Will Start Work On New Park Entrance Friday

Renovations Underway

Extensive renovation of Doster's IGA Market is shown here, almost 30 years to the date that a renovating job had been done by I. H. Doster, father of present merchant Paul Doster. A Record-Express edition of August 18, 1927 revealed that "I. H. Doster has started renovating the front part of his store." Then, as now, the renovation was prompted by expanding business.

Contract Approved Tuesday

Work Is Scheduled To Be Completed By May 10, 1958

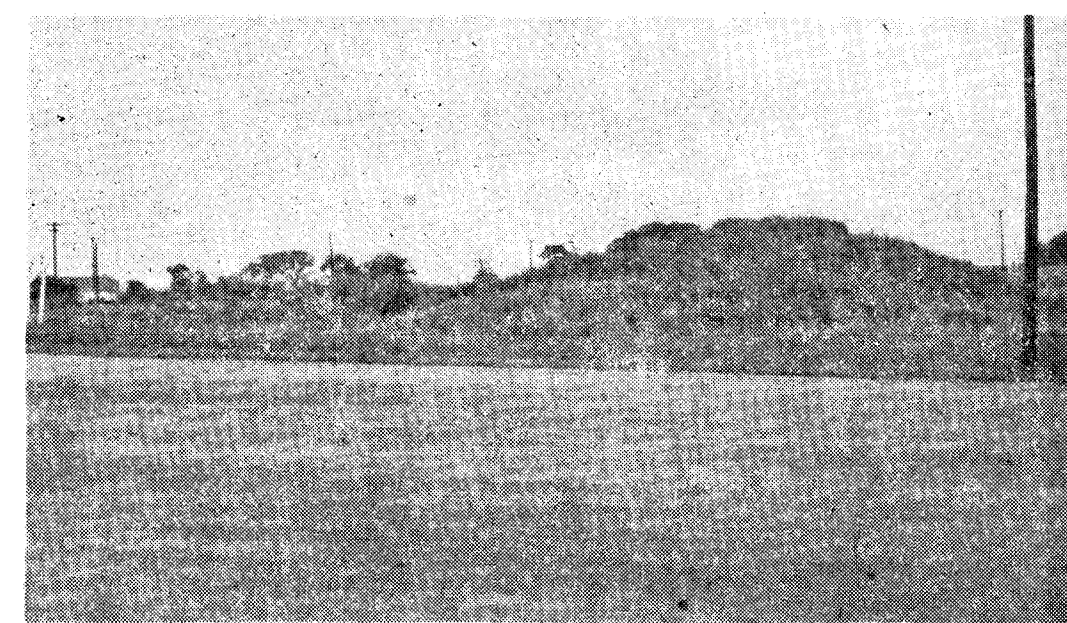

Construction work on the new entrance to the enlarged Lititz Springs Park will start tomorrow morning and is expected to be completed not later than May 10, 1958.

A contract for the work, amounting to approximately $70,000, was finally approved at a meeting of the park officials and the contractors, Herman Wohlson Sons', of Lancaster, held here Tuesday evening.

Meeting in the office of McCloud & Scatchard, landscape architects, who planned the park improvements, the groups removed the last obstacles delaying the start of work. This group included Robert Wohlson, representing the contractor; Robert Posey, Ray Pettyjohn, Elmer Bomberger, Roy Reidenbaugh, members of the building committee.

It also was announced that the final plans have been approved by Elmer Bobst, donor of the $100,000 gift making the park improvement possible. The (Continued on Page 12)

WARWICK UNION'S $84,000 QUESTION!

This may look like a huge pile of dirt to you—and that is what it is. But in addition, it constitutes a big problem for members of the Warwick Union School Board who must decide if it's worth $84,000 in good, hard cash to transform it into a beautiful athletic field.

School Board Debates Spending $84,000 For New Athletic Field

To spend $84,000 for a second athletic field—or to merely level off the huge mound of soil remaining after construction of the new Warwick High School—this was the question baffling Warwick Union School directors this week.

The 12-foot pile of soil which contractors piled just southwest of the new building has been described by several school directors as an eye-sore, especially inasmuch as it is in such close proximity of the new school.

The cost for removing the mound of soil and converting it into a modern football area replete with hockey field, track, bleachers, curbing and a fence, proved considerably higher than directors had estimated, when bids were opened by the board last week. Only two bids submitted showed Ray Clump, Lancaster contractor to be low. Clump bid $84,000 for the complete job or approximately $64,000 if a number of features were eliminated.

As soon as the bids were opened, both were referred to the architects for study. This week, however, directors indicated that the matter may have to be re-advised in an effort to trim down plans to a more reasonable figure.

Several directors also stated that they favored confining the matter to a bit of landscaping and leaving the construction of a second athletic field to some time in the future.

The second and more adequate field is desired in order that the football team will be able to practice on one field and then play on the other. This keeps the playing field in good shape, it was explained.

And so, with the athletic-minded members of the board still holding out for as complete a second athletic field as possible, more conservative members appeared determined not to spend the amount of money so far mentioned.

And—one member reminded—that it was only a few years ago that we decided to place the new school on its present site largely because we could utilize the athletic field already built!

Public Pool Would Cost $100,000, Survey Shows

Rebecca Wonder Feted On Her 83rd Birthday

A birthday party in honor of Mrs. Rebecca Wonder's 83rd birthday anniversary was held at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wonder at Spring Lake on Sunday. The following attended, Mr. and Mrs. John Wonder, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wonder, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Wonder, Sylvester Wonder, Mr. and Mrs. John Yerger, Mrs. Kathryn Pfautz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kopp, Rochelle, Skip and Candy Kopp, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wonder, all of town.

Mrs. Louise Adair, Manheim; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dombach and children Jean and Connie, Letort; Mr. and Mrs. James Kready and children Jimmy and Phillip of Ephrata.

That Lititz is large enough for a public swimming pool, that operating revenues should equal operating costs if the original financing is accomplished by contributions, is the gist of a comprehensive survey completed this week by Borough Manager Dave Bauer.

But—the report also states—a suitable pool, bath houses, etc. will cost the community from $100,000 to $110,000.

Possible means of financing a pool pointed out in the report are: 1. A private group of investors. 2. The borough government, through a bond issue. 3. The school board, through a bond issue. 4. A "Lititz Swimming Pool Authority" through a bond issue. 5. A temporary fund raising organization, either alone or in combination with the above.

The report is a comprehensive one which should enable local individuals and groups to decide whether a public pool is desired. Dr. Byron K. Horne declared in presenting a motion to have the report publicized and placed in the hands of officers of local clubs and groups.

The survey will be printed, verbatim, by The Record-Express, in two installments starting next week.

Discussing the operation of the pool, the survey states: "It is possible to so run a pool to make operating income pay for operating expenses but it would not be wise to count on net income to apply against construction costs since to do so would raise admission rates higher than desirable."

The report also presents operating figures from four other communities of similar size, all showing operating profits.

Woodridge Club Will Present 2-Day Program

A two-day program of aquatic sports and demonstrations will be held at the Woodridge Swim Club this Sunday and Labor Day Monday, it was announced this week.

The program will start Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. when the Lancaster Aquatic Club will present a demonstration of precision group swimming. This will be followed by competitive swimming of crawl stroke, and Butterfly. The day's program will be concluded with a demonstration of fancy diving, interspersed with clown diving.

The program Labor Day will start at 2 p.m. with a swimming meet among Woodridge Club members.

Another feature will be a series of races between fathers and daughters and mothers and sons. Another feature will be a penny scramble for non-swimmers.

A water ballet will be presented Monday evening at 8:30 p.m., concluding the two-day program.

Coaches Speak Before Rotary

If enthusiasm and fighting spirit mean anything, Warwick Union is going to have a good year in football, local coaches informed members of the Lititz Rotary Club Tuesday evening.

Speakers at the meeting included Bernie Rider, head football coach; Dean Miller, backfield coach; Elwood Reese, backfield coach; and Stanley Shoemaker, line coach and Junior Varsity coach.

As an added attraction for the program, Warwick Union's co-captains, Dick Allebach and Artie Myers, donned a complete uniform, pads and all in a demonstration to show how much protection is given players.

Dr. Howard Minnich, members of the athletic committee, was in charge of the program.

Boro Bans Tearing Up Street

Council meant business when it decreed that newly-paved streets will not be torn up, members proved Tuesday night when they refused the Lancaster Gas Company of U.G.I., permission to tear up North Cedar Street.

Application for a permit to tear up the street previously had been refused by Borough Manager Dave Bauer on ground that property owners had been advised prior to the laying of the new street this year.

Going over Bauer's head, the gas company renewed its application Tuesday in a letter to borough council. The permit was sought to excavate in front of the home of Glenn Mearig in order to replace a one-inch main with a larger one inasmuch as Mearig is installing gas heating equipment.

Council also asserted there is doubt as to whether a larger main is needed. Refuse Bldg. Permit Council also refused to grant a permit for a frame garage at the rear of the property of Harry Buchter, North Broad Street. Buchter sought to use lumber from the barn now standing on the property and agreed to use fireproof roofing and asbestos shingles on the sides.

This property is located in what the building code describes as the fire zone and prohibits frame structures. (Continued on Page 12)

Labor of Love Is Lost Again!

A local painter had some unsolicited, if unappreciated help here last week.

Working on the roof of the home and office of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Griswold, the painter, Raymond Dubs, lowered brush and paint can by rope to the ground.

By the time he lowered himself he found that he had acquired two helpers.

Both very young, they had helped themselves to the inviting paint and brush and were painting Dubs' parked truck.

"The right kind of woman takes you for what you are; the wrong kind for what you have."

Sale of Old Coin Results In $100 Church Donation

Sylvester Wonder, Bricker-ville, has given a check for one hundred dollars to the building fund of the Moravian Church, this is the sum he received for an old coin he found in the tomato bed in his garden a few days before the church burned.

The coin, dated 1787 the year the church was built, was made of copper, had the picture of a horse's head and plough on one side and a shield on the other. The inscription Mr. Wonder thinks was in latin and not discernable. It was a New Jersey state coin. Wonder's home adjoins the old Lutheran Church property which was used as a hospital during the Revolutionary War and he surmises that perhaps it was lost by one of the soldiers who may have been quartered there. The house in which Wonder resides was used for Church services at that time, it dates back over two hundred years.

After the church burned Wonder decided he would offer the coin for sale and sell it to the highest bidder and give the money to the Church building fund. He was happy to receive the sum of one hundred dollars.

Claim Heavy Infiltration In Sewers

Something is radically wrong with Lititz sewer mains—with tons of water seeping into them daily—Borough Manager informed council Tuesday evening.

The average daily flow of sewerage recorded at the treatment plant during the past month was 492,500 gallons, as compared with 204,800 gallons daily during the same period last year.

"There is no doubt something is radically wrong," Mr. Bauer informed members of council. "We made preliminary checks and found several instances where large amounts of water leaked into the mains but we now have to check the entire system."

This will be done this fall when workers are available. Mr. Bauer explained. They will start at the disposal plant and check back, manhole to manhole. Checks made at various times during the past year seemed to be cutting the infiltration down but the trend now definitely is in the other direction.

The infiltration is by no means proving too great a capacity for the disposal plant, Mr. Bauer assured. Despite the heavy daily flow of 492,000 (Continued on Page 12)

PHILA. MORAVIANS ATTEND SERVICE HERE

Thirty-one members of the First Moravian Church of Philadelphia attended the services in the local church when Carl John Helmich Jr., was ordained a deacon of the Church at the morning service. Mr. Helmich will be installed as pastor of the Philadelphia Church on Sunday, September 8th.

For Thou, O Lord, hast not forsaken those who seek Thee.—(Psalm 9, 10.)

Most happy and blessed is he who, early in life, has experienced a real demonstration of God's love and mercy, through devotion and prayer—and who then, having sought and found Our Heavenly Father, never for an instant thereafter departs from Him and His goodness all the years of his being... Too few of us, unhappily, seek God and His grace until our course is

Score Lack of Taxi Service Here

A complaint that residents of Lititz are not receiving adequate—if any—taxi service will be filed with the Public Utilities Commission in Harrisburg. Decision to complain that the Lititz Taxi Service, conducted by Kay Stevenson, does not provide service in Lititz but is centering its activities in Lancaster was reached by members of borough council at its meeting Tuesday night.

This followed receipt of a letter signed by eleven guests, all elderly people, of the United Zion Home at Lexington. In their letter, the group declared they have no way of coming to Lititz or returning to the home and that they have not been able to get taxi service for many weeks.

Following a discussion, council decided that if "the present franchise holder wants to retain the franchise they should have to live up to the requirement of offering service."

Complaint of Peddlers A letter from the Lititz Chamber of Commerce objecting to the increase in peddlers, was read. Councilmen immediately replied that the borough peddler ordinance, requiring licenses, is being enforced. The state, however, exempts persons selling dairy or farm products.

BOROUGH GETS $400 FROM LIQUOR LICENSES The payment of $400 from the Liquor License Fund to Lititz Borough was approved this week by Charles C. Smith, auditor general. The payment is the local share of a $2,675-625 fund to be distributed among boroughs and townships in 59 counties of the commonwealth.

Girl Scout Leaders To Meet Sept. 6

The first training session for the fall for the adults of the Rolling Hills Girls Scout Neighborhood group will be held Wednesday at 8:00 p.m. in the Recreation Center. This is an orientation course for all new leaders. Mrs. Charles Eshleman will direct the session.

All adults will meet on Friday, September 6, at the home of Mrs. Howard Redcay for the regular fall meeting. The twenty troops are to be represented to get the fall programs off to a good start. A social period to welcome the new leaders will follow.

Basic outdoor training for all adults in the north east district will be held in the E.U.B. Church, Ephrata on October 3rd at 7:30 p.m. Miss Cathryn Adams will instruct the group. This will be a three night session and registration must be made through the Girl Scout office in Lancaster.

The Leaders Club of the Lancaster Council will hold an out door workshop at Furnace Hills Camp on October 10th at 1:00 a.m. Mrs. Vincent Dagen is the Northeast representative for the Club and Mrs. Curtis Long will help in the Brownie Workshop.

Working with the Troops in the Neighborhood as consultants and organizers are, Mrs. Howard Redcay, Brownies; Mrs. Curtis Amidon, Intermediates; and Mrs. Charles Eshleman, Seniors. Mrs. Robert Thompson is the secretary. Mrs. Bruce Corbett, treasurer, and Miss Cathryn Adams, Chairman.

Labor of Learning Resumes Tuesday as Schools Reopen

The Labor Day Holiday ends Monday and the following day 2,436 Warwick area children will take up the labor of learning. It will be the first day of the 1957-58 school term.

This year's enrollment figure is 108 pupils more than last year. Supervising Principal G. Marlin Spaid announced these reporting dates for the first day, Tuesday, Sept. 3. Lititz Elementary School; grades one, two and three report at 1:30 p.m. to the auditorium and grades four, five and six to the gymnasium. Brunnerville and Rothsville elementary pupils report to High School students report to auditorium at 1 p.m. All schools will dismiss at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday but full day sessions will begin Wednesday. Cafeterias will be in full operation Wednesday, also, and students are to bring 90 cents for the balance of the week.

With the exception of the Lititz Elementary School, classrooms are set to go. Here, Principal Spaid said, the teachers room used by women faculty members will become a fifth grade classroom. This is necessitated by an extra large enrollment in the fifth grade. Women faculty members will

Claim State Dictates Naming Supervisors

Addition of non-teaching members to the faculty as well as the recent appointment of an elementary supervisor at $6,000 a year all are in compliance with state regulations, Supervising Principal Marlin Spaid explained this week.

"This year we are expecting $470,000 from the state—who has a better right to say what standards we must live up to," Mr. Spaid added.

The reply was in answer to an editorial in last week's Record-Express pointing out that since becoming a union district, local schools have at least four additional, full or part-time supervisors, than a few years ago.

We were receiving, in the form of a reimbursement from the state, approximately $47,000 which we now are receiving for being a union district.

The additional appointment of non-teaching supervisors to the faculty were made in order to comply with the requirements set up by the State Council of Education, Mr. Spaid emphasized.

Last May the state sent the Warwick Union district a check list for "supplemental payments" pointing out that we should have a certified home and school visitor, not a sufficient number of certified guidance counselors, a teacher for mentally retarded or handicapped children in the high school.

We had been using the truant officer as a home and school visitor and Mr. Spaid and Mr. Lauderman had been the only two guidance counselors, Mr. Spaid explained. As for the high school teacher for physically-handicapped, we just don't have any special students enrolled in the high school.

More teachers also are needed in the Warwick Union District inasmuch as we now have 669 more students than in the 1950-51 year, Mr. Spaid further explained. And if we run over 33 pupils per teaching unit, the state steps in and penalizes us by deducting from the appropriation.

The average now is slightly below the 33 student average—but has been kept there through the decision to add an additional fifth grade class. With 31 teachers in the borough elementary school building, the state also requires a full-time supervisor, making it impossible for Claude Swartzbaugh to serve in both this and the elementary school supervisor positions, it was explained.

"I do not want to place the school board in the position where we might jeopardize the appropriation from the state by not following recommendations of the State Council of Education," Mr. Spaid concluded.

Editor's Note: The manner in which Lititz servicemen and their families become acclimated and enjoy living while stationed abroad is interestingly described in the following letter received this week from Jimmie Snavelly, son of Henry J. Snavelly, North Broad Street, his borough. Jimmie, his wife and small child, recently returned to Dachau, Germany, by air.

Lititz Record Express E. Main Street, Lititz, Pennsylvania Dear Mr. Young:

Well here I am once again, and I must apologize for not writing sooner. We have been quite busy, and this is one Saturday night that we are free. Last night our Detachment had gone in the field for are Army Training Tests. It was rainy and very miserable being out in the woods, playing soldier boys. The weather over here is fine at times and then all of a sudden it changes and makes a person feel miserable.

10 YEARS AGO August 28, 1947

"We are not going to wait until some of our children are killed by traffic here—we are going to take action right now." With these words Burgess Victor launched a safety program for local school children which was immediately taken up by Borough Council.

There will be no Farm Show in Lititz this year. The Committee indicated that this action this year is due to opposition expressed to the show recently when several residents of South Broad Street petitioned Borough Council not to permit the closing of Broad Street during the show.

A favorable public response this week followed the announcement of the establishment of the Lititz Sewage Authority by members of Borough Council. Members of the Authority—appointed by Council—are: Norman Badorf, Newton W. Buch, Owen Hershey, H. Lloyd Hess and J. M. Leed. This board is vested with absolute authority to go ahead with the plans, employment of engineers in making the survey, and the actual contracting for the construction of the sewer system as well as the collection of money to pay for the sewers.

Bob Trimble was in a ticklish situation the other night. Visiting friends in Chester County, he was told he would have to sleep in the haymow of the barn. He did, too.

H.L. Mencken and Joseph Hergesheimer, two of the most prominent authors in this country, will visit Lititz on Saturday to study the historic spots and the Pennsylvania Dutch lore here. H. H. Beck, president of the Lancaster County Historical Society, will conduct them on their trip. After consulting Dr. Cornelius Weygant of Philadelphia, who several years ago wrote "The Red Hills of Pennsylvania," and who referred the writers to Mr. Beck, Mr. Hergesheimer wrote to the latter to arrange the trip.

30 YEARS AGO September 1, 1927

F. E. Engle of Ephrata, who filed a petition as candidate for County Commissioner, has withdrawn. This assures the nomination of G. G. Diehm as there is no opposition on the party ticket.

Lititz public schools opened the 1927-28 term on Monday morning. At present there are 581 children enrolled in grades 1 to 6 and 364 in grades 7 to 12 or a total of 945 pupils, an increase of 58 over last year.

Owen Hershey will start to teach at the Springfield High School, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, on Monday. His wife will teach at Marcus Hook, near Chester, Delaware County.

Mrs. G. L. Calvert and Miss Willis Gochenaur chaperoned the former's Sunday school class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, at a house party in the "Out-Door-Inn" cottage at Mt. Gretna from Wednesday to Sunday of last week. The young ladies of the party were: Dorothy Spacht, Maybelle Smith, Frances Kofroth, Esther Rubrecht, Dorothy Roth, Mildred Hoover, Helen Adams, Kathryn Lehn, Laura Eshelman, Mildred Bigler, Elsie Engle, Beulah Stauffer, Beatrice Gochenaur and Elizabeth Gochenaur.

40 YEARS AGO August 31, 1917

Surveyors with their instruments have been noticed this week on the lot of the borough where the town building is to be erected and on the lot where the Lititz Springs National Bank will erect a new bank structure.

We have to endure some things in order to enjoy others. This week, pavements, stores and householders had to endure the unpleasantness of having oil and dirt annoy them in order to enjoy the delight of dustless streets for the rest of the year.

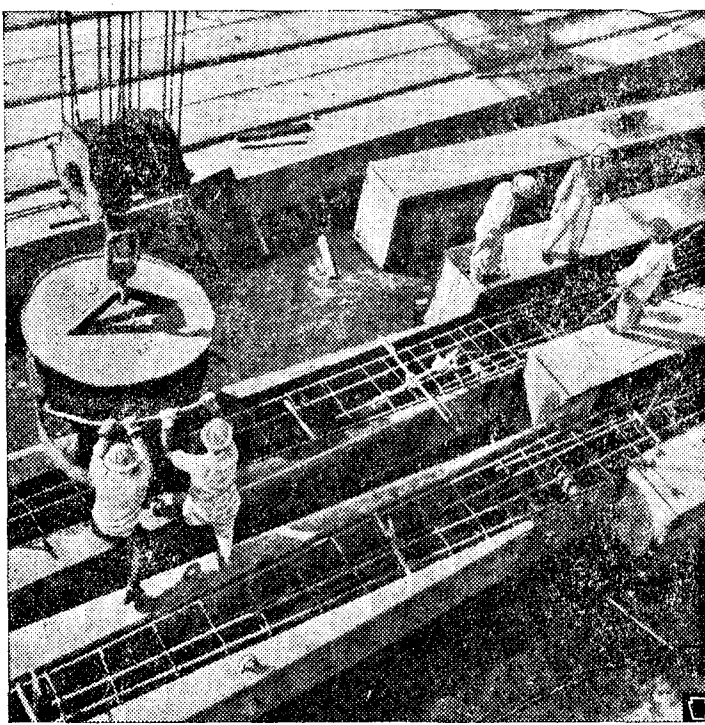

Four foresters from the Davey Tree Service of Chicago, are in town this week working on the trees on H. J. Pierson's lawn on South Broad Street. Several of the beautiful trees showed signs of decay and limb doctors are removing limbs and filling cavities.

Among the boys of Company K who left Lancaster Saturday for Camp Mills, near Mineola, L. I., are the following from Lititz: Bernel Imhoff, John Stiffel, Maurice Mearg, Leon Madlem and Charles Frederick. The boys will undoubtedly be in France in the near future and there will train for real war in the trenches.

50 YEARS AGO August 30, 1907

Mr. M. L. Dellinger, the enterprising proprietor of the Park House is improving the lot along side of his place of business near the Spring grounds. The old pavilion which formerly contained a carousel, later was used as a refreshment parlor and roller skating rink has been removed and a new building 40 by 110 feet is almost completed. It will be closed all around in such a manner as to be easily ventilated in summer and closed up for heating in winter. A 12-foot stage will be erected at one end of the floor, while the main floor will be used for roller skating, dancing and other amusements, Mr.

Casting For Oil

Pilings, which support Creole's derricks and other equipment on Lake Maracaibo, are made at Creole's own plant at La Salina.

Huge reinforced concrete piles, some as long as two hundred feet and weighing up to 200 tons, are cast by Creole Petroleum Corporation in its own yards at La Salina, in western Venezuela. The piles are sunk into the bed of oil-rich Lake Maracaibo to support drilling platforms, derricks, oil flow stations and giant gas conservation plants. This year Creole expects to produce approximately 80,000 cubic yards—or about 2,000—such piles in this casting yard for its oil producing operations on the lake, currently running at the rate of more than 1,000,000 barrels per day.

Dellinger expects to put up a fountain nearby and make other improvements on the property. Roller skating is a fad that quite a few Lititz people have acquired and doubtless they will be glad to embrace the opportunity of a home rink.

Miss Mae Erb gave a progressive euchre party at her home on North Broad Street, Warwick, on Saturday afternoon. Miss Bertha Long received the first prize, a water color painting; Miss Catherine Martin, the second prize, a belt buckle, and Miss Florence Seidmridge, the consolation prize, a hat pin holder.

60 YEARS AGO August 27, 1897

Mrs. Sammet, who lives near the Millport Dam and who comes to Lititz almost daily peddling vegetables, etc., had her nose broken last week under peculiar circumstances. She was in the stable at the time and her daughter was handling a pitch fork, which the cow kicked out of the girl's hand and struck the woman in the face with the above result.

Ambrose Furlow, stepson of Emanuel Hall, overtook his foot in stepping out a vehicle on Tuesday and badly sprained his ankle.

On Monday morning the school bell of our borough, which has been hanging idle the past three months, will be woke up in order to tell three hundred Lititz school children the fact that it is time to come to school and resume their studies.

Messrs. A. R. Bomberger and Wm. Amer took a bicycle trip to the battle field of Gettysburg, where they spent several days, returning home on Sunday.

The fair next week should bring many people to town, among them a class that needs watching. Keep your doors locked and your hands on your pocketbooks.

70 YEARS AGO August 26, 1887

At a meeting of the Moravian Centennial Society last evening Rev. O. E. Reidenbach resigned the presidency and N. C. Fry was elected as his successor. The Society has done some good.

Wallace Evans is building a new barn on the site of the one blown away several weeks since.

Have you any trade dollars? If so, get rid of them at once. The banks may refuse to receive them after next Monday, when the time for their redemption expires.

Next Thursday our public schools will re-open. The authorities should continue reducing the number of studies any pupil pursues at any one time. It is said a beginning in the right direction was made last term.

A sorrel horse belonging to Daniel Creamer has been missing since Sunday night. Its owner thinks the animal was stolen.

The other day greengrocer Yngst sold Isaac G. Pfautz a 64-pound watermelon. It came from Jersey and was immense.

Roy Long On European Trip

Roy Long, local businessman, is scheduled to return next Tuesday from a European trip in which he is visiting half a dozen countries.

Leaving Idlewood airport ten days ago, Long arrived in London, Monday, August 19, according to cards received here. Following a tour of the British Isles, Long left for Holland, France, Germany, Spain and Italy.

He also is scheduled to make his return trip by plane.

MRS. SAMUEL HEISLEY NOW FULLY RECOVERED

Mrs. S. O. Heisley, 124 Liberty Street, has recuperated from an accident she suffered approximately ten weeks ago and will return to work next week. In a fall at her home, Mrs. Heisley fractured her right leg and was confined to the Lancaster General Hospital for three weeks.

VISITING AT RIEGELSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mathers, of this borough; and Mrs. Mary Rettew, of Springfield, Mass., who has spent the past month with the Mathers, are spending several days with Rev. Samuel Kirk at Riegelsville.

Bowery Boy Reaches Top of Watch Industry

At 14, Axler Enters Auction "Jungle"

Men Who Make America Great

Sets New Trends as Waltham Prexy

By LOUIS JAMES

A few months ago the son of a Bowery watchmaker became president of one of the most conservative and respected firms in America.

Nobody thought this was in the least unusual. It merely typified democracy in action. In fact, people in the industry thought it was a perfect marriage.

Involved in the merger: the Waltham Watch Company, America's first watchmaker (since 1850); and Joseph W. Axler, the world's biggest watch distributor.

Waltham once leader

Once upon a time—not too many years ago—Waltham was the top name in fine American watches. Yet today's generation only vaguely remembers it. Faltering management had almost wiped it from its former eminence.

But this year things started popping once again in staid, old Waltham, Massachusetts.

The reason? Hustling, young (44 year-old) Joe Axler went into action. He put out 150 new Waltham watch models—the first time in 10 years that Waltham actively entered the consumer field.

To keep Waltham moving, Axler next introduced a revolutionary new watch, the Ever-lite, the first watch that illuminates itself—probably signifying the end of radium dials. Next move: the world's thinnest watch at a popular price.

JOSEPH AXLER

Axler loves the vigorous competitive clawing that typifies the watch trade. He grew up in it—bidding, buying and selling watches in his father's Bowery pawnshop.

At 14, Axler entered the hectic jungle of New York's watch auctions. Every day he matched wits and money with the sharpest, toughest buyers in one of the world's most ruthless markets.

"Max," his father was warned, "get young Joe away from there. You'll go broke."

Broke? In ten years the firm of Joseph Axler, Inc., had become the biggest name in the used watch business.

"You have to move—fast!" Axler gained a reputation for making instant decisions no matter whether the deal involved $1 or $20,000. He bought and sold so rapidly it made some of his competitors dizzy.

"You have to move fast in this business," he explains. "Your best profit is your first profit. Your first loss, if it's necessary, is your best loss." With this philosophy Axler soon dominated the watch distribution field with over 1,500 wholesale outlets and thousands of dealers.

When war broke and the services needed huge quantities of delicate watch movements, Axler came up with them. Where he got them no one knows to this day—but he got them.

After the war, he distributed Swiss and American watches, actually becoming the price arbiter for the industry. Each Monday dealers waited for Axler to set the prices for the coming week.

Heads new move uptown. A few years ago he led the parade out of New York's historic watch center, the Bowery, and into mid-Manhattan. Now 47th Street between Fifth and Sixth Avenues is the Jewel and Watch Center of the World.

Axler travels a lot, talking to dealers and jobbers, alert to trends and market changes. His chief aids are daily newspapers and business papers—especially the Wall Street Journal.

When Waltham last year offered Axler the company helm it was an ideal marriage—the famous Waltham name to the country's hottest watch merchandiser.

One thing is sure—the watch industry in the near future is going to see plenty of fireworks.

No Applicants For Rec Post

No applications have as yet been received for the position of Recreation Director of Lititz.

Present director Robert Sutherland has tendered his resignation effective as of Sept. 16 to accept a similar position in Easton, Pa.

Both the school board and the recreation board have a hand in naming a successor since a portion of his salary will be paid by the state under the school recreation program.

Ads have been placed in a national recreation magazine for candidates.

Curbing Placed At New Parking Lot

Work on the borough's off-street parking lot continued this week with the placing of curbing.

Borough officials said meters for the lot are on hand and will be installed in the near future. Stripping of the lot has been delayed in hopes that a rain would settle dust left by paving.

The lot, situated adjacent to the Record-Express office, will accommodate 31 cars.

Tolerance

Human re-action some times, often in fact, are mighty hard to understand. Last week several readers called to tell us of the manner in which a small, seven-year-old colored girl, one of the Fresh Air children, was being ignored and discriminated against.

Imagine, right here in Lititz where race and color pose no problem whatever! At first we were tempted to write a first page item telling how this little tot was ordered around—and how those who opened their home to her, were being ignored by some neighbors.

Then we decided a calm, deliberate editorial might do more good. Then, too, our investigation showed that those unwilling to accept this little girl constituted a very, very small minority.

It's the same old story. While most are happy to make others happy, the disgruntled fringe are ever alert to spread intolerant, unfriendly venom. Thank goodness the latter always will be the minority!

Local schools re-open Tuesday — so drive carefully! Once again all of us must exercise every precaution when entering and driving through school areas.

Here are a few rules organizers of our school patrols list which are well worth remembering: (1) Always expect the unexpected from children. (2) Keep a sharp lookout, especially for children darting out from between parked cars. (3) Co-operate to the fullest with safety patrols. (4) Don't be juvenile yourself by trying to compete with bike riders. Do all you can to avoid an accident.

Shop In Lititz

Shopping in Lititz not only is profitable to both the shopper and the shopkeeper, it is convenient and a lot more pleasant than driving long distances. Local retailers today recognize the wisdom of attracting more shoppers from our outlying districts. Sure, that is important. But if Lititz shoppers would do their shopping in Lititz rather than face the bustle and jostling of nearby city crowds, increased prosperity would be ours—and that in turn would mean a better town with improved stores. It's a reciprocative circle in which everybody wins.

Don't kid yourself — every man, woman and child in this nation has a vast and hidden public debt hanging over his head that has to be paid, plus interest, before this era of prosperity becomes free and clear. Take the federal debt, for example. This could be paid off at once if the government could collect some $1,600 from every man, woman and child in the nation. But that's really a lot of money!

Petty Offenders

Here's some real food for thought which Chief of Police Lloyd Hoffman handed us this week—and which we feel is very timely since the Labor Day week-end is only a few days away.

"On the highways of America in 1956, average of one every 13 minutes. The day-to-day senseless slaughter of an estimated 40,000 persons in traffic accidents last year—a new peak in motor fatalities—is indeed a blotch on our modern civilized society. Assuredly, the major blame for this shameful record must be attributed to the carelessness, negligence and indifference to traffic laws on the part of motor vehicle operators.

"No longer can we allow speeders and reckless drivers the false cloak of 'petty offenders.' The cold statistics of accident losses in life and property stamp these road menaces as serious threats to community welfare.

"To a grieving parent, is the loss of a child crushed by an automobile more bearable than the death of the loved one at the hands of a kidnaper? Is the plight of a victimcrippled for life under the wheels of a speeding car less pitiable than the predicament of a person permanently maimed by a robber's gun? "Too frequently the praiseworthy efforts of a nation's police are met with public indifference. Only the full support of the motoring public, aroused through educational campaigns or exacted by rigid enforcement of traffic laws, can stem the mechanized massacre on the highways."

Offie adds that the above are words of J. Edgar Hoover, F.B.I. director. Let's keep the above thoughts well in mind when we start out on the highways this coming Labor Day week-end.

Public School Regulations

Marlin Spaid's explanation of why there are so many non-teaching (he regards the number of being below that in other comparable districts) faculty members in Warwick Union at least sounds convincing. We must admit that with the state handing out almost half a million dollars to Warwick Union in a single year, that the state can insist upon as many regulations and rules as it cares to.

That doesn't make it right, however. We fear that those in charge of the public school system of the state have lost sight of the plight in which they are costing the taxpayer for the sake of what they consider high standards of public education.

When the state spends money it comes out of the taxpayers' pockets, even though this is done less painfully by indirect levies. But don't kid yourself, no matter how it reaches Warwick Union, all of us have to pay the bill.

Economy is needed whether we have to start at the top in Harrisburg or right here at home.

"Mid the Turmoil"

Happy No-Labor Day, folks!

'Cause Monday's one day we intend to do absolutely nothing but sit on the side porch reading, doze in the backyard hammock or broil us up a batch of hamburgers. There won't be too many nice, warm days to spend outdoors and believe you me, we intend to make the most of those left.

Isn't it funny that a date on the calendar, like Labor Day, can do so much to switch our interests from the outdoors, indoors once again? But it does.

Right now everybody's (there were two meetings on the subject last week) discussing what new businesses we need in Lititz. Well, one thing this town needs is a good, old-fashioned shoeshiner. Sorta looks as though in this modern day of scientific achievement that the little things of life are being overlooked.

Which brings to mind that since Bill Stauffer passed away the town has lost something which added a bit of real color to the business section—no peanut stand with delicious odors of roasting peanuts intermingling with the aroma of chocolate!

Add to that the smell of roasting chestnuts—yumyum! Put the three together, a shoe-shine stand with roasted peanuts and chestnuts on the side and you have a combination which definitely makes life real enjoyablelike.

"I worked twenty years so I could share my business with my son," a local businessman tells us, adding "but the government beat him to it."

A local medico (of all people) tells us that for many folks, there's pleasure in pain. If he's right, there's many a local taxpayer who will die laughing.

Annie Strumbende says: "Most men lack imagination—and that's why dress designers leave so little to it."

Next week the school bells ring once again. The kids will be packing their bags and hurrying off to college, too. Wonder how many of them realize they are in the midst of the greatest time in life?

For what it costs to go to college, the professors should do all of the home work.

And speaking of bells, the longer it goes the more of us miss the sound of the old Moravian bell, now resting disconsolately behind the church ruins. It would almost be worth building a small tower down behind the church some place just so the bell could be rung daily again, aint?

With the World Series just about a month away, it's our usual time to become interested seriously in baseball. What fun's a world series pool if you don't know who's playing? Football already is crowding baseball off the TV sports screen. Us, we're strictly a pro fan.

Thought-of-the-week: The only people whom you should try to get even—are those who have helped you.

A Child: Something that stands between an adult and a television screen.

A postcard from Seattle, Washington, this morning's mail reads as follows: "Came in to Seattle today (last Thursday) for the fight. I am serving pretzels between rounds." (Signed) George Slater.

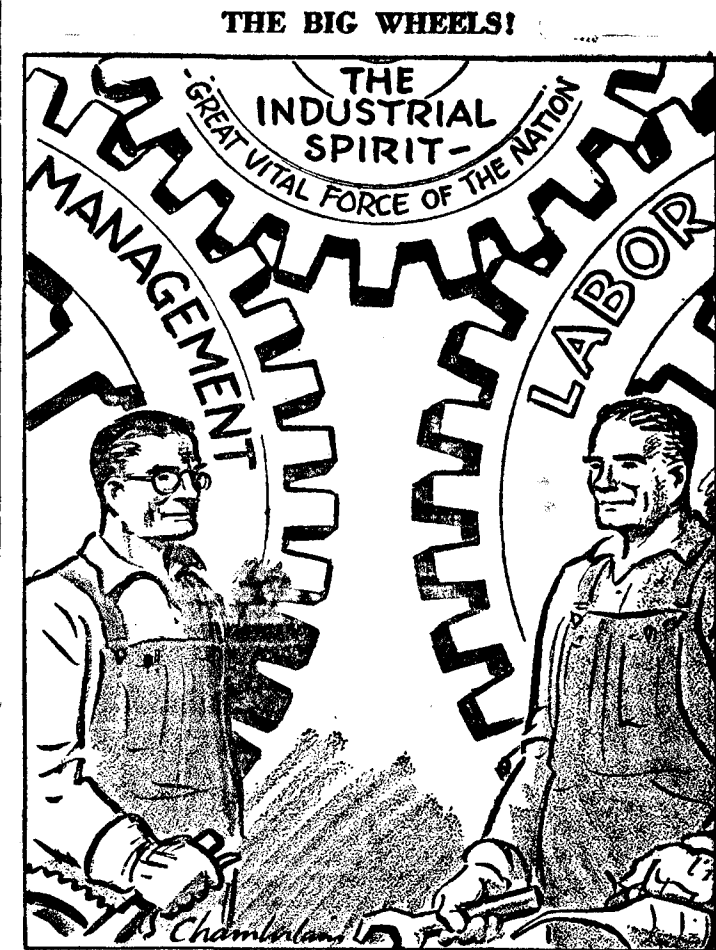

It's certainly good we don't believe everything we read!

Here's another crazy definition a reader sends us. Pedestrian: A man who has two cars, a wife and a daughter.

Proverb: A short sentence based on long experience.

Yep, and as a parting shot, it just occurred to us that old age is that terrible something others reach long before you do.

And that's that!

On Labor Day

It was in May, 1882, that one Peter J. McGuire, president of an organization of carpenters and joiners in New York, conceived the idea that one day out of the year ought to be set aside "in honor of labor."

Mr. McGuire contended that our country had holidays representative of the religious, civil and military spirit, but none "representative of the industrial spirit, the great vital force of the nation." He proposed that a "Labor Day" should be observed on the first Monday in September, since the date fell about half way between Independence Day and Thanksgiving Day.

So it came into being, and gradually over the years it became a legal holiday which is now observed in all our states.

Labor and management, employee and employer—in fact, all of us free Americans—join on Labor Day to pay tribute to "the industrial spirit, the great vital force of the nation." We respect the cooperation between honest, dedicated and responsible leadership in the American system which has made us the most progressive, most powerful and most prosperous nation on earth. All of us—regardless of our work or status in life—enjoy its fruits, in the highest standard of living the world ever has known.

Work Progresses On Rounding Off Intersection

Rounding off of the intersection of Broad and Orange Streets is underway by the borough.

Utility poles and light standards have been set back so that the intersection can be rounded off for easier accessibility to the new High School.

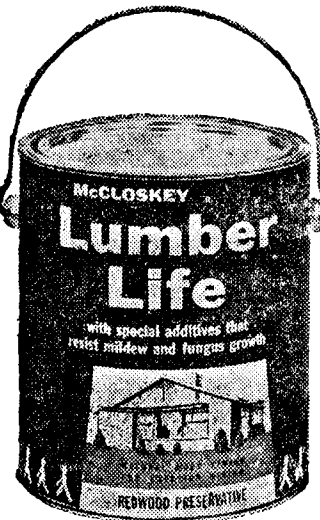

During school months considerable difficulty and hampering of the traffic flow has been experienced because of school buses negotiating the intersection.

It is anticipated the wider intersection will aid traffic conditions at all four points of the intersection.

Extend Coverage Of Student Ins. To Rec. Center

Expanded coverage for school age children under a new 12-month insurance program was announced this week. Supervising Principal G. Marlin Spaid said the new insurance plan costs $1.50 for elementary school children and $2.00 for children in grades through 7 to 12.

It provides $3,500 maximum injury and hospital benefits and $1,000 death benefit. Its expanded coverage is such that it would also be in force for any accidental injury suffered at the Lititz Recreation Center. The program will be offered to all school age children on a voluntary basis.

Elementary Grades Need Sub Teachers

Any person certified in elementary school teaching who would like to be put on the Warwick Union School District's substitute list is invited to contact the school office, Supervising G. Marlin Spaid said this week.

He said the list of substitutes for elementary grades is down and persons desirous of being placed on the list should contact the office at MA 6-2183.

If accredited teachers are unsure of their certification with the Department of Public Instruction they should notify the office and a check will be made with Harrisburg.

Church Is For All

"There goes that young preacher man that took over the village church. He's out tryin' to learn all he can about this country and the ways of us folks. Funny, he came out here from some town back East and everybody thought he would be tryin' to make us all over like the people he knew back home. We thought he wouldn't last through one winter. But that young fellow is made of better stuff than any of us, as would be proved if the situation were turned around. He's become one of us, too.

"And that ain't all. He's got the folks in our community goin' to church and likin' it. Always before church was mostly for our women folks and kids, but not any more. He's sold us on the idea that we all need the church. Since I started my church goin' it has helped me over many a rough spot. My picture of it is that everyone needs the Church."

Everything's Big except the price

The new kind of Ford looks big because it is big... and it acts as big as it looks!

No matter how you measure the new kind of Ford, it comes out BIG! Not only is it the longest sedan of the low-price three... it's longer even than some medium-priced cars. And does it ever measure up in V-8 performance! No other car in Ford's field can match it... for you can have the Thunderbird's own V-8 engine.

Styled to stay in style. Measure Ford's exclusive "Sculptured Look" against cars costing hundreds more. You'll see that Ford is years ahead... with styling that makes it unnecessary to pay more.

Built to stay built. If you've ever tried Ford's "big-car" ride, then you know why Ford makes luxury a low-price word. With new suspension, new frame and body, you'll wonder where the road bumps went! Yet, with all these "big-car" qualities, Ford carries a little price tag. No wonder Ford is the most wanted car in the U. S. A.!

Moravians Name Rebuilding Architects

A Bethlehem architect's firm, Lovelace and Spillman, was engaged by the Lititz Moravian Congregation this week to handle plans for rebuilding of the church. The selection was made at church council Monday.

Robert Posey, president of the board, said the architects will meet with the Building and Planning Committee at a later date.

Actual work on rebuilding the church is being held up pending an adjustment with insurance companies. As yet the board has not been advised of a loss estimate and thus lacks the funds to go ahead until payment is received.

Sylvia Swarr Wins Posture Queen Crown

Sylvia Swarr, sixteen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Swarr, 42 E. Second Ave., was named Posture Queen, at the annual 4-H Clubs Round-up, last Thursday in Lyte Auditorium, Millersville State Teachers College.

Miss Swarr, will be a senior at Warwick Union High School this fall. For the Queen ceremony, she wore a blue dress of brocade taffeta, with a bouffant skirt and oval neckline, combined with a black jacket.

She made the dress herself as part of her participation in the local 4-H "Merry Bells

SNARELY

(Continued from Page 1) morning. We were refreshed by then, ate breakfast, and I headed for Dachau to ready our place, so as soon as the couple moved out, we could move in. We have two rooms, just cozy enough for the three of us. But our quarters are nothing compared to the apartments in the states.

To tell you a bit about Dachau, I shall start off with the location. It is located approximately seven miles from Munich. Dachau was noted for its concentration camp during World War II. The camp is still in fine shape and there are caretakers to keep the buildings and grounds in shape. Dachau has a population of 18,158 people. The community is not much larger than Lititz, but the greater majority of people that make up its population live in apartments. Two and three families live in one house which is about the size of a normal house in the states which one family would find room enough without thinking of making it into apartments.

Living on the German Economy is a problem at times, but as everything else, we always find a way to work out our difficulties. Although I'm not intitled to quarters on the post itself we find it more of a benefit to live on the Economy. It is cheaper by far and less worrysome. We have commissary privileges the same as the people that are intitled to, that live on post. After work at night, I head for home which is about two city blocks. We consider ourselves most fortunate indeed due to the shortage in off-post apartments for service families. There are a great number of people who have to live on the outskirts of Dachau. After a good home-cooked meal, and the dishes are done, we might go to the movies or stay home and play cards or read. Over here there isn't too much to do, unless you have your own private automobile. We are approximately 50 miles from the famous winter resorts of Garmish and Berchtesgarden. We plan to purchase our automobile this coming month, and then take in the sights of some interesting places here in Europe.

We plan to be heading home on or about the 15th of July 1958. It seems like quite a long time to be away from home yet, but all time actually passes by faster than we sometimes realize. So till 1958, we send our best wishes for the future. Still receiving the Record-Express and always excited to read good home-town news. I hope that by this time next year I'll be on the outside once again. Till then so long and best wishes.

Sincerely yours
James L. Snavely
P.S: Good luck to this year's High School Football team. We have our fingers crossed for a successful season.

Boost Tons Of High-Quality Forage With Mid-Summer Pasture Renovation

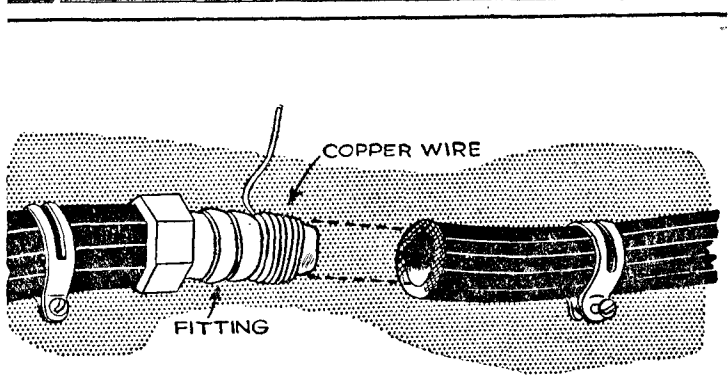

Renovating old pasture and replacing it with high-quality forage can double and almost triple tonnage grown, according to on-the-farm studies of forage produced over a three or four-year period.
 Studies of birdsfoot trefoil and timothy grown on farms in Potter, Susquehanna, Tioga, and Centre counties show 100 to 190 per cent more birdsfoot trefoil and timothy grown on renovated pastures than on old pastures. New ladino clover and orchardgrass gave over 100 per cent greater production than old pastures.

There is no need to "put up" with old pastures that aren't paying their way, declares John B. Washko, professor of agronomy at the Pennsylvania State University. Dr. Washko says farmers should count on 2 1/2 to 3 tons of dried forage per acre, with milk yields of 6000 to 8000 pounds. He makes his report in the summer issue of Science for the Farmer, published by the Agricultural Experiment Station at Penn State.

"Of particular interest is the greater tonnage of birdsfoot trefoil when grown with grass as compared with ladino clover and grass," Washko points out. "The birdsfoot trefoil remained highly productive during the experiments while the ladino clover lasted only two years." Mid-summer is a good time to destroy old sod. By midsummer Kentucky blue-grass is usually is the best time for dormant and makes little if any feed. Hot sun is helpful in killing old sod. Lime and fertilizer can be applied before breaking up the sod or can be worked into the soil during fall harrowings needed to prevent regrowth of sod. Spring reseeded.

Renovating old pasture can be done a few acres at a time. Take five acres this year, another five next season, and so on. A requirement, of course, is enough soil depth to grow grass.

CONNECTOR . . . When rubber tubing is too large to be clamped properly over a serrated connector fitting of the type shown, wrap light copper wire around each of the serrations and solder in place. This will increase diameter of the fitting and retain necessary ridges.

Farm Calendar

Timely Reminders from the Pennsylvania State University College of Agriculture

Dual Is Good Wheat—Dual is the first soft winter wheat variety available to Pennsylvania farmers which has resistance to Hessian fly and leaf rust. Clarence Bryner, Penn State extension agronomist, explains that Dual was named because it can be used for both pasture and grain production.

Fish for Farm Pond—If you have a new farm pond and want to stock it with fish, be sure to use the right kinds. Robert Wingard, Penn State extension wildlife management specialist, says that the winning combination is largemouth bass and bluegill sunfish fingerlings. Your county agent can give detailed information.

Chemical Aids Plant Growth—Gibberellic acid is a new chemical which stimulates growth and flowering of many plants, reports A. O. Rasmussen, Penn State extension ornamental horticulturist. He points out that it also speeds the growth of young trees and slow-growing ornamentals.

Protect Livestock—Hungry livestock on dried-up pastures may be killed by eating poisonous plants, warns Dr. Samuel Guss, Penn State extension veterinary specialist. He suggests feeding hay or silage and

Recommended Canning Methods—Recommended canning procedures should be used for specific fruits and vegetables, cautions Louise Hamilton, Penn State extension nutritionist. Use the boiling water bath for fruits, tomatoes, and pickled beets. The pressure canner should be used for nonacid vegetables. The open kettle method is recommended only for pickles and jellies. Oven canning is not recommended.

Sewing Tip—When making a fabric containing synthetic fibers, don't press the seams until you're sure they need no changing, reminds Bernice Tharp, Penn State extension clothing specialist. Sharp creases are hard to press out and sometimes can't be removed. Press with coolest iron temperature as needed.

Choosing Coffee Makers—Consider these features when choosing a coffee maker, suggests Sanna Black, Penn State extension home management specialist. Watch for a thermostat control with a warm-up setting for reheating coffee, comfortable handle of material that protects your hand from heat, good balance when pouring, and an opening that allows your hand to reach all interior surfaces for cleaning.

Storing Pillows—Store pillows in a clean, dust-free place with ample space. If pillows are too compressed, especially down and feather ones, they may never regain their original buoyancy, points out Doris Snook, Penn State extension home management specialist. Store feather and down pillows in a moth-free place and spray well or pack with moth-preventive crystals.

Juvenile Fashions for Fall

When crisp fall winds start blowing, mother must begin to think of cool-time, school-time fashions for her youngster.

One thing to remember when you outfit your youngster is the down-to-earth truth to the old saying that "boys will be boys." This means they want to dress and look like all of their friends. Children just don't want to be "different"—that's for grown-ups. Indeed, their need to feel "one of the gang" is a vital part of growing up.

But mother buys her youngster's clothes with other things in mind. After all, she pays the bill and has to care for them. So she is looking for outfits that are budget-priced, well-made, easy to care for and, above all, practical and able to take the rough-and-tumble wear boys give them.

Here is a selection of popular, new-for-fall fashions that fill the bill both ways. Junior will like them because they are exciting and make him like one of the fellows, and mother will find they meet her own exacting standards.

You'll be pleased with Santone's smartly styled car coat with button on hood (above), for the all-wool, quilted lining provides extra warmth without bulk. Natty wooden toggle buttons on the front and cuffs give this satin-look finish coat distinctive eye-appeal. In charcoal, navy, red or tan.

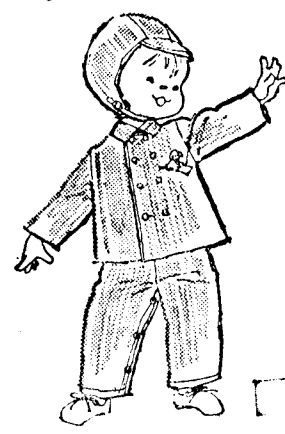

And for the stay-at-home toddler there are bright new fall fashions, too. He'll be both comfortable and appealing in this three-piece corduroy creeps-along suit (below), up-to-the-minute styled. Pearl buttons and an embroidered pup trim the jacket front, and the pants come with suspenders, elastic waist front and double clasp crotch.

The set has a matching helmet to prevent Jack Frost from nipping at tender ears. The outfits come in light or royal blue, brown, maize or red, and they are fully washable.

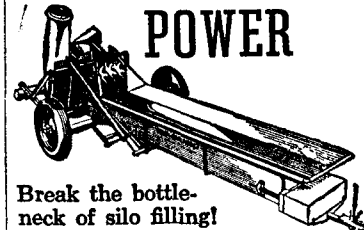

For that dressed-up, scrubbed-behind-the-ears look, Junior proudly sports his own Santone Ivy League styled single-breasted suit (above), so much like Dad's. Made of specially-treated, crease resistant rayon and acetate, the suit features a two-button, single breasted, fully lined coat with authentic Ivy League narrow shoulders and lapels.

The self belt trousers have elastic sides. In either dark grey with blue stripes, or light tan with blue, Junior will swagger along beside Dad, proudly trying to match his stride.

Of Plug and Shell

BY John Helter

Member of Penna. Outdoor Writers Assoc.

The other day I was asked, "How do you feel about these private fishing and hunting clubs?"

I was pretty sure I knew just who and what area he was referring to and I was certain I knew his feelings on the subject. The advice of a newspaper man came to me—Be cautious in publicly taking sides of any issue! Since that advice I have attempted to collect data, read it thoroughly, then evaluate it for myself.

My first impression of private clubs created a flurry of resentment within me. I blamed the land owners for being greedy. I assumed these clubs were started by a group of selfish individuals who were looking out for Joe and to heck with Jack! I believed these clubs would profit from my license dollar by an influx of game and fish from the public lands around them. I envisioned club members hunting and fishing public lands and waters, on opening days, then when public game and fish were depleted they would go to their billed lands.

I watched, with interest, the growth of one of these private organizations and secretly hoped and believed it would fail in a few years.

Then came the reorganized Pennsylvania Fish Commission's bombshell! A request that sportsman, state-wide, support a $5.00 Pennsylvania fishing license.

Tempers flared, and, as is usual, those who knew the least about the subject were the loudest in their opinions.

Lancaster newspapers printed, verbatim, a series of 7 articles giving facts, statistics, plans and dreams of a Fish Commission who's first thought was for a greater Pennsylvania—fish-wise!

How was all this received? At a County sportsmen meeting a group of 40 men were asked to raise their hands if they had read the prepared publications—two men responded. To this writer it looks as if people don't want the facts and even if it is for the better, they resent a change.

When will the sportsmen wake up to the fact that they and they alone must pay for their sport. That they can expect just what they pay for.

Listen to the "old-timers" dream aloud of the "good-old-days," then ask them if they would be willing to go back to the days of a dollar a day wages and a dollar a year fishing license. Some of them will say "Yes, I'd be better off!" That's your cue to laugh in their face. Those fellows are kidding themselves. Listen to them comment when the Borough or the power company shut off their water or electric for 6 hours for repairs, then judge for your self whether or not they would be content to go back to what they had in those "good-old-days."

Through out this verbal conflict I noticed those people who were for an increase in license fees, were the progressive thinkers. I inquired from some members of these private clubs as to their feelings and was told they favored an increase.

That's when I began to change my line of thinking!

MAYBE these clubs weren't started by a selfish group. MAYBE they are some of the few active members in the large sportsmen clubs in the county who got sick and tired of working for a bunch of unappreciative hunters and fishermen. MAYBE their idea was "better fishing and hunting for everybody—who pays their fair share!"

MAYBE the landowner isn't the greedy person I thought he was. MAYBE he just got tired of picking up rubbish, mending fences and taking a lot of lip from careless and thoughtless people using his land.

By the amount of hunters and fishermen I've seen around the lands and waters of private clubs MAYBE its the public who profits from the club instead of vice versa.

John Herman, of the Pennsylvania Game Commission, quipped: "No wonder so many farmers have such a low opinion of sportsmen—they never get to meet any."

MAYBE my hopes and beliefs came from lack of facts and "good-old-days" thinking about billed land.

Correct me if my thinking is wrong—cause I'm still not positive about all this—just MAYBE!!

LOCAL MOTORISTS HAVE LICENSES SUSPENDED

Two local motorists had their driving privileges suspended during the week ending July 22. They are: Reed Jordan Lahnman, Lititz R2 who was arrested for driving without an operators license; Marvin K. Witmer, Lititz R2, arrested for speeding and who submitted no defense.

101 Boys Register To Play For Midget Football League

Tryouts To Be Held For Lititz Boys On Friday

A very encouraging sight for those interested in local midget football came, when 101 candidates registered for the new Warwick Midget Football League.

At the present time Rothsville has 32 candidates, although they may only carry 25 players. Brunnerville came through with a very surprisingly high total of 22 candidates.

In Lititz 47 candidates registered to play on two local teams. On Friday try-outs will be held for these 47 and anyone else who is interested. The purpose of the try-outs is to divide the two Lititz teams equally. Try-out time is this Friday at p.m. on the Lions Field.

The league held a re-organization meeting on Tuesday evening, at which time they appointed the Lititz head coaches. Dubbs Haldeman will handle one team while Kurt Long will be in charge of the other squad. In Brunnerville, Bruce Wike has taken over the coaching reins. Claude Young is the Rothsville coach.

In other business, Rick Allebach was elected treasurer of the new league, and it was agreed that business would be carried through the Recreation Center treasury, using a separate fund for football. At the present time $660 has been received through gifts to aid in the purchase of equipment and insurance.

The league voted to go ahead and purchase uniforms for 75 players which would cost $1225. At the present time the Recreation Center has 28 uniforms which are in good condition. The league voted to purchase insurance for 100 players.

To meet the expenses, John Keehn has donated 1000 booster tickets, which the young football players will sell throughout the area. They will ask for donations, and it is hoped that the people of the area will respond properly to this endeavor.

No schedule has been set, because of the lack of equipment. It is hoped that the equipment which has been ordered will arrive in three weeks.

Another problem was brought to the floor in Tuesday evening meeting. That was the problem of securing enough football fields. At the present time, Rothsville has secured permission to use Ben Forney's polo field. In Lititz, it is feared that the Lions Field would not be adequate, and that the Athletic Field, is in bad enough shape to use for High School football.

To meet these and other such problems, a committee headed by Roy Clair was appointed to establish a set of rules, pertaining to measurements, ages and weights of players, etc. Other committee members are Bob Gibble, Charlie Kling, and Marlin Irwin.

Anyone who is interested in this new endeavor, is invited to the next meeting which will be held on Tuesday, at 9 p.m. in the Warwick House.

REVIEWING SPORTS

BY
Tom Dussinger
Record-Express
Sports Editor

Don't know how many years it's been since we put the car in the parking lot across from Connie Mack Stadium while seeing a ball game there. Could be fifteen or twenty. Always parked several blocks away or took a cab, bus or subway from down town to the venerable old ball park.

Last Friday night, rather than walk a half mile or so, we drove into that sardine can, locked the Chevy and walked the short distance to the game.

As the usher was dusting off the seats somebody said "Hi."

We returned the "Hi" and then saw it was Harry and Dorie Way and daughter Sue sitting in the row in front of us.

It so happens that Dorie and Sue are up on their baseball and both Philly fans. Stan Lopata is Sue's favorite and we made a rash prediction that, "Stan will hit a homer for you tonight."

Well Stan didn't do too well but when Rip Repulski tagged one into the upper deck in left field in the eighth with a man on, which proved to be the clincher, Sue was just as happy as if the big catcher had socked it.

Her Phillies won and when the game was over she carried that Phillies pennant a little higher.

But getting back to that parking lot.

All you do is walk across the street, get in your car and drive home.

That's what you figure.

There might be 1500 cars parked in there—bumper to bumper, fender to fender and your car is in the middle of the lot.

Did you ever see one of these obstacle courses? You start at a given point and try to reach a destination. That's what it was like. We took the lead. The little lady followed. About 3500 other fans were doing the same thing. You slither between cars, hop over bumpers, back up three car lengths to let somebody else go by, scuff your shoes, bump a shin or two, get stabbed in the ribs with somebody's elbow, your wives dress gets dirty, you get mad and then—Eureka! You reach your car. But that doesn't mean anything. The vehicles are parked so close together you can't get in the—thing. So you stand and wait until the people arrive whose cars are in front and on the sides of your own. When they move you can get in yours. But you can't move until the maelstrom in front of you gets out of the way. Finally you reach Lehigh Ave. and you are homeward bound, vowing you'll never go in that parking lot again.

Harry Way was smart. He parked in there at 5:30 and his was one of the first cars to move.

After that rat race we took off for our favorite spot for relaxation, Graeffenburg Inn for the week-end.

Had a nice chat with the Rev. James Shannon, pastor of St. Paul's Got around to sports, naturally. Naturally that is for The Old Reviewer. But the pastor makes interesting conversation on baseball, football, golf and other sports subjects.

In college he said he went out for football weighing 155.

"At that weight you must be very good or get clobbered. I got clobbered."

He used to play a lot of golf. Went around in the 80's but hasn't played this year. Neither has he seen a ball game this season.

We sort of gathered that football is his favorite sport.

At any rate it was nice talking with him. He makes interesting sports conversation—and sermons.

Copl. R. Runk Wins In Marine Tennis Tournay

Corporal Ronald Runk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Runk, 35 E. Lemon St., and Lieutenant Dick Maier of the Force Troop won the doubles championship of the Tri-Command Tennis Tournament on August 16 at Montford Point.

Maier and Runk defeated Eugene Barracks and Bob Sorenson of Marine Corps Base 8-6 and 7-5 to be declared the champions. The win gave the Force Troop a clean sweep of the tournay.

The members of the Force Troop were presented trophies by General Wade in honor of their outstanding play.

Runk was previously a tennis standout at Lititz, where he and Morris Frederick advanced to a runnerup position in Pennsylvania State Tennis competition in 1954. He also played on the Lititz High basketball squad.

Last year he participated in the marine football program held in Miami. He plans to do so again this year.

Meet The Warriors

by Barry Kauffman

With the 1957 football season rapidly approaching, I have decided to keep the interviews for the next few weeks strictly on the Warwick Warriors Grid Team.

This week we have two more members of the Warrior coaching staff who will express their views here. Dean Miller and Elwood Reese are the assistants to Bernard Rider, who was the guest in this space last week.

Dean Miller is better known in this area as the coach of the 1956-57 Warwick Basketball Champion who captured their section and county championships, and were runnersup in District play. Besides being a very busy coach, he doubles as a civics and Pennsylvania History teacher for Warwick Freshman.

O.K., Coach Miller, lets hear your views.

Q.—What football coaching experience have you had?

A.—I have coached in Lititz for the past 9 years, prior to that I coached baseball and basketball at Quarryville, for 2 years. At that time Quarryville did not have a football team. I also coached a year and a half at Mt. Saint Joseph's H. S. in Baltimore before entering the Navy.

Q.—What do you think is the biggest block to local football?

A.—I feel that the problem is one of co-operation. There must be co-operation among the members of the squad and the coaching staff. The members of the squad must be willing to make the necessary sacrifices to keep themselves in good physical condition. They must believe that the routines prescribed for them are designed to prepare them to participate with their opponents on even terms.

Q.—What is your opinion on night football for the Warriors?

A.—I feel that night football would help to increase attendance. Since the football season starts early and the weather is often very hot it would be cooler playing at night under the lights.

Q.—What will be your coaching job with this years Warriors?

A.—I will be coaching the varsity backfield along with Mr. Reese.

Q.—What predictions would you give for this years team?

A.—I feel that it is best to meet the situation as it arises and not to go out on a limb by making predictions.

Thank you Coach Miller. For the second interview, we have a new addition to the Warriors football coaching staff, Elwood Reese.

Not only does Coach Reese teach Junior High Physical Ed. and Health, but he is a former state wrestling champ. Besides the things already mentioned, he also coaches the new Warwick wrestling team.

Lets hear your views, Coach Reese.

Q.—What will be your coaching job?

A.—Primarily my job on the coaching staff is that of assisting in the development of the backfield.

Q.—How do you plan to improve the Warwick backfield?

A.—As a plan for improvement, we must first strive to bring out in our backs those essential qualities most important to a back; speed, agility, and driving power.

To achieve this it is necessary to select the best drills and use them wisely, repeating them when necessary. Second, we must try to adjust each back to the position where he will offer the greatest threat. Here, we must emphasize to him the fact that situations will change time and again, and he in turn must adjust himself to meet these changes.

Reese and Miller

Q.—What effect should wrestling have on local football?

A.—First of all, wrestling is not new to most local schools. In fact, a few of them have had it for quite a number of years. As for its effects on football, wrestling, like many other sports, has many good ones in that it demands the best physical conditioning during the months that he could easily lose sight of his training program.

Q.—What prediction would you offer the Warriors?

A.—Predicting the outcome of any team at such an early date would be greatly guesswork. However, if good attitudes, and a fine turn out of prospective candidates, are good signs, then we are on the road in the right direction.

Thank you.

Next week's guests will be the co-captains of the Warwick Warriors, Dick Allebach and Art Myers.

See you then!!!

A Review Of Sports From The Past

August 30, 1956

The Brunnerville Softball Team won the Warwick Area Recreational Softball Championship when their opponents, Kissel Hill, failed to show up for their final playoff game. The date set for the final did not suit the Hillians so they did not make an appearance. The championship and the game thus went to the Bruins by forfeit.

The Warwick football team held their first scrimmage of the season against Catholic High School. George Male was very pleased at the showing.

August 28, 1952

Joe Rineer took the lead in the batting department of the Lititz Sports Club Baseball Team when his .393 mark passed the .381 mark of Chuck Bargerstock. Rineer improved his hitting mark last Saturday when his triple was instrumental in whipping Elizabethtown. The Sports Club split their weekend games, whipping Elizabethtown, then losing to Mountville on Sunday.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce announced a plan of using mobile loudspeakers to make appeals to the townfolks to attend the football games. The team opens Saturday against West York.

Dubbs Haldeman, former Lititz Football Star, is one of 24 Penn State sophomores invited to State's opening football drills. Haldeman will be used as a running guard in the State attack.

August 26, 1938

Fifty-three Lititz youngsters were taken to see the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Yankees play ball on Saturday. They were taken in 10 machines and were guests of Roy Mack. The youngsters were members of the summer playground program. They saw the Yankees win a 5-2 decision, in which Lou Gehrig, popular Yankee first baseman, pounded a long home run.

The Philosophers

(As overheard by John Boyd)

Well hello, Mrs. Weiss. Come on in and set down for a spell. I was chust about to run over to your place.

What for?

Oh, not for anything special. Chust to talk. I was thinking the other day that it would be nice if we was to live in one of these two-apartment houses. Then we could live separately and yet not be so far apart. But I know Chorch would not like it.

No, and Chake wouldn't stand for it either. I have often suggested that we sell a lot of our things and go live in an apartment, but he always says no—not not as long as he ain't bedridden.

Well anyway, we don't live so far apart so as it is and running back and forth ain't bad except in real bad weather when the streets is icy like. Have you had your lunch already?

Nothing but a hot cup of tea. I was chust too lazy to get myself anything. Besides I wasn't hungry and Chake is away for the day. It's only eleven thirty anyway.

Then we will take my car and go someplace for lunch. Where would you like to go still?

Well, I don't care much where we go. I will enjoy the ride as much as anything, although I guess I would manage to eat a little something when we get there. A body can always eat better if you don't have to prepare it yourself.

Yes, like the old saying is easy satisfied. Well, where will we head out for?

Let's us chust get in the car and drive till we find some strange place that looks good. Do some experimenting like, so's we can tell the men we found a new place to eat.

Yes, but we got to decide which way to go before we start out. We can't drive in all directions at once.

Well, let's see. How about the Lincoln Highway?

Which way on the Lincoln?

Oh, either way. Let's go tords Cottessville.

All right. Must we dress up, do you think?

No, let's go chust as we are. We look all right. Only will have to stop at my place first and let me get my handbag—and some money.

In Paradise! I have to laugh! I know now. We will stop at that place where the people is that used to be at the Cheneral Sutter.

My land, we passed that place a long time ago. I have et there with Chake a couple times. It's a good place too—that is, if it's open at this time of the day.

Well, we have went far enough anyway, so I am going to turn around when we get to a side road and we'll go back. Now be sure and tell me when we get to a place that looks even half good. I am getting quite ravenous still.

All right. I'll keep my eyes open.

My land, Mrs. Weiss, I believe we are back near home again. That sign back there said—"To Lititz."

What?

Was you asleep this while past?

Maybe I did doze a little. Where are we at?

Well, I believe we are coming to that road that leads to Manheim. I am going to turn right there and we'll try to find a place to eat in Manheim.

There is a place there but I ain't never et at it and don't know how good it is or what the prices is like.

Good or not, I got to eat soon. Now for heaven's sake don't go to sleep again or we'll wind up in Leppnon for supper.

Well, nobody can get through Manheim without knowing it is full of traffic lights. But I will stay awake this time because I am getting a little faint like my self.

Slow down now, Mrs. Espenshate. Manheim is chust at the bottom of this hill. If we pass another restaurant I will pass out. We should of made us a couple of box lunches.

You said a mouthful. Here we are. Now—where will we park?

There ain't no place. Let's go home and see what's in our refridgerators.

That's the best idea we've had yet. Go back to sleep, Mrs. Weiss, and I will leave you know when we get home.

Majorettes Begin Fall Schedule With Trip To Waynesboro

The Lititz Rangerettes led by Vivian Landis started their busy fall schedule, this past Saturday, when they traveled 85 miles to participate in the gigantic Waynesboro firemen's parade.

Approximately 6000 spectators watched the local majorettes perform along this four mile parade route. They headed the third division and marched to the music of the Harrisonburg Virginia band. The Rangerettes have been practicing all summer to successfully perform in a heavy fall schedule. In September the majorettes will march in the Ephrata Farm Show parade.

Their October schedule includes the New Holland Farm Show parade, the Lititz Halloween parade, and a special appearance in the Hagerstown Halloween parade. In December the group is planning a special recital, the plans of which will be announced later. At the present time the Rangerettes consist of 55 girls between the ages of 4 and 17 years old. They are taught by Vivian Landis.

On September 7, from 1 to 3 P. M., try-outs will be held for a new group of majorettes, the Rangers. It will consist of girls 16-18 years of age. Try-outs are open to anyone interested, and will be held at 214 E. Market St. Rain date is Sept. 14.

BORO BANS

To Dedicate Lot The borough's first off-the-street parking lot will be formally dedicated on Saturday, September 14, council announced. The lot, located just east of the Record-Express Building at the rear of the first block of East Main Street, is to be known as Lititz Parking Lot No. 1.

The dedication will include a ribbon-cutting ceremony and addresses by Burgess Benjamin Forrest and members of council.

Seek Re-Imbursement Lambert-Hudnut officials attended the meeting of council and requested a re-adjustment of the sewer rate paid by the local company. Credit for water which goes into the manufacture of its product and does not reach the sewer system, was requested.

This credit, which council indicated is a just claim, constitutes a return of approximately $108 of a total of $5,100 paid by the company for water last year.

An extension of the water rate to cover the larger amount used by Lambert-Hudnut also was requested. Present borough rates go only to 400,000 gallons while Lambert-Hudnut uses approximately 10 million gallons in a six-month period.

The number of properties hooked up to the system did not make the change either. Last year at this time a total of 1,613 connections had been made as compared with a total of 1,668 this year.

To Repair Building Ira Yeagley was authorized to re-point the glass blocks at the pumping station. He also will make repairs to the base of the standpipe.

PARK

The new contract, known as contract No. 3, will include the entire entrance to the park, restoration of the stream walls, stone-veneering and re-building the bridge in the park, sub-grading the re-located stretch of North Alley which will run at the side of the Rohrer residence.

Three play areas also are included. These consist of the tot lot, the area for those of school age and the adult recreational area, all located adjacent to the south pavilion.

The contractor also will excavate for the storm sewer to be erected by the borough. An old relic of a past era which will be one of the first items to be removed will be the ornate iron fence along Broad Street.

The wall along the alley and the V. F. W. parking lot also will be removed immediately. The contractor announced that the work will not interfere with the Lititz Farm Show, scheduled to open September 11, excepting that it will not be possible for cars to enter the park through the present driveway. This driveway will be torn up next week.

While the low bid originally was $96,590 for the work in the park, acceptance of a number of alternates by the building committee has brought this figure down to approximately $70,000, J. M. Leed, head of the park group, explained.

Elsie, Twins At York Fair

Among the interesting exhibits to be seen at the York Inter State Fair will be Elsie, the Borden Cow, in person, with her brand new twins, Larabee and Lobelia, in their Famous Barn Boudoir, now housed in a modern 45-foot trailer.

Elsie the Cow has travelled over 200,000 miles and has been seen in person by over 32,000,000 people. She has been in motion pictures and has stayed at the finest hotels in the country. While she may not actually read her books or use the boudoir's telephone, she is a real, living personality. She actually receives fan mail each day, frequently from adults. Many of the letters come from overseas.

This year, visitors who have seen Elsie before will have plenty of new things to look at. The most important additions, of course, are Elsie's twin calves. The calves are equipped with a twin bassinette, baby clothes, and toys, including a rocking horse built for two.

This will be a free exhibit on the grounds of the 1957 York Interstate Fair.
