

Published Every Friday Morning by
J. FRANK BUCH.
Office—No. 9 S. Broad street, Lititz, Lancaster County, Pa.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—For one year $1.00, if paid in advance, and $1.25
if payment be delayed to the end of year.
For six months, 60 cents, and for three months, 35 cents, strictly in advance.
A failure to notify a discontinuance at the end of the term subscribed for, will be considered a wish to continue the paper.
Any person sending us five new cash subscribers for one year will be entitled to the Record for one year, for his trouble.

THE LITITZ RECORD.

An Independent Family Newspaper, Devoted to Literature, Agriculture, Local and General Intelligence.

VOL. XIX.

LITITZ, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 25, 1895.

NO. 7.

	1 in.	2 in.	3 in.	4 in.	5 in.	6 in.	7 in.	8 in.	9 in.	10 in.
1 week	10	15	20	25	30	35	40	45	50	55
2 weeks	18	25	32	40	48	55	62	70	78	85
3 weeks	25	35	45	55	65	75	85	95	105	115
4 weeks	32	45	58	70	82	95	108	120	132	145
5 weeks	40	55	70	85	100	115	130	145	160	175
6 weeks	48	65	82	100	118	135	152	170	188	205
7 weeks	55	75	95	115	135	155	175	195	215	235
8 weeks	62	85	108	130	152	175	198	220	242	265
9 weeks	70	95	120	145	170	195	220	245	270	295
10 weeks	78	105	135	160	185	210	235	260	285	310
11 weeks	85	115	145	175	200	225	250	275	300	325
12 weeks	92	125	155	185	210	235	260	285	310	335

Yearly advertisements to be paid quarterly. Transient advertisements payable in advance.
Advertisements, to insure immediate insertion, must be handed in, at the very latest, by Wednesday evening.
Job Work of all kinds neatly and promptly executed at short notice.
All communications should be addressed to RECORD OFFICE,
Lititz, Lanc. Co., Pa.

TROLLEY . . . OR NO TROLLEY!

The season for Heavier Clothing is at hand and I am prepared to show a line which cannot be surpassed outside of large cities. My stock of comprises some of the LATEST, NEWEST and NOBBIEST patterns of the season.

PIECE GOODS

Have to day a Line of

Men's Ready Made Suits,

ALL WOOL,

AT ONLY $9.50,

the most popular to be found.

Over 250 Boys' Suits,

PRICES FROM $3.25 UP.

My stock of BOYS' KNEE PANT SUITS is large and prices are varied, some as low as $1.75, in style up to date.

The stock of SHIRTS, TIES, COLLARS, CUFFS, NECK WEAR, HATS,
CAPS, HOSIERY, AND UMBRELLAS,

will always be kept at prices which must be right, trolley or no trolley. Give us a call and be convinced.

W. H. BUCH,

RECORD Building, Lititz, Pa.

A Broader Hat's the Style

wear, and some men will prefer the Alpine Soft Felt to the almost universally worn Derby. If you want a becoming hat at a reasonable price, you want to be coming in to see us while there is a possibility of a good choice in our FALL and WINTER Stock.

H. L. BOAS,

144 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa.
NEWT. WINGERT, MANAGER.

GILL, Jeweler and Graduate Optician.

Have just received an elegant line of FINE CHINA, CUT GLASS
AND STERLING SILVER, Dresden China Toilet Articles, Brush, Comb, Mirror, Puff Boxes, Etc.

BOHEMIAN GLASS VASES.
DRESDEN CHINA LAMPS.

A magnificent line of Royal Copper Vases and Bric-a-brac.

—OPTICAL GOODS—
of every description. Eyes examined free. No drops used.

CHARLES S. GILL, No. 12 N. Queen St., Lancaster.

AN ORDINANCE

Authorizing the Lancaster and Lititz Electric Railway Company to Lay Tracks and Operate an Electric Railway in the Borough of Lititz, County of Lancaster, and State of Pennsylvania.

Be it enacted by the Town Council of the Borough of Lititz, County of Lancaster, and State of Pennsylvania, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that SECTION 1. The Lancaster and Lititz Electric Railway Company is hereby granted permission upon the conditions, and subject to the restrictions and obligations herein contained, to build an electric railway with single tracks except as hereinafter mentioned, with the necessary curves, in said borough of Lititz, beginning at the southerly line of said borough, thence along and on the center of Broad street, with the right to continue on North Broad street to the northern limits of the borough, and also on West Orange street from the street provided said railway is extended to Manheim, as may be selected by said railway company, and to lay its tracks and string wires thereon, as may be necessary to operate such railway along aforesaid streets and other cars thereon propelled by electricity.

SEC. 2. The rails shall be of the kind known as the "T" and shall be laid down with the surface of the street, and so as to conform with the established grade of the street, and the same shall be unobscured on both sides of the rails to the edges thereof.

SEC. 3. The poles to be erected under the supervision of the borough council, said poles to be of wood, and to be kept straight and pointed white, as often as shall be deemed necessary by the street committee, the distance to be such as usually is used in the construction of electric railways. The wires shall be laid upon said poles to be of a height of not less than eighteen (18) feet, the borough reserving the right to use such poles for other purposes, but not so as to interfere with the operation of said railway.

SEC. 4. The said railway company shall run their cars at a greater or less speed than ten (10) miles an hour within the limits of the borough.

SEC. 5. The said railway company shall be subject to the control of the borough council as to changes in grades, and such other matters as are properly subject to the control of said council.

SEC. 6. In consideration of said railway company grading Broad street within the limits of the borough, and of the form with the established grade of the borough, and macadamizing and keeping in repair that portion of the street between the rails and ten and one-half (10 1/2) feet from the outer edge of the rails, and all portions of the street lying between the main track and the turnout, it shall be exempt from borough tax, excepting for real estate it may acquire in said borough, for a period of five (5) years from the date of this ordinance at the expiration of which time, no tax exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) per annum for a period of five (5) years and at the expiration of said second term of five (5) years, no tax exceeding the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) per annum, including the tax on poles and licenses on cars shall be imposed by the borough for franchises granted by this ordinance.

SEC. 7. The said railway company does hereby indemnify and keep harmless the borough of Lititz from any damages that may be done by reason of the construction or operation of said railway.

SEC. 8. Whenever in the construction and repair of its lines the said railway company shall dig or tear up the surface of the streets, said streets shall be properly repaired and restored by the said company to the same condition as to such digging, and in default thereof the borough shall make such repairs at the cost of the said company.

SEC. 9. Whenever the borough shall pave or macadamize its streets along the lines of said railway, the said railway company shall in like manner pave or macadamize that portion of the street between the rails, or in default thereof the borough shall pave or macadamize the portion of the street between the tracks of said railway, and recover the cost and expenses thereof from the said railway company.

SEC. 10. The said railway company shall make and maintain a safe turnout on North Broad street from the north curb line of East Main street to the Reading & Columbia Railroad and a single track on the middle of West Main street.

SEC. 11. A failure by said railway company to comply with any of the provisions of this ordinance, after sixty (60) days notice given to said company by said council, shall subject said company to a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) the said fine to be for the benefit of said borough and to be collected as other fines and penalties are collected, and if said company, after the imposition of said fine, shall fail to comply with this ordinance an additional fine, not to exceed the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00) and to be collected in like manner, shall be imposed for every sixty (60) days thereafter until the ordinance shall be complied with.

SEC. 12. The authorities of the borough of Lititz shall at all times have the right of way to make repairs or improvements to culverts or sewers running under the surface of said railway tracks, causing no little obstruction to the running of cars as possible.

SEC. 13. The Lancaster and Lititz Electric Railway Company shall within thirty (30) days after the passage of this ordinance file a written account of the same, and it shall also pay all expenses incurred by the borough of Lititz in printing all the ordinances granting franchises to the said company, and to comply with any of the provisions of this section within the time specified shall work a forfeiture of all rights and privileges herein conferred.

SEC. 14. The borough reserves the right to purchase any and all franchises granted to other companies or corporations to operate electric railways in said borough, either at grade or overhead.

SEC. 15. The said railway company shall in good faith commence the construction of said railway and complete the same to Main street within four (4) months from the date of the passage of this ordinance, and provided the said railway company can acquire the right of way from the Lititz and Lexington Electric Company.

SEC. 16. All ordinances heretofore passed, which are in conflict with this ordinance, are hereby repealed and annulled.

Enacted into an ordinance by the borough council of the borough of Lititz, Pennsylvania, the 4th day of October, 1895.

SAMUEL SEABER, Pres.
JACOB E. DREDDY, Secy.
Approved: HAVEN B. YOUNG, Burgess.

Excursion Rates to Atlanta.

On account of the Atlanta Exposition, the B. & O. R. Co. will sell excursion tickets at greatly reduced rates. Season tickets will be sold every day until December 15th, good returning for twenty days from date of sale. Ten-day tickets will be sold Tuesday and Thursday each week until December 24th, good returning for ten days from date of sale. The rates from Philadelphia will be $35.25 for season, $25.25 for twenty-day, and $20.00 for ten-day tickets. Correspondingly low rates from other points on the line.

SURPRISING THE SMUGGLERS.

"JACK CUTTER, I wish you'd just take a look at that little craft, out there."

It was the coast guard, at his station some miles below the port of Galveston, who spoke, and he addressed a man in a costume half sailor, half soldier, who stood leaning upon a post smoking a pipe.

"Well, I don't care if I do," was Jack's answer, as he approached the guard and held out his hand for the guard to shake.

He adjusted it to his eye, and took a long look out towards a pretty little schooner which had been quietly riding in the offing all day.

"Mighty trim little craft, I should say," he remarked, as he handed back the glass.

"What do you make of her?" asked Tim Hoolan, the guard.

"Make? Oh, nothing much. Some pleasure party, I reckon, making ready for a jaunt somewhere. Waiting for the breeze to spring up, most like."

"Pleasure boat? Waiting for the breeze," said Tim, with an incredulous laugh; "Jack, it is master of what you are, and had'n't any more sense than you have I'd go duck my head in a frog-pond!"

"What in the name of Sam Walker do you mean?" asked Jack, turning a keen eye upon the guard's face.

"What's up Tim?"

"Don't ask me! If you say 'what's down,' I'll answer you are, down on your luck, if you let that little devil slip by you."

Jack straightened himself, and a new look came over his serry countenance.

"Speak out, Timmy, lad," said he. "You have something on your mind! What is it? Anything to do with—by George," he stopped abruptly, and Tim broke into a laugh.

"Oh, you begin to see, do you?" he remarked.

"I have fancy I do Tim! When did that schooner appear out here?"

"In the night, after midnight. And Jack, she didn't show no papers, nor make no signals, nor register no cargo. So you can guess for yourself, whether you've got any chance to secure a government reward, or not. But if you want my blank opinion I can give it to you."

"Sing her out, my hearty!"

"Well, then, it's my opinion, as has been a power of sailin' craft, that there innercet lookin' little critter is nether more nor less than a darned little smuggler bound for Cuba."

"The good gracious! I believe you are right, Tim! And I'd a let her slide right under my nose, if you hadn't a spoke!" said Jack, in serious tones.

"Well, you see, you wasn't here when she slipped in, and you wasn't lookin' for no craft of the kind, nor several days yet. So it ain't no wonder you had to leave a hint. What'll you do, now?"

"I'll go up to the office, and see what papers she took out, first thing. Then I'll come and let you know," said Jack. And off he went, at a brisk pace, while Tim walked slowly up and down his beat, and now and then took a sly glance at the pretty schooner, to see if she changed her position.

"You guessed her, Tim. She's the Butterly, registered from Galveston to Cuba, port of Havana, no cargo, at present, but goin' to bring back sugar and rum."

"Yes 'rum' go, that! If she ain't loaded, now. I'll give you my hat for a football!" said Tim.

"I'll just give her a call, and find out," said Jack.

"Right now?"

"Oh, no! We'll wait for night, and if she gets under way, we can follow. The breeze won't serve before ten, and it'll be as dark as pitch by that time. See you later Tim!" And off went Jack again, to the pier where his own fast sailing sloop was lying at anchor.

Jack was master of the United States Revenue Cutter, Stella, with authority to capture all vessels caught in unlawful traffic, of which mere a number, now and then, to be found in those waters.

than Jack and Tim had seen the Butterly. The decks were freshly scrubbed, the bright work about the engines and machinery kept well-rubbed, the sails as white as snow, and everything about the craft seemed to indicate that she was just what Jack said she claimed to be, a fancy of somebody's, who sailed for pleasure, and took a small cargo now and then for a little profit.

About eight o'clock a light breeze sprang up, which soon freshened into a brisk sailing wind; and then, as Jack had thought, the little Butterly began to plume her wings for another flight.

By nine o'clock she was dancing along over the bay, as lightly as her pretty unmaeked skins the summer air, and her crew were in high good spirits over their fine start.

"Now, boys," said Captain Swan, as they came up from supper, "if this is a prosperous trip, we'll prepare to do better next time. The sugar and rum we bring back, needn't cost the government a cent. Ha! Ha!"

"No, sir," answered one of the youngsters, "no more than the tobacco and cigars we are taking out does. But what if the revenue cutters get after us?"

"We'll show them a clean pair of heels, my lad! That's all!" was the captain's answer. "It must be a fast sailer that can catch the Butterly, once she is on the wing, and that you know right well."

"Aye, aye, sir! Let's drink her good health, captain, in a glass of that choice old Jamaica you have in your cupboard," suggested the first lieutenant, who was the captain's own nephew.

"All right, boys, so we will! We need something to strengthen us after our day of waiting. But first, here are some of those prime Havanas, that we have to re-pack and box away. Let's get that over, and then there's a double brand for every man on board, and a couple of the best smokers, into the bargain."

They were soon seated around the cabin table, by the light of the lantern swinging overhead. re-packed the costly cigars which had been shipped in, too big a hurry to have it done exactly as it should be. Smugglers can't wait to be too particular, so they do their own work, sometimes.

And not one of the crew had the least idea of the dark sloop which was silently hearing down upon them, showing no light, making not the least unnecessary noise, but nevertheless creeping rapidly upon the poor little Butterly and making ready for a descent upon her.

They were still gathered about the table, busily engaged in packing the fine weeds, when suddenly, without an instant's warning, the cabin door was pushed open and the stalwart figure and merry face of Jack Cutter presented themselves. Jack was also accompanied by a loaded carbine, which looked rather unpleasantly right into the faces of the astonished smugglers, as they sprang up, and stood startled and frightened, while he saluted them:

"In the name of the United States, I command your surrender!"

"And who are you, I'd like to know?" demanded Captain Swan, with an effort to recover his self possession.

"I am Jack Cutter, at your service, captain! And I am master of Uncle Sam's fast Revenue Cutter, the Stella, with all due authority, and force enough to lick you to blazes, if you make me do it!"

"But we have our papers sir!" stammered the surprised captain.

Jack laughed loudly.

"Oh, yes I see 'em, on the table, there!" and he nodded towards the open boxes of cigars. "But they won't pass the custom-house, and so I can't accept 'em. No use cap! your game's up—advance, my lads!"

He stood aside, to allow a file of his men to march into the little cabin with carbines in hand, and the smugglers saw that resistance was in vain. They gave up, without a struggle, and Jack took them back in triumph to Galveston.

BY THE WAY.
Interesting Notes and Events About Persons, Places and Things.

ONE of the most important things in starting a child on the right road to learning is to answer their thousand and one questions they keep continually firing at one in a plain and intelligent way. Of course, children have a way of asking more questions in a minute than the most learned could answer in a week, but right here the point should be taken to impress upon their minds the importance of learning one thing at a time, and that thoroughly. Everything they see seems to start their quizzical minds afresh, and they want to know all about it. To them it makes no difference how deep the subject may be, or how searching the inquiry. They want to know, even if it is only to satisfy their childish curiosity. Putting them off with a vague and meaningless answer only serves to confuse them and deadens their desire for knowledge. They may not ask as many questions in the future, but it is their loss and will have a tendency to make them dull and stupid.

SOMETIMES it is proper to say you don't know, but in many instances it is better to give an explanation that does not explain. Care must be taken, however, that what is said is based on the knowable, and that it will lead the inquirer up to the unknowable by easy stages. A gentleman was showing his son a fine marble statue. After asking a number of questions the boy finally wanted to know what was in it. Instead of answering as most persons would by merely saying it was solid, he gave an explanation that more than explained. "Suppose you had a clump of clay or mud," he said to the boy, "and you gave it the shape of a man, what would be in it?"

"Mud," answered the boy easily.

Then suppose you were big enough to use the mallet and chisel, and you had a great big piece of marble which you would shape into the form of a man like that, what—"

"He would be full of marble, 'cause nothing else could get in him," replied the boy proudly without waiting until the sentence was finished.

"Precisely, my boy, precisely."

How much better to explain in this way than to have put the boy off with a direct, yet obscure answer. That boy will never again—hardly ever at least—ask what is in an object without first thinking a little on his own hook.

As he grows so will this disposition grow, until he will cease asking questions before he is satisfied that he cannot solve the problem without assistance. Queries often come to us that might be disposed of with a word or two to the entire satisfaction of those who are already familiar with the answers, but not so to those who proposed them. In some instances an explanation that explains is in order, yet in many instances an explanation that materially assists the querist to arrive at a satisfactory explanation will prove far more satisfactory to him and more beneficial, too, than if it had been a direct, concise answer. This plan applies well to the many queries relating to natural laws and to things unprovable. It is not at all satisfactory to a querist that you do not know. Better start him to thinking for himself.

MOST of us at some time or other have come across men and women who seem not to think for themselves, but they depend for their knowledge and understanding of things by asking questions. A fool can ask questions that sages cannot answer. This can be excused in a child that is not able to understand, but when it comes to one who doesn't give attention to passing events, it is different, quite different. To this class, whether old or young, the explanation that does not explain is well adapted. Give them just a sufficient pointer to start them thinking in the right direction, and then let them think it out. In time they will stop asking questions which they can and ought to answer themselves.

A CLEARER definition of the term kindergarten may not be out of place. The term kindergarten will readily be understood by all Germans to mean "children's garden." It is a system founded mainly on self-tuition, enlivened by games and singing. By means of the simplest things the child, while to all intents at play, is led to the perceptions of the principles of number, or arithmetic; of space, or geometry, and his senses and powers of hand and eye are cultivated by a series of exercises. The various steps of the Froebel system are classified as follows: 1. Spontaneity, or play, which, however, in a child is always serious, and never frivolous. 2. Direction of this toward external fact and truth. 3. Weaving of spontaneous powers into ordinary occupations. 4. Development into self-culture, independent action, a love of knowledge, beauty and society. The process, like the process of nature, is slow and tranquil. The child sees initials or reproduces and invents new forms. These are the three steps in each subject for each pupil. Anyone wishing to better understand the subject can acquire it through Miss Shirreff's book called "Kindergarten," Laurie's "Kindergarten Manual," Heerwart's "Music for the Kindergarten," or Kohler's "Praxis," which has been translated by Miss Gurney. Any or all of these works will be found most useful and a great help in paving the way toward a successful school for the little ones.

LET THE kindergarten come, and come quickly. PHIL.

We have started our usual fall sale by selling

WATCHES

At 50 Cents a Week.

Now is a good time to select one and have it put aside for the holidays. Come in and see our assortment and get prices on them.

Jack Straub,

JEWELER,
60 NORTH QUEEN STREET, LANCASTER, PA.

Over the State. Reading thinks of annexing all the suburban towns.

Ten burglaries were recorded at Ballotons last week.

Andred Carnegie will establish a free library at Homestead to cost $40,000.

In the Overton mine at Scottdale, John Lobiski and John Holm, were killed by a fall of coal.

A skeleton of a Johnstown flood victim was found on Saturday at Ninerah in the Conemaugh Liver.

While Mrs. John Murphy, of Scottsdale, was visiting neighbors her little son was burned to death at home.

Hereafter Lehigh University will open the college year on the fourth Wednesday in September, but Christmas vacation will be cut down from three weeks to ten days.

A trolley car at Harrisburg dangerously injured Jacob Long, of Mechanicsburg.

Sale crackers got $150 from S. S. Johns' office, at Shrewsbury, York county.

Thieves stole $150 worth of clothing from George F. Spangler's store, at Catawissa.

The alleged Strout murder, Grimsong Merola, was brought home from New England.

John Martocci was convicted at Easton of killing Orville Sachetti and sent to prison for five and a half years.

After a trial lasting a week, John Wisniski was convicted at Scranton of second degree murder for killing Felix Davidjak.

John O. Boyle, of Pottsville, who stumbled over a loose board at Malanoy City and was injured, was awarded $4000 damages against the borough.

Fifty railway companies in the State have not made their reports to the Secretary of the Internal Affairs. They are due November 1, with a $5000 penalty for any delay.

A quiet campaign, free from mud slinging, is proceeding in Bucks county. This is said to be due to the orders of Judge Harman Yerkes.

The Moravian Mission Society, the oldest in this country, celebrated its anniversary at Bethlehem.

Pennsylvania Oddities. Collector Shearer on a visit to Glen Rock, York county, where there is an apple brandy distillery, found the proprietor engaged in purchasing each day a thousand bushels of fruit used in making apple jack. Apples were so plentiful that he secured 3000 bushels at five cents a bushel. As one bushel yields two gallons of brandy it cost him two and a half cents to make a gallon. The government tax for selling that gallon of whisky was $1.10.

Jacob Hull, who lives along the side of Pine Knob, above Uniontown, killed a moose rattlesnake Saturday, which had thirteen rattles on it, says the Conestogville Courier. The reptile had just finished a meal of fresh squirrel, having swallowed a gray and red squirrel whole. Hull watched the snake four hours and saw it tree the squirrels in a small tree. As soon as it got them up the tree it began to churn them. The frightened squirrels made a hideous noise as the reptile closed in on them, but they at last submitted and were devoured. In order to satisfy himself Hull cut the snake open and found both squirrels in its stomach.

A case was tried in the Clearfield County Courts week before last, which shows how a small matter can be carried to extremes. A man was arrested and indicted for stealing a rutabaga turnip, valued at six cents. The trial cost the county $200.

There is rough land on almost all our farms, where it would pay better to plant nuts, for both the timber and for the nuts, than anything else, says the Butler Citizen. A large farm of these trees set out on the roadside, perhaps thirty feet from the centre of the road and twenty feet apart, would sell enough nuts annually to pay the taxes and leave a surplus for each picker sufficient to pay for the picking. Just why the farmers neglect to care for such trees and suffer loss thereby is strange.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

J. F. BUCH, Editor and Proprietor.

Advertisements and others will please take notice that we go to press regularly every Thursday afternoon, and cannot insure the insertion of much matter after Wednesday afternoon.

Communications for insertion must be accompanied by the name and address of the writer; not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1895.

POLITICS GROWS WARMER.

There is universal interest in the political battle to be fought next year. Newspapers are full of speculation as to the chances of those who aspire to the presidency. Enough is indulged in to satisfy the hungriest of readers of political matter. The close student must be kept very busy separating the grain and chaff of fact and fancy. This week among the mass he finds an interview with the Hon. John Sherman, of Ohio. The senator has declared himself in favor of Governor McKinley for president. As he believes the next Congress must provide additional revenue he expects the man who five years ago was trusted by his party to father revenue legislation to again come to the front. The senator is credited with astuteness in statecraft, but it is altogether likely that he will be disappointed if he relies upon the masses to clamor for a tariff Moses in 1896. The Republican congressmen will be given license to amend the Wilson bill to a certain extent, if it appears that the revenue is insufficient. They dare not, however, attempt radical modification, because public sentiment would not sustain them. President Cleveland, the champion of the people rather than of his somewhat discredited party, is in a position to curb them, and Senator Sherman and others zealous in the behalf of McKinley would perhaps wake up to find themselves snubbed.

PEPPER AND SALT.

The usual before-the-election song is on "get out the vote."

When the Women's Christian Temperance Union put a free silver plank in its platform the dear sisters made a mess of the business. The troglodytes live on free silver.

The second convict in New York of making a business has been sentenced to forty-eight years imprisonment. If he should outlive his term of confinement he should then be hung.

The weather prophets agree upon one thing, and that is that during the winter of 1895-96 there will be plenty of snow and good sleighing. Our young folks will, no doubt, receive such news with pleasure.

There will come a time when mail will be delivered to every home in the country, whether it be in town or on the farm. The policy of the postoffice department should be a constant extension of the free-delivery system.

Apparently the trolley bugaboo has not yet ruined the Lititz stores, as some would have us believe before it was built. Our merchants say they do not feel a falling off in trade. People do not go to Lancaster often, but what they do buy there is such goods as cannot be found in our stores.

Mennonite progress was resolved upon in their convention in western Penna when they decided to keep all indigent Mennonites out of the poorhouse and support them through the church. Steps were also taken to get modern books, of which the members have been partly denied because of their ancient enmities.

The new law on trespassing passed by the last Legislature is as follows: That any person or persons who shall willfully enter or break down, through or over any field, orchard, garden or yard fence, or gate, or through or over any wrongfully club, stone, cut, break, bark or otherwise mutilate or damage any fruit crop, nut, fruit or ornamental tree, shrub, bush, plant or vine, trellis, arbor, hot-bed, hot or greenhouse, or who shall trespass or in anywise injure any grain, grass, vine, vegetable or other growing crop, or who shall willfully take or carry away any grain, corn, rye, wheat or other field crop, fruit or vegetable, plants, nuts or berries, or any fruit or ornamental tree, vine or shrub, whether the same be attached to the soil or not, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding $50 for each and every offense.

"The Sphinx" is Coming to Lancaster. A rare treat to lovers of comic opera will be the production at Lancaster, matinee and evening, October 26, of the new Egyptian comic opera, "The Sphinx," which from its marvelous success of 108 nights in Boston and five weeks in New York. No opera of recent years has equalled its success, the Boston Herald calling it "the greatest American opera." The production will be identical with that given in Boston and New York, and will be given at Lancaster in the most scenery one act showing the great Sphinx and the pyramids on a scale of fifty feet in height. The company, too, will be just as large as that of the great cast, among whom are Edwin Steyens, Marie Millard, the famous young singer, Tallmadge Baldwin, John G. Bell, for 55, and many other stars. The more, with the magnificent trained chorus of sixty. Edwin Steyens makes his entrance, as Prof. Pappus in a bicycle and has to go to a city ahead of the company to practice his entrance upon the stage of the theatre several hours before the place becomes enough familiar to him to ensure his getting on without a tumble.

Recent Deaths in the County. John L. Scallin, center fielder of the Lancaster base ball club, died at Osceola, Clearfield county.

Adam Mowery, a farmer, near Lancaster, from blood poisoning, the result of a slight accident to his hand. Christiana Gittlieb, 80, Lancaster, of paralysis.

Sam Cooper, 43, at the Lancaster hospital. Her remains were taken to Brickerville.

Anna McMullen, 42, at Highville. Jacob Wisler, aged 81 years, died in Lancaster from a stroke of apoplexy. He formerly lived in Manheim.

$100 Reward, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces, in this way it cures, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

Address: CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc.

Fulton Opera House, Lancaster—Last of Plays.

20th—Harry Askin's Opera Co. The Sphinx. 21st—The Free Mail. 22nd—Sam T. Jack's Grease Barlesque Co. 23rd—The Herald.

24th—The Foundling. 25th—The Herald. 26th—The Herald. 27th—The Herald. 28th—The Herald. 29th—The Herald. 30th—The Herald.

Rothsville Ramblings.

Our village is not sparing paint this fall. C. G. Royer, John Spers, Isaac Reinhold, J. A. Heiler, Michael Hess and J. G. Casner have all painted their residences and making them appear like new.

N. N. Bender fractured his arm in pulling down a crashed on his father's farm.

The real estate and personal property of Mrs. Mary Bearinger will be sold at public sale on November 9th by John F. Ruth, Esq.

L. L. Zook made a fine Ludus trip to Philadelphia on Monday.

On Sunday evening, October 20, at Rothsville, by Rev. J. A. Heiler, Mr. John Weaver of Bareville and Emma Senoniz of Farmersville were married.

The United Zion Brethren will commence their revival services at Millport on Sunday evening, November 3d, to continue several weeks.

W. H. Landis and A. Weaver are back from campaigning the fall races, but have entered horses at Lancaster and White Horse again.

Washington Camp, P. O. S. of A., requests the RECORD to return sincere thanks for the kind treatment in Lititz on Sunday evening, when they attended the Moravian church in a body.

Farmers are busy haying corn. Cigar trade is dull. Our schools are overcrowded. The Rothsville Cornet Band fair will open on the 9th of November and continue two weeks.

Lexington News.

The Lexington hotel is undergoing repairs. Mr. Furlow, the new landlord, means to run a better house than ever before at this place.

The Union school, L. E. Habecker, teacher, was out walking last Friday afternoon. They passed the time in the woods and along the Hammer creek.

Rev. A. M. Sampsel will hold services in the Lexington Union meeting house on Saturday at 7:30 P. M.

W. D. Keeney of Manheim, will probably organize a singing club in the Union meeting house on Saturday evening, November 21.

Mr. Samuel D. Shreiner, of Lexington, was in Bethlehem last Saturday on a business trip.

After gathering greeted Rev. M. Forsler at his services in the Union meeting house on Sunday evening. Four weeks hence he will again preach here.

Two Golden Weddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi B. Brubaker, well-known residents of Millway, celebrated their golden wedding on Wednesday. There was a family gathering and congratulations from neighbors and friends. The RECORD hereby tenders its congratulations also. Wishing the aged couple many more years of joy and health before being called to that other land.

Simon Hostetter and wife of Oregon celebrated their golden wedding last Monday.

Charged With Improper Use of Mails.

William H. Phrame, a youth of 19 years, residing at Henry Clay Furnace, near Columbia, was arrested by Post Office Inspector German of Pottsville, charged with using the United States mails to defraud. He was held in $500 bail for trial in the United States Court by United States Commissioner Montgomery.

Political.

Republican candidates for nomination at next spring's primary are already stirring the county. A. G. Seyfert and W. L. Hervey, at present members of the legislature, are moving about among their friends and reminding them that they would like to have another term. For the county offices there will be a long list, among them some who have stepped out of office only a few years.

In the lower or southern district there will be three candidates for State Senator, viz John H. Landis, the present incumbent, Milton Eby and Theophilus Hissand.

Here and There.

The Keeley League, of Lancaster, made up of graduates of the Keeley Institute, has decided to prosecute all dealers who sell garettes to boys under 16 years of age.

The Manheim local institute, including Manheim borough, and part of Rapho township, will be held on Saturday, October 26.

The court is to decide in "a case stated" whether constables are entitled to 50 cents for all the witnesses in a case or to 50 cents for each subpoena.

The personal property of the Brunnerville Cornet band was sold by the sheriff on Monday. The amount realized was $109.18.

Ephrata Notes.

J. L. Steimetz, of Lancaster, bought the private residence of Jacob Roth, consisting of a large 2-story brick building which adjoins Mr. Steimetz's "Hotel Cocoon," at Ephrata, for $5,000. Two stories will be added to the house, which will be embraced in the hotel property.

Daniel Breideman was about to drive away with his family, to Jacob Roth, a 5 year old girl, daughter of Jerome Roth, who was to accompany Mr. and Mrs. Breideman, had taken a seat in the Evangelical cemetery. Mrs. Breideman was getting the lines out of the box, the horse made a start and ran in full gallop toward Main street, and against a fall fence in front of Sener's hardware yard and upset the buggy, throwing the little girl on the stone pavement, but not hurting her. The buggy, however, was wrecked.

Akron Notes.

The death of Alice Grube (nee Evans) on Sunday morning, was quite a shock to the neighborhood. Two weeks previous to her death she gave birth to a daughter. The deceased leaves a husband and child and hosts of friends to mourn her untimely death. She was a faithful church and Sunday-school worker. The funeral took place on Wednesday of this week. Six J. O. U. A. M. and six K. G. E. members served as pall bearers, as Mr. Grube belongs to both orders. Interment in the Evangelical cemetery. Hovs. G. W. Hagen and A. M. Sampsel officiating. The deceased was aged 20 years, 10 months and 22 days.

Mr. Adam Hallicher is the first man in town to have his pavement laid. Other parties are busily engaged in putting in their curbs.

White Oak and Vicinity. The White Oak school has the following report for the first month: Number of males enrolled, 18; females 10. The following were present every day: Elmer Weacher, Willie H. Graul, Willie F. Graul, Paul Hallicher, Walter Isach, Harvey Hammer, Willie Hammer, Charlie Graul, Kenard Yeagley, Alvin Yeagley, Parker Bishop, Percy Williams, David Witmeyer, Joseph Summy, Willie Diehm, Mays Hoke, Stella Diehm, Mable Diehm, Nora Yeagley, Sadie Witmeyer, Rosa Honey, Martha Graul, Olga Graul, Lottie Isach, Marie Keith, Emma Witmeyer, Susie Witmeyer and Ella Buser.

Mr. Emanuel Young of Northumberland county spent a part of the week among relatives, and attended the funeral of William Keith.

Lincoln Locals.

The Lutheran choir went to Denver last Sunday and rendered music at the evening services held by Rev. J. O. Leibenasper.

Mr. Whitman of Blue Ball, and Miss Emma Eselman of Bareville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Brubaker on Sunday.

Protracted meetings is still in progress and will continue during the week. Thus far four persons have presented themselves at the altar.

Charles Muir, who resided in one of W. J. Miller's houses on Main street, moved into the one opposite which was lately vacated by Mrs. Elmira Baringer.

E. O. Haeker, one of our enterprising merchants, spent several days of this week in Philadelphia to buy a new stock of winter goods.

Mrs. Christian Kreider of Weidmanville fell and fractured a rib last week. Dr. Charles of this place was summoned and set the severed member. She is doing well under the operation.

Essias Eitner met with a serious accident on Monday while on his way to the mill. He was ascending the hill, and when at Elam Snelley's his horse became frightened at a cat running across the street, and wheeled around, upsetting the vehicle but did not run away. Mr. Eitner badly hurt his leg and was otherwise bruised.

Three wayfarers caused considerable annoyance to town folks on Monday. The public sale of Frank Stahl's property on Market street was held on Saturday evening. It was withdrawn at $900. The property is still for sale.

Thieves broke in at John Eberly's, tailor of Clay, on Monday night and stole goods worth one hundred dollars.

Sayings from Schoenbeck.

Mr. E. W. Kramer spent Saturday and Sunday at Red Run and Dry Tavern visiting his uncle John Weidman and also George Peiffer.

Reuben Druckenbrod of New Berlin, Ohio, is here visiting his uncle and cousin. He has never been in this part of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Constable and her daughters are the guests of her brother, W. B. Harting and family.

W. E. Crouse came home from Philadelphia on his bicycle in about seven hours.

Nice comb Honey in pound boxes. Get it at Woll's.

Newspaper Debts.

A contemporary says that newspaper subscriptions are available tests of a man's honesty.

Magie Spoo contains neither meat nor fish. If he is dishonest he will eat the printer some way—says he has paid when he has not—declares that he has a receipt somewhere—or sent money and it was lost in the mail—or will take the paper and not pay for it on the ground that he did not subscribe for it—or moved off leaving it on the table to be taken.

Thousands of professed christians are dishonest in this particular at least, and the printer's books will tell far more than his in the judgment.

Death from Blood Poison.

Is often caused by the absorption of poisonous fats used in ordinary toilet soap. Magic Spoo contains neither animal fats nor vegetable oils and is absolutely free from poison. It will cure all Skin Diseases, Chaps, Fleckles and Pimples, and is unexcelled as a toilet soap. Ask your druggist or dealer for it. Price 10 cents. Sold at the Lititz drug store.

WANAMAKER'S

PHILADELPHIA, October 21, 1895.

Autumn attractions—The beauty of the ripened year gathers in field and forest. Who does not enjoy the picture under the stimulus of these bright October days? And Nature sets most of the copies for textile workers. The warm tints of the Autumn are reflected on every side.

The wealth of the textile world is most easily studied here. We did not stop with the equaling of past seasons. That was but the starting point. Under such impetus stocks grew a million of dollars beyond last year's limit, and the zenith of readiness is now reached. Who does not know the fashion world at its best lives too far from Wanamaker's.

WINTER COTTON STUFFS

King Cotton has no notion of relinquishing his sway because the Summer has flown. Here are a handful of Winter triumphs—

Woolenette—The colors, weave and finish would make you guess it wool. Just cotton—contrived by Yankee wit. Six styles; 30 in., 12 1/2. A pretty dress suit.

Cotton Plaids—Pretty grounds overlaid with bright streaks that make them very effective. They bid fair to grow scarce unless the mill can run faster. 28 in., 12 1/2.

Flannellettes—You would know they were new, for none so pretty have been shown before. Just arrived, but the supply was arranged for before the cotton market had so materially advanced. 24 styles; 30, 000 yards, 3c.

WOMEN'S COATS

It is the difference between fetching and copying that distinguishes the Coats we sell. There isn't a bright Paris or London or Berlin idea but is shown here—unless it was born here after the latest-arrived steamers left the other side.

WANAMAKER'S

And each season finds us a more potent factor in the foreign markets—making the values we bring you more surprising.

This season's Coats at $15 and $20 are equal to our best past offerings at $25 and $30. Have foreign-made garments grown more interesting anywhere else?

Not many other stocks to judge by, to be sure—you are mostly regaled with feeble copies.

WOMEN'S SHOES There is much good sense in making Women's Shoes with congress webbing in the sides so that they may be pulled on or off with no worry about buttons or laces, but because it seems strange to see a woman's shoe without the accustomed devices of fastening these are finished with buttons in the usual position.

The Congress Shoes are one of fifteen sorts of Women's Shoes for Fall and Winter wear that we sell at $2.20, despite the fact that they could not be made today to sell profitably under $3.50. Some of the other sorts are—

Button Shoes, patent leather. Button Shoes, common sense. Button Shoes, same style, medium, narrow and razor toe; kid or cloth top. Ladies' shoes, narrow toe; patent leather tips.

BOOKS

This comprehensive book business makes good reading almost as cheap as well, as advice.

These titles in handy-volume size; cloth bound, at 30c—

Jan Veddor's Wife. By Amelia E. Barr. Authors Barred Away. By E. P. Roe. Scherger Cotta Family. By Mrs. Charles. Opening of a Chestnut Burr. By E. P. Roe. Samantha at Saratoga. By Josiah Allen's Wife. A Young Girl's Wooing. By E. P. Roe. A Bow of Orange Ribbon. By Amelia E. Barr.

And French Novels at 25c—over 150 popular titles; such books as usually sell at from 75c to 90c. Here and now, 25c.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

32 to 38 EAST KING STREET, Lancaster, Pa. and 326 Market St., Harrisburg, Pa.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, THE HON. JOHN B. LIVINGSTON, President and J. H. GRAY, BRUBAKER, Associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in and for the County of Lancaster, and Assistant Justices of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, and General Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the County of Lancaster, have issued their process, to me directed, requiring me, among other things, to make Public Proclamation throughout my bailiwick, that a Court of Oyer and Terminer and a General Jail Delivery, also a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace and Jail Delivery, will commence in the Court House in the City of Lancaster, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on the THIRD MONDAY IN NOVEMBER, 1895.

In pursuance of which precept PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Lancaster, to the Justices of the Peace, and the Justices of the City and County of Lancaster, that they be then and there in their own proper persons with their rolls, records and examinations, and inquisitions, and their remembrances, to those things which to the offices appertain, in their behalf to be done; and also all those who will prosecute against the prisoners who are or shall be in the jail of said County of Lancaster are to be then and there to prosecute against them, as shall be just.

ANDREW HERSEY, Sheriff.

Given at Lancaster, the 21th day of October, 1895.

WANAMAKER'S

PHILADELPHIA, October 21, 1895.

Autumn attractions—The beauty of the ripened year gathers in field and forest. Who does not enjoy the picture under the stimulus of these bright October days? And Nature sets most of the copies for textile workers. The warm tints of the Autumn are reflected on every side.

The wealth of the textile world is most easily studied here. We did not stop with the equaling of past seasons. That was but the starting point. Under such impetus stocks grew a million of dollars beyond last year's limit, and the zenith of readiness is now reached. Who does not know the fashion world at its best lives too far from Wanamaker's.

WINTER COTTON STUFFS

King Cotton has no notion of relinquishing his sway because the Summer has flown. Here are a handful of Winter triumphs—

Woolenette—The colors, weave and finish would make you guess it wool. Just cotton—contrived by Yankee wit. Six styles; 30 in., 12 1/2. A pretty dress suit.

Cotton Plaids—Pretty grounds overlaid with bright streaks that make them very effective. They bid fair to grow scarce unless the mill can run faster. 28 in., 12 1/2.

Flannellettes—You would know they were new, for none so pretty have been shown before. Just arrived, but the supply was arranged for before the cotton market had so materially advanced. 24 styles; 30, 000 yards, 3c.

WOMEN'S COATS

It is the difference between fetching and copying that distinguishes the Coats we sell. There isn't a bright Paris or London or Berlin idea but is

WILLIAMSON & FOSTER

OUR WAY

It is to be ceaseless in our searching for the best qualities and lowest prices in Goods suitable to the people's needs.

SHAWLS..... Double wool, $2.75, $3.50, $4. $4.50, $5, $5.50 and $6; single, $1.25 to $5. Double black Cashmere, $3 to $15; single, $1 to $5. Breakfast Shawls, 25c to $1.

SLIPPERS..... For men, seal skin and goat. Russia Leather and embroidered Russia Leather, $1.25 to $1.50. Goat $1.25. Imitation Alligator, 75c to $1. Boys, 64c.

HATS..... Men's Stuff Felt Derbys, $1.50, and better grades of the latest fashion, $2.50 to $3.50. Boys' Soft Hats, 75c to $1.50.

CHAMBER SETS..... Decorated, ropices, $2. Gold-lined, $2.25. Gold-lined Dinner Sets, 112 pieces, $9.75. Mugs and Milk Sets, 3 pieces, 35c.

LITTLE BOYS' SUITS..... New patterns, $1.50 to $2.50. Dress Suits, $3 to $7.50. Reefer Suits, $2.50 to $5. Reefer Jackets, $2.50 to $7.50. With every Knee Pant Suit sold we give a trick top.

MILLINERY..... Many new effects in fancy Velvets and Ribbons. Some of the latest styles in Sailor Hats are the Cornell, Vassar and Lillian Russel.

MEN'S NECKWEAR..... Novelties in Tecks, Four-in-hand Puffs, Windsor and Tecks and De Joiville, all 50c, and choice Tecks and Four-in-hand Ties, 25c. Foot Ball Supplies at low prices.

LADIES' GLOVES..... Black Cashmere, silk-stitched, extra heavy, 25c and 50c. Fleece-lined Taffeta, 50c. Misses' Cashmere Mitts, 75c and 25c.

Misses' and Infants' Caps, 75c to $1.75.

MEN'S SUITS..... Our special all-wool, two shades, $10. Black and blue undressed Worsteds, $12, that look equal to some sold at $15. Our $15, $16 and $18 Suits are equal to custom made.

WILLIAMSON & FOSTER, 32 to 38 EAST KING STREET, Lancaster, Pa. and 326 Market St., Harrisburg, Pa.

Now is the Time

TO BUY YOUR WINTER COAL, before the PROBABLE ADVANCE IN PRICE and while they are GOOD AND CLEAN.

My Coal are all first-class, free from slate and dirt and this is the best time to house them before they get snow and sleet.

LUMBER.

of All Kinds

Kept under Cover and sold as low as anywhere. Estimates for building cheerfully furnished.

H. S. Kauffman,

LITITZ, PA. Ten Timely Topics For House Cleaners.

FLOOR OILCLOTH 18c a yard. Other dealers ask you 25c. Better grades at 25, 30 and 35c.

SCUB OILCLOTH. Porter's best, about 60 patterns, 18c a yard.

SEMI OILCLOTH. Scalloped at 8c a yard. WINDOW SHADES. Complete at 18c. Fringed at 15c. Better Quality, in Cloth, at 25c.

DIST BRUSHES. A good one, at 10c. All Bristle Brushes at 15, 20, 25 and 30c.

SCUB BRUSHES. A Good Cocoa Brush at 5c. Better ones at 6, 8 and 10c.

GALVANIZED PAIRS, never-wear-out kind, 25, 30 and 25c.

WOOD PAIRS, Painted at 10c. A better one at 15c.

STEP LADDERS, hardwood, 1 feet, 6c. 6 feet, 7c. 6c. 9c.

COAL-HOODS, Black Japanned, at 18, 23 and 25c. Galvanized, 25, 27 and 30c.

A Watch . . .

OR . . . A Thimble

You'll get what you ask for here. Get it as we sell it to you whether it is Gold, Silver or Plated. We haven't the largest store in the county, but a good variety. You save the extra expense when you buy here.

See our line of 1847 Rogers Bro. Silverware. Knives and Forks $4 a doz

HEPP, The Lititz Jeweler and Graduate Optician

HATS AND FURS.

OUR FUR PARLORS

Now open for the inspection of one of our most handsome selections of

Fine Fur Capes, Handsome Fur Neckwear

—AND— Ladies' Fur Trimmings

displayed anywhere in the interior of the state.

Men's, Boys' and Children's Hats

in every desirable style. First in quality and no excessive prices.

Stauffer & Co., 31 and 33 N. Queen St., LANCASTER, PA.

WILLIAMSON & FOSTER

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Religious Notices.

MORAVIAN.—German preaching on Sunday at 10 A. M., English at 7 P. M. Sunday-school and pastor's bible class at 1:30 P. M.

UNITED EVANGELICAL.—German preaching on Sunday at 9:30 A. M., English at 7 P. M. Sunday-school at 1:30 P. M.

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN.—Preparatory services on Saturday at Neffsville at 2 P. M., communion Sunday at 9:30 A. M., English services at Lititz Sunday at 7 P. M. Sunday-school at Lititz at 1:30 P. M.

UNITED BRETHREN.—Preaching at Warwick on Sunday at 10 A. M., Sunday-school at 1:30 P. M., prayer-meeting at 7 P. M. At Brunnerville, prayer-meeting at 10 A. M., Sunday-school at 1:30 P. M., preaching at 7 P. M.

REFORMED.—The sacrament of the holy communion will be celebrated in Zion's Reformed church, Brickerville, on Sunday at 9:30 A. M. Preparatory services on Saturday at 2 P. M. No services at White Oak on account of repairing the church building.

LUTHERAN.—English preaching at Rothsville on Sunday at 10 A. M. and at Akron at 7 P. M.

NEW ZION BRETHREN.—Services on Saturday at 7 P. M. and Sunday at 9:30 A. M. at Stevens. Sunday at 7 P. M. at Hahnstown.

MENNONITE.—Communion services on Sunday afternoon at Erb's; also services at Reading road and Schoenbeck.

GERMAN BAPTIST.—Services on Sunday at Millport, Bearville, Kreiders and Ephrata.

Caught in the Act. Last week one night farmer Christ Snyder, living northeast of Lititz about a mile, saw a light under a walnut tree on his premises. His two sons repaired to the spot where they found several men busy bagging walnuts. They were compelled to empty out and depart minus the nuts and given to understand that if they came in daytime and ask permission they will be accommodated.

A Young Lady's Success. Miss Annie M. Myer, of Myerstown, sister of Mrs. M. J. Steiner, of this place, has been engaged at the Albright Collegiate Institute in the above town as instructor on the violin. Prof. Schaefer, under whose instruction Miss Myer graduated at Linden Hall Seminary, writes of his pupil: "There are very few young ladies who will work as hard and diligently to attain what she has attained."

A Train Delayed. The "night buck" fast freight train which goes through here each evening at about 8 o'clock was delayed here on Monday evening over three hours. The engine struck a leak in the boiler, which compelled the hands to draw the fire and send to Columbia for help. Two other engines appeared on the scene, one to convey the cars to Reading and the other to take the leaky engine to the repair shop in Columbia.

Died in Lancaster. Mary, widow of the late John F. Young, died in Lancaster on Wednesday night, aged about 60 years. Several weeks ago she was stricken with apoplexy, and since then sank gradually until death, suffering a great deal of the meantime. Years ago Mr. and Mrs. Young were residents of this vicinity, and lived here quite a while before leaving for Lancaster.

Death of an Old Citizen. George W. Hambricht, an old citizen of Neffsville, died at his home in that place Friday morning. He was a saddler and harnessmaker by trade, and carried on that business in Neffsville for years. Owing to his old age he retired from business several years ago. He leaves the following children: Albert, of Wilmington; Annie, wife of H. O. Leachy, clerk in the Lancaster postoffice; Alice, wife of Amos Ringwald, saddler, of Lancaster; Jacob, of Lancaster; Laura, wife of W. Evans, of Lititz; Howard, living in Delaware, and Arma, who is single and lives at home.

Sermon to the Mothers of P. O. S. of A. Nearly fifty members of Washington Camp P. O. S. of A. of Rothsville, marched into the Moravian church in a body wearing regalia last Sunday evening, where a special sermon by request was delivered to the order by Rev. C. L. Moench, who took for his text Joshua 24:5—"Choose ye this day whom ye will serve." The sermon was one of the pastor's master efforts in this direction, in which he defined the true patriot and the true christian, stating that no one could be a true patriot without being a true christian and vice versa. He appealed to his hearers in most earnest language to resolve to be true christians and thus fulfill to the letter the obligation they took when they became members of the order. His closing words were especially touching and we believe affected the hearts of the majority who faced him.

Who? Who, after being caught in the act, was obliged to unload the stolen goods or be prosecuted? Who can figure out the cost to taxpayers of digging out the alley and filling it up again leading from South Broad street to Spruce?

Who differs when we say that Lititz has a goodly number of pretty young ladies? Who will be the candidates for council next February when seven members will have to be elected? Who made the mistake of dropping into the widow's house on Sunday evening while laboring under the impression that some well known neighbor lived there?

Men's fine shoes $1.20. Get them at D. D. Bowman's.

Plain and Hecker's self-raising Buckwheat. Get it at Wollie's.

LOCAL LAOCONICS.

Items of Various Kinds to Interest the Old, the Young and the Middle Aged.

A Lititz poultry dealer has already bought a lot of turkeys, which he is fattening for Thanksgiving.

When a farmer desires gunners to steer clear of his premises, a wild bull in the pasture is the best preventative of trespassing.

Most every day we are asked the question, "When will the electric railway be extended to Broad street?" Can't tell, but still have our doubts about it being constructed this year.

Public school teachers are looking ahead for Institute week for good times and a week away from the school room, with pay all the same.

A dealer remarked to us the other day that orders are unusually fine in flavor and size this fall.

The Lancaster Coaching Club, who drove in a tallyho drawn by four horses, passed through here Saturday morning on a tour through the county. They had big horns and made plenty of noise as they passed along.

Don't forget that you have only one week's time yet to pay your borough tax in order to make 5 per cent. discount.

It is reported that a well-known Dunkard preacher not far from Halfville and a farmer's daughter will soon be wedded.

On Saturday at the Warwick House L. D. Himmelfarb will sell another lot of good goods at public sale. Mr. Himmelfarb knows what our farmers need in this line, and is quite successful in the business.

Mind reading is apparently spreading. A K. Stetinger of the Railroad restaurant can show you a trick or two in that direction.

The railroad company will put down a brick pavement on Broad street from the railroad track southward as far as their leased ground extends.

The three grey squirrels born in captivity on the Spring grounds are now nearly grown out and are pretty and lively, but still cling to their mother in a separate box, coming out occasionally to feed.

The drought and early frosts have robbed the forests of the beautiful variegated mantles of other years, and the sturdy sentinels of the woodland are shedding their foliage greatly detracted from their former grandeur.

Sunday was a model fall day, cool and bracing, a beautiful sun-shine and just nice to take a walk without perspiring.

Hon. W. L. Hershey has our thanks for a copy of Smull's Legislative Handbook.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Witmyer, the first in the family, and we congratulate the couple.

People drive here all the way from Shefferson, Lebanon county, but up their teams at one of the hotels and take the trolley cars for Lancaster. That is the best and cheapest way, they say, to get to Lancaster.

The trees are rapidly shedding their summer apparel and exposing their bare limbs without the least bit of modesty.

One week hence, November 1st, all the guns and dogs will be brought into requisition for the onslaught of rabbits and snipe partridges.

Clay Lodge, J. O. O. F., paid Lititz Lodge a fraternal visit on Monday evening. After the meeting an oyster supper was served at the Hotel Sturgis.

To Harry Foltz and wife was born a daughter a few days ago.

A report was circulated in Lititz that Adam J. Ulrich of Lancaster was here inspecting the Hollinger property with a view of buying it to continue the present business therein. Such is not the case. Mr. Ulrich is satisfied where he is and with his present business and he will not change for the present at least.

After putting in iron piping at the culvert on the corner of Broad street near the Springs Hotel a pile of large timbers was left lying in the street. On Tuesday night some one with a double team drove over it, but just how without an accident is a miracle. Had an accident occurred the borough would have been muled for damages.

Miss Elizabeth Rudy, one of the three aged single sisters living near Halfville, is seriously ill and her end may come any moment.

J. W. Buckart slipped a cock and wing of a fancy breed all the way to Delaware, Wisconsin.

Charles Sauber shipped a car of about 300 bushels of potatoes to Philadelphia on Tuesday.

Prof. Neuman, the mind-reader, will again exhibit at Ephrata on Saturday evening, and also at Columbia on October 30th and 31st.

Several of the higher public schools of our borough took a trip to the Furnace hills in large wagons on Saturday for nuts and fun. They seemed to have an abundance of the latter if for the former, and came home with dark in the highest glee.

A pencil sharpening machine in the Lititz High school building pleases the children and teachers.

Henry H. Bomberger at present has 122 head of sheep on his farm about a mile northwest of Lititz, which he fattens for a Lancaster butcher, delivering a lot each week.

Letters addressed to Miss Kate Wissler, Mr. Daniel T. Miller, Mr. Paul Smith and Mr. M. S. Stauffer remain uncalled for in the Lititz post office.

Schuyler Hossler, in the employ of J. B. Bowman, moved from White Oak to Lititz.

F. S. Webber and several others, while at the Poplar Springs in the Furnace Hills on Sunday, killed a blacksnake almost five feet in length.

Miss Carrie Meiskey, daughter of Wallace Meiskey, gave a party to a number of her young friends on Saturday evening.

The Lititz and other school districts are very much wondering why it is that their share of the state appropriation is so slow in coming. Some districts got theirs as early as July.

A few weeks ago most of our carpenters had no work; now they are all busy, mostly on repair work, and to hire one for a day's work is almost impossible.

Mrs. John Minnich, widow, will this week move into the house which was occupied by W. Scott Kaufman, on Broad street.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

People Who Come and Go and Help to Move the Steam and Trolley Cars.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bard, of Oregon, were the guests of A. R. Bear and wife on Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Rauch, Mr. Horace D. Grube and Mrs. Peter Ammon, of Lancaster, were in Lititz last Sunday.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Ringer celebrated their silver wedding.

Mr. Samuel F. Huey and wife, from Clinton, Mo., were here visiting relatives and friends. Some years ago they resided in Lititz, when Mr. Huey conducted a cigar factory in W. C. Evans' building.

Mr. Albert Marr, of Lancaster, was here visiting his brother Lewis over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sturgis had public sale of some of their personal property last Saturday and this week moved to Nazareth, where he has steady work. They were accompanied to their new home by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sturgis.

Mrs. Caroline Lawall of Bethlehem is here visiting relatives. She is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Elias Buch, part of the time and partly with her brother, S. E. Grosh. She is accompanied by her nephew, Mr. Arthur Grosh.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Appel of Allentown were here within the past week visiting her brothers, Harry and Morris.

Mrs. Jacob Bernhardt, of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. J. S. Becker, of Manheim, spent Saturday with Lititz relatives, besides taking a trolley ride to Lancaster and back.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Bailey left on Tuesday for Baltimore, Md., where they will remain for about nine months. We hope they will not fall in love with the Monumental City to such an extent as not to return among us.

Mr. Scott Kaufman moved to Baltimore with his family on Wednesday, where he has opened a retail cigar store. We hope he may meet with the best success.

Mr. Charles Haacker, of Millersburg, Dauphin county, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sessman and Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Hall spent Sunday with friends in Ephrata.

Mr. Oscar Delbo of Lancaster was here Sunday as the guest of his cousin Charles Sturgis.

Benjamin Lutz, drover, was in Buffalo buying cattle beginning of the week.

P. B. Bucher is in Saquehanna county, Pa., near the New York state line, buying apples.

Lizzie and Cyrus Dahner, Jr., of White Oak, J. R. Reifsnyder and George Eisenhart, near Rekmont, Lebanon county, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Conde, of Philadelphia, were in town from Saturday to Monday, stopping at the Hotel Sturgis. During their brief stay here they called on their numerous Lititz friends and they were welcomed on all sides. This was their first visit here since their marriage last June, prior to which Mrs. Conde was known as Marie Bomberger. They will soon go to housekeeping in the Quaker City.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Royer of Ephrata were the guests of A. K. Steinbock and wife last Sunday.

Harce E. Grosh, of Richmond, Va., son of S. E. Grosh of this place, who for the last several months has been in ill health, has decided to come north with his family for the winter.

At the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania German Society in Bethlehem, Dr. P. J. Rosbuck was elected a member. Frank R. Diefenbacher of Lancaster was made president.

Mr. Wilton A. Stark of Columbia, an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad company, visited his parents on Sunday.

J. F. Sturgis was at Fites' Eddy, on the Saquehanna, again this week fishing for bass.

Miss Lizzie Fasnacht accompanied her brother Rev. Henry Fasnacht to his station at Hazleton, Pa., to spend a week.

Mr. Daugherty of Philadelphia, agent for Bricker & Co's cigar factory, is in town.

Mr. Frederick King was in Emmaus, Lehigh county, several days of this week.

Edward Diehm and Monroe Kaufman rode to Lebanon on their bicycles last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ulrich, of Lancaster, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Brennan.

Record-ings. —Gorgeous foliage. —October is o' the wane. —Gloves are on hand generally. —Clergymen are busy tying nuptial knots. —One more week until the gunning season opens. —It is gratifying to know that the byemural market is booming. —Some girls play with a man's affections, and others work him. —To increase truth, roasted peanuts are served at some of the saloons. —Treason notices ready printed on muslin for sale at the RECOUP office. —The Lord likes a man who says what he thinks, but the people don't. —People who live in glass houses are liable to give their neighbors a pane. —Some people think the deadly cigarette isn't half as deadly as it ought to be. —The question of the day — to take your overcoat with you or leave it at home. —The bicycle girl doesn't care whether her bloomers bag at the knees or not. —All women are not dreams, although all dreams are supposed to go by contraries. —Under the name of skirt distenders ladies are again wearing bustles almost as big as ever. —Wine may improve with age, but the nose of the man who drinks wine doesn't seem to. —A good thing is appreciated and that's why the Record's advertising columns are so liberally patronized. —The printer needs that money you owe him and needs it right away now quick. If you don't owe us, don't eat this. —The Shippensburg News says "There were not too many drunks in town Saturday night for a local option town." That's the old song. —A $2.00 boot that will wear a year without repairs. Get them at D. L. Bowman's.

A GOSPEL WAGON.

J. W. Conner, the Evangelist, Appears Here with His Two Sons and Addresses the People in the Square.

J. W. Conner, the evangelist, with his two sons, a horse and wagon stopped here on Sunday afternoon and preached from the wagon by the side of the public fountain to a large gathering. While his remarks were eagerly listened to, the singing of the three took remarkably well, because their voices harmonized so beautifully that people could not get enough of it. The wagon is surrounded with gold-lettered short scriptural passages, while in larger letters on either side were the words "Gospel Wagon," and on the rear "J. W. Conner." A collection was lifted for their benefit and a liberal contribution greeted them. The same party were here last spring. They are now on their way to Lebanon, where they formerly lived, and where their team will be quartered for the winter while they go on with the good work in Philadelphia, where they now live. Mr. Conner was born in Lancaster. He spent some of his boyhood days in Lititz while two of his brothers worked here in Rauch's bakery. Mr. Conner says he traveled eighteen hundred miles in his wagon during the year and sang 25,000 gospel hymns in his travels during the year. He says he loves the work and wants to die serving the Lord in this way. While here they put up with J. F. Sturgis.

On Sunday evening Mr. Conner attended the Evangelical church, where he delivered an address of a most interesting character, and which seemed to make a deep impression among his many hearers.

Church Notes. The Dunkards will have their annual fall lovefeast at the Middle Creek meeting house next Tuesday and Wednesday, October 28 and 29. No bucksterning will be allowed in the vicinity of the meeting house.

On Saturday evening a series of evening services lasting one week will open in the Lititz German Baptist meeting house, conducted by Rev. Hiram Gibble, of White Oak.

Nervous Prostration. This malady affects more business and professional men than any other in the only category of diseases to which flesh is heir to. Blood poverty is often the first step towards it. In women it brings about all the diseases and suffering peculiar to women. Magic Blood and Nerve Tonic is a positive cure for all forms of nervous exhaustion and resultant affections. $1.00 per bottle. Sold at the Lititz Drug store.

FOODER FOR SALE. I HAVE FOR SALE A LOT OF CORN MEAL, which will sell at a reasonable price. Come early and take it out of the way. JOHN ZIGLER, Warfield.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. WHEREAS, IT IS CLAIMED THAT I have uttered and circulated statements to the effect that Mrs. John and Mrs. Noah Rudy stole from me, I now pronounce any and all such statements false and untrue in every respect. HENRY REDGAY, Lititz, Pa., Oct. 23, 1895.

REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE. A TWO-STORY FRAME COTTAGE, on East Orange street, in Lititz borough, is offered for sale at a reasonable price. The house is well built, and at the house was one of the stables. For further particulars apply to 153m ISRAEL G. ERB, Collector.

FIRE TAX NOTICE. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO THE members of the Northern Mutual Fire Insurance Company, residing in Lititz and vicinity, that an assessment has been made on all premium notes of one year's standing, and all others in proportion to time and loss, and that said assessment is due and payable to the undersigned before the First Day of November, 1895. ISRAEL G. ERB, Collector.

TO THE PUBLIC. THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD BE specially pleased to have the public in general, that he is well prepared to furnish in any quantity and at reasonable prices, such as will, desks, mortgaged, metal, books, etc., at short notice and at reasonable prices. A share of the business is solicited. The undersigned is first-class Fire Insurance and Building Association. A. B. REIDENBACH, Lititz, Pa.

PUBLIC SALE OF COWS. On FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1895, I will offer at public sale at the public house of Jacob Fry, at Akron, Pa., One Carload of Lancaster and Lebanon Co. Cows. Fresh and Shagbuns. Parties wanting cows would do well to attend this sale, as it is one of the best I offered this year. Some weigh from 1200 to 1500 pounds. Sale to commence at 1 o'clock P. M. 153m G. W. WOLF, Auctioneer.

THE LADIES' REMEDY. SUPERIOR TO ALL other emmenagogue pills in suppression (stoppage) of the flow of the menses, in irregularities, in pain, in leucorrhoea, in sterility, in nervousness, in headache, in indigestion, in general debility, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. It is a purely vegetable preparation, and is perfectly safe and reliable. Price $1 per bottle. Sold at all drug stores. U. S. Directions inside of each box. Can only be obtained from Dr. John Steffen, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., who is the sole proprietor and to whom all letters must be addressed.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st., Reading, Pa., cures positively all private and specific diseases. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system. He has cured in his reading 2000 persons in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system, in all the ailments of the female system.

DR. JOHN STEFFEN, No. 618 Walnut st

Now, who art thou, my darling maid?
The April's sister, 'tis she said,
Thou smilest so heavenly sweet,
And making me so heavenly true,
She dropped an armful of kisses
Right down about my feet.
Her lips were like the apple-blossom,
Her eyes like violets that grow
Beside the meadow stream.
O! hither comes the golden hair
To match the bright gold of her hair,
And all the air is sweet
Rich fragrant with her fragrant breath.
Now surely happy nature saith,
"This is the welcome, maiden May."
—M. V. G. Williams in Ladies' Home Journal.

Stevenson and the Haunted House.
The day before he started he spent with my wife and me, a day of stormy agitation, an April day of rainclouds and sunshine; for it was not in Louis to remain long in any mood. I seem to see him now, passing the room, a cigarette spinning in his wasted fingers. To the last we were trying to dissuade him from what seemed to us the maddest of enterprises. He was so ill that I did not like to leave him, and at night—it was midsummer weather
—we walked down into town together. We were by this time, I suppose, in a pretty hysterical state of mind, and as we went through Burkley square in mournful discussion of the future Louis suddenly proposed that we should visit the so-called "haunted house" which then occupied the newspapers.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Writer's Views of Our Progressive Town and What is Lacking.
EDWARD BROWN.
As children of Lititz we are all young and old proud of the reputation our fathers have earned for the old Moravian town, not only by their thrift and independence but also in large part by their culture and learning and the educational institutions they have established and made to flourish.

But a man who rests too long upon his reputation will soon find that he has nothing to rest upon. And so it is with a town. That we are progressive no one can deny. Our ideas on most subjects are liberal, well defined and up to date. We have our electric lights, our trolley road, a thoroughly equipped public schools, and our public fountain are unmistakable signs of progressive public spirit.

But it is not also true that many of our people gave but a grudging consent to at least some of these great improvements? We have our electric lights, our trolley road, a thoroughly
equipped public schools, and our public fountain are unmistakable signs of
progressive public spirit.

And there are other signs of a retarding spirit in our town. Our young men, like birds reared in an unfavorable locality, fly away to other places before they are more than half bred.

Our girls bloom into beautiful young womanhood, but while we think we are raising a crop of peaches they only ripen into crab-apples.

Our moneyed men are slow to put their capital into anything that will create a strong healthy growth of the town. Our societies are strong and well organized but their influence is not felt in the community as it should be. Our Y. M. C. A. is pure-emptiness and uninteresting. And there is not a good library, to which the public has access, in the whole town.

Keep our enterprising young men here by offering them some chance of success; put a thousand dollars a week into the pockets of our working people, through some prosperous industry; let our societies strengthen themselves by bettering the town in which they work; marry our young women to the young men who now stud their wives in other places; strengthen and encourage our Y. M. C. A. and similar organizations and found a public library and Lititz will enjoy a boom of prosperity a thousand times better than those created by wild cat schemes of real estate agents and fancy names for suburban trailer streets.

And now we wish to ask a question.
If our town has the culture and refinement, the high appreciation of advanced thought and liberal education which we claim for it and others concede us, why is it that Lititz does not have a series of first class entertainments during the winter months?

In a Berks county town an elec-tional program was cut short because a young lady recited "How Zachary sot the Hen" and her imitation laughter was thought scornful. If we should be put in the same class with that town we would be highly indignant. But we all remember that we appreciated the lecture of one of the most able speakers on the floor of the House of Representatives just about as much, or as little, as the Berks countians appreciated "Zachary in the Wilderness." And recently when we had a chance to see a wonderful exhibition, an exhibition which the Czar of Russia and the Emperor of Germany felt it a favor to see, and which even cultured Boston got excited over, the house was not worth twenty-five dollars.

The educational value of good entertainments we need not discuss. The question is how can we get first-class entertainments here and then attract good houses? We are hardly able to pay for such men as Russell Conwell, Henry Watterson, Judge Green, or Robert Burdette, but surely we can afford some good entertainments. The Moravian chapel is the only available place for such affairs. It is understood that unless the Y. M. C. A. takes hold it is almost impossible to secure it.
This is unfortunate. The Y. M. C. A. is not able to take any risks and no one else will. Will not some person or persons who can afford to make a little money and supply some entertainment for the town, at the same time take hold of the matter?

Evolutionary Degeneration.
The characteristic of what is called in human races morbid heredity, which is simply a degeneration, is an abnormal tendency to variation in the posterity, which becomes in consequence of physical, mental and moral faults, progressively capable of adapting itself. In the artificial races of domestic animals the result of degeneration is often reversion to a primitive type of the species with capacity to recover the old adaptations. The designation race has in this case been really given to variety, the hereditary qualities of which had not the fixity that characterizes a race. No reversions are observed in the natural races. In the human races in particular degeneration is not manifested, whatever some authors may have said about it, by reversion to ancestral forms, but rather by evolutionary disorders bringing on somatic deformities and functional perversions incompatible both with the adaptations now necessary and with ancestral adaptations.—Popular Science Monthly.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

A Powerful Argument.
"Judge, yer honor," said Tim
the Tramp, "I ain't guilty o' doin'
that job o' burglary. Do evideence
is agin me, but I kin prove a libel."
"Have you any witnesses?"
"Nobody but meself," was the re-
ply. "But I kin t'row de cold white
light of intellock ever de situation
in a way dat'll clear me in five minutes."
"Go ahead."
"Well, de testimony shows dat
whoever done de work got inder de
house by fies' cuttin his way wid an
ax froo de front door an den agin
froo de library door."
"Yes."
"Der's mo alibi, judge, yer hon-
or. Do I look like a man dat 'ud be
tempted by any sun ter chop dat
much wood?"—Washington Star.

LATEST DENTISTRY

is decayed and broken down Teeth restored to usefulness and beauty by our perfect Crown and Bridge System.

Gold Fillings and Bridge work a specialty. Teeth Extracted Positively without Pain.

Teeth Extracted.....	25c	Teeth Filled with Silver.....	50c
Teeth Extracted without pain.....	50c	Teeth Filled with Gold.....	$1.00 and up
Teeth Filled with Amalgam.....	50c	Sets of Teeth.....	$5.00
Teeth Filled with White Enamel.....	50c	Best Sets.....	$8.00

No better made at any price. Satisfaction guaranteed. Special attention given to the Weak and Nervous and also to Children's Teeth. Lady in attendance.

Dr. M. A. BECKER, Manager,
No. 6 EAST ORANGE STREET, LANCASTER, PA.

A CIRCUS

The proprietors of a circus use a large number of adjectives and other "Hifalutin" words and Tides in their advertisements in order to impress the public.

When people want Spectacles they go where they get the best result at reasonable prices, which is at

170 N. Queen St., Lancaster,
W. W. APPEL,
Optician.

A Watch as Large as a Dinner Plate

Would be inconvenient to carry but would be large enough in the various parts for you to see without a magnifying glass, and when you had paid a fair price for repairs you could examine and determine for yourself if the work had been skillfully done.

How much watch-work is buried in the smallness of the parts of the average watch only the skilled watchmaker knows.

Do not make the mistake the one workman is as good as another; and when one charges $2.50 and the other $1.50 for a certain amount of work that the only difference is in the price. In watchmaking, as in other professions, the same rule applies, viz: Cheap prices, cheap work.

To do good work one must have not only good tools but skill to use them. We have both, and our motto will bear us out in the statement that when we undertake to do work it is done right. We set work from all over the country. We do a great deal of watch and railroad work, and we are proud to have our WATCH WORK in perfect confidence that it will be properly done. Give us a trial.

G. H. WERNITZ, Agt., WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER,
116 N. QUEEN STREET, LANCASTER, PA.

A. R. BOMBERGER,

LITITZ.

HARDWARE-

PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, AGATE WARE, STOVES, HEATERS, RANGES, OIL HEATERS, WHIPS, HOUSEFURNISHING GOODS
REFRIGERATORS, ICE CREAM FREEZERS, ETC.

NEW YORK STORE.

Watt & Shand,

Extend you a cordial invitation to visit their elegant

CLOAK ROOM

and see the very latest things in

Ladies' Coats, Capes

—AND—FUR GARMENTS.

The Materials are the best of their kind.

Cheviots, Diagonal, Boucles.

BOX COAT

Not too long, with full Melon Sleeves, ripple back and large buttons.
We want to call your attention especially to our

Five-Dollar Garments.

Bought early in the season, they could not now be had from the maker at this price in any quantity.

No. 1 is a Beaver Jacket,
27 inches long, ripple back, double breasted, extra large sleeves, and up to date in every detail.
No. 2 is an extra fine quality Cheviot Jacket, correct style, pearl buttons, etc.
No. 3 is a double Beaver Cape, both capes lined with quilted satin—a wonderful garment.
A very handsome line of elegant Boucle Jackets, cut and trimmed in the latest styles, at $7.50, $10 to $25 a piece.
Ladies' Fur Capes
In every desirable fur, full length and widest sweep, from $5 to $50 a piece.
Misses' and Children's Coats.
An immense assortment, in all sizes, at popular prices.

Watt & Shand,

6, 8 and 10 East King Street,
LANCASTER, PA.

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE!

In the Next Thirty Days I will sell at least

$5,000 WORTH —OF—FURNITURE

REGARDLESS OF THE COST

to make room for Fall Stock, consisting of Parlor Suits, Bedroom Suits, Lounges, Couches, Fancy Extension Tables, Sideboards, Rockers, Chairs, Mirrors, Refrigerators, Etc.

Come at once and secure bargains

Aaron Hertzler,

45 North Queen Street,
LANCASTER, PA.
Factory: 32 and 33 North Queen Street.

HARDWARE

SHOVELS, RAKES, HOES, PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, FLY WIRE, SCREENS, DOORS, OIL CLOTH, GASOLINE STOVES, FISH TACKLE, BUILDING and FARMING SUPPLIES.

—AT—MICHAEL & KREIDER'S, (Opposite Springs Hotel).

Watt & Shand,

6, 8 and 10 East King Street,
LANCASTER, PA.

RIP-ANS

The modern standard Family Medicine: Cures the common every-day ills of humanity.

ONE GIVES RELIEF

Do you want Paper?

I take pleasure in informing the public that I have constantly on hand a complete line of desirable patterns in WALL PAPERS in Low and High Grades, with Borders suitable for all designs, which I am positively Selling Lower than can be Bought in the City, because I do not have the expensive stores generally have in paying high rents, etc.

Have Paper as Low as 3-1-2 Cts.

Call and see what I have and be convinced that you are getting bargain prices. Also neatly done at short notice, in which branch I have had years of experience.

PAPER HANGING

JAS. SESSEMAN, SPRUCE ST. PA.

DR. LOBB'S BOOK FREE

TO THE OWNERS OF EMBROS OF YOUTH, LOST VIGOR, AND DEBILITY OF MEN AND WOMEN. 28 pages, fully bound, sent free to all who send for it. It is a most interesting and positive, quick cure for all ailments. No matter how long standing, it will positively cure you. Write or call.

DR. LOBB 329 N. 15th St., Phila. Pa.
39 years' continuous practice.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.
Solely for the relief of the Female Sex.
Brought to the attention of the public by the late Dr. J. C. Pennington, of Philadelphia, Pa., who used them for many years, and who was the first to give them the name of Pennyroyal Pills.
They are the only pills that will cure all the ailments of the Female Sex, such as Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Stomachic, Indigestion, Constipation, and all the ailments of the Female Sex, and several new and unique styles at equally low rates. We shall endeavor to merit your patronage.

DR. LOBB'S BOOK FREE

TO THE OWNERS OF EMBROS OF YOUTH, LOST VIGOR, AND DEBILITY OF MEN AND WOMEN. 28 pages, fully bound, sent free to all who send for it. It is a most interesting and positive, quick cure for all ailments. No matter how long standing, it will positively cure you. Write or call.

DR. LOBB 329 N. 15th St., Phila. Pa.
39 years' continuous practice.

Raisers of Wool never received so little for Wool as now.

If the raw material is so low in price isn't it fair that Clothing ought to be correspondingly low in price. Dealers, middlemen and the wholesaler are interested in keeping high prices. Your best interests are served by coming direct to our store. We manufacture all the goods we sell expressly for the wearer. Our aim is to sell you at lowest possible prices thereby increasing our business another Million Dollars.

You know just as well as we do—the larger the business the less the rate of expense.

You needn't wonder that we sell Men's All Wool Suits $5 and $6.75. You'll get an excellent Winter Overcoat, All Wool, $5. For $10.00, $12.00 and $15.00 First Class Best Suits. Boys—if he is big, $5.00; Small, $2.50 and on up.

Keep before you it won't cost anything to verify our statements. We pay your Railroad Fare on ordinary purchase.

WANAMAKER & BROWN

SIXTH AND MARKET
PHILADELPHIA

STOVES!

at the very Lowest Prices.
ALL STOVE REPAIRS.
New Patterns of FLOOR OILCLOTH.

Large assortment of AGATEWARE...
J. L. HUBER,
Miksch's Old Stand, Main Street, Lititz

We will Cheerfully Accept

Any chance to prove the excellence of our Clothing, and are confident of our ability to give satisfaction.

Our line of first-class Suits and Overcoats, at the lowest prices possible, makes our store popular, and those who wear our clothes are our best advertisers.

Leinbach and Bro.,

8th and Penn Streets,
READING, PA.

Never misrepresent nor misquote their goods, and even were the opportunity to present itself to do so, would emphatically inform you that

We Would Respectfully Decline.

FOR THE FALL SEASON.
Come and see the Eclipse Duplex Furnace.

Buy no other until you have seen this. It is the very BEST FURNACE IN THE WORLD, and fully its equal. The following persons in Lititz have just had them put in and more will soon follow: Dr. M. J. Steiner, J. M. Steinhilber and John Bollinger.

ALSO A NEW AND FINE LOT OF

FLOOR OIL CLOTH.

All kinds of Housefurnishing Goods, Tinware, and I still continue to put up STEAM HEATING WORK, GAS FITTING, ROOFING and SPOUTING, &c.

Wm. M. Weitzel's Store,

MAIN ST., LITITZ.

TINSMITHING, PLUMBING, &c.

DO YOU NEED ANYTHING IN MY LINE? I do all kinds of Steam Fitting and Plumbing, no matter where or how you want it.
Put up WASHSTANDS, BATH TUBS, HYDRAULIC and WATER CLOSETS.
I call and put on the HEAVY HOT AIR FURNACE, of which several are already in use in Lititz, which I can show to satisfaction.
Roofing, Spouting and all other kinds of Tinwork at short notice.

A. M. Kreider,

8m-ly, Broad Street, Lititz.

PHOTOGRAPHS. A NEW DEPARTMENT.
FOR THE ACCOMMODATION OF OUR customers who have no use for a dozen pictures we have decided to make half dozen lots as follows:
DIAMONDS, 75c.
SMALL CARDS, 25c.
and several new and unique styles at equally low rates. We shall endeavor to merit your patronage.

DR. LOBB'S BOOK FREE

TO THE OWNERS OF EMBROS OF YOUTH, LOST VIGOR, AND DEBILITY OF MEN AND WOMEN. 28 pages, fully bound, sent free to all who send for it. It is a most interesting and positive, quick cure for all ailments. No matter how long standing, it will positively cure you. Write or call.

DR. LOBB 329 N. 15th St., Phila. Pa.
39 years' continuous practice.

JOHN G. ZOOK,

Lititz, Pa.

AGENT.

CRESCENT BICYCLES.

$75 (No. 1, for MEN, 28 in. Wheels, 21 lbs.)
(No. 4, for LADIES, 26 in. Wheels, 21 lbs.)
$50 (No. 2, for YOUTH, 26 in. Wheels, 21 lbs.)
(No. 3, for MEN, 26 in. Wheels, 21 lbs.)
$40 (No. 5, for BOYS, 24 in. Wheels, 21 lbs.)
(No. 6, for GIRLS, 24 in. Wheels, 21 lbs.)

For experienced riders desiring a reliable light weight Bicycle, we recommend our CRESCENT SCORCHER, 20 lbs. 25 in. Wheels. PRICE $30.

Illustrated Catalogue Free on Application.

WESTERN WHEEL WORKS, NEW YORK, CHICAGO.

THOSE BEAUTIES

ARRIVED AT LAST.

Owing to a strike in the Factory which makes those Beautiful Narrow Toe (Lace and Button) Ladies' $3.00 Shoes, I was unable to get them until to day, when I received a large quantity of both kinds.

Also received those $3.00 Goodyear Welt, Patent Tip, Opera Toe Ladies' Shoes, as well as many other New Styles.

I trust those customers who have been waiting on those $3.00 Shoes will call before the sizes are broken again.

CHAS. H. FREY,

The Leader of Low Prices in Boots and Shoes.
3 and 5 East King Street, Lancaster.

Wanted

ENERGETIC MEN to solicit orders for our hardy and reliable CHASE NURSERY stock, or commission to sell agents. Permanent employment. The business is well established. Address: CHASE NURSERY, 1100 So. Fifth St., Philadelphia.

Wanted

BY THE CHASE NURSERY

Wanted

ENERGETIC MEN to solicit orders for our hardy and reliable CHASE NURSERY stock, or commission to sell agents. Permanent employment. The business is well established. Address: CHASE NURSERY, 1100 So. Fifth St., Philadelphia.

Wanted

BY THE CHASE NURSERY

Wanted

ENERGETIC MEN to solicit orders for our hardy and reliable CHASE NURSERY stock, or commission to sell agents. Permanent employment. The business is well established. Address: CHASE NURSERY, 1100 So. Fifth St., Philadelphia.

Wanted

BY THE CHASE NURSERY