

Red Tag Sales Days This Friday And Saturday

"Lucky 30" Drawing At $225 For Event

Almost 50 area merchants are combining efforts to make Friday and Saturday one of the most successful Red Tag sales in the event's history. Prices will be slashed; tremendous bargains offered and a addition shoppers will be eligible for $225 in prizes that will be offered in the "Lucky 30" contest.

The jackpot of $175 is the highest being offered since the drawings were initiated several weeks ago. A voucher of $25 will also be awarded to a shopper who is present at the drawing as well as to one who isn't present.

Merchants have been reducing almost every item available in their places of business in anticipation of hundreds of "bargain-loving" shoppers from the county. The retailer's committee is well pleased with the spirit being shown this week by the merchants.

Many of the stores will offer pennies for the parking meters thus permitting shoppers to park free of charge. Plenty of parking will be available during the two-day sales event.

The huge jackpot being offered will be an added attraction this year. Last Saturday the winner failed to claim the $150 jackpot so merchants added another $25 to it for this week, in addition to the weekly prizes of two $25 vouchers. Those shopping in Lititz during Red Tag Days will be eligible if they register at the cooperating merchant's stores.

Last week the prize of $25 for the one who must be there was won by the person drawing the tickets, little Karen Adams of Lititz R1. It was the first time Miss Adams had won.

The other $25 voucher was awarded to Mrs. Edward Pelger, 218 S. Broad St. Mrs. Pelger wasn't present at the drawing.

Area shoppers are being urged to take advantage of this special "double" event this weekend — taking full advantage of the many bargains to be offered and registering for the vouchers to be given to three lucky shoppers.

The drawing will be held on Saturday at 3 p.m. on W. Main St. near the square, registering at the store's of Shoppers will be eligible by participating merchants.

Leak Survey Scheduled Here Today

An extensive investigation of borough water leaks will be conducted here this week by a Chicago, Ill., firm as a result of action taken by Borough Council on Tuesday evening.

The Rankin Leak Finder Co. has been hired to make a preliminary survey, beginning today, of leaks of more than 5,000 gallons per day.

According to Borough Manager David Bauer, the efficiency of the local system has improved considerably over the past few years, "but one out of every three gallons which are pumped, are still unaccounted for."

The survey will pinpoint any leaks to a 125 ft. radius from which the borough will take over. Should the borough be unable to locate the leak from that point, the company will uncover the leak point for $192 per day.

Library To Open Office Here Tues.

The Lititz Public Library will open its new quarters in the General Sutter Hotel next Tuesday night at 7 p.m.

Increased hours, to go into effect immediately, will open the Library from 7-9 on Tuesday nights and from 2-4 on Thursday nights.

The Library will continue to be staffed by volunteer workers and it is hoped that additional volunteers will enable the Library to increase its hours even more.

The new room is on the Broad St. side of the General Sutter and is identified by a sign above the door.

A. B. C. Club Holds Outdoor Meeting

The Lititz Chapter of the A.B.C. held their weekly meeting last evening at Charles Herr's pavilion at the Hammer Creek Delta-Speedwell Forge. It was the first outdoor meeting of the summer for the group.

At the meeting the week before, Bob Hess and Bob Dersch shared the spotlight in reviewing the history and highlights in the affairs of the local chapter.

Lions Club Will Help C. H. Stief

Plans to contact the business men of the area in behalf of the Clayton H. Stief fund were discussed at the meeting of the Warwick Township Lions Club on Tuesday evening in the Memorial building at Rothsville.

Kenneth Zook, chairman of the fund, announced the amount of $200.00 has been raised in two weeks. The business men will be sent letters asking for contributions.

Stief, a plumber, was blinded by an acid explosion.

Edward Bowser, the president, was in charge of the meeting and appointed the following committee to plan for a picnic, Fred Kauffman, Paul Bushong, and Melvin Christ. The time and place will be announced by the committee.

Dr. Howell To Move To California

After practicing here for the past nine and one-half years, Dr. Mary A. Howell will close her chiropractic office on August 12 and will move to California, she disclosed this week.

She will enroll in the Cleveland Chiropractic College in Los Angeles in September and will specialize in obstetrics. After passing her state examinations in California, she plans to open an office in Los Angeles.

Her daughter, Peggy, now a student in the Palmer College of Chiropractic at Davenport, Iowa, will transfer to the Cleveland school at the completion of her second term, next Spring.

Upon her graduation in 1964, Peggy will join her mother, according to tentative plans.

Police List Prosecutions

Three prosecutions were listed here this week by borough police.

Gerald F. Quins, East Petersburg, was prosecuted for driving too fast for conditions as was James L. Hess, 15 Savo St., Lancaster.

Frank G. Ginder, 308 Linden St., was prosecuted for failure to yield right of way.

EXAMINE U. S. EQUIPMENT

Harold Kreider and his children Larry and Linda examine the U.S. Weather Observation equipment that was found on their Lititz R2 farm on Monday afternoon. The equipment includes a radio transmitter, held by Larry, and a deflated balloon and parachute, held by Linda.

Weather Equipment Found Near Lititz

A local farmer and his family took part in the extensive weather observation program of the United States government this week when they found a government transmitter and balloon on their property.

Harold Kreider, Lititz R2, was cutting grass near his home when he saw what he thought was "somebody's box kite" near where he was working. After examination of the object, he found that it was a transmitter and balloon, complete with parachute.

Information on the equipment stated that the equipment was launched on July 17 and was to be returned to Fort Knox, Ky. Other information stated that the transmitter was used for weather observation and was equipped to travel at altitudes of up to 11 miles.

Yellow Cones Will Be Used For Friday Traffic

Borough Council took new action on Tuesday evening in an attempt to curb the congestion caused on Friday nights by traffic at the two local banks.

The new plan calls for yellow cones to be placed at the square on E. Main St. and near the square on N. Broad St., to eliminate left hand turns into the bank. Previously police had attempted to eliminate such turns without cones, but motorists failed to cooperate.

According to Bauer, "If the cones don't work we'll have to purchase something more permanent."

Chief Hichs reported that the Main St. lot causes the most congestion but that the "lot on Broad St. is getting to be more of a problem." The traffic jams are reported on Friday evenings between 5:30 and 7:30.

The new cones which should appear this Friday, in time for Red Tag Day crowds, will be used experimentally until the next council meeting.

In other action the council decided to call for bids for the disposal of the Marion St. pumping plant. The plant has been a headache for council for several months.

Bids for garbage collection for the coming five-year contract period were also called for by council.

Kenneth McCloskey, a chemist at the Wilbur Chocolate Co., was appointed to the Planning Commission. His term will expire July 31, 1966.

It was also voted to allow retailers to hood borough meters during the coming Red Tag Days if they should so desire. No word has been received from the merchants concerning this matter.

Commissioner Cites Local Fatal Accident In Article

Pennsylvania's Commissioner of Traffic Safety, O. D. Shipley, this week used the example of a local fatal accident for the basis of an argument for re-examining all automobile drivers, in an article in the Saturday Evening Post.

Pool Bids Delay Seen Probable

Borough Council announced Tuesday night that they will not call for bids on the proposed swimming pool until a substantial amount of the $25,000 pool reserve fund has been raised.

They also stated that they will not award the contract until the total amount is in the fund.

$15,000 of the total has been donated by the Jaycees, the remainder was to be raised by the Chamber of Commerce. However, they have not begun their drive yet as they are awaiting a ruling from the Bureau of Internal Revenue that any money solicited will be tax deductible.

Mr. Hanna, president of the Chamber of Commerce, stated Wednesday that in view of the new development his organization will probably begin their soliciting before hearing from the Bureau of Internal Revenue. "I hope now that we don't throw the pool out of schedule," he stated.

New Fresh Air Group Arrives

Twelve new Fresh Air children will arrive here today to begin their two-week vacation in local homes. With the ten who are staying over from the last group, this makes twenty-two who are enjoying a vacation here.

The final group of the summer is scheduled to arrive on August 10 and there are still some openings; however, local officials urged interested parties to make the arrangements immediately.

Children can be obtained by calling the area chairman, Mrs. Clarence Brubaker at Madison 6-8253.

LOCAL GIRLS IN KUTZTOWN CONTEST

Cynthia Bucher and Nancy Keener of the "What's Cooking" 4-H Club represented Lancaster County in the Contest held for the group at Kutztown on Tuesday.

The girls entered the Poultry Division and made chicken salad. They were accompanied by Miss Mary Grube, Farm extension worker.

Bauer Resigns As Borough Manager For Connecticut Post

David Bauer, borough manager, announced his resignation at borough council meeting Tuesday night.

Bauer, who will finish his term at the borough on Aug. 18, has accepted a position as Town Manager at Wethersfield, Conn.

Manager of the borough since 1955 Bauer's administration has seen the borough increase in assessed valuation by 25 per cent.

During this time the borough has initiated zoning and subdivision controls and reviewed the building code; resurfaced over half of and completely rebuilt another ten per cent of the streets; and completed construction of the original sewer system and constructed an additional 30 per cent to the length of the mains.

Also completed during his term were the initiating of various administrative improvements, including machine billing and accounting for taxes, a codification of all ordinances, and a complete investment program for all funds not currently needed.

Bauer's new position will offer him an entirely new set of problems as Wethersfield is primarily a suburban area with a population of 21,000 in the metropolitan Hartford region.

The father of six, including twin boys born in March of 1961, he is married to the former Joyce Jones. The family resides at 316 Laurel Ave.

Prior to coming to Lititz, Bauer was a Field Staff Member of the Public Administration Service of Chicago. He received his Bachelor of Civil Engineering degree from Syracuse University College of Applied Science in 1948. In 1952 he was granted the Master of Public Administration degree by Syracuse University Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs.

Lester Lahr Accepts Position At Millersville

The second resignation to be submitted by Warwick Union faculty members in a two-week period, became known yesterday.

It is that of Lester Lahr, principal of the Lititz Elementary School, who is resigning to accept a position in the laboratory school at Millersville State Teachers College.

The resignation will not be acted upon by Warwick Union directors until their next regular meeting, Wednesday, August 16. Lahr's resignation becomes effective September 1 when he will take over his new duties at Millersville.

In his new position, Mr. Lahr will be training elementary school teachers and will be associated with Dr. J. Richard Zerby, who resigned as Elementary Supervisor of the local school district several months ago.

The rapid expansion of facilities at Millersville State Teachers' College has made a number of important teaching posts available and in filling these, the Millersville officials have turned to the local district for two of the more important posts.

In discussing Mr. Lahr's resignation, Supervising Principal Marlin Spaid pointed out that "starting at the bottom at Millersville now" Mr. Lahr within a few years will be able to reach the point where he will be earning a basic pay of $12,000 a year, plus any additional pay for work in the summer months.

"This is a lot more than he would be able to earn in the Warwick Union district," Mr. Spaid declared, adding "which is the same reason that we have lost several other members of our faculty in recent years. We have three vacancies to fill at present but this is not unusual nor is our change over any greater than any district this size."

One of the three positions to be filled will be that of high school principal, caused by the resignation of N. J. Fuhrman, who has accepted a similar position with the Manheim Central School District.

Mr. Lahr is a graduate of Millersville State Teachers College and was employed here as an elementary teacher in 1953. He has served as principal of the borough elementary school for the past three years.

Harry Regeninas Honored Wed. By Boy Scouts

The Throwing Bull Tribe of Lancaster County dedicated a memorial tree to the late Harry Regeninas, of this borough, on Wednesday during its summer council meditations at Camp Chiquetan.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Canon Heber W. Becker, Pleader of the Great Spirit of the honorary organization of Boy Scout leaders.

Another tree was also dedicated to Donald M. Swarr, of Lancaster, another member who died during the past year.

A BOAT IN A PIZZA SHOP!

It was all a big, big joke — but this is the sight which greeted Nick Mastromatteo when he returned to his place of business last Wednesday night.

Local Customer Parks Motor Boat In Center Of Busy Down-town Restaurant

It all started Wednesday night of last week in the midst of a heavy downpour of rain when Chet Wertsch, local boat shop proprietor, suddenly felt the pangs of hunger!

Calling on Nick Mastromatteo, Chet ordered several sandwiches.

"When you come up for them, you better bring a boat along — if it rains any more we'll be flooded," Nick replied. Nick then left his East Main Street place of business to pick up an order of meat at Kauffman's. Returning 15 minutes later, he found a full-size outboard motor boat reposing in the front room of his restaurant.

"I couldn't figure out how they ever got it in there," Nick later explained, "because the beam on the boat is wider than my front door. And for the next several days I had a hard time explaining to my customers just what it was doing there."

According to others, however, Nick had scarcely left the restaurant when Chet and six helpers showed up with the boat. Turning the boat on its side, they succeeded in getting it inside with less than an inch of door-space to spare.

"There," Chet remarked when the job was completed, "that'll teach him to kid me — when anybody orders a boat from me, I deliver, and that's that."

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State University College of Agriculture

Shade for Study Lamp
A light-colored lampshade, slightly opaque, with a white or off-white lining is a wise choice for a study lamp, points out Erma Langford, Penn State extension home management specialist. When a single lamp is being used, the most desirable shade size is 8 1/2 inches across the top, 10 inches deep, and 16 inches across the bottom.

Self-Polishing Wax
Self-polishing wax is a water emulsion wax which dries to a shiny finish. It has no cleaning action, reminds Sanna Black, Penn State home management extension specialist. It tends to accumulate in areas outside of traffic lanes and must be scrubbed off at intervals to avoid yellow patches. Self-polishing wax is not recommended for wood floors which are damaged by water.

Fish, Source of Protein
Fish is about 18 per cent protein, which is complete and well-balanced, says Louise Hamilton, Penn State extension nutrition specialist. An average serving of fish furnishes more than enough animal protein to meet the usual daily need for protein.

Safe Stepladder
Be sure the stepladder or stepstool you buy for home use has a tread material on the legs that will grip the floor, urges Robbie Latta.

YOU'RE SURE TO TRUMP at card parties or informal get-togethers in this charming hostess apron. Embroider suit emblems on the apron, then make a bridge cloth to match. Beginner's luck wins you this game; for there's nothing easier than the cross stitch. Get free instructions for both apron and tablecloth by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for Leaflet No. PE-1663.

Penn State extension home management specialist. Stools with swingout steps must be balanced and sturdy.

"Treat" Collars
Grease stains on backs and collars of dresses and blouses and collars of men's shirts usually need special treatment before laundering. Bernice Tharp, Penn State extension clothing specialist, suggests treating these areas with a liquid detergent, working it well into the fabric, then washing the garment in the usual way. It's advisable to use the same detergent for spotting and washing.

Your Securities Won't Manage Themselves When you are On Vacation

Your vacation may cost you a lot more money than you planned unless someone is on hand to take care of your securities—collect your dividends and interest, present called bonds for redemption on the due dates, sell or exercise stock rights before they expire and become worthless.

We can do this for you promptly and efficiently if you place your securities in an Agency Account. Then you can take a really carefree vacation anytime or anywhere. Ask one of our trust officers for complete information about this service.

FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS

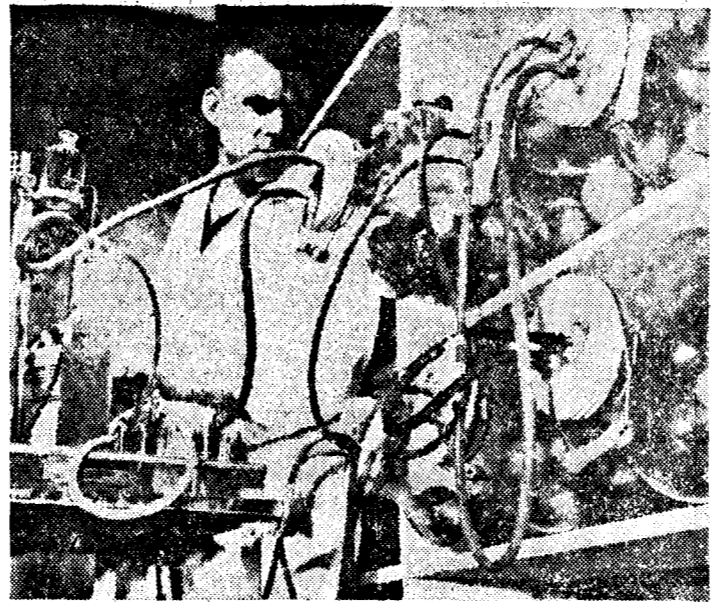

By C. D. Smith

What About Difference In Ages?

THE WEEK'S LETTER: I am 13 years old. I like a boy that is three years older than me. He is a wonderful boy. I go roller skating twice a week and he is at the rink. I love him very much, but he likes my sister and other girls, too. What should I do? I ask him to skate sometimes and he always has an excuse. But my niece asks him and he skates with her. He always tells me he wishes I was a little taller and a little older. How could I make him love me as much as he loves others? I tell him age don't mean a thing—all that counts is that we love each other. Make him understand. OUR REPLY: Apparently, he does understand. At least, he appears to have handled a tricky situation with understanding. Age, too, is important and a difference of three or four years among the early teens is a wide spread, as a rule. There is nothing unusual about a girl of 13 being attracted to a boy who is three or four years older than she—it happens to many 13 year old girls. But the girl who thinks she is "going to make him love her too" is generally headed for a fall. Not going very far, either, is the girl who says to the boy, "I love you; you have to love me too." It's funny, perhaps, but life doesn't work that way. Just because we love someone we have no right to believe they should feel obligated to love us in return. It's nice if it happens that way, of course, but we can't expect it to happen that way simply as a matter of course. As we grow older in life, we discover more and more that some of the things we like don't "like" us in return. Certain foods spoil our disposition; eating too much or staying up too late causes plenty of woe for tomorrow. We don't stop liking these things; we just recognize that they are not for us—whether we like it or not. If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, NATIONAL WEEKLY NEWSPAPER SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

Tomatoes Keep in Gas-Charged Air

Tomatoes are not as hard to produce as to market in the condition that pleases homemakers, notes F. J. McArdle of Pennsylvania State University. Special atmospheres containing more carbon-dioxide and nitrogen and less oxygen than found in natural air helps keep them from spoiling, he has found. Dr. McArdle conducts research in vegetable processing for the Agricultural Experiment Station, University Park. Mature green tomatoes kept for five weeks in the artificial atmosphere at 55 degrees Fahrenheit in experiments, he reports, but ripe fruit spoiled. Similarly, green fruits kept under ordinary conditions spoiled in two weeks. The apparatus used for testing gases in the storage chambers is demonstrated in this picture by David Curwen, graduate student in horticulture, from Ridgewood, N. J.

Miss Geuther Is Married To Dr. Stoner

Miss Barbara Anne Geuther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Geuther, Clifton Heights, Pa., was wed to Dr. I. Paul Stoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac H. Stoner, Lititz R3, at services on July 15 in Havertown. Mrs. J. Laurence Gleason, New Kensington, attended her sister as matron of honor. Miss Anne B. McElfresh Drexel Hill, and Mrs. Harry R. Bryant, Unionville, were bridesmaids. Serving as best man for his brother was A. Reid Stoner, this borough. Ushers were George Morley, Brookhaven, and Dr. J. Wallace Carter, Newtown Square.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip to Wellsboro, Pa., the couple will reside at 101 S. Broad St. The bride was graduated from Millersville State College in 1958. The bridegroom, who holds a degree from Palmer School of Chiropractic, Davenport, Iowa, is a local chiropractor.

Hevener served as best man. Miss Hrla J. Neff was organist. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip to New England and Canada, the couple will reside at 133 E. Main St.

SHARPLESS—JARRETT Mr. and Mrs. Nelson I. Jarrett, 53 Hershey Ave., Lancaster, announce the engagement of their daughter, Bonnie L., to William E. Sharpless Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Sharpless, Lititz R1.

Miss Jarrett, a 1961 graduate of McCaskey High School, is employed by the Spiegel Catalog Shopping Center. Mr. Sharpless, a 1958 graduate of McCaskey, is employed by Lloyd P. May.

GIBBLE—SHIRK The Rev. Bard Kreider officiated at the marriage of Miss Janet Shirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Shirk, Lititz R1, to Eugene Gibble, Manheim, on June 30. The ceremony was held at the home of Rev. Kreider. The couple was attended by Mrs. Darryl Thompson, Manheim, and Rodney Gibble, brother of the bridegroom. They reside at 153 N. Grant St., Manheim.

Collegians Upset Red And Black "5" Here

The Red and Black squad, led by the league's top scorer, George Male, continued to lead the summer basketball loop this week, although they suffered their first set-back, a 48-46 upset by the Collegians.

Male continued to pace the league with his 19.7 scoring average through seven games. He is followed by Dale Showers with 18.5.

The league standings and scorers follow:

Red and Black	1	19.7
Collegians	2	18.5
Rothsville	3	18.2
Hoffys	4	17.4
Rec "5"	5	16.5
Hot Shots	6	15.0
Warriors	7	15.0
Varsity Boys	8	15.0

Leading Scorers

- G. Male, R.-B. 19.7
- D. Showers, Rec "5" 18.5
- S. Stout, Collegians 18.2
- K. Keener, Hoffys 17.4
- E. Harnly, R-Ville 16.5
- A. Miller, Rec "5" 15.0
- J. Carl, Hot Shots 15.0

A big first half enabled the Red "5" to withstand a rally by the Varsity Boys to win 69-64. The winners led 36-23 at the half, but saw the lead dwindle. Showers led the winners with 25 while Adellize and Pohner had 16 and 15 respectively. Wolfe had 12 for the losers.

Second Clinic For Pitchers Here Saturday

Nine pitchers of the junior midget age group attended the first annual pitching clinic on Saturday morning, sponsored by the Warwick Little Leagues. Ken Simmons was the instructor.

A similar clinic is being planned for pitchers and players interested in pitching of the midget-midget age group on Saturday morning at 10.

Saturday's clinic saw representatives from four of the six teams in the American League learn the various fundamentals of hurling. This included basic plays, plus work on the mound with emphasis on care of the arm and proper use of the arm and the brain.

The boys in attendance were very enthusiastic about the session and expressed the hope that it would be continued next year. These included the following: Terry Boyer, Sam Soto and Terry Keith of the Brunneville Tigers; Bill Bushong and Joe McKonley of the White Sox; Mike Maharg and Bob Kauffman of the Indians; Glen Ludwig of the Red Sox; Dennis Null of the Tigers did the catching. No representatives were present from the Yankees and the Orioles.

Simmons was very satisfied by the session and wished to thank managers Ray Huber and Bob Miller for their help at the session.

Huber Falls One Strike Short Of No-Hitter

The Lititz Legion will have a chance to bring the Lanco Southern Division Legion crown to Lititz tonight when they will host Manheim on the local diamond at 6:30 p.m.

Both clubs have lost three tilts this year and are 1-1 against each other. For Lititz, tonight's match will mark the last scheduled game of the season, so a win would "ice" the title.

Coach Sipe will probably nominate Amos Miller (5-1) as the starter, although Ron Loose (2-0) and Dale Huber (2-2) may be pressed into action. Barry Eckert (1-0), who beat Manheim in relief of Miller earlier this year, will be ready for relief work.

Rounding out the probable starting line-up will be Bob Landis (.294) behind the plate, Paul Beittenmiller (.306) at first, Dick Keller (.324) at second, Bob Wolfe (.298) at short and Roy Clair (.302) at third. In the outfield it'll be Huber (.222) in left, Mike Hoffman (.279) in center and either Barry Male (.227) or Loose (.263) in right.

Highlighting the three Legion wins during the past week was a one-hitter thrown against E-Town by Huber. Huber came within one strike of the no-hit bid, before Smith singled between short and third. An error of a double-play ball earlier in the inning hurt his bid.

Wolfe and Male were the big guns in the 6-2 win with two hits apiece. Wolfe clouted a homer, his second of the year, and Male a double, his second of the year.

On Sunday the locals polished off Quarryville for the third time this season, 14-0. On Thursday they won at Quarryville, 5-4. Incidentally, Quarryville was comprised of players from the Lanco High School championship squad, Solanco.

On Sunday Lititz smacked out 13 hits including three by Keller and two by Hoffman, Clair and Wolfe. Keller banged out a homer and Clair a triple.

Miller did the hurling on Sunday although he needed late inning relief from Huber. They held the losers to three hits.

On Thursday it was Huber who went the route fanning 7 and limiting the losers to 5 hits.

A large crowd is expected for tonight's important game on the local field. Early in the season Manheim shut-out Lititz 5-0 while at midseason Lititz came back to win a 7-4 decision at Manheim. Lewis started both games for Manheim, although he was relieved by Shelley in the second match.

Press Box To Be Built With Bleacher Funds

The School Board, Wednesday night, gave permission for bids to be taken on the building of a concrete press box at the site of the new Warwick Union High School football field.

Dr. Minnich, chairman of the Athletic committee, stated that he felt that the press box would be an asset to the school and that since monies would be saved in the building of bleachers for the field that these monies should be used for a purpose of this sort.

Clyde Hendricks countered with the argument that the question is not what monies the board saves but rather what it spends.

The money for the press box, not to exceed $2,000, will be garnered from the bleacher fund. The bleachers will not be built with a concrete base and the resulting saving is expected to pay for the press box.

Dr. Minnich also reported the present bleachers have been moved to the new field and that new metal goal posts will be inserted in the field.

Little-League Results

AMERICAN LEAGUE RESULTS
ORIOLES 3 - TIGERS 0
A no-hitter by Donley plus timely hitting by J. Young gave the Orioles the win. The losers had three baserunners, all on walks in the fourth. Soto was the losing hurler.

INDIANS 6 - YANKEES 4
Mike Maharg came back in to stop a last inning rally and beat the Yanks. Four runs in the fourth on three hits was the difference. Gockley led the attack with two singles Maharg struck-out 14 and gave up only one hit. David son was the loser.

INDIANS 16 - RED SOX 7
Two big five-run rallies made the difference as the Indians pounded out 14 hits. Joe Carl went 4 for 4 with a homer, while Wagaman, Kauffman and Reed each had two hits. Landis was four for four

Indians and Braves Hold League Leads

The Lititz Indians moved up into the lead of the local American Jr. Midget League this week after a series of upsets completely changed the league picture.

In the Midget-Midget division, the Brunneville Braves remained the team to beat with an impressive 11-1 mark. The Lititz Phillies, second-place contenders, spoiled the Braves' bid for a perfect record this week by upsetting them 13-2.

The league standings follow:

Brethren Upset Hoffys To Tie Softball League

The Brethren knocked Hoffy's out of first place in the Warwick Mens Softball League with an 11-10 win. The win put the two teams into a deadlock for first place. The Hoffy's loss opened the door for the other three teams of the League to sneak in for the title shot; Beford, V.F.W. and A.B.C. are one game back of the leaders.

The league standings follow:

Brethren	5	3
Hoffy's	5	3
V.F.W.	5	4 1/2
Beford	4	4 1
A.B.C.	4	4 1
Rothsville	1	6 3 1/2

The Brethren moved into a first place tie with Hoffy with a comeback victory in the last of the seventh, 11 to 10. Both teams scored five runs in the first inning. Hoffy's took an 8 to 6 lead at the end of the fifth and held a 10 to 8 lead going into the last of the seventh. Henry Gibble slammed a two run single in the final inning with the bases loaded to become the hero. Darwin Boyd of the Brethren was the fielding star with 3 outstanding catches to stop the Cafe Boys scoring in 3 different innings.

Bob Brubaker, Lloyd Bomberger and Darwin Boyd had three hits each for the winners; Carl Horst, a home run; Max Hoffman and Bruce Weaver had 3 hits for the losers. Winning pitcher, Lloyd Bomberger, Loser, Mike Hoffman.

The V.F.W. romped over the A.B.C. 19 to 6. The Vets scored nine runs in the first inning and added 5 runs in the 5th and 5 more runs in the 6th to gain the easy win. John Showers, Jim Shreiner and Mark Spade had home runs for the Vets. Ray Galbaugh and John Showers led the hitting for the Vets with 4 hits each. Jeff Hoaster and Woody Zug had 3 hits for the loser. Winning pitcher, Larry Gingrich; Loser, John Buch.

The A.B.C. won by a forfeit over Rothsville, 7-0.

Beford rallied for 6 runs in the last three innings to gain a comeback victory over V.F.W. 8 to 4. Al Hartman led the hitting for the Shoe Boys with 4 hits. Ray Strickler and John Showers led the hitting for the Vets with 2 hits each. Winning pitcher, Ray Kreider; Loser, L. Gingrich.

for the losers while Stryker and Reed each had two. Rynier was the winner, Dagen the loser.

ORIOLES 20 - YANKEES 2
Larry Donley pitched and hit the Orioles to a 20-2 whipping, by pounding out two homers and two doubles, fanning 16 and giving up only two hits. Kissinger also had four hits of the 18 for the winners. Donley was the winner, Nixdorf the loser.

ORIOLES 17 - RED SOX 5
Homers by Sample and Donley led the barrage against the Red Sox. Donley also had two doubles while Emmet helped with three hits, including a triple. Ludwig was the loser, Kissinger the winner.

TIGERS 14 - WHITE SOX 4
The Tigers pounded out 11 hits to whip the White Sox. Keith, Clark, Hoffer and Eshelman had two each while Boyer, Clark and E. Risser had

I hate smart kids with extra good memories!

In a weak moment (and finding an extra good buy) the boys each got their first fishing outfits. Inexpensive spinning outfits but you would have thought they received the best.

The first weekend they were satisfied to practice in the back yard.

Then David heard me mention the river and there was no peace until he had a promise of a trip.

There were about a dozen minnows left over from the week before and with three sad looking night crawlers to back them up we laid our plans.

This kid is watching entirely to many television programs... the first question he ask, as we started for the river, was "who gets the money if I catch one of those $1,000 fish they put in the river?"

When he was assured the cash would be all his, he decided he would split it with me.

"Where do they put the tag?" He wanted to know.

"Do you know how to unhook a tagged fish?"

"Will those tagged ones be big ones?"

This money complex stuck with him, for when he had his first bite... not over twenty minutes after we were out...

he said, "Look this one over when I get him in and see if he has a tag."

It didn't. But it did turn out to be a bass just a wee bit over legal. I talked him into throwing it back.

My line wasn't in the water two minutes until he had another one.

This one hit hard and Dave reeled like mad. I didn't bother getting my line in figuring it was another pan sized one.

When the fish broke water near the boat I began to sit up and take notice.

"Holy smokes Dave, that's a big one." All at once he had me doing it... this one could have a tag...

I told him to let it swim until I got the net... but now I had him excited and he grabbed the line and tried to lift it into the boat...

That did it... The hook came loose as the fish flipped and we'll never know if that was a thousand dollar one or not.

Oh yes, I did manage to catch one... a small cutfish... Dave had three bass and a cat... see what I mean about smart kids???

Any one for a free puppy? This offer may be a bit premature but it's bound to happen as sure as the sun will rise in the east.

TIGERS 14 - RED SOX 1 Soto helped his pitching cause with three singles to lead an 11-hit attack. Clark, Hoffer and Null each had two hits. The losers had four hits.

National League Results

PHILLIES 12 - REDS 2 The Phils used a big six-run second to whip the Reds. Bill Mitchell went the route giving up four hits, including a triple by Gordley. Carrier had three singles. Burkholder was the loser.

GIANTS 6 - DODGERS 5 Four runs in the fourth on two hits gave the Giants the win. Jerry Eshelman had two hits for the winners. Klopp two for the losers with a homer by Beittemitter. LaVigne was the winner. Eshelman the loser.

BRAVES 7 - GIANTS 5

Three runs in the fourth on two hits gave the Braves the win. Derr led the seven-hit attack with two, while LaVigne had two of the loser's four, including a double. Clark was the winner. Bucher the loser.

REDS 7 - DODGERS 6 Two last inning errors proved the Dodgers' downfall. Male and Burkholder led the attack with two hits each, including a triple by Male. The losers had three hits off winner Burkholder, who fanned ten. Albert was the loser in relief of Klopp and Peters.

BRAVES 0 - REDS 4

True to form, it was early runs that gave the league leaders the decision. The winners used six hits, including three doubles to pin the loss on Male. R. May pitched a four-hitter to win.

PHILLIES 18 - CARDINALS 8 An eight-run fourth on three hits enabled the Phils to win. The three hits were the only 3 of the game for the Phils, while the Cards had six, including two by Litzberger. Mitchell was the winner.

PHILLIES 18 - BRAVES 2 The Phils took advantage of several errors and 13 walks to upset the Braves, giving the league leaders their first loss. Kreider and Oeheme led the eight-hit attack with two each. The losers had three hits off winner Kreider. Loser was Clark.

WATER SURVEY

(Continued from page one) The preliminary survey, which is costing the borough $550, will classify all leaks as to large, medium and small in nature. It is to be completed within a week's time.

The Rankin Co. is presently completing a similar investigation for the city of Allentown.

The council also voted on Tuesday to purchase a water valve mechanical operator to facilitate turning of the valves which was previously a tedious manual job. The cost of the addition will be $609.

Both the new equipment and the survey will be paid from the Water Improvement fund.

School Board Turns Down Pool Project

The public pool, teacher resignations, and contracts were among added topics discussed at the School Board meeting last Wednesday night.

The board approved an agreement with the borough allowing the pool to use the parking area and the triangular lawn area owned by the district.

Included in this agreement are provisions for the repairs on the lot and permission for sidewalks and grading.

The agreement will cover a 25-year period unless the area is not satisfactorily maintained and policed by the borough. At the end of the 25 years the agreement will be continued a year to year basis.

The board vetoed the proposed winterizing of the pool on the grounds that it would raise the school tax by about two and one-half mills.

Fuhrman, who has accepted the position of principal of Manheim Central High School, presented his resignation, which was accepted with sincere regret.

Lloyd Ruess and Charles Carrier also submitted resignations.

The board named Robert T. Pollock, Middleburg, director of elementary education at a salary of $8,500. He replaces Dr. J. Richard Zerby, who resigned.

Elmer Rock received one bus contract for $21,240, while Fred Kauffman was awarded the other contract for $27,306.

Allebach reported that the Pilot Insurance Co. will insure students, teachers and administrators for 12 months, including summer programs for $3.50 per person. The insurance for senior high football players will be $20.

The finance chairman, Allebach, reported increases in tax revenue for the next year, provided that the increased assessments stand. The increase represents new houses built in the past year.

For Wards 1 and 3 the increase will be $8,200. Ward 2 reported no increase in revenue. Increase in Warwick Twp., $5,650 and in Elizabeth Twp., $681.

THE WORLD OUTDOORS

Some folks, admittedly prejudiced, will tell you that inch-or-inch and pound-for-pound the smallmouth bass is the gamiest of all game fish. Few can question the fact that he is a fighter; some can doubt his popularity. Originally ranging only from northern Georgia and Alabama to southern Canada and no further west from there to Manitoba, the smallmouth has been transplanted to the extent that he is now found in nearly every state in the union, parts of Canada and in Europe. This gallant fighter, along with his cousin the largemouth bass, are known as black bass.

Animals, like people, often have reputations they do not deserve. Hawks, owls and eagles are considered by many to be unwanted predators, yet each serves a useful purpose in nature's scheme of things and some 41 states have recognized this fact by laws that give full or partial protection to the three birds.

The rabbit is probably the most popular game animal in America while the most widely known and hunted big game animal is the whitetail deer.

Pheasants are not generally considered "tough" birds—but one did put a Canadian airline plane out of commission. The plane collided with the bird during takeoff. Result: the plane's cowling was smashed and the air compressor plugged.

Worth more than a passing thought is this quote from Gen. Omar Bradley: "Year after year our scenic treasures are being plundered by what we call a devastating civilization. If we are not careful, we shall leave our children a legacy of billion-dollar roads leading nowhere except to other congested places."

Council also considered reports from police of out-of-town salesmen using questionable tactics. It was decided that police should interview all door-to-door salesmen.

An ordinance prohibiting bow and arrows in the borough was also considered and tabled until a later date.

A petition for annexation from John Kendig II involving $0.4 acres of land in Warwick Twp., was accepted. Council also approved an ordinance for annexation.

Kerby Keller Is Honored

Kerby K. Keller, has been accepted as a Junior Member of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America, Brattleboro, Vermont. He qualified for the Certificate of Merit and Junior Membership plan through successful dairy project work with registered Holstein cattle.

Junior Membership entitles 4-H members and Vo-Ag students to all of the privileges of the national Holstein organization with the exception of voting. Under the plan, Junior Members register and transfer their animals at members' rates and receive regular reports of breed and Association progress.

More than 31,000 young Holstein breeders have participated in the program since its inauguration in 1923.

Blood Clot Is Fatal To Henry Lutz

Services were held on Tuesday for Henry G. Lutz, forty-eight, 53 E. Main St., who died on Friday from a blood clot in the lung after he had been the victim of a self-inflicted stab wound in the abdomen.

Lutz, a well-known athlete and personality, was found last week in his car near his home. It was reported that he had been despondent.

Dr. Gilbert N. Clime, deputy coroner, said that the clot resulted from bed confinement necessitated by both the stab wound and an operation to determine the extent of the injuries from the stabbing.

The Rev. James K. Rapp officiated at the services on Tuesday and interment was in the MacPelah Cemetery.

Born in this borough, he was a son of the late Benjamin F. and Nora Smith Lutz. He was employed at the Daffin Manufacturing Co., Lancaster.

Surviving are his wife, Rachael, and a son, David, both at home; and three brothers, John H. and Benjamin S., both of this borough, and Robert P., San Francisco, Calif.

POOL BIDS

(Continued from page one) The latest date the Council could ask for bids, and still have the pool completed by June, is the end of February. However, if council is forced to hold off until that date, there is a chance that the bids may be substantially higher than was expected.

Meanwhile the Council approved the intermediate plans with minor revisions and approved the agreement with the School Board for use of parking lots and a triangular piece of land.

The revisions to the preliminary plans included the changing of three steps to ramps. This will be more convenient and also safer according to officials.

The use of a brominator instead of a chlorinator was approved if the new system is approved shortly by the state. The brominator would be easier on the swimmers' eyes, safer, less odorous and more economical.

It was announced that the final plans will be finished by Aug. 22 and possibly earlier.

Until a more suitable name is suggested, council voted to call the pool the "Lititz Springs Swimming Pool."

Beautifying The Stream—On A Long-Range Plan!

A beautiful park area along the Lititz stream from one end of town to the other!

That dream is not as impossible as it might seem at first glance, if completed over a period of years. A long-range plan, for that matter, would likewise prevent it from becoming a costly one, too.

Simply the plan would be one in which the stream is widened and graded so as to permit attractive walks down one or both sides. A few small, artistic foot-bridges could span the stream at points where it would be necessary to transfer the walk from one side to the other, and the careful planting of suitable trees would transfer the entire length of the stream into a beautiful asset to be enjoyed by all.

Beautifying the stream has been a dream of many for years. Last week John Helter devoted his "Of Plug and Shell" column in the Record-Express to a discussion of this idea — and the response was overwhelming. One or two readers did feel "Lititz is tackling enough at this time and can't stand any more expenses" but merely spreading the development of the stream over a long period of years would solve most of the objections.

The important thing, as we see it, is to get a study of the stream improvement launched. Perhaps this is where the Lititz Planning Commission should step in as a sort of clearing house for ideas. If stream improvement, completed over a long period of years, is to be of a permanent nature, land releases would be necessary and only the borough can accomplish this legally.

We are glad to be able to report that the Conestoga Valley Commission will make a pollution survey of the stream this year. When the first geological survey was made by the U.S. Dept. of Health in 1948, a heavy pollution of the stream was reported. The condition of the stream, from all appearances, is much improved today — as the coming survey undoubtedly will show.

A stream beautification project, as we see it, will depend largely upon the voluntary help and co-operation it gets from the public, especially those living in the vicinity of the stream. If each property owner, for example, would assume the responsibility for bettering his or her own small stretch of the stream, it would make his or her home more pleasant a spot.

Years ago, it was taken for granted that the public would turn out and give a hand at cleaning up the stream in the park. Let's get back to this spirit so that as much as can be done without cost, will be done.

Beautifying the stream has unlimited possibilities — so let's give it a lot of thought and planning and get it started, even if only on a small scale!

"Mid the Turmoil"

How "Old" Are You?

Here's an interesting bit of philosophical writing which appeared in the Lititz Cog published by the local Rotary Club each week. We don't know where they got it but it is worth re-printing here, to wit:

How "Old" Are You?

Between the ages of 70 and 93 Commodore Vanderbilt added about 100 millions to his fortune.

Kant at 74 wrote his "Anthropology," "Metaphysics of Ethics," and "Strife of the Faculties."

Tintoretto at 74 painted the vast "Paradise," a canvas 74 feet by 30.

Verdi at 74 produced his masterpiece, "Othello"; at 80, "Falstaff"; and at 85, the famous "Ave Maria," "Stabat Mater," and "Te Deum."

Lamarck at 78 completed his great zoological work, "The Natural History of the Invertebrates."

Oliver W. Holmes at 78 wrote "Over the Teacups."

Cato at 80 began the study of Greek.

Goethe at 80 completed "Faust."

Tennyson at 83 wrote "Crossing the Bar."

Titian at 98 painted his historic picture, "The Battle of Lapanto."

And you think you're "old"?

This week we find several more East Main Street stores acquiring urns or planting flowers. The idea of beautifying our business section, which stirred up such a controversy at the very beginning, seems to really be getting a hold on folks. And, we predict, it won't be many years before our Main Street, from the fountain to Rome, will be the best-looking thoroughfare in any Lancaster County town. And beauty such as that is bound to reap rich rewards.

The Happy Habit

Perpetual Pollyannas are a bit sickening. But just the same, a key to happiness is, seemingly, the ability to accept and enjoy life as it comes. A lesson we learned early in life is that every-day problems are like a roller towel.

And we'll have to admit that some days we really have to dig deep to find something to cheer us up. But the harder one digs the more one develops the habit of at least looking for happiness. And it's a good habit and one we heartily recommend to a few of those chronic grouches who persist in crossing our path occasionally, darn it!

Believe it or not, but right after writing the above editorials we came across the following quotation: "He that is of a cheerful heart hath a continual feast." (Prov. 15:15). There are times when we get the idea our guardian angel takes a hand in what we read! Nuffsd!

It isn't the heat, it's the humidity!

Thank goodness we believe in the law of averages — which, if it works, means August is going to be one peachy month! So look forward to a raft of nice, comfortable week-ends, such as we haven't been getting so far this summer!

What is it that humidity does to the kiddies? But don't give up the ship, mothers — remember, there are only 49 days left 'til school starts again.

One of the bright spots this summer is the starting up again of the ol' fountain in front of the borough elementary school. It looks — and sounds — mighty pleasant but, the neighborhood kiddies haven't realized yet what a good spot it is to take a quick, cooling dip any hot afternoon.

That fountain was out of commission for so long that we missed a good opportunity to celebrate — meaning we shoulda had the band out and re-dedicated it all over again. In the old days folks used to look for chances to celebrate something-or-other instead of rushing off to the shore or mountains every week-end.

This week-end will be different, of course, with everybody and his brother rushing into local stores for some of those sensational bargains being advertised this week as Red Tag specials.

Notice - To-A-Certain-Letter-Writer: If you want to give everybody heck, have enough conviction to sign your name. The only place we have for anonymous letters of a critical nature is to turn them over to ol' Simon Legree Wastepaperbasket.

Overheard Down At The Soda Bar: "We lost, darn it, but only by one run — 19 to 18."

Incidentally, we get credit for listening to one good sermon last week. To be more specific, Rev. Nate Heffley, back on his annual visit, dropped into the Brain Emporium for a long chat which included evedything from being-kind-to-one-another to count-your-blessings, one-by-one.

We'll never forget the first year Nate returned after Walter Mann had erected his Danish chateau out on Lincoln Avenue. Nate took one look at it and launched a tirade against borough officials for having placed the disposal plant in a residential section. All of which we shouldn't mention, of course.

"The trouble with coming back home occasionally is that I find more and more of my older friends no longer are with us," Nate pointed out. Which is a fact we've been noticing more and more of late.

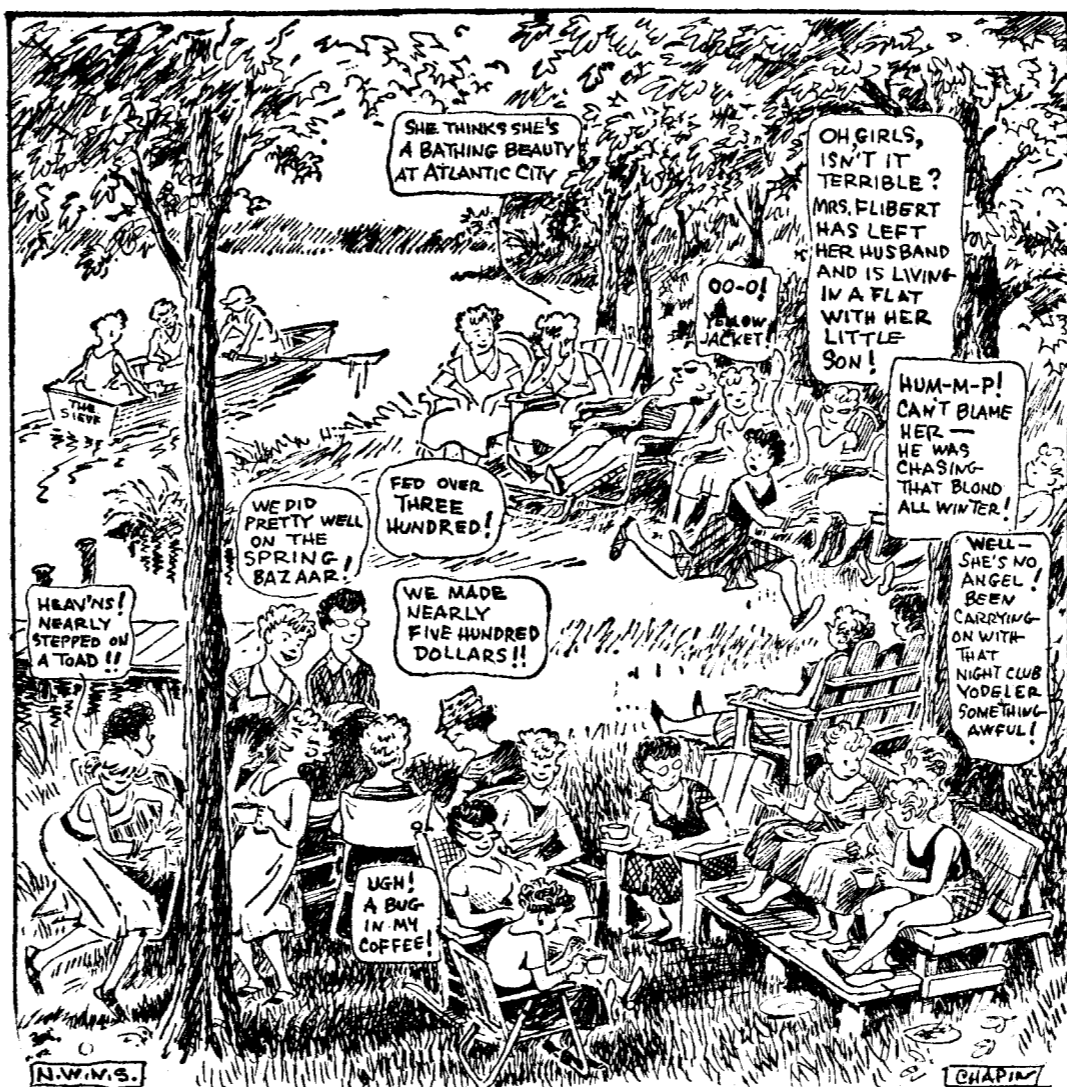

Thought-of-the-week: Kindness is one commodity of which we should spend more than we earn.

We know a philanthropic farmer up near Penryn — he planted water-melons right out along the road.

"Every time I walk up the cellar steps I get dizzy," a Front Street fellow tells us. No wonder, the stuff he's got down in the cellar — especially since dandelion season!

Nature made the mosquito and the

THE "WOMEN'S GUILD" HAS A PICNIC

And we'll never stop wondering exactly why!

Thank goodness that chess game is almost over — Carl Workman hasn't been able to trim his window for the past two weeks!

These miracle drugs are wonderful, of course, but if Elmer Bobst would only apply himself he might come up with a drug which would make us want to go to work on Monday morning. Only that's asking too much!

When your mind wanders, it isn't always a bad sign. For instance, when we were fixing up the story on Record-Express Hymn Poll last week, our mind wandered back to the late Bennie Lutz, who indisputably was most prolific writer of hymns in Lititz — if not in the entire county or state. And, we're sure, Bennie would have enjoyed sending in his favorite.

Swivel-Chair Reflections: This is a profitable week-end to stay in Lititz . . . Red Tag Days, you know . . . despite all other diversions for local kids, bike riding still remains the most popular . . . TV commercials have reached a new high or low of something-or-other by using Zsa Zsa Gabor to advertise a liquid cleaner . . . every housewife in America knows full well Zsa Zsa never scrubbed a flood in her life . . . despite the rainy weather we never before saw so many fine coats of tan . . . some of 'em must be the roll-on type . . . Bill Light is sure giving those Main Street trees a lot of lovin' care . . . tells us most of all of them are going to grow, too!

ACROSS the DESK IDEAS FROM OTHER EDITORS

From The Independent, Fuquay Springs, N.C.: Russia is so overwhelming a power now that it is hard to imagine any other nation dominating northern Europe. Yet some 250 years ago Sweden was dominant.

Today a minor state so peaceful that she stayed out of both world wars, Sweden in the 17th century had the strongest army in Europe. A succession of great kings had built up a powerful state. Then came the most brilliant monarch of the whole line — whereupon Sweden, ironically, became a second-rate power.

Charles XII of Sweden was one of the great generals of his time. A new life by Frans G. Bengtsson, the Swedish novelist, describes his career. When he became king at 15, the neighboring states thought it safe to combine and divide up the Swedish state.

But Charles defeated Denmark, Saxony, Poland and Russia in quick succession. His victory over the Russians at Narva was as overwhelming a battle as any in history.

Unfortunately, Charles did not know when to stop. Like Napoleon and Hitler later, he let the Russians draw him far away from his bases. Poltava, where Peter the Great beat him in 1709, made Russia the greatest northern power and is one of history's decisive battles. How decisive, events in our time have shown.

Khrushchev was similarly adamant on nuclear test ban talks (he wants them merged with general disarmament discussions), Laos (he insists that the United States is stalling the Geneva talks on this subject), and his plan for three-headed directorates of international organizations such as the United Nations and the proposed nuclear test ban inspection setup.

Some encouragement may also be extracted from Khrushchev's assertion that the talks with President Kennedy were worthwhile because they made possible "a first personal contact and an exchange of opinion." That is about what Mr. Kennedy said. Hopefully, it can be taken to indicate Soviet acceptance of the idea that better contact between the two great powers will be in their mutual interest.

A Breath of Life

By Rev. Joel A. Hartman

Pastor, St. Luke's United Church of Christ

Many of us, I suppose, started in astonishment when we read of the activities of a pacifistic group in Great Britain. In yesterday's papers, in publishing a guide map to bomb rocket sites and bomb bases the United States maintains in their country, this organization made a move which the government understandably labelled as nothing that would help the country. Nor does the action stand to profit the United States, for that matter.

Ironically the monthly news sheet in which the map appears is called "Sanity" and leads the fight for nuclear disarmament. With "Sanity" publishing such a map most Britains and Americans are probably thinking "Lunatic" in regards to this group of citizens of the British Empire.

But what of such a move? Wouldn't such a publication in our own nation set us in fear and the Russians in ecstasy? Aren't these bases, clothed in secrecy, our most sure "Defense for Peace?" Wouldn't we lay ourselves open to attack to abandon our nuclear armaments as such groups advocate? I'm not so sure. Tonight (Tuesday) we will hear from our own President why and how our armies are to be strengthened to meet the crisis and situation in Berlin. Why and how we must further balance the precarious state of arms already maintained in the "Cold" war. Long before this point we, I'm afraid, should have heard the voice of such groups; heard the Master: "Blessed are the peacemakers;" and learned from the pages of history that war or armaments for peace can lead only to futile bloodshed and the frantic trading of life for real estate, often called war — "Hot" war.

I don't wish to contemplate here the seriousness of a nuclear war and why the Communists and any one else wouldn't risk such a horrible holocaust. Actually our nation has already taken that risk in the way it chose to end World War II, because, we were told, this was the shortest and less costly way to victory. What guarantee have we that this again may not happen and this conclusion be given as the solution to a frustrating war of nerves. In ages past war has always evolved as the solution either chosen or forced upon the parties at odds.

There are no quick, sure answers as to how swords are actually turned into ploughshares or, in our own age, nuclear warheads traded for reactors and reapers. Our involvement is complex and the steps covered with confusion and greed, fear and suspicion. Yet I think the voices of groups opposed to war or preparations for war which maintain the peace, have been ignored too long. We have yet to win with war perhaps we should try just once to win with peace.

You say we'd lose everything? The Communists would swallow us up and we'd lose our very way of life. I can't say what we should do; the leaders of the world have no new solutions. I do, however, believe that losing our way of life or our life itself may not be so drastic. If this comes we face to lose our life, our land, our very air for breathing. We won't be the first to die without fighting. Christ lost His life because He refused to use violence. His ultimate victory is the only lasting one that the pages of history have recorded. Let us consider the still small voices in the world of "Lunacy." Our "Sane" methods have unraveled no startling answers.

Is it not better to lose our lives, even our country, for peace, than to slay and be slain in the futile contest men call war?

— Sara A. Hartman

There will be no peace in the world — justice between nations — as long as poverty, disease, ignorance, and prejudice exist. These four evils feed upon society like cancer and are the real causes of war.

Each of us beat our swords into plowshares and our spears into pruninghooks when we, in our own community, help those who are hungry and without clothes, sick and neglected; when we teach those who are uneducated and explain and lead those who are prejudiced.

No one of us can do these things on a world-wide basis, but we can locally. And if each of us did locally, then it would become world-wide.

Justice between Nations

"And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more." Micah 4:3

THIS is the ultimate desire of mankind. One might say it has always been the desire of peoples throughout the ages. Why then do we not have peace?

There will be no peace in the world — justice between nations — as long as poverty, disease, ignorance, and prejudice exist. These four evils feed upon society like cancer and are the real causes of war.

Each of us beat our swords into plowshares and our spears into pruninghooks when we, in our own community, help those who are hungry and without clothes, sick and neglected; when we teach those who are uneducated and explain and lead those who are prejudiced.

No one of us can do these things on a world-wide basis, but we can locally. And if each of us did locally, then it would become world-wide.

Hymn Singing Has Vital Role In Religious Faith — McVey

Record-Express Poll To Select Most Popular Hymn Continues

Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of five articles on hymn singing being printed by The Record-Express in connection with the poll to select the Warwick Area's most popular hymn. Send in your selection today. Results will be printed later.

By Bill McVey
The Christian Herald Singer
"I want to sing, Daddy." These words spoken by my three-and-a-half year old daughter were her greeting to me when I called home one day from out of town.

She was happy, so she wanted to sing. I listened to at least four unrecognizable verses after which she stopped, caught her breath and said, "I'm happy now."

My little daughter has discovered something that most of us have forgotten — everyone can be happier by singing.

Today's inhibitions, unknown by us as children, deter most of us from bursting out in song when in the company of others.

But there isn't one of us who doesn't want to sing. Singing is as natural to a human being as crying or laughing. Secretly, many of us, as untutored as we may be, love to sing. No one knows how many secret songsters applaud their own efforts in the privacy of their bathrooms or while driving alone.

Singing hymns creates an atmosphere of brotherhood — a feeling of unity. A divine bond blends all the uplifted voices together as one voice. As we sing a hymn we may forget our problems, our worries, even our fears, but more important, we find new strength through each hymn we sing, strength to face the adversities of life.

Great experiences seldom happen to most of us, but you can turn any Sunday morning, any family gathering, any social get-together into a great experience, really singing those hymns.

Perhaps a revival of hymn singing will re-echo around the world and serve as notice be-

Two Teachers Invite Pupils To Wedding

Two Warwick Union sixth grade teachers have invited their fellow teachers and past pupils to be guests of honor at their wedding ceremony on August 5.

June Ann Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rogers, and Ralph E. Smith will be united in marriage. Both are sixth grade teachers at the Lititz Elementary School.

The service will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, beginning at 2 p.m.

The couple is inviting all teachers and past students to attend.

To Officiate At Ordination

The Rt. Rev. Carl J. Helmich will leave on Friday for Edmonton, Canada, where he will officiate at the ordination of the Rev. Gordon Sommers as a Deacon in the Moravian Church and the Rev. Eric Schulze and the Rev. Clarence Henkelman as Presbyters.

The Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Sommers will leave immediately to serve in the mission in British Guiana, S. A. Mrs. Sommers is the former Carol Losensky of Lititz.

The Henkelmans will serve in the Children's Home in the Kwethluk District, Alaska and the Rev. Eric Schulze, pastor of the Calgary Congregation in Alberta, Canada.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

from The Bible

Suffer the little children to come unto me... for to such belongeth the kingdom of God.—(Luke 18:16).

As we consciously give our thought to all children as being kept in God's love, guided by His wisdom, protected by His presence, we give them a real blessing.

'Vorspiel' In Fourth Show Sat. At Ephrata Cloister

The fourth performance of the musical pageant "Vorspiel" will be held on the Ephrata Cloister grounds 9:00 p.m. Saturday, July 29th, Ephrata, with tours beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Outstanding among the scenes is the six singing sisters, featured working on illuminated manuscripts and singing hymns, acapella in German, written more than 200 years ago by Conrad Beissel, founder and leader of the monastic religious settlement at Ephrata. Selections sung in this scene are a remarkable blending of soprano, alto, and female tenor taken from the original manuscripts.

The garb worn by Jeanne Clemson, the leading lady, and men and women of the chorus, were designed by Mrs. Leon Welt, Ephrata, and Mrs. Olive G. Zehner, Reading, from drawings and sketches found in antique books and pamphlets. Garb worn by members conducting the tours represent the work garb of the "sisters" and also the attire of the children of the married "householders".

"Vorspiel" is produced and directed by Mr. Frederick Robinson and the chorus is under the direction of Mr. Russell Getz.

About 1000 A.D., the Chinese made their coins in the shape of the things they wanted to buy.

Graybill Receives Dairy Award

James Graybill, Lititz R2, was awarded a plaque by the Babson Brothers Co. in recognition of the ultra-modern dairy installation he has built. Graybill is milking 36 Holsteins in his modern ranch-style parlor building, which has a series of huge picture windows on the front. These enable him to milk in natural light most of the year.

Also winning a plaque for his role in selling and installing the dairy equipment was Harold R. Brandt, Elizabethtown.

LOCAL FIRE SCARE

An overheated motor in a sump pump at a Linden Hall faculty house caused a fire scare here on Saturday. A smoke ejector was used to clear the cottage.

Jr. Chamber To Meet Here

The Lititz Junior Chamber of Commerce will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight at 8:30 p.m. in the American Legion Home. Jaycee Paul Cramer will speak on automobiles.

Business to be covered includes the Public Library, the Farm Show project, Jaycee Picnic and the Teen-age dance.

Les Andes, State Director from Ephrata will attend the meeting and President Carl B. Kauffman will preside.

Donald Caldwell will be inducted into the organization at this meeting.

About one-third of the world's total coffee consumption is used by the people of the United States.

Farm Calendar

By Max Smith
Lancaster County Farm Agent

Chp Poultry Range

Best results are obtained by keeping the poultry range clipped short. Tender, succulent forage has the greatest feeding value for poultry, and F. H. Leuschner, Penn State extension poultry specialist, says the top 2 or 3 inches of grass and legumes has a protein value equal to the best growing mash.

Repellents Work

Science has found a way to make humans disagreeable to pesky insects, says J. O. Pepper, Penn State extension entomologist. Now you can work and eat outdoors, fish, hunt, or just sit in the shade without having to fight off mosquitoes, gnats, and other annoying insects. The newest repellents are quite pleasing to people but mightily distasteful to the pests.

Grass In Shade

Creeping red fescue, Chew-ing's fescue, Pea Trivialis, and Kentucky 31 fescue, are the grasses that get along best in the shade, reports Jack Harper, Penn State extension turf specialist.

Cut Fuel Bill

Fuel consumption on farm machines can be reduced an average of 15 per cent by correct adjustment and maintenance procedures, advises Burton S. Horne, Penn State extension agricultural engineer. About 75 per cent of farm machinery is out of adjustment, he claims, and unpainted, unshaded fuel storage tanks lose 3 per cent of their fuel, too.

Out Of The Past

(From the files of the Lititz Record and the Lititz Express)

10 YEARS AGO

August 9, 1951 Chicken thieves, unsatisfied with their first nights work, returned to the home of Ezra G. Brubaker, Lititz R3, and stole an estimated 200 chickens.

A huge subterranean tunnel and an underground stream of water as strong as the Lititz Stream but running north to the south, has been discovered by workmen engaged in digging sewer excavations here.

The White Oak Church of the Brethren shipped five heifers from this area to needy families in Western Germany.

Only one-third of the water pumped in the last six months was paid for borough figures revealed at the meeting last Wednesday.

20 YEARS AGO

July 31, 1941 The borough may enact a smoke ordinance in an effort to cut down the smoke nuisance here.

The editorial column again devoted space to the perennial summer plea to "cut weeds."

Mrs. Mary Gullies celebrated her ninety-seventh birthday on August 1st at her home on S. Broad St.

The Lititz Dramatic theatre moved into its second season this year with the production "Outward Bound." Stars in the production will be Bill Stark, Jean Shiley, and Bob Keller.

Local firemen and Lions Club members were poised here this week all set to clash in the donkey ball game to be played on the athletic field Monday night.

Miss Harriet Brubaker, Leaboyne, is spending the week with June Diehm, Front St.

30 YEARS AGO

August 6, 1931 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoff announced the birth of a son at the Lancaster General Hospital Saturday.

outfit, and very likely anybody desiring to receive one of the steeds can make some kind of a swap with the gypp. A three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Imhoff, E. Main St., fell into a bucket of scalding water while her mother was washing and was painfully burned. A letter was received at this office the other day from a party in England requesting a sample copy of the RECORD. As a bait the writer also wanted to know the terms of subscription. The request for a sample copy was denied, as we have learned that this ruse is frequently worked by foreigners, who find out the best paper in the town and then after securing it, write letters to persons whose names appeared in the issue, in order to attempt to swindle them.

Reader Scores Local Officials For High Taxes

July 17, 1961
 Dear Editor:
 My prediction came true. I told my friends when the School Board voted a 1 per cent wage deduction, it will be just a matter of time when we will be taxed more. Here, I wish we could ask the boss or personnel manager for a raise sufficient to meet our expenses at home and get whatever we ask like the School Board and Borough Council. I dare any School Board member to speak to our personnel manager about getting his employees a raise. I'm sure they would learn business places are not throwing money around carelessly. Seven thousand dollars for a garage alone for who's car or cars? I'm sure if this community would inspect these expenses carefully many would be unnecessary. We must save and skimp every turn we make, while most School Board and Borough Councilmen are business men. They are accustomed to passing the high cost of living along to their customers. But may I ask where do WE get the extra money when taxes and prices go up?

I think we as tax payers have the right to inspect and voice our opinion on how our hard earned money is wasted. You recall in the Lancaster paper a farmer from Big Flats, N.Y., who received two checks from the government one for $3,049 and another for $3,450 for keeping 104 acres out of production, yet you owe the government 10 cents and you pay 6 per cent interest, something somewhere is not working.

Who is at fault for all these students failing to pass each year? Oh I know, we have many lazy boys and girls, but why? Well one is both parents are compelled to work because of the high cost of living, high taxes. As a result the children are on their own. The Bible says, "Whatever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." So why not run the Borough and Schools so we need not raise the taxes every year or two and let the mothers of small children remain at home. I'm sure it will be better for us all.

One who is concerned about our Community, E. H. Spangler
 P.S. I'm so happy we will have the swimming pool finished by September or October, just in time for the Polar Bear Club to enjoy themselves.

THE PINEAPPLE SEASON lasts all year 'round—in crochets. See it as the motif of this lovely edging: it's both beautiful and basic—finishes a cloth that will show off any table setting. Try making it in pastel linen with darker pastel edging; perhaps pink—or sea green. With napkins to match, you'll have a luscious-looking table! Get free instructions with a stamped and self-addressed envelope. Just ask for Leaflet No. S-243.
