MUDDY MARCH MEANDERINGS.

Lot Bought—Numerous Movings—Straggle House Reopening—Business Notices—Proposed Councils—Etc. John S. Keller bought from Aaron Hatcher a lot of about half an acre with a tobacco shed, situated in rear of the residence of the former, for $383.

At present prices ruling here, you will have to pay 14 cents for your Easter eggs. On and after Monday next John M. Kissinger will have his retail pretzel department in Stauffer's store-room, now occupied by H. L. Oehme.

School Lyeum.

The Lititz High and Grammar school lyeum was called to order precisely at two o'clock, March 23, by the President, Haydn Ritter. The first on the programme was music. The minutes of the previous meeting were then read and approved.

Resolved, That begging from door to door should not be encouraged by giving the aid solicited. It was discussed affirmatively by Horace D. Grube, Chas Bricker and Laura Baum; negatively by Emma Erb, Elsie Huber and Daniel Groff. The question was decided in favor of the affirmative.

At the same time that Mr. Becker was speaking in the High School room Mr. Julius F. Sturgis was giving vent to his thoughts in the Intermediate room. The society will meet one week hence, April 6th. The following visitors were present: Mrs. Israel Erb, Mrs. El Barr, Misses Shenk, Mitchell, Sahm and Breeman; Messrs. Becker and Tshudy.

Why He Should be Supported.

I wish to draw the attention of the tax payers of the Northern district of Lancaster county, to the fact that Johnson Miller, who is a candidate for nomination for Assembly at the ensuing primary election, is the man to whose individual efforts we are more indebted for the defeat of the offensive Tax Collector's Bill, than any other person.

This township as well as many other townships save hundreds of dollars annually through his efforts. He is a man well fitted in every respect for the legislature, the peer of any other candidate. He has shown practically that he is for economy and reform. We have now an opportunity to nominate such a man as we are in need of.

Our old friend and neighbor Mr. F. P. Hart, will next week remove from our town to his former home in Strasburg. Mr. Hart has been with us for ten years, during which time he has been for the greater part, employed in government service, but he has also been closely and usefully with us in business, and we express our own feeling, when we say: We are sorry to see him go. He will be missed in the church of which he had become a member, and especially in the Sunday-school. The junior Bible class, which, under his fostering care had steadily increased in numbers, and which had frequently given evidence of its love and appreciation of him, especially regrets to see him leave, and we know that he, too, is loth to part with the interesting class he has so faithfully served for many years.

Mrs. Hart and daughter, Miss Ella, have made many warm friends. It seemed to be their especial pleasure to lend a helping hand, while here, wherever needed, and their pleasant companionship will be missed by a large circle of acquaintances.

Miss Cora Swigart's school ends this week. "Lager" at the Swan Hotel on Monday, after two months vacation. It is reported that H. B. Powell absconded on Tuesday of this week.

News from Brickerville. A valuable horse owned by Emanuel Hess, broke his leg on Saturday, and had to be killed. John Marks, Sr., the oldest citizen of our town, is suffering from gangrene.

We have received a copy of the book of the "Lands Family of Lancaster County," published by D. B. Lands of Lancaster, containing ninety pages. It is dedicated to the memory of that sturdy Swiss settler, Benjamin Lands and his brothers, from whom have honorably sprung the great number of Landses to be found in this county, all of whom are mentioned in this little book. The author went to considerable trouble and expense in securing the dates, names and residences of the Landses living and dead, and should be well rewarded for his work.

Our Neighbor Candidate.

Our Republican friends and readers, in going to the polls two weeks hence to cast their vote for the different offices to be filled, should exercise their own judgment before doing so. They should not allow the bosses to dictate to them, neither should they vote one way or the other simply because they are slated with this or that faction.

Among the numerous candidates for the legislature, there is one candidate whose name we should like to see go through. We refer to our low-man, Johnson Miller, and for this reason: He favors economy in the expenditure of public money, believes in a more equal system of taxation, and throughout is the farmers and taxpayers friend. Moreover, when he quit the farm and moved to Lititz, he did not retire as most farmers do when they remove to a town, but became a busy, enterprising citizen. He is in for improvements. He was the originator of the Lancaster County Heil Insurance Company, which has been of vast good to the tobacco grower and a benefit to the town. He was instrumental in organizing the Lititz Water Co. and has done more work for its welfare than most of its members, and through his good housekeeping the company was able to pay a reasonable dividend in the first year of its existence.

To see a firm start on a small scale, to gradually grow, not in mushroom manner, but little by little each year, indicates success beyond a doubt. It means that the firm is healthy and its patronage increasing. This is what we wish to see. It is such firms who are doing credit to our town, and who are well to do.

On Saturday and Sunday, the quarterly conference convened in the Evangelical Church at this place. On Sunday forenoon, after a spirited sermon by the Rev. Elder Shirke, the Holy Communion was commemorated by a goodly number. The church was well filled during all the services of the day.

No serious accident has as yet happened, but should the board walk remain in the dilapidated condition that it now is, the amount of doctor bills incurred to move that it would cost too much to have the board walk renewed.

On Monday Miss Ella Buch attained her sixteenth birthday. In the evening a number of her young friends by surprise called upon her in a body and had a merry time.

The first of April—settlement day—is close at hand, and we find many yet in arrears for subscription to the Record and there are also numerous charges on our books for job work and advertising. The individual amounts are not large, but being numerous, sum up to a considerable amount, and being scattered about, it is difficult to trace them. We hope, therefore, that all who owe themselves indebted to us will make a special effort to square up accounts at once, as we are in need of all due cash so as to enable us to meet our obligations.

Remainder he is an honest and upright man and no professional office hunter. I have written this with out his solicitation or knowledge; in fact I have not spoken a word to him relating to his canvass, but do it on account of the importance of the office.

—Good Friday.—Tobacco buyers are buying. —Now is the time to pay up. —Arbor day on the 27th of April. —Vote for E. L. Reinhold for Recorder.

Mr. Christian is the owner of a young well-bred horse which he purchased at Lebanon. Mr. Jacob Gable, who for some time was a partner in the store of P. K. Bomberger, moved to Lititz this week and will enter the store of J. Stamp. Mr. Gable was well liked in the community, being remembered as having been a business characteristis. Israel Huter will assist Mr. Bomberger, but not as a member of the firm. Mr. Bomberger will conduct the store alone.

Mr. Jacob Diehm, the popular Pennville horse dealer, has about twenty horses which he expects to ship to Philadelphia in about a week. The horse trade is so active in our locality that ere long we can devote some space to "horse notes."

—If you have a note to pay in bank on April 1st, remember that it must be paid March 31st, as the 1st comes on Sunday. —Every Republican voter in the township of Warwick should give their home candidates Roebuck and Miller their support. —Never judge by appearances. A shabby coat may contain an editor, while a man wearing a high topped plug hat and supporting a cane may be a delinquent subscriber. —Try Miller's dyspepsia cure, the first dose will give you immediate relief, and by continuing its use for a short time, will effectually cure the worst cases. Sold at the old Lititz drug store.

When Baby was sick, we cared for Castoria. When she became a Child, we gave her Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Personal Points.

Miss Mollie Swartz, of Lancaster, spent Tuesday last among Lititz friends, and says she is as far from being married as ever. Mr. Menno Fry of Lancaster is on his way home from California. Jacob B. Gable moved to Lititz this week.

Down in Reading a beggar was arrested while counting his money, and he showed by a book in which he kept a cash account, that he had $179, as the proceeds of four weeks' begging. Henry B. Wagner and wife, of Pott, have made a donation to H. S. Danner, of Manheim township.

These were the words that passed from one to the other of our citizens on Wednesday afternoon. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. A. L. Longenecker of this place, and was in the 21st year of her age, well known and highly respected in this community. In the latter part of September last she removed to Cleveland, Ohio, and since that time has resided with Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Kline (nee Miss Laura J. Keller) formerly of this Borough.

On Saturday and Sunday, the quarterly conference convened in the Evangelical Church at this place. On Sunday forenoon, after a spirited sermon by the Rev. Elder Shirke, the Holy Communion was commemorated by a goodly number. The church was well filled during all the services of the day.

THE FOURTH OF JULY

CELEBRATED BY POLITICAL OFFENDERS IN A RUSSIAN PRISON.

Three Hundred of the Czar's "Suspects" Remember the Centennial of American Independence—Flags, Streamers, Songs and Murals—A Touching Spectacle.

In the summer of 1876, when there were confined in the house of detention more than 300 political offenders, it was decided to have a general prison celebration of the centennial Fourth of July—the birthday of the American republic. As early as the first week in June the prisoners began to make preparations for the proposed celebration.

By breaks in the latitude of St. Petersburg in summer and on the morning of the Fourth of July, 1876, before the first midnight cannon announced the beginning of the great national celebration in Philadelphia, hundreds of American flags and streamers of red, white and blue fluttered from the grated windows of the political prisoners.

The celebration, of course, was soon over. The prison guard, although they had never heard of the Declaration of Independence and did not understand the significance of this extraordinary demonstration, promptly seized and removed the flags and tricolor streamers.

ONCE BALD, ALWAYS BALD.

Bitter Dissertation of a Fashionable Hairdresser—No Hair Restorative.

"Can hair be made to grow on bald heads?" said a fashionable hairdresser, in response to a reporter's inquiry. "Yes and no. If a person becomes bald owing to sickness, the hair can be made to grow again. In fact, it will grow again without making, but if it is lost owing to the natural loss of its vitality, it will not grow again, and nothing has ever been discovered that will restore it."
