Borough Releases Schedule For Sweeping Of Streets

By Keith Armstrong

Beginning on Wednesday, April 25th, the Borough will be sweeping its streets. We do not intend to issue a series of parking tickets (such as Lancaster City) for people who park on the streets to be swept.

We hope that by notifying all the citizens in advance, through the Record-Express, that we can assure nearly 100% cooperation in keeping the streets clear of parked cars.

The following are the streets scheduled during the one week that we will have a sweeper. If we are rained out, we will continue on the schedule, returning to the areas rained out at a later date.

The following will be the schedule for sweeping:

Cedar Street is the dividing line between East and West.

April 25th: West Half of Ward II, Saturday, April 28th; East Half of Ward I, Friday, April 27th; West Half of Ward I, Thursday, April 26th; East Half of Ward III, Monday, April 30th; West Half of Ward III, Tuesday, May 1st.

This will mean that the downtown shopping area will be swept while the stores are closed on Thursday afternoon.

These areas, broken down into streets, would be as follows:

April 25th: East side Cedar Street from the railroad to the Borough limits; All of Leaman; East New Street; Front Street East of Cedar; Water Street from the railroad to the Borough limits; North St.; Noble Street; Locust St. from the railroad north; Elm Street north of Front; Rome Road; Oak Street.

April 26th: West side of Cedar from the railroad to Marion; Orange Street; Maple Street; Center Street; Lemon Street; North side Marion Street; Main Street from Cedar to Spruce; Broad Street from the railroad to Marion; Walnut Street; Spruce Street from the Recreation Center to Marion.

April 27th: East side of Cedar Street from the railroad to Marion; East Main St. from Cedar St. to the Borough limits; Church Street; Willow Street; Water Street from Main to the Railroad; Locust Street from the railroad to Marion St.; Forney Drive; Plum Street; Elm St. from Main to North Alley.

April 28th: West side Cedar from the Railroad to the Borough limits; Front St. from Broad St. to Cedar St.; Liberty St.; North New Street; Lincoln Ave.; Market St.; Klein St.; Warwick St.; Walnut St. north of Lincoln; North Broad St. from the railroad to the Borough limits; Manheim Street.

The Record-Express Celebrates It's Eighty-fifth

A CAKE FOR THE RECORD - EXPRESS

Zook Founded Sunbeam In 1877

The Lititz Record-Express is eighty-five years old this week!

For exactly eighty-five years ago the late John G. Zook, long editor of the Express, laboriously rolled from the press the first neat copies of the Sunbeam, the forerunner of the Express.

The Sunbeam office was located at 22 E. Main Street, now occupied by Kreider Bros. TV and located directly in front of the present Record-Express office. The press was hand-fed and operated by a second person turning a huge wheel at the side of the contraption.

The Sunbeam was a monthly publication and was described in its first issue as "A Journal of Literature, Education and General Intelligence." Its contents included a number of poems, several short stories, essays and editorials upon such topics as "Reputation and Character", "Education in Switzerland", and "Marriage Among the Ancients".

Several columns similar to those in modern magazines and newspapers also were included in the Sunbeam. These were labeled as "Wit and Humor", and "Thought Gems". Its advertising columns principally advertised pianos, organs and sewing machines, although several patent medicines made up in ambitious promises what they lacked in space.

The Sunbeam was printed in inches which measured 9 inches by 12 inches and included three columns of type. Each issue contained 16 pages. The Sunbeam continued until September 9, 1881, when it was changed into an eight column newspaper and its name was changed to the Lititz Express.

The Lititz Record, which merged with the Express in 1937, came into being in September, 1877, and was established by the late Frank Buch.

All local papers of the early days printed the name of the town as Litiz, the second "T" being added about 1884 when the up-and-coming businessmen of the town of that day agreed that persons from other sections would be able to pronounce the name much easier if the second "T" were added.

No action of any legal nature was taken by the spelling changed by common agreement, historians tell us. When the borough was incorporated in 1886 the first borough fathers spelled the name as it is spelled today.

The School Board Budget!

Last Wednesday evening, in a meeting lasting about three hours, the Legal and Finance committee of the school board presented its tentative budget for the 1962-63 school year.

A great many facts and figures came out of this meeting as the Board attempted to prove to the taxpayers that increased spending and no millage cut, even with the new, higher assessments, will be the order of business next year.

The total proposed expenditure to operate the system is $1,355,135, or an increase of about $163,000 over last year. Add to this a $60,000 deficit carry-over and you have a total of $223,000 more in taxes needed for the 62-63 school year.

Expenses in almost every phase of the operation are UP. In fact, about the only mention of a decrease cost was that it would take about $5,000 less to collect the school tax.

Against the costs the Board stated that income from sources other than local taxation would be $206,300 from the wage tax (an increase of $26,000) and about $570,000 from state reimbursements (a decrease of about $19,000) and $8,100 other sources. This all means it would be necessary to get about $570,000 plus the $60,000 deficit from local taxation. With each mill representing about $11,600 under the new assessments, those figures do not indicate any cut in school taxes.

The insinuation was made that the present board is not responsible for the $60,000 deficit. That "someone no longer associated with the board" was responsible. It was not made clear who or why this is, but it should be. It was stated that millage should have gone up by about 6 mills last year and there would not have been a deficit!

It is also very difficult to comprehend that there is hardly a place for economy in the entire budget. We are for a good education for the Warwick students. But, other boards in this county with the same problems of higher educational costs are providing the same quality of education at less cost per student.

We'll grant that certain mandatory state requirements, salaries for new teachers, and the like can necessitate increased costs. But, then in a year when assessments have increased 38% and the board can get the same amount of tax dollars with a 36 mill levy, it is difficult to understand why some millage cut is not possible.

The board should and must scrutinize very closely each and every expenditure to keep costs DOWN.

Why during 62-63 is it going to cost $480 to educate an area student, when it cost only $415 three years ago? About a 13% increase.

Why is there a $60,000 deficit from last year? These and many other questions have been asked since last Wednesday's meeting.

Fall-Out Shelters

Fall-out shelters are going out of style, if current sales of shelter-building firms are any indication.

Interest in shelters drifted along uncertainly for several years until last summer, when international crises and government action brought a tremendous surge in sales. Many construction companies — anticipating a long-term building boom — set up well-staffed subsidiaries or expanded their operations into the shelter field. Promotion was intensive and public interest soared. So did sales.

But the interest proved short-lived, and the so-called "shelter boom" turned out to be a bust. Sales have declined rapidly in past months. Among the reasons are lessening of international tensions, the emphasis on community rather than individual shelters and the heated controversy over the psychological and moral implications of the shelters.

In recent weeks dozens of large companies have shut down their shelter-building sidelines, and many more small firms have completely folded, as a result of public apathy. Some shelter manufacturers continue to have modest sales, most of them in the form of converting rooms in new homes into combination shelter-family room structures.

Taxpayers were shocked to learn that a cut is not possible with a 38% increase in assessments.

The board is tentatively scheduled to adopt this new budget Wednesday, April 18. They must take a hard second look at the expense increases.

"Mid the Turmoil"

With the Record-Express observing its eighty-fifth birthday this week, we sorta got that old feeling just thinking about it.

Eighty-five years is a mighty long period of time. But way back in the second week of April in the year 1877 when John Zook set the type for the first copy of The Sunbeam several copies of which we still have in our possession, he too, had a colyum which he called "Wit and Humor."

Here's an example of his humor: "Vill you dake someding?", said a German teetotaler to a friend while standing near a tavern. "I don't care if I do," was the reply. "Vell den, lets us dake a walk."

That first issue of the Sunbeam even had a riddle: "What interjection is of the feminine gender?" Answer: "A-llass!"

Before we lay down our copy of The Sunbeam here's two more from that very first "Turmoil" colyum: "If a falsehood paralyzed the tongue, what a death-like silence would pervade society" and "Soliloquy by a tippler — The public always notices when you have been drinking but never when you are thirsty."

Anw know what? We bet it would sorta please John Zook if he knew that more than three-quarters of a century after he wrote the above we had it in our Turmoil colyum!

In this mornings' mail was the following article from Blanche Allebach, 2 Church Square. She mentions it's from a New Jersey newspaper.

Raising A Juvenile Delinquent
Twelve rules for raising a juvenile delinquent are as follows:

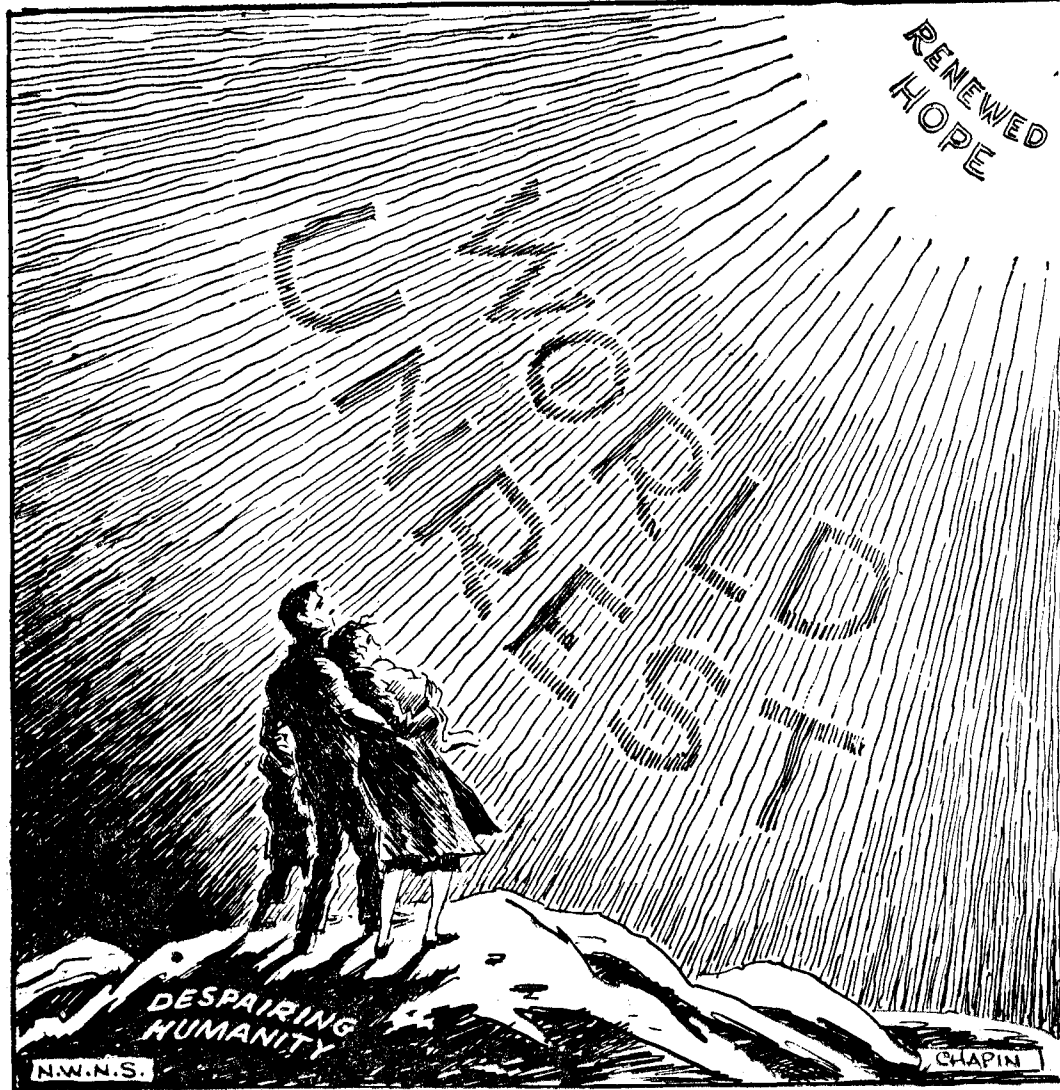

1. Begin with infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way, he will grow up believing the world owes him a living.
2. When he picks up "bad" words or "dirty" words, laugh at him. That will make him think he is "cute." He will run off and pick up some other words that will blow the top off your head.
3. Never give him any spiritual training until he is 21, and then let him decide for himself. By the same logic, never teach him the English language. Maybe when he is old enough he will want to speak Bantu.
4. Praise him in his presence to all the neighbors; show how much smarter he is than the neighbors' children.
5. Avoid the use of the word "wrong." It may develop in the child a "guilt complex." This will prepare him to believe that when he is punished later on for stealing cars or assaulting women that society is against him" and that he is being "persecuted."
6. Pick up everything after him: his shoes, his books, his clothes. Do everything for him, so that he will be experienced in throwing burdens on others.
7. Let him read anything he wants. Have no concern whatever for what goes into his mind. Provide him with Lilly cups for his lips, but let his brain drink out of any dirty container for words and ideas.
8. Quarrel frequently in the presence of your children. In this way, they will be prepared for broken homes later on.
9. Give him all the spending money he wants; never let him earn his own.
10. Satisfy every craving of the child for food, drinks, and everything that has to do with the sense of taste and touch, gratifying every sensual desire.
11. Take his part against policemen, teachers, and neighbors. They are all "prejudiced" against your child.
12. When he gets into trouble, always defend yourself and say, "I never could do anything with him."

Two weeks ago in this column we welcomed spring. But, after seeing the snow flakes this past week-end . . . we're leavin' all future weather prognostication to the "weatherman."

Overhear on Main Street . . . some local fisherman caught trout over the week-end ranging up to 19 inches.

Happy Easter!

Letter To The Editor

Editor: Record Express

First let me express appreciation for your publishing the differing opinions regarding legislation for medical care of the aged. I think it is only fair your readers know that the statement of mine which was printed in last week's Record-Express was prepared specifically for and presented to the State and Local Welfare Commissions hearings at Harrisburg, April 4, 1962. It dealt with the problem as related to the State and County Welfare Programs and therefore did not cover all the issues involved. I would like to call attention to a few additional general items.

It seems to me the real issue before our legislators and the American voters is whether we shall continue only our present program of charity aid to the increasing number of older people who have not adequately planned financially for the ever-increasing number of years given to them by modern medical science, or whether we should launch out into a government program which would assist the American people to plan for retirement by regular withholdings during working years so that at age 65 they would have the equivalent of a paid up hospitalization insurance policy for life.

It is a fact, of course, that the present Kerr-Mills program would of necessity have to be continued to care for those not covered by social security. Each day more and more people are being covered by social security so that if the King-Anderson Bill were passed the number to be cared for by charity would become less and less.

The contention that there is no need for this type of planning can easily be refuted. Ask any 10 older retired people you know if they feel confident that their financial reserves will see them through; if they have, or will be able to continue, to afford voluntary hospitalization insurance; if they fear the necessity of someday becoming completely dependent upon their children or public assistance. I predict that not more than two of the ten would feel confident in these matters.

As to the concern about socialized medicine. Let me refer you to an article by the former Secretary of Health Education and Welfare, Arthur S. Flemming, titled "Care of the Aged" . . . and this Nonsense about Socialized Medi-

From The Tallahassee Tribune, Tallahassee, Alabama: A writer for one of the better daily newspapers of the nation pointed up a problem last week that certainly is of concern to most everyone, especially housewives and grocery advertising copy writers. And that is the tendency to have so many different standards of weights and measures.

This particular writer, along with a lady expert she quoted, points out that "Some merchants are weighing the thumb today, along with the meat." Of course that has been going on since Eve shortchanged Adam when she took the first and biggest bite out of that Delicious apple. The thing about that is to know your merchant. It takes somewhat less than an eagle eye to spot a dishonest one.

The expert is quoted further, ridiculing the odd weight package as follows: "Would the consumer — given a choice — deliberately ask for 5½ ounces of potatoes or 1 pint, 6 ounces of pancake syrup?" We'll have to go along there. And we imagine most retailers feel the same way. Certainly most of the mistakes we have made in laying out grocery ads stem from fouling up on whether 30¢ cans are four for a dollar or 2½ cans. Or maybe it's No. 2 cans that are $3.03 per gallon.

"Time was," quoth the expert, "when foods of all kinds were carefully weighed on the grocery scales with the consumer watching the indicator. Today the scales have gone. There is no way of checking those 5½ ounces, even if the purchaser wanted to do so."

And what does the expert recommend? "Legislation that will enable us to enjoy our traditional consumer rights when shopping for any packaged goods."

And that is where this newspaper dissents. We've got more legislation on the books now than can be enforced. If you think you're getting gyped on the stated weight of pre-packaged merchandise, you have a built-in remedy. There isn't a grocery supermarket in America that doesn't have a scale in its produce department. And all you have to do is sashay over and weigh it yourself. Too much trouble? Any courteous employee of any store in the Tallahassee area will do it for you. No more laws, ma'am. Especially about pork chops.

added. However, when we consider that these increased taxes would now provide for our aged, and for us, at the time of our retirement, the equivalent of a paid up hospitalization insurance policy, it will be well worth the cost. There is evidence that the majority of the American people favor this type of planning for retirement years. Let me quote from the Congressional Record, remarks made by the Honorable Clinton P. Anderson, Monday, June 12, 1961, speaking of the King-Anderson Bill. "The Bill has met with strong opposition from the American Medical Association which claims that this would be tantamount to "Socialized Medicine" and would limit patients' choice of doctor. About one person in four in the population shares in the AMA's op-

A Breath of Life

Copyright — THE UPPER ROOM

Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. (Luke 22:46.)

The Garden of Gethsemane was a place of beauty and serenity on the western slope of the Mount of Olives. In this place, we learn from Luke and John, Jesus often sought quiet seclusion with His disciples.

Here was the scene of Christ's agony and submission to the will of His Father. The experience of Jesus in the Garden has made it a sacred spot.

Although those closest to Jesus were not aware of the impending events, He knew the gravity of His mission. Near His sleeping followers, Jesus prepared Himself for the greatest task of all time—redeeming a lost world. He prayed, saying, "O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done."

Are we asleep, or are we aware of our individual responsibility for the cause of Christ that God has placed upon us?

PRAYER: Gracious Father, today keep us alert to the charge that is ours in the furtherance of Thy kingdom. Help us prepare, through study of Thy Word and by prayer, for every challenge that comes to us. In Christ's name Amen.

Find the Moment

"Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in paradise." St. Luke 23:43

Looking into the tortured, pensive eyes of one of the thieves being crucified with Him, Jesus uttered these words:

There is a promise in these words for our modern world and each individual, the same promise that has existed since Jesus spoke them.

"Lord, remember me when Thou comest into Thy kingdom," the thief asked. And Jesus made his promise, "Today shalt thou be with me in paradise."

At that awesome moment, with the sun veiled and a chilling silence and gloom hanging over the countryside, someone asked and Jesus gave.

Such moments will continue to be throughout eternity and each individual must find his moment. It is the great search for the modern man.

Christ Reigns

Lesson for April 22, 1962

WHAT does Easter mean? Most grown people know it means more than Easter parades and Easter music. Perhaps most grown people, whether they are Christians or not, are aware that Easter goes back to a story of long ago, when in a springtime garden One who had been killed rose again in glorious life. Most Christians believe this story is true; but even those who do not, wish it could have been. Perhaps there is nothing in the Bible which an unbeliever would like to believe, more than the story of Easter.

The reason for this meets the eye at once. If the Easter story is true, if it actually happened, as the Bible witnesses plainly say it did, then "life and immortality have been brought to life" as one New Testament writer says. What assurance have we that death is not the last word for man? The Resurrection of Christ is the best assurance there is.

Christ the conqueror

There is another side of the meaning of Easter, often overlooked, yet very important in the New Testament picture of things. It is expressed in the ancient Latin expression, "Christus Victor, Christus the Conqueror." This is brought out in a little-read chapter of the Bible, Hebrews 1. Here the emphasis is on power. The Resurrection (as this may seem) is not mentioned; the thought of the writer goes from the Cross ("purification for sins") to the Throne of the universe. Christ's appearances to the disciples are all by-passed in silence here. Christ is seen as sharing the Throne of God himself. It makes no difference whether we take the expressions literally or not; the meaning is clear enough. This is what we are challenged to believe: that Christ now shares the power of the "Majesty on high," the God of all the universes. The letter to the Hebrews was first read by people who lived in the Roman Empire, perhaps in Rome itself. They would be familiar with the custom of an emperor sharing his authority with a general who had been victorious in war.

—Over sin and death

What has Jesus conquered? The short but thrilling answer is: Sin and Death. These are the two great enemies of mankind. They have not been conquered even yet in the sense that they have been abolished. But it can be noticed that when an individual identifies himself with Christ, he no longer cringes at the threat of sin and death. He is enabled—as Paul said, by the same power that brought Jesus Christ from the dead—to rise above sin to be "set free from sin." And although he faces death as much as any other man, the Christian does not fear it. This is not saying that no one can be a Christian who fears death. But we recall the familiar story of John Wesley and the storm at sea. Wesley was at that time a Christian, but that storm frightened him terribly. Then he discovered a group of Moravians happily singing hymns, not worried by the storm at all. They expected the ship to go down, just as Wesley did; but he was looking at death while they were looking through it. Wesley's whole life was changed by that incident.

—Over ourselves

So Christ has set men free... yet not free to do as we please. Whatever "at the right hand of the Majesty on high" can mean, must mean at least this: that the authority of Christ is on a level with the authority of God. Christ does not set us free for a kind of anarchy; a Christian is not a masterless man. He who is Lord over sin and death, over all the "powers of darkness," is Lord over those who are called by his title—Christians. But is this really so? Isn't it true, too often, that the only difference between Christian and non-Christian is in words only? The non-Christian says: "Jesus Christ is not Lord nor Savior." The Christian says, "Christ is Lord and Savior. And there too many Christians-in-word leave it. We are all quite willing to be saved; we are not so willing to take orders. The Christian-in-word becomes a Christian-in-fact when as he begins to ask the same question Paul did: Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?"

174 Students On Honor Roll Under New Marking System

One hundred and seventy-four Warwick High School students made the Honor Roll this marking period as for the first time the new eligibility system came into effect.

Formerly, a student had to have a B average or better in ALL subjects to be eligible for the Honor Roll. Now, however, the student may have a C in one minor subject and still be eligible for the Roll.

This new system was put into effect after a number of boys and girls were kept off the Honor Roll due to having a C in a minor subject such as art, music, etc., which are held only once a week. The School Board held that since good grades in these minor subjects are due more to a natural talent than to study that they should not be counted equally with academic subjects.

This plan was brought up by William Owen at a School Board meeting just after the last marking period.

Members of the Honor Roll for the third marking period are:

12A. James Boose, Rochelle Clair, Terry Dagen, James Diehm.

position to the move although not necessarily the AMA's reasons for opposing it."

"The issue was put to a carefully selected sample of 1,536 adults by Gallup Poll interviewers as follows: "Would you favor or oppose having the social security tax increased in order to pay for old age medical insurance?"

The nationwide vote:
Favor — 67 percent; Oppose — 26 percent; No Opinion — 7 percent.

It is my feeling that organized medicine is unwise in opposing this plan which is believed by the majority of the population to be the best for them and the nation. Because of the vigorous campaign of the American Medical Association ($163,000.00 worth), the State Medical Society ($10,000.00 worth), and our own County Society ($200.00 worth), against the King-Anderson Bill, I have renewed my own efforts in the opposite direction.

I have occasion to care for many older people and I think I have come to understand their feelings. I look at this issue from the Christian viewpoint of love and understanding. Our older people do not want to be forced to beg for charity. They would much prefer and strongly advise payment of increased taxes during working years to insure dignified care rather than charity during retirement.

I wish that all who feel as I do on this issue might speak up, sway public opinion and let our legislators know our sincere feelings.

Cordially yours,
Franklin K. Cassel, M.D.

Meet The Teacher

On January 22, 1962, Mr. John Kovich, a mid-year graduate of Bloomsburg State College, launched his teaching career as a member of the Lititz Elementary School faculty.

Mr. Kovich is the son of Mrs. Verna Kovich and the late John Kovich, Sr., and calls St. Clair, Pennsylvania, his hometown. He attended elementary and secondary school in St. Clair and graduated from high school in the spring of 1952.

While in high school he was a member of the Boy Scouts, the Conservation Club, the high school Glee Club, and the Spanish Club.

After high school graduation Mr. Kovich enlisted in the United States Air Force where he served an enlistment of four years. During his sojourn with the military he saw duty as an electrician, personnel specialist and chaplain's assistant. His tour of duty took him to many parts of the United States and north of the border to Canada. Activity-wise he sang with his Base Glee Club and participated in many service sports programs, specializing in football and basketball.

After being discharged from the service John began studies at the Pennsylvania State University Center at Pottsville.

At the end of his first academic year he temporarily set aside his plans for a college education and worked for a year in Detroit, Michigan, as an electrician for Western Electric.

January of 1959 found him back in college, this time as a special education major at Bloomsburg State College while in undergraduate school his extra-curricular activities included: singing in the College Choir, membership in the Council for Exceptional Children, the Student Pennsylvania State Education Association, and Student National Education Association.

In order to supplement both his academic and financial programs he worked part-time at the hospital in Bloomsburg.

In January of this year he received a Bachelor of Science Degree with a major in the field of Special Education.

John's hobbies are swimming, hunting, camping, arts and crafts, and music. When his busy schedule permits (and a first year teacher's schedule is a mighty busy one) he enjoys traveling.

His plans for the immediate future include work towards a Master's Degree at Pennsylvania State University and further pursuit of his interests in special education.

Professionally he is a member of the Council for Exceptional Children, the Pennsylvania State Education Association, and the National Education Association.

Mr. John Kovich

Ask any of the students in his class at school and they'll be quick to tell you that their Mr. Kovich is quite a fellow; a good friend and a wonderful teacher. Ask any member of the faculty and you'll be told that John is an interesting, energetic and gifted fellow teacher with an engaging manner that generates friendship and respect from all who know him.

Any school would indeed be fortunate to acquire the professional services of a young teacher so brimming with new ideas and talent.

Mr. Kovich has expressed a desire to someday write and have published an article about the interesting and challenging facets of Special Education. So, it's very possible that someday, in the not so distant future, he may add to his accomplishments in the field of teaching those in the field of journalism.

APRIL 24, 1952

General Dwight Eisenhower, still in far-away Europe, was credited with "bringing out the vote" in Lititz last Tuesday when a total of 922 votes were cast as compared with 450 in the presidential primary of four years ago.

Rev. Carl J. Helmich, D.D., will be consecrated a bishop in the Moravian Church at a special service to be held this Sunday evening. Dr. Helmich will be the 253rd bishop consecrated since the organization of the denomination in 1457.

Officers were elected for the coming year by the Lititz Woman's Club Monday evening. Those elected were: president, Mrs. Barton L. Sharp; 1st vice president, Mrs. William Whitten; and 2nd vice president, Mrs. Thomas Walker, Jr.

Men from the ages of 45 to 65 years will register in the fourth Selective Service registration to be held in the Lititz Firehouse Monday. While none of this class will see military service, in view of present conditions, it is thought many will be placed in vital war industries at home.

At council meeting members of Borough Council agreed to offer Frank Adams, Noble Street, a settlement of $250 for shade trees cut down when the street was opened and improved recently, in return Adams consented to put down a concrete pavement and curbing. The agreement was signed yesterday.

A total of 46 Victory Gardeners are now busily engaged planting plots provided them by the Lititz Chamber of Commerce.

"Fifteen years ago this month the United States declared war against the German Government. What stirring days those were. Most everyone was imbued with patriotism. Little did anyone realize then that the war would cause so much jealousy and hatred among the nations of the world fifteen years hence.

"Instead of being a war to end war it has now developed into a race 'for a place in the sun'."

The State Senatorial Scholarship Examination will be held Friday, May 6th in Lancaster. The following Lititz pupils have been recommended to take this examination: Beatrice Bomberger, Helen Earhart, Edna Eby and Mary Koeh. The scholarship entitles the student to $400 paid in each senatorial district to help defray expenses in any recognized college in the state.

Archie Rosenberg, of town, has furnished bail for a hearing before Squire Shissler on a charge of violation of the liquor laws following a raid on a place alleged to be conducted by him near here on Saturday.

40 YEARS AGO
MAY 4, 1922

"Imagine going to a barber shop and having the long wait for your turn relieved by hearing a sermon, lecture or concert thru the radiophone. The barber would work faster and wouldn't have to try to entertain his patrons by passing his opinions on to them.

"In the restaurant, while you are sipping soda or eating ice cream on a hot summer day imagine how nice it would be to listen to a lecture on the wonders of Alaska. If in your own home you had a case of somnolence you could connect with some pastor's sermon and long before he came to the of feratory you would be asleep. All this is possible thru the radio phone. The fellow who harps back to the good old days won't have much to argue about."

If the weather is favorable a band concert will be given at the square this Saturday evening. The band will march about the main parts of town before the concert. The new uniforms will be worn for the first time. A collection will be taken during the concert towards paying for the suits.

50 YEARS AGO

The first commencement of the Warwick High School, held in the Warwick U.B. Church last Thursday evening passed off with flying colors and attracted an interesting audience that filled the edifice to the doors.

Graduates were: Mary E. Seltzinger, Jacob L. Heilman, Robert R. Buch, Stella H. Buchter, William E. Vetter, John G. Habecker, Virginia M. Keener and Margie M. Fry. Work on the new Lutheran Church, in course of erection on the corner of Broad and Orange Streets, which ceased when cold weather set in last fall, will shortly be resumed, and the handsome edifice pushed to completion. The contract for the plastering has been awarded to John Wike of this place. The windows will be furnished by the J. M. Kase Co., of Reading. They will be memorial windows of an exquisite type, and are finding a ready sale among the members of the congregation.

Boro Offices Redecorated

Council and the Borough Manager have finally managed to get together on the remodeling of the borough offices — and at the last meeting, Thursday night, they gave Manager Armstrong the go-ahead for the purchases of new equipment.

Under the now approved plan the borough will not be using the Fire Co. TV room this year; thus all of the work will continue to be done in the main office - council room.

To accommodate the increase in staff and to allow for some private work areas the borough will purchase two new desks for the secretaries and will buy a new meeting table-managers desk for the central office.

Up to this time desk space has been so limited that the staff has been spreading the work all over the office with both the borough manager and Mrs. Smith forced to use the meeting table.

The borough will also get rid of all of the chairs in the office used for council meetings and purchase folding chairs which can be stored away during the rest of the month.

To give the borough manager some privacy during the week a screen will be placed across the center of the borough office from the counter on, separating his desk from the main area of traffic.

When the offices are completed there will be about twice as many seats for spectators with 20 regular folding chairs ordered.

The borough offices were painted by the borough work crew this month and only the finishing touches are left to put on. Permission has also been given to polish the floors and wash the windows.

Total cost of the project is estimated at $1,450, within the $1,500 set for the project in the borough budget.

In line with the redecorating the borough also received an American flag from Doctor Lane for the main office.
