with the present unrest in the Suez Canal Zone, some delay may be expected, it was disclosed this week.

Miss Graybill was assigned to Addis Ababa, which is the headquarters of the mission nursing group, and served the first portion of her duty at Nazareth Hospital, an outpost, and the past three or more years were spent mostly at Deder Clinic, Ethiopia, another outpost connected with Addis Ababa.

Relatives of Miss Graybill, in referring to the uncertainty of her departure, scheduled for January 18, pointed out that her present station is only eight hours flying time from the Suez-troubled area, and that her leaving could conceivably be delayed pending developments there.

Miss Graybill is one of two local young women doing missionary work in Ethiopia. The other is Miss Alice Snyder, of this borough, who has spent three years there, working mostly in Addis Ababa. Miss Snyder does not expect to return to this country for another two years.

Miss Snyder's sister, Alma, said a recent letter stated that the country is presently suffering economically due to the fact that the coffee crop, which is the chief source of income, is not being bought due to the current unrest in the entire area.

It was also learned that Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swarr, of East Petersburg, missionaries, who were expected to return home next month, have been detained in Israel with no assurance as to when they will be permitted to make their departure.

Woman Launches Clothing Drive For Hungarians

Clothing for the relief of Hungarian refugees is being collected by Mrs. Harry D. Eshelman, Lititz RD3, who is herself of Hungarian extraction. She invites people of this area who have warm serviceable clothing and bedding which they want to donate, to call her at MA 6-6282, and she will arrange to have the articles picked up.

Mrs. Eshelman explained that her mother, Mrs. George Frank, a native Hungarian, who resides in New York, has been working with several different groups who are aiding in the relief program.

The first delivery of merchandise collected locally will be made this coming week-end when Mrs. Eshelman will take it personally to her mother in New York, where Mrs. Frank in turn, will see that the articles are shipped to the proper authorities in Budapest, where she has relatives assisting in the work of rehabilitating the refugees.

Rebekah Card Party Winners Announced

The following persons won prizes at the turkey card party held by the Lady Sutter Rebekah Lodge on Saturday evening at the Odd Fellows Hall: Calvin Miller won the door prize and Mrs. Anna Kreider, the prize in "500".

Pinochle, Carrie Shade, Gertrude Helder, H. B. Kauffman, Charles Gundrum, John B. Shoffner, Mrs. John Cunningham, Earle W. Frey. Special prizes were won by Bruce Ulrich, Grace Benner, Russell Ulrich, Frank Grube, Estella Keath, Emory Shenk, Bob Kreider, Glenn Davidson,

Complaints Pour In Over Streets Torn-up To Repair Gas Mains

FIREMEN CALLED WHEN TRASH FIRE SPREADS

Local firemen were called to the home of Ed. Pelger, Jr., 202 Front Street, Wednesday morning shortly after ten o'clock when a trash fire spread to frame garages nearby. Mrs. Pelger explained that the fire became unmanageable when a sudden wind developed, causing sparks to fly to nearby leaves.

Improvements Will Boost Water Rates

Average Family Here Will Pay $3 to $5 More, It Is Estimated

Contemplated improvements to the borough water system will cost the average consumer somewhat less than a five-dollar bill per family per year, it was disclosed Tuesday evening.

Meeting jointly, borough council and members of the newly-appointed water authority heard Henry Huth, water engineer, review plans for erecting a huge reservoir atop Kissel Hill, installing new and larger mains and other improvements which will cost anywhere from $600,000 to $800,000.

If the lower figure holds out, and estimates seldom do when workmen begin excavating the local limestone soil, the average consumer will find his water bill about three dollars higher. But if the higher figure prevails, what he has left out of the added five-spotter won't be worth talking about.

The average consumer here today pays $30 a year for water and approximately $40 a year for sewerage service.

The subject of locating the proposed reservoir at Lexington instead of Kissel Hill was debated at length. Huth felt that the borough is expanding more rapidly to the south than the north and that the added cost of laying mains to Lexington would not be justified.

Should the present adequate water supply become contaminated

Xmas Checks Cause Spurt In Shopping

A sudden spurt in business this week was reported on all sides as people began spending their Christmas Savings Funds.

Checks totaling $206,000 were mailed out last week-end by the local banks, which was more than $6,000 above last year's record of slightly under $200,000.

The checks were mailed to 1,992 persons, making the average amount saved through the plan $103, a large portion of which will be spent in local stores. The Farmers National mailed out 1100 checks totaling $105,000; and the Lititz Springs National issued 982 checks totaling $101,000.

Getting To Know Them The Lambert-Hudnut Family In Our Town

Charles J. Rodgers, a native of Lyndhurst, New Jersey, now living in Lancaster, is plant engineer of the Lambert-Hudnut Manufacturing Laboratories.

He is responsible for the entire plant maintenance and security, which frequently necessitates his being on call at all hours. For this reason he spends much time at the Walter Mann home, adjacent to the plant, rather than drive to his apartment in Lancaster.

He received his Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering from Newark College of Engineering in Newark, New Jersey, and prior to his affiliation with Warner-Hudnut in 1952, was employed as project engineer for the Colgate-Palmolive Company in Jersey City.

Mr. Rodgers was on active duty with the United States Naval Reserve from 1941 to 1945 and holds the rank of Lieutenant

Council Is Studying New Regulations On Repairing Of Streets

Complaints have been pouring in daily over the promiscuous tearing up of borough streets, borough officials revealed this week.

And with several streets already presenting scenes reminiscent of the days when the sewers were being installed, many of the complaints have been coupled with demands for information as to just what is going on, Borough Manager David Bauer admitted.

Practically all of the present excavations are being made by the Lancaster County Division of United Gas, it was explained. Streets being torn up and causing more than one traffic tie-up are parts of Front, Cedar and Broad Streets. Main Street was completed last week.

Hollinger Buys Local Property

That Lititz is about to get an additional food and beverage establishment, appeared to be a certainty yesterday, although William Hollinger, who would operate the tavern, could not be reached for definite verification.

It was learned from reliable sources that Mr. Hollinger, who some years ago operated the Warwick House here and more recently was proprietor of Hollinger's Nite Spot on the Mannheim Pike just outside of Lancaster, had completed negotiations for the purchase of the property located at 324 North Cedar St., from John Hiestand, who now resides in Florida.

The property fronts on both Cedar St. and Lincoln Ave., being the second building south of the junction of the two streets. According to the source of this information, Mr. Hollinger has applied to the Pennsylvania State Liquor Control Board for a license to dispense alcoholic beverages on the premises, after granting of which he would immediately begin the necessary renovations to convert the building for commercial purposes.

Sensenich Plans To Expand Plant

The Sensenich Corporation has completed plans for the construction of a new boiler house and storage room to its plant located adjacent to the Municipal Airport at a cost with equipment of approximately $50,000. It was announced this week.

A contract has been let to Herman Wohlens' Sons for the buildings which are expected to be completed by March 1st next year. Harry M. Sensenich, President of the firm stated a new and larger boiler is required to meet the needs for present and future expansion.

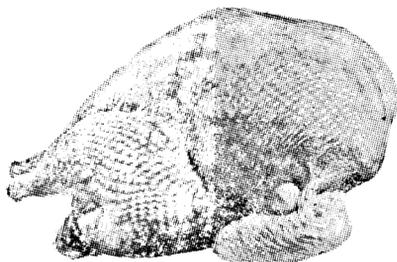

The volume of business for 1956 will be approximately 30% above last year. The storage room will provide some badly needed space to take care of an increasing volume of business. The firm manufactures wood and metal propellers and laminated bench tops for Home, School and Industrial use.

LINDEN HALL SENIORS PRESENT PLAY

The girls of Linden Hall left for their Thanksgiving vacation on Wednesday at 11 a.m., and will return on Monday, Nov. 26, at 6:00 p.m. The senior class of the Academy presented "The Cradle Song" in the school gymnasium on Saturday evening. Miss Marian Schwartz, head of the Dramatics department directed, assisted by Kaye McCandless as student director, and Ruth Helmich was stage manager.

TEN YEARS AGO
November 21, 1946

It's no wonder that Lititz folks are well-behaved. According to a census made this week, Lititz is the home of a total of twelve retired ministers of various congregations or pastors who are on leaves of absence due to their health.

A Community Christmas Party similar to those held during the war, will be sponsored this year by members of the Lititz Lions Club. The party will be held in the high school gymnasium on Saturday evening, December 21, and will feature a program of entertainment, music, carol singing, dancing and refreshments. Harry Way and Dave Wright are heading the committee.

The Girl Scouts of Lititz will undertake a new project—glass collection—during the Thanksgiving holiday. Used glass has become of unusual value as a result of the shortage of certain materials. The used glass is crushed in glass factories and becomes a part of the materials used in the manufacture of new bottles and containers.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
November 27, 1936

Miss Dorothy Spacht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Spacht, of 306 S. Broad Street, and John R. Worth, of Ephrata, were married in the funeral home of the bride's brother, Carl Spacht, at Allentown, Thanksgiving afternoon at four o'clock. The Rev. Howard Worth, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Bethlehem, and brother of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony. The couple was attended by Miss Bertha Herr, of Lititz, and Roy Weidman, of Ephrata. Mrs. Worth is a graduate of the Lititz High School and the Preston Retreat Hospital in Philadelphia. She was employed in the Spacht store. Mr. Worth attended the Boys High School at Lancaster and has a degree from the American University of Chicago.

On Monday, Mrs. Stengel will entertain the faculty and students of Linden Hall at a tea in the music room, in honor of Mrs. Newton Buch, who has recently returned from a trip around the world.

Three couples from this section were married on Saturday at Elkton, although none of the trips to the Maryland Gretna Green was an elopement.

The Lancaster and Lititz and the Lititz and Lexington turnpikes will be formally taken over by the state and freed of tolls not later than December 15, according to plans of the State Highway Department. Toll houses along the pike will remain the property of the companies and will be sold at auction to the highest bidder.

Almost enough persons boarded the excursion train at the local depot for the Philadelphia Sesqui last Saturday morning to fill a car.

L. M. Moyer is erecting a large garage and warehouse in the rear of his home and store, and will prove quite a convenience.

The curtain went down on the 1926 football season of the Lititz High School on Saturday when they were defeated by the Patton School of Elizabethtown. Those who played for Lititz were: Getz, Burkhardt, Badorf, Gibble, Girvin, Moore, Foltz, Herr, Reist, Longenecker and Mummert. The last-named was captain and quarterback.

FORTY YEARS AGO
November 24, 1916

The main barn, silos, cow-barn and some minor building at the Spruce Villa Dairy, along with 175 tons of silage and other feed and nearly all the summer's crops, were destroyed by fire on Monday night, entailing a loss exceeding $15,000. Practically all the livestock was saved. The dwelling house and milk shed were not burned due to the efforts of bucket brigades. There is no other plausible theory but that the fire was of incendiary origin as it started in a place where none of the household or employees had been. Mr. J. Clayton Brubaker will re-build of course and he expects to place the barn on the north side of the road, placing it a considerable distance farther from the house. He requests The Express to state that he tenders his heartfelt thanks to all neighbors and friends who so heroically assisted in saving his livestock, wagons, implements, and especially his residence and dairy from destruction.

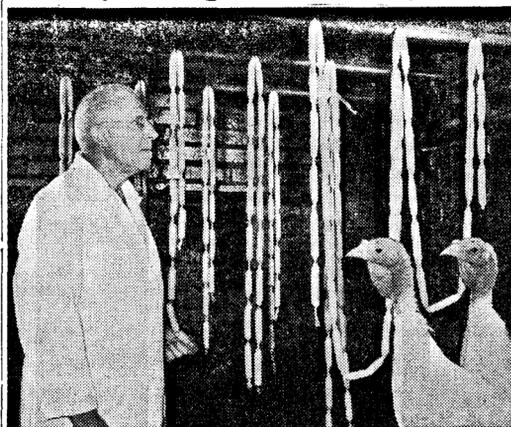

The Lititz bakers have advanced the price of bread one cent a loaf. Five cent loaves are now six cents and seven cent loaves are eight cents.

On Friday night an explosion occurred in the stove in Elmer Whitcraft's kitchen on East Main Street. There was a report like a pistol shot, the lids were blown off the stove and the coal scattered about. No cause is known. Mrs. Whitcraft was quite ill of the shock.

Development of new food products is a project of the Agricultural Experiment Station at Penn State.

Mrs. George S. Buch became ill very suddenly on Sunday evening, being overcome similar to the effects of coal gas. Mr. Buch who went to his wife's assistance, was also overcome for a while. Dr. J. Paul Roebuck said that the attack was caused by a disordered stomach.

A four-horse bus load of married ladies and gentlemen of this place, drove to Schaefferstown on Wednesday, where they were served with a chicken and waffle supper at the Franklin House.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Moravian Church will give a social on Thanksgiving evening between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock in the old chapel. Light refreshments will be served. All members as well as their friends are invited. All persons attending are requested to supply themselves with a lead pencil.

Tearing Up Streets

The subject of replacing borough streets as they were originally—after being torn up to install or repair utility lines, is one council should give considerable attention and thought.

Despite that the borough has sought to control this situation without resorting to ordinances, we still find streets being torn up throughout the borough and not being replaced in their original form. Small blocks are taken out and these alone are re-paved.

But to get the street as it was originally means the necessity of re-paving a much larger surface. If the present trend of going about digging up streets all over town without insisting that they be replaced, the borough soon will be in as bad shape as it was following the sewer installations a few years ago.

Christmas Shopping

Lititz retailers already are displaying an abundance of gift items which cause one's head to spin. Local stores never looked more attractive. As a result, persons here can shop with more convenience and comfort than in any larger community and can get just as good a selection. Yep, and the prices are a bit lower, too! If you don't believe us, just drop in the local stores and find out for yourself.

No Time To Relax

Despite the loud objections of India and Russia, the Steering Committee of the UN General Assembly has passed a US resolution barring debate on the admission of Red China during this year's Assembly session.

This would seem to sweep this explosive issue under the rug for another year, although India's Krishna Menon and the Soviet's Vasili Kuznetsov, who protested the action as high-handed and illegal respectively, warned that the Red China question would be raised again before a meeting of the full, 79 member Assembly. Considering the source of the warning, this seems remarkably sporting. But it should not be discounted, and it might be indicative of the confidence of this unholy pair in the outcome of a full-scale debate. As matters stand today, a number of the recently admitted members may be expected dutifully to follow the Red cause.

The eight members voting for the US resolution to cancel the debate were the United States, Britain, France, Nationalist China, Peru, Turkey, Pakistan and the Dominican Republic. And it might be well to remember that those voting against us were the USSR, Czechoslovakia, India, Egypt and Denmark.

Further, we hope our statesmen will bear in mind India's passion for Red China when Washington rolls out the carpet (a non-Communist red) for Headman Nehru on his impending visit.

Republocrats Or Demolicans

"From my viewpoint," President Eisenhower told his press conference, "the United States has not yet been convinced that modern Republicanism is with us and is going to be the guiding philosophy of the Republican Party."

This was the President's answer to the question of why the voters returned a Democratic Congress while giving him a mandate as impressive as that of 1952. And it means that his second term will be devoted to increased federal responsibility over the now familiar programs of better farms, better roads, better schools and better health facilities for the people.

Republican Senator Clifford Case, of New Jersey, and Republican Senator George D. Aiken, of Vermont, were quick to pledge their backing. Senator Case indicated that only by paternalism could the GOP win future elections, while Senator Aiken declared he had been for this modern Republicanism for 20 years.

That would have been when it was called New Dealism.

Red Light In Egypt

In our preoccupation with the threat of the so-called volunteers of Russia and Red China touching off World War III by rushing to the aid of Egypt, we are losing sight of the fundamental problem of the Near East. The issue is not the Suez Canal, who owns it, or how it is to be operated, for this is an economic problem for which there are a number of solutions on which any reasonable and realistic conferees should be able to agree. Nor is it a question of who aggressed against whom.

At the bottom of the earth-shaking uncertainties of our time is the tiny state of Israel, and the basic question of whether or not democracy shall be permitted to survive in the lap of Arab feudalism. The hatred of the Arab for the Jew, and vice versa, nurtured for centuries, made it obvious that Israel would be born in conflict and bathed in blood. But the time has come when these ancient animosities — on which Russia is presently blowing harder than anyone—can trigger a world conflict that could return the earth to its pristine lifelessness.

And thus the time has come when the responsible powers—for their own preservation—must hammer out a workable peace in this bloodthirsty area. It must not be just another armistice, whether a 1949 or a 1956 model. The borders must be frozen, the fighting must be stopped, the crushing burden and heedless competition in armaments must be ended. Though the traditional hatreds endure, the peoples of Egypt and of Israel must be made secure to work out their own destinies within their own boundaries.

"Mid the Turmoil"

Pass the tums, mum, I musta overet!

Like all Thanksgiving Days, we'll bet that most of our readers expressed their thankfulness yesterday by gobbling up everything in sight! It's a great American custom, and we're for it!

Exceeding the feed limit seemed to be the most popular theme of the day. And now—nothing to do but start getting ready for Christmas!

The Pennsylvania-Dutch definitions we've been printing in this colyum of late (most of them were handed in by our friend, Luke Berger) made a hit with many of our readers. This week we were sent a copy of the Charlestown, South Carolina, News & Courier which contained a list of definitions a-la-Southern accent.

F'rinstance, here's a few samples:

- Faints—A barricade of wood, stone or brick. Flow—What you stand on in a house. Aboode—Wooden plank. A boot—Approximately. Frustrate—The very best. Air—What you hear with. Coat—Whar they got that jedge and all. Go it—An animal what eats tin cans and smells. Poach—A verandah. Sex—One less than seven, two less than ate, three less than noine. Police—Term of polite request. For Example a person desiring to maneuver a car to the curb might ask a poleeceman, "Cane I police pack hair," to which the poleeceman would doubtless respond, "No, yo cane not."

Boy, those Southerners sure talk crazy, ain't? Since Lambert-Hudnut hit town, we've suddenly realized that a small town is where folks get a kick out of traffic congestion. Thoughts - At - Random: Local weather still is making fibbers out of the forecasters... Lambert's opening banquet was curbstone topic No. 1 for more than a week hereabouts... Giselle MacKenzie and Snooky Lanson made themselves a lot of new friends even if they only did sing three songs... latest report is that Helen Bettes is going to add a gift shoppe to Jim Cleland's pretzel bakery... the Al Piersons have moved to Duke St., Lancaster... the Paul F. Diehms are planning to spend Christmas with their son in Orlando, Fla... wonder how Walter Grosh likes it down thar by now?... it'll be nice to see the Christmas street decorations once again even though they are the same as for the past ten years... those stars are hard to beat... but maybe we should try one of these years!

We still think we as a community should do something real special this Christmas-time in bringing our 200th year to a fitting close. Anybody got any good ideas?

Thought - of - the - week: Some fellows would see better these days if they didn't run around all night. We thought we were pretty corny until we read Bennett Cerf's latest in the Satdy Review. He tells about the fellow who sat in th train reading a book. After he completed a page, he would tear out the bottom half and throw it on the floor. After a while the man beside him asked why he insisted upon mutilating the book he was reading. "Well," the fellow replied, "this will keep wild elephants away." "But there are no wild elephants on the train," the fellow passenger expostulated. "See," the book reader added, "It's working already."

That's the kind of joke Bob Snyder likes and we'll bet our bottom dollar that when the well-known presidential assistant at Moravian makes his next speech, that joke will show up somewhere! Since he reads Ye Turmoil religiously.

Famous Last Words: "This picture's almost over—where's my other shoe?"

Local Rotarians had a big laugh at Paul Bomberger's expense last week when a number of past presidents were called upon to recall what they had done during the years they presided. Paul told of how the club during his year had spent money on one project after another. The next past president called upon was Elmer Beck, who followed Paul into office. "When I took office," Elmer explained, "the club was so far in debt that it took us most of the year to get even again." And the members howled and howled!

Here's one Mac, the pill-roller, handed us this week: How flies can see, 'tis hard to find;

SUDDEN THOUGHT ON THANKSGIVING DAY

They always leave their specs behind.

Here's hoping that as soon as the Christmas decorations are up, they'll start broadcasting yule music throughout the business section. We can't go along with those who think Christmas music should be confined to a week before and a few days after the big day.

To us, the hustle and bustle which goes into pre-Christmas preparations doesn't take a thing away from the real meaning of Christmas. We've found that those who do the most bustling, have the most spirit, by a long shot.

Play it again—White Christmas!

A friend, killing time in our Brain Emporium, makes the crack that "singing makes you shine on the inside like soap and water does on the outside." But when you have a voice like ours, who wants a shiny nose?

Special Moravian Service Sunday

The annual Thanksgiving Service was held at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in the Moravian Church. Thanksgiving Liturgy was prayed, the Senior Choir sang an anthem entitled "O Lord How Manifold" and the pastor delivered a brief message on the subject, "The Goodness of the Lord." The cash offering was for benevolences and foodstuffs for the Moravian Home.

On Sunday at 10:30 a.m., the annual Moravian College and Seminary Prayer Day will be observed, with Mr. Earl Stephan, student in Moravian Theological Seminary, as the special speaker. The Senior Choir will sing "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land" and Mrs. William N. Stauffer will sing a solo.

GOVERNOR GEORGE M.

LEADER'S LETTER

DEAR BILL AND HANNAH:

With the sincere hope that you and yours will be gathered in your home during this week's truly American holiday, I take a moment to wish you a happy Thanksgiving Day.

At the celebration of Thanksgiving Day, we gather together to rejoice in our blessings. It is the holiday of the home; the holiday of humility, too.

Thanksgiving Day is a particularly and peculiarly American Day, expressing the deep sense of gratitude and reverence to Almighty God, which is the basic part of the American way of life.

Since the Pilgrim Fathers celebrated the first Thanksgiving Day at Plymouth, our thanks to Almighty God for His endless gifts to us has been a basic and abiding influence on our lives.

Those early settlers at harvest time offered their thanks for God's gifts to them—the simple gifts of food, shelter and safety. Today at harvest time we acknowledge much more. We see the fruition of their hopes for freedom—to live, to work, to worship in a land of opportunity for all. At harvest time we come with humble and grateful hearts to give thanks to the Giver of these gifts.

In this time of tension and of strife it is more than ever necessary to remember the myriad blessings given us and render fervent thanks to our Creator.

It is no wonder then that, during this period, and in keeping with the heart-warming spirit of Thanksgiving, November has been chosen as Religion In American Life month; a time for us to seek our God anew in personal, community, and national life. In a like spirit our four great religious faiths have put special emphasis on the need to provide our fellow men overseas with clothing, food, and funds for reconstruction and rehabilitation, which they need so much.

Let us therefore, give generously at Thanksgiving, grateful that we have so much to give. In our various churches and their charitable organizations, let us remember those who are less fortunate, for in giving to them, what God in his munificence has given to us, we are sure to reap a harvest of blessings innumerable.

Because of the American nature of Thanksgiving, may I, as your Governor, remind you that displaying our flag on this day is another indication of our loyalty and devotion to our Nation.

I urge my fellow Pennsylvanians to observe this day at home, in their communities, and in their churches in a spirit of reverent thankfulness.

Sincerely yours,

George M. Leader

Governor of Pennsylvania

- Q—Will there be any tax hearings in Congress this Fall or winter? A—Yes. As a matter of fact the House Ways and Means subcommittee on Internal Revenue taxation has a hearing under way now. It opened Nov. 12, on a 52-section bill to correct grammar, punctuation, spelling, phraseology and to remove ambiguities in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Q—How much surplus commodity goods has been sold under the 1954 act passed for the purpose of selling our surplus commodities abroad? A—The Department of Agriculture recently announced commitments of $2.2 billion according to Commodity Credit Corp., values. However since we are getting foreign currencies instead of dollars for the surplus, the export value will amount to approximately $1.5 billion. Most recent sale was to Spain, a total of $49.8 million in corn, cottonseed or soybean oil, tobacco, tallow, beef, lard, and other commodities which are paid by USA cost $5.8 million and since cost of the commodities was $52.5 million the government will lose $2.9 million on the deal, taking into account difference in Spanish currency. Q—How much special restorative training may a handicapped person receive under the War Orphans Education Program? A—As much as necessary to overcome or lessen the handicap of the disability to the extent you may pursue a program of education, but not to exceed 36 months. Q—How can a birth certificate be obtained in an area where official records are not available or have been destroyed? A—You may apply to the United States Census Bureau in Washington. State Boards of Health are often able to supply birth certificates.

CITIZEN OF A BETTER WORLD

Though her patient is a shabby but well loved doll, Miss Future Nurse is taking her job seriously. All this is manifest in the care bestowed and the concern shown on the countenance of this budding nurse.

And just as you would give your child the benefit of the best education and training to prepare her to take her chosen place in the world of tomorrow, so should you give her the spiritual foundation that makes for better adulthood. From the time she is old enough to understand the words of wisdom to be heard within its sacred confines make it a practice of taking her with you to the church of your faith, thus shaping her future healthfully and preparing her for a better citizen of a better world.

Two Sons

Lesson for November 25, 1956

WHAT does the word "prodigal" mean? Ask some Sunday school class that, and you may be surprised at how many bad guesses you hear. Actually the name simply means "wasteful." Jesus never named his parables; and sometimes the names the church has given them fit, and sometimes not. The parable of the "prodigal son" might be better named "The Two Prodigal Sons" or "The Forgiving Father."

Two Ways of Wasting

There are two ways of being prodigal or wasteful. One is to use up and destroy what might have been saved. If you let good farm machinery sit around in the rain till it rusts, you are wasting equipment. If you use expensive butter for a job a little bacon grease will do just as well, you are wasting the butter. If you are a general and order a useless assault in which thousands of men needlessly lose their lives, you are wasting human life. All these wasteful acts, great and small, are done in the same way, essentially by throwing away or spoiling what might have been saved and used. Another way of wasting is just not to use what is there to use, something which if you do not use now you will never have the chance to use again. An example of this is water power. The river flows on its way, developing so many horsepower with every mile; if these are not used today, tomorrow the horsepower—today's horsepower—will be gone. You waste water power not by destroying it but by failing to use it.

The Younger Son

Now in Jesus' famous parable, the two sons were both wasters, but in opposite ways. Take the younger one: Give me... he said, and off he went. A young fortune was in his hands; but he threw it away, he was through with it, he was through, "period," in no time.

There was something else he wasted; his father's love and confidence. He virtually treated his father as if he were already dead. This younger son is, of course, the type of the reckless sinner who wastes his health, strength, character, perhaps money too, the sort of man who is called a "wastrel" or waster. The time, life, strength that such a man wastes cannot be got back again. You could go down to Skid Row or to the nearest hospital for drug addicts and convert them every one; but you could never give them back the "years the locusts have eaten." God forgives such men, as the father in Jesus' story forgave the younger prodigal; but just as the father in that story could not recall from the four winds the wasted fortune and the wasted years, so not even God ever turns the clock or the calendar back.

The Older Son

But that older boy—he too was a waster. Only he wasted in the other way, not by destroying but by not using. There seems to be something deeply sad in the father's simple saying: "Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours." This was true—and yet the son had made it untrue. "You are always with me"—so near, and yet so far away. None of the father's spirit had penetrated the boy's mind. He was physically at home yet spiritually a stranger. He too, in a different way, had lived like an orphan. Every day there was open to him a father's heart, a father's sympathy, a father's wealth; but he never took it. If for the younger boy there was waste-by-destruction, for the older there was waste-by-neglect. Did the father forgive this son too? The story does not say. The impression most people get is perhaps what Jesus intended to suggest: The father was ready to forgive each son; but the younger son was forgiven, because he had "come to himself," he had confessed his wrong. The older son was not (so far as the story takes us) forgiven, because he did not seem to be conscious of having done anything wrong. Of course he was the type of the Pharisees; but the Pharisees are not dead. In the church and out there are correct, respectable citizens who know nothing of God's love for their lost brothers, and so have never known the God they officially call "Father." God will forgive such a man too; but perhaps he seldom does, for such a man seldom thinks he needs it.

"DIE WUNNERNAUS" EXPIRES AT HIS HOME

G. Gilbert Snyder, fifty-nine, an authority on Pennsylvania German folklore, died Saturday at his home in Robesonia.

Snyder was known to thousands as "Die Wunnernaus" from his radio broadcasts in this area and his frequent personal appearances here.

Earlier this year he received a citation at the 21st annual meeting of the Pennsylvania German Folklore Society in recognition of his contributions toward perpetuating the Pennsylvania Dutch dialect and its Pennsylvania Dutch customs.

AMERICA'S 'SPECIFIC SICKNESS'

THE UNITED BRETHREN

Raymond M. Veh wrote recently: "Love of 'things' is uppermost in American life." He quotes anciently as saying: "We have (1) forsaken God for gold; (2) purity for adultery; (3) principle for expediency. Paganism is in the saddle and riding hard. For many people, success, money and fame are the immediate goals of life. They sell themselves out for such."

Mr. Veh adds: "Secularization of life is a well-known fact. Our generation, reared in piety, nourished on the Bible, educated in moral environment, has abandoned these ways. Liquor commercials that teach that drinking is a social grace; $100,000 TV shows; motion pictures that glorify crime and vice are establishing codes for this generation. Secularism is rending man apart. It is the specific sickness of our time."

Mr. Veh is in no wise exaggerating the picture. Leaning out of our office windows as we write, we can see a street fair set-up spread over about six city blocks. Some of it will pass as being wholesome amusement for children. Some of it must fall into the category of being questionable; the governing principle in this case is: "When in doubt, don't." Too much of it is plainly pagan—clever and unethical ways of mulcting pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters and even paper money out of people, young and old, many of whom have difficulty making ends meet when it comes to essentials in the family budget.

Months ago a sizable group of teen-agers ranging from 12 years and up had to be squelched in our city. In the latest edition of our newspaper another outbreak was bared—this time involving boys in the first grade of school. Officers investigating the situation reported some six-year-old boys as "professionals." Where they would have ended up is anyone's guess.

In a distant city a sex maniac ruthlessly murdered a three-year-old girl. Policemen had difficulty in warding off a mob of 2,000 people who were bound to kill what all would agree was a brute. On and on goes the story.

What is the solution? —Adv.

Captains Named For PTA Dinner

The captains have been named for the seafood dinner to be held in the gymnasium of the Lititz Elementary building on Dec. 8th from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m., by the Parent Teacher Association. Tickets may be procured from the feeling he is traveling on a roller coaster rather than along a borough street.

The joints are giving way, it was further explained, because the hemp, used in sealing the connections, is drying up. Manufactured gas was moist and kept the hemp in good condition but the natural gas now going through the mains is dry and causing them to dry out, it was stated.

Several members of borough council admitted that most of the complaints being received, mostly in the form of telephone calls, are over the manner in which the streets are being left after the work is completed. Council is expected to take some action to insist that the patching-up be of a more permanent nature, at the December meeting, one member of council said.

(Continued from Page 1) As soon as responses are received from those invited to join the park operating committee, meetings will be held to arrange the formation of the non-profit association and to organize. And while the expressed hope voiced by Mr. Bobst that actual work might be started in the park this year probably will not be possible, it is expected that the project will get underway shortly after the holidays.

SAFE, PORTABLE "FURNACE" DELIVERS LOW COST HEAT ... warms inside areas without vents. Heats workmen outside. This is actually a portable forced-air furnace. It circulates warm air inside a room or building or does "spot" heating outside. It burns inexpensive kerosene or fuel oil so completely that it leaves no dangerous fumes, needs no vent. 110-115 volt current ignites the fuel and runs the blower. Safe, lightweight, effective. Costs only 12c per hour to run. If you need temporary heat, inside or out, here's your solution. Comes in 100,000, 160,000, and 400,000 BTU-per-hour capacities. Before her illness she taught school for twelve years, having taught in Jackson Twp., Lebanon County, and in Clay Twp., Lancaster County. She was also a case worker for the Lebanon County Family and Children's Service.

She is survived by her husband, her mother, a brother, Howard D. Brubaker, Cornwall, and a sister, Mrs. Lester Kettering, Lebanon RD21.

FARM REVIEW AND FORECAST

Farm Calendar

Use Dry Litter—Dry litter in the brooder house means good, healthful floor conditions, according to F. H. Leuschner, Penn State extension poultry specialist. Through use of the built-up litter method, cleaning of the house is no longer a burdensome chore. It may have to be done only after chicks are removed.

Save Work—It is not necessary to grind hay for dairy cows. In fact, it is a losing proposition, says Richard Adams, Penn State extension dairy specialist. Grinding actually lowers the nutritive value because ground hay moves through the cow's digestive system too fast.

Water Supply Vital—A good water supply is vital to the operation of the modern farm, reminds Henry Wooding, Penn State extension agricultural engineer. Milk coolers, bathrooms, and automatic dish washers use much more water than was needed in the old days. Be sure the water supply is safe.

Prevent Tree Damage—Injury to the bark of young trees and shrubs caused by cottontail rabbits can be prevented through the use of mechanical guards or chemical repellents, explains Robert Wingard, Penn State extension wildlife management specialist.

Keep Dairy Records—The dairyman needs good records on the production and feed consumption of every cow in his herd to separate the boarders from the profit makers, points out Dexter Putnam, Penn State extension dairy specialist.

Flowers Are Big Business—Pennsylvania has a $50,000,000 business in the production and sale of cut flowers and potted plants, reports William Carroll, Penn State extension agricultural economist.

Michigan ranks first in the nation in the production of salt, gypsum, calcium-magnesium compounds and marl.

A COUPLE OF CHAMPIONSHIPS

Pennsylvania State College's live stock department made a clean sweep of the Eastern National Live Stock Steer Show at Timonium, Maryland, by winning both the grand championship and reserve grand championship. Pictured here with the reserve grand champion Shorthorn steer are, left to right, Judge Bob Long, University of Kentucky, Herman Purdy, head of Penn State's live stock department, and Dick Sour, State Herdsman. The college has entered this Shorthorn in the steer competition of the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago, Nov. 23 through Dec. 1.

Feed Processing Unit Tested At Penn State

An automatic feed processing unit is now under test at the Pennsylvania State University. This unit is designed to eliminate most hand labor needed to grind and mix livestock rations.

This automatic unit will grind ear corn without processing small grains and concentrates. Swine and poultry rations may be mixed without blending ear corn with the ration.

Developed by the Agricultural Experiment Station, the machine is reported in the fall issue of "Science for the Farmer", now in circulation. The unit is described by Ralph P. Prince, assistant professor of agricultural engineering.

Uniform speed of both the blending table and crushed corn metering auger is another feature. This protects the hammer mill from overload while the unit is operating.

In addition, a separate feed mixer is eliminated when preparing livestock rations. Capacity of the unit is about 1200 pounds per hour when grinding a livestock ration.

Development of this continuous-flow feed-processing unit began at Penn State about three years ago. It uses commercially available machines as well as several techniques proved successful in other systems. A bin agitator to direct corn into a crusher and an auger to meter crushed corn onto a blending table were designed by the Pennsylvania Experiment Station.

Brickerville News

Correspondent: Leroy S. Ulrich
Lititz, Pa., RD1 Tel. RE 8-0404

The Baron Stiegel Lions Club did not meet this week, due to Thanksgiving Day.

A public Thank-Offering Service will be sponsored by the Women of the Church, of Emanuel Lutheran Church, on December 2, at 10 a.m. Mrs. Christ, who is president of the United Lutheran Church Women of the Central Pennsylvania Synod will be the speaker at this service.

Charles D. Falck, of Dornstife, Pa., was prosecuted before Squire Leroy S. Ulrich over the week-end. The prosecution was brought by the State Police as a result of an accident at the Brickerville intersection on Sunday, Nov. 4. Falck was charged with failing to yield the right of way.

There was an accident this past week-end on U.S. Route 322, one mile west of Brickerville, in which Charles Meiskey, Lititz, received cuts and bruises when the car in which he was riding, driven by Charles C. Johnson, Lititz RD2, veered off the highway and hit a utility guy pole. The State Police said Johnson dozed at the wheel.

The Brickerville Fire Company will hold its monthly business meeting next Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the Fire Hall. Nomination of officers will be held at this meeting. All members are requested to attend.

I received seven telephone calls and was stopped on the street numerous times, in the past week. All of this was brought about by the contents of this column, in last week's Record-Express.

All comments were favorable, with most of the people agreeing something should be done. The question is who should take it from here.

One reader of this column was quite interested and with his letter enclosed an article from the "Wyoming Wildlife." The author, Dan Saults, chief of information, Missouri Conservation Commission, states in part: "I quit playing basketball 15 years ago and quit dreaming of stardom long before that; I haven't tossed a baseball for five years; I haven't engaged in fist-fights since 1944, when an out-ranked second lieutenant decided to see if he should have been outranked."

"But I still go fishing; I still hunt a little!"

"Nobody ever really taught me these sports I can practice as a middle-aged man; coaches were busy trying to develop a hook shot or a fast start in the Dashes. I wish, now, someone had taught me how to fish a little better, because that sport will be open to me as a participant for a good many years yet, God willing . . ."

Prospects Good For Basketball As 40 Turn Out For Practice

Plans for a victorious 1956-57 basketball season got under way at Warwick High School this week, with more than forty candidates turning out for practice sessions, with Dean Miller and LeRoy Trupe again doing the coaching of the Varsity team; and Joseph Carraba handling the Junior Varsity for the first time.

During the coming week eliminations will be made to bring the actual squads down to twelve players on each team before the opening games with Donegal, scheduled for Friday, November 30. The Varsity will play at home and the JV's at Donegal.

All three coaches are confident of outstanding teams, with several of last year's players back in the game this year, and a number of additions which look promising. The schedule lists 20 games for the Varsity, half of which will be played at home; and 18 games are scheduled for the JV's.

Season tickets for pupils of grades one through six are available at the Lititz Elementary building, the John Beck School, and the Rothsville School. These tickets cost $2 and entitle the children to see all the games, Varsity, Junior Varsity and Junior High School teams. This represents a saving under the gate price of $1.90.

In order to procure these tickets, pupils should make their request to their home room teacher, who will in turn get them from the principal of the building who has them in charge. Following is the '56-'57 Varsity schedule:

Allebach, Myers Chosen Co-Captains

Last week the Warwick High football team held an election to select next year's co-captains and this year's outstanding player.

Dick Allebach, an end, and lineman Art Myers will guide the Red and Black gridgers as captains during the 1957 season. The Warriors' outstanding player, chosen by the team, was Nevin Weit, a senior, who operated at quarterback this year.

Warwick JV's Had Undefeated Season

Coach John Cambie's Warwick JV's went through a four-game schedule undefeated.

Their last win was over Solanco, 6-0. Three hours after the game, the coach became the father of a nine-pound football player. Congratulations!

ALL-AMERICAN EXECUTES STAG JUMP

When Frances Dorsey, beautiful Seattle skater, joined the Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies in July, 1954, she brought along an enviable reputation as an Olympic and world's competitor. And she has enhanced it greatly through her sterling ability and charming personality. This year you'll see her as "Crystal Vision" in a most pretentious and expensive production, "Snowflake Fantasy" in the 1957 edition of the Ice Follies at Hershey Sports Arena, November 27th through December 8th. Miss Dorsey is only one star of the more than 100 skating champions with the huge Shipstads and Johnson extravaganza.

Week-Long Bear Season Will Attract Many Hunters

The state's week-long bear season, which opens at 7 a.m. on Monday and ends at 5 p.m., December 1, is expected to attract thousands of hunters into the mountains of Pennsylvania. Many sportsmen will stay at established camps, others will "put up" at hotels, motels or farm homes near heavily wooded areas for the week. Some, unable to spend the entire season in the brush, will drive to likely territory to hunt an hour or two as possible, or for the entire last day, Saturday.

It is believed the total black bear population of Pennsylvania has not varied much in recent years. But weather and the animals "fanning out" into many counties in search of food in fall has affected both the hunting pattern and the kill. The north-central counties still boast the greatest percentage of bears, the largest game animals in the Commonwealth. But many of them will be bagged in rugged northeastern and northwestern counties, a few in the south-central sector.

Last year the reported kill was 363 bear over a two-week period. This year bear hunters are extremely pleased that they will have the woods to themselves, since the season on squirrel, turkey and grouse will have ended on November 24. They claim the presence of these small game hunters detracted from successful bear hunting.

Midgets To Play In Bantam Bowl Game On Sunday

The Lititz Midgets were due to go through several rough practice periods this week in preparation for the Bantam Bowl round-robin game to be played Sunday afternoon at Stumpf Field, Lancaster.

At that time, each of the five county teams will meet the five city teams in a game to consist of five 12-minute periods. The local youths will clash with The Presidents, a team they defeated this year, 26 to 19.

The game will start at 2 p.m. with the Lititz team scheduled to play at 3:30 p.m. Tickets for the game can be purchased from any of the players or at the field.

Annual Football Dinner Wed.

The All-Lancaster Football Association committee on selecting the county's outstanding high school senior football player held its final meeting on Monday night.

At this session the votes were cast to choose the winner of this award.

The name will be revealed on Wednesday, Nov. 28, at the annual banquet of the Association, to be held at the Arcadia Cafe. Doc Netscher, president of the organization, is the only one who knows the identity of this boy.

REVIEWING SPORTS

BY
Tom Dussinger
Record-Express Sports Editor

It started out as just a five-minute trip out to the new school building. One of the Board of Directors, Clarence Herr, wanted to check on whether or not the new gym had been approved and asked us to go along.

Not having been in the modern structure as yet, we welcomed the chance.

The five minutes, however, stretched into an hour, as Mr. Herr took us on a guided tour and every minute was enjoyable.

The classrooms, offices, cafeteria, music rooms, locker rooms and the huge, unfinished auditorium—all were highly interesting to see.

We were probably most taken in by the new gymnasium.

Now there's a lot of floor space.

Sorta like an enclosed Yale Bowl.

There are two huge basketball floors, with a roll-away electric door to divide the two for separate games. One for the boys, the other for girls.

For a varsity game, the big dividing door folds up and silently steals away into the wall, leaving probably the largest basketball floor since the game was invented.

On a clear day and with all the lights on, you can see the other end of the gym in the distance.

The bleachers are the fold-up variety and when left down for games will seat approximately 1000 people.

It's worth seeing and we're looking forward to seeing a basketball game there.

Head Coach George Male is a good friend of Mr. Ross Lynch, of Ephrata. Mr. Lynch is the father of Claude Lynch who is just about the best high school backfield boy in the county this year.

Claude was all over the field when the Mounts beat the Warriors two weeks ago. He ran, passed, kicked and generally stood out like a sore thumb.

At halftime, when the teams were leaving the field, Mr. Male met his friend Mr. Lynch on the sidelines and asked—

"Ross, would you do me a favor?"

"Sure, George, what can I do for you?"

George replied: "Will you get your son and take him back to Ephrata?"

This an' That

One clause found in the contracts of Al Lopez' two predecessors, Marv Marion and Paul Richards, is missing in the agreement between the new White Sox manager and club owners. Lopez gets a straight salary. Marion and Richards both had a pact calling for a bonus based on attendance. Lopez, 48, broke into baseball in 1925, as a catcher with Tampa. He later set two major league records—for most games caught, 1,818, and more seasons catching 100 games or more. He played with Brooklyn, Boston and Pittsburgh . . . Gerald Cote, famed cigar-smoking marathon runner from St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, has hung up his track shoes at 43 years of age . . . The University of Tennessee this year relaxed the rule against spectators taking cameras to Tennessee football games, but Athletic Director Bob Neyland said that the rule against bringing radios would still be enforced . . . Former heavyweight boxing champion Jack Dempsey recently entered a hospital for treatment of an old knee injury . . . Herman Hickman, onetime Yale football coach and now a TV personality, won the New York Touchdown Club's 1956 award, which goes to the person contributing the most to football over a period of years.

LEADS SOX . . . Al Lopez, resigned manager of Cleveland Indians, signed one-year contract to manage Chicago White Sox at $40,000. A catcher with Dodgers, Braves and Pirates (1930-1946), Lopez won one pennant and finished second five times with Indians.

The Philosophers
(As overheard by John Boyd)

Well, Mrs. Weiss, we sure did have ourselves a time in good ole Philly, didn't we?
Yes, we did. It chust goes to show you that when a body makes up her mind to do something drastical, it can be done. Will you ever forget that seafood dinner!

No—nor I won't forget how we both went sound asleep on the train and almost was took to Harrisburg. It was a good thing the conductor remembered us and waked us up.

Yes, the men would of had such a connoption fit if we hadn't of got off. Chake says he would of figured we had been held up and knocked down and robbed in the wicket city.

Well anyway, we got through all right. And we didn't spend all our money at that. I asked Chorch if he wanted the three and a half dollars I had left and he says, no, buy us a good steak with it.

Now, what's the next thing we got to worry about?
Chust give me a little time and I will think of something. What did Chake think about the election?

Oh, he was quite pleased about the Eisenhower part of it—only he said he thought too many Democrats was elected on them split up tickets.

I guess I was the only Democrat among the four of us, but then there has to be some Democrats in Lititz or there wouldn't be no sense in having a two-party system, as it is called.

No, that's true. Well, it's over anyway and now let's hope everybody gets behind Ike and helps him put over his program. Chake says he will have to get a lot of Democrats to work with him—or he and his program will be sunk.

Yes, well. We will chust have to wait and see. I read that Ke-fauver and Choe Clark both said they would support Ike for anything that was for the good of the country.

Well, let's hope they do. By the way, what are you and Chorch planning to do on Thanksgiving?

Nothing that I know of. Then let's have our dinner together at our place. Chake says he don't want nothing but turkey and chiplet gravy and filling and cranberries. He says he is sick and tired of eating all that and two kinds of potatoes and stewed onions and dried corn and a salad and all them other things that is called the trimmin's.

How about pie?
Well, a pumpkin pie, maybe. You know how the men always like to act real devilish like and pour rum on it—to give it a taste as they say still.

Well, I would say everything would be all right if you leave I and Chorch buy the turkey. That will be all right with me. Then after dinner we can set and talk and the men can watch a football game—or something.

Or go to sleep as they chenerally do after they eat too much. Well, as I always say still, if there's one day that a body eats too much it is Thanksgiving. A person forgets sometimes that it's a day to give thanks for all the good things we have to be thankful for.

Especially for the good things on the table!

Yes, we do have good things to eat and we also should be thankful for all these here new frozen things we can buy nowadays. It's hardly any work at all today to get a meal out of your freezer and thaw it out.

And no waste and no garbage to get rid of. Yes, we have many things to be thankful for.

And thing how thankful people should be about how easy it is for them to buy things when they ain't got much money to lay down. They can chust sign a paper and have what they want sent home.

Yes, people can buy a house and a car and a tellyvision and a deep freezer and stuffed-over furniture all at once when in our young days we almost had a fit trying to get our parents to buy us a new doll-baby.

Yes, times have chanced. Chust think of how our parents had to take care of stoves and rainches in the old days, and pump water.

And fix coal oil lamps. Let's be thankful that all that mess has been done away with.

Yes, and yet I know that our parents was really more thankful for what little they had than what we are with all our electrical inconveniences.

They had plenty of good things to eat though.
Yes, that they did. When our family set down to the table on Thanksgiving it really did groan and everybody ate and ate till they was quite glassy-eyed like. You get the turkey, Mrs. Espen-shate and I'll do the rest. We'll chust have gravy and filling and cranberries and pumpkin pie. We can buy bread already fixed for filling and open a can of cranberries and buy a pie at the store and we can be thankful that we won't have to spend the whole morning in the kitchen. Right you are! Let's give thanks for modern labor-saving devices!

Womans Club Hears Talk About Brazil

Brazil offers the contrast of luxurious, ultra-modern living in Rio de Janeiro to the precarious existence of natives who seldom survive to enjoy old age in the wild interiors along the Amazon.

This was the picture painted by two noted explorers, Dr. Rafael Saurez and James Caulfield, of Philadelphia, in an illustrated lecture presented before the Lititz Woman's Club Monday evening. They were introduced by Mrs. John Wenger.

First showing slides of beautiful and modern Rio de Janeiro, the two speakers revealed that Americans can live in the utmost luxury there at a fraction of what it costs to live in this country.

They then showed slides of life among the primitive Indians in the Brazilian interior, one thousand miles to the west, which they reached by boat and plane. The two explorers took with them a motion picture, "Philadelphia—City of Two Million," as a good will builder—and in return brought back a message of good will from Brazil.

Life among the Indians was made dangerous due to hostile tribes, disease among the natives and the wild animals and snakes of the jungle.

Appeal for Old Glasses
Mrs. John Losensky made an appeal for members to bring their old eye-glasses to the December meeting. A stocking will be hung to receive the discarded spectacles. These will be turned over to a non-profit organization at Short Hills, N. J., the "New Eyes for the Needy."

This organization, staffed by volunteers of the Junior Service League, will distribute the frames to various welfare agencies and hospitals. Metal frames are sold to a refinery.

Sale Proceeds
Mrs. William Scatchard, chairman of the ways and means committee, announced that $136.82 was cleared in the rummage sale in Lancaster November 8.

The ways and means committee also will decorate a Christmas tree with inexpensive articles to be sold at the next meeting. Ribbon candy also is being sold. Mrs. Scatchard is accepting orders.

Mrs. Warren Diehm announced that the next meeting will be held December 10 when the Lancaster Opera Workshop will present operatic scenes in English and Christmas music.

Announce Births
Mr. and Mrs. James R. Kurtz, 9 S. Spruce St., a son, Wednesday, Nov. 14, at Lancaster General Hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blauch, 122 S. Cedar St., twin daughters, Friday, at Lancaster General Hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Claude Swartzbaugh, 59 E. Center St., a daughter, at 6:49 a.m. Saturday, in Lancaster General Hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Dietrich, a daughter Sunday, at Lancaster General Hospital.

Interesting Analysis Provided On Community Chest Totals Here

Lititz went over-the-top in the recent Community Chest Drive by raising $9,529.82 or approximately 117.5 per-cent of its quota—but an analysis of these figures bring out some interesting facts, according to Herb Graybill, chairman of the drive.

Due to an unrealistic goal which was placed at approximately $1,100 less than raised here in 1955, our official increase is one of $2,529.82, Graybill explained. This would be 135.7 per-cent of our quota.

But the actual results in comparison with the 1955 final figures reduce this somewhat.

In the house-to-house collections, only $3,160.60 was raised as compared with $3,631.48 in 1955. This is a reduction of $470 contributed of only 87.3 per-cent of the former year's collection.

On the other hand the industrial division collected $4,040 as compared with $2,780 the year before, an increase of $1,260. The mercantile division also showed a remarkable increase, collecting $1,034 as compared with $897 the previous year. Organizations were put up with $123.40 collected against $114.80 in 1955 while schools went down from $260.50 to only $157 this year.

Employee solicitation in local factories totaled $964.82 as compared with $415.75 the year before, an increase of 232 per-cent.

A statement issued this week by Kraybill and his co-chairman, William H. Darlington, follows:

We wish to thank each and every contributor for their most important help in making this 1956 drive a successful one. Our goal was to accomplish 100% solicitation in each of the various divisions: Residential, Industrial, Mercantile, Schools, Organizations and Employee solicitation at our local industries.

Without the workers and captains in the various divisions, the success could not have been accomplished. These people in our community gave not just with their money, but also with much time and effort. We hope they realize their work will mean hope, care and happiness to many needy neighbors throughout the coming year through the various community chest services.

Thanks to the Lititz Record-Express for its cooperation and free publicity during our campaign.

Thanks too, to the Lititz Springs Garage for providing gas, oil and maintenance for the community visitig nurse's car during the coming year.

We are grateful for the opportunity of serving the community.

HEATING
theory that some may have been looking for light switches in the dark when they pulled heating switches completely fouling up the day-night automatic heating schedule.

In an effort to put an end to this tampering, contractors this week taped up all critical switches and prepared to place locks on all electric panels having anything to do with the heating units.

In Mr. Jordan's words this tampering has "killed the compression which actuates the pneumatic controls or killed the clock action which controls the day-night cycles the boilers are on." Mr. Jordan did admit that the system is not fully balanced off, but that everything would be in tip-top shape by the end of the week.

And then to make doubly sure that everything goes right in the future, he has announced an instruction session to be held next Tuesday to more fully acquaint all personnel on the operation of the new system.

Clayton Kulp, North Cedar St., fell at his home yesterday morning and fractured his leg. He was conveyed to the Lancaster General Hospital in the Warwick Union Ambulance.

ZONING

That Rodgers will be named consultant for the borough planning commission and authorized to go ahead with the preparation for the plan, at the next meeting, members indicated following Monday's meeting.

The only alternative would be to commission a department of the University of Pennsylvania to make a survey, it was explained. This type of study is not what is required here, members felt.

While zoning will have to await the completion of the two-year study, the planning commission possibly will undertake a study almost immediately of an arterial street program, it also was indicated.

This program will decide where major streets should be extended or run as the borough is expanded. Developers before being annexed or granted building permits, first will have to comply with any or all requests of the planning commission for arterial streets, public facilities such as parks or recreation centers, etc.
